Stores Closed Memorial Day

The only places of business open Memorial Day were the two garages, and even they observed Sunday hours.

Most visited local cemeteries, and quite a number from out of town came to put flowers on the graves of loved ones.

Mother-Daughter Banquet

Members of the G. S. C. S. under the direction of their leader, Mrs. Clarence Johnston, honored their mothers with a banquet Friday evening in the Methodist church basement.

Dinner was served at 6:30, after which a program was enjoyed.

Gay Deobald, president of the class, introduced the speakers of the evening, the first being Mrs. Raleigh Albright of Arrow, who spoke on Mother-Daughter relationships; and Miss Hickman of the Lapwal Mission whose theme was "Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow."

Musical selections were offered by Mrs. D. A. Christensen, who sang a solo, and Marilyn Schupfer, who played a violin solo. Both were accompanied by Mrs. Schupfer.

The basement and the tables were lovely with spring flowers, and the girls and Mrs. Johnston are to be congratulated for the delightful evening. An excellent crowd was in attendance, there being about 70 plates served.

Visited By Black Bear

Monday afternoon, while working in his garden, August Brammer saw what he thought was one of the neighbors black dogs in the road below him.

Being in a friendly mood and desiring an opportunity to "rest his weary back," August whistled and called to the dog. But he was very much surprised when the "dog" reared up and took a look at him—and he at it—to discover that it was a large black bear.

Not the least perturbed by the meeting the bear ambled off across the hill and through the Cameron cemetery, showing a complete disregard of fences and cemetery lots.

Children of the neighborhood were hurriedly assembled, but in a car and driven over the hill to give them an opportunity to view August's big black "dog."

August says that his only regret is that it is still closed season on bear. That meat would have helped mightily in the present "red points" situation.

Kendrick Trims Eagles, 15-5

Jittery on the field and outfit at the plate, the Lewiston Eagles dropped their opening game of the season to the Kendrick town team, 15-5, Sunday on the Juliaetta diamond, the Kendrick grounds being too wet to permit play.

Kendrick touched up Candler and Art White, Lewiston hurlers, for 11 hits, while A. O. Kanikkeberg, elder of the renowned athletic family, was holding the Eagles to five scattered bingles. Kanikkeberg also struck out 16 of the opposing team. White relieved Candler for Lewiston after the third inning.

The Eagles will play a return game with Kendrick at the Lewiston field next Sunday at 2:30, Perry Peterson, Eagles club manager announced.

The batteries Sunday were: Eagles—Candler, White and Alvin Baer; Kendrick, A. Kanikkeberg and K. Powell.

W. S. C. S. Postponed

Ants Visit Town

Monday evening Kendrick was visited by swarms of large black ants, about five-eighths of an inch in length.

