Big Egg Contest Now On!

Everyone, including ourselves, has been so busy this spring that up to date we had neglected to start our annual big egg contest — but on Tuesday morning of this week Henry Jones opened it for us by bringing in the first egg — and naturally it was fair-sized.

So bring in those big eggs — we are offering the customary subscriptions to the winners.

Want to buy this soldier a ticket home?

His mother told me what a good boy he was, when she put him aboard the North Coast Limited, and I promised we would take good care of him. Larry, his name was.

Eight years old. He was carrying a fine big lunch box, crammed with sandwiches and cookies and oranges and everything.

Larry sat there pretty wide-eyed and quiet the first hour or so . . . he looked kind of small in that great big seat, and he would just sneak a look at people going by, out of the corner of his eye.

After awhile, though, he began to talk a little. I was joshing him about buying a ticket home . . . told him if his Mom bought the ticket for this trip, maybe he ought to pay the fare going home.

"Well, I'm not going home right away," he said, very businesslike. "I'm going to live with Grandma until my Daddy comes back from the Army. Mom's going to help build airplanes, now. I put most of my stuff away in the basement, at home. But I'm going to have my bike at Grandma's. And Sergeant. He's my dog. I'm going to earn a whole dollar a week now, if I take care of my clothes and take two baths every week. I'm going to buy mostly war stamps, too . . . because Mom says that's the best way to buy my ticket home!"

I've been thinking . . . it's going to take billions and billions of dollars worth of War Bonds to buy Larry's ticket home. Because until we provide enough planes, and tanks, and rifles, and ships, and G. I. shoes, to bring Larry's dad back victorious, this little soldier can't go home, either.

So when my solicitor calls to sign me up for extra War Bonds for the Fifth War Loan, I think I'll just give him a pleasant surprise. I sure want Larry to get his ticket home . . . as soon as possible!

"The Sky's The Limit"
"The Sky's The Limit" is a new type of comedy, filled with dancing, action, love and "complications." In it Fred Astaire plays the part of one of the famous "Flying Tigers," and when home on leave gets into more "trouble" than most people realize exists. Joan Leslie as the girl, and Robert Benchley as the "after dinner speaker" bring sparkle to the action. It's a picture the whole family can enjoy.
Selected shorts will round out the evening's entertainment at the local theatre.

GOLDEN RULE

Mr. and Mrs. Will Jennings, Mrs. Abner Cowger and children were Lewiston visitors the first of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nead of Colton, Oregon, visited at the Roy Martin home the past week.
Oscar Lawrence and son Albert were Lewiston visitors Wednesday.
Daisy and Ralph Stage, Little Kay Jones of Portland and Vlah Dodge of Lewiston were visiting at the Fred Stage home the past week.
We are satisfied our pet deer has a tiny faun, and are anxiously waiting to see if she will bring it out from its hiding place to show it — sooner or later.

Russell Betts accompanied Henry Bleck to Lewiston Saturday and Sunday.
Carl Finke took a load of cattle to Lewiston for Daisy Stage Saturday.

Miss Mabel Cowger, who spent the past week at her home here, has returned to Orofino.
Mrs. Roy Martin and children spent Sunday in Lewiston with her daughter, Mrs. Dewey McAllister and family.

Homer Hammer of Portland is visiting friends here for a few days.
Sunday visitors at the Glen Betts home were Wm. McClelland, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Neumann, Mrs. Carl Finke and daughters and Homer Hammer.

One Fourth... OF YOUR ELECTRIC DOLLAR GOES FOR TAXES!

Twenty-five cents out of every dollar you paid our company for good electric service in 1943 went for taxes. Year after year, the proportion grows larger. For 1943, our company's total tax bill was $2,647,000 — an increase of 25% over our 1940 taxes. Since the war began, other costs, too, of providing your electric service have gone up, but in spite of these increases, your electric rates are still as low as ever.

Like other electric companies over the nation, we are continuing to meet wartime demands for electricity, and supply all essential civilian needs as well.

REMEMBER OUR ANNUAL MEETING — JUNE 24TH

You are urged to mark on your calendar and reserve for our annual meeting, Saturday, 24th. Bring the family — your picnic basket, and plan to spend the entire day. There are both morning and afternoon meetings, and we expect to have speakers present who will bring you messages of real interest.

Remember — this is your company, and the more interest you take the better organization we can have.

The Name Is Important

Perhaps you've heard it said: "Names are not important." Perhaps that's true in some instances, but not when buying dairy products. Always ask for "Potlatch Chief" Brand Butter, Buttermilk, Milk, Ice Cream and Cream.

Wife: "Did you see those soldiers stare at that pretty girl as she boarded the bus?"
 Hubby: "What soldiers?"

The stingy farmer was scoring the hired man for carrying a lighted lantern to call on his best girl.

"The idea," he exclaimed. "When I was courtin' I carried no lantern; I went in the dark."

"Yes," said the hired man, sadly, "and look what you got!"

Prof.: "What is conscience?"
 Bright Student: "Conscience is the thing that hurts when everything else feels so good!"

Judge: "And what are your grounds for divorce, madam?"
 Madam: "Well, I'm getting just a little suspicious that there's something wrong. Every time I sit on my husband's lap he starts dictating a letter!"

Try "Potlatch Chief" Butter!

MORE ABOUT ARMED FORCES

regularly now for two years straight, and really can't express how much I have enjoyed getting it. I see by the letters the boys write that they are scattered all over the world. I haven't been lucky enough to run onto anyone that I know yet — but still have hopes.

I am now in Italy and have a new A. P. O. number.

I hope I can drop in next year at this time and thank you for the paper in person, as the advance seems to be going better and better over here — as I suppose you have read in the papers — so every bit helps out and the quicker we will all get home.

Thanks again for the paper.
 Sincerely
 Lloyd Nye

Cpl. Don Fry, sent a group picture of himself and some of his buddies to his mother recently. The picture was taken "Somewhere in the South Pacific." The group was in rather large and deep. The girls in grass skirts (as pictured by Hollywood) were conspicuous by their absence! Anyway, it was a dandy picture, and Mrs. Fry had enlargements made.

San Francisco, Calif.
 June 5, 1944

Dear McCrearys:
 I wish to notify you of my change of address, as I'd hate to lose track of the paper. I'm sure I'd be almost lost without reading it once a week and finding out who is home, who has joined the armed forces — and who has gone to Lewiston!

As you may have read in the paper, our ship held "open house" to the public in San Francisco, Sunday and Monday, June 4 and 5. I wish someone from home could have seen it, because it's really very nice; in fact, it has all the comforts of home provided for us.

Who knows, I may be seeing some of the fellows from home one of these days — in one of those ports. Here is my new address, and I shall be looking for the paper.

Sincerely,
 Lt. Ethel M. Fraser, A. N. C.
 Ed's Note: Lieut. Fraser is now serving on an American Hospital Ship.

An official dispatch from the North African "Medical Center" states that 2nd Lt. Norma H. Olson, a sister of L. O. Olson of Kendrick, is one of the nurses at that huge 1,750-bed institution.

Official Dispatch, Harlingen Army Air Field, Texas — Another large class of aerial gunners to guard Army Air Force bombers was graduated this week from the AAF Training Command aerial gunnery school here and among the qualified "sharpshooters of the sky" was Glen F. Newman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Newman of Cameron.

At brief graduation exercises held here he received a pair of gunner's wings as well as a promotion in grade. Unless retained at Harlingen as an instructor, he will join an aerial combat team.

Besides learning to fire every type weapon from camera guns to the deadly twin caliber .50 Brownings, he studied turret manipulation, aircraft recognition and was required to tear down and assemble weapons while blindfolded. He climaxed the course by firing on towed target from Liberator bombers under simulated combat conditions.

Pfc. Clarence Wilson, who has spent the past 20 days at his home on Cedar creek, left Saturday to report for duty again at Fresno, Calif. Clarence is already a veteran of some 27 months of overseas service, so has no idea as to the assignment he may draw.

Have You Bought That Bond? If you have not yet bought your war bond, do so at once. The money is badly needed!

Built to take a BEATING

Take no chances on those hard-to-replace track roller bearings.

Use a lubricant that's especially compounded to ease their crushing burdens.

Free flowing RPM Tractor Roller Lubricant spreads over every inch of bearing surface, forms a resilient cushion against shocks. It stays put longer under off-center pressures of side hill work — resists displacement under the heaviest loads. RPM Tractor Roller Lubricant seals bearings against dust and mud.
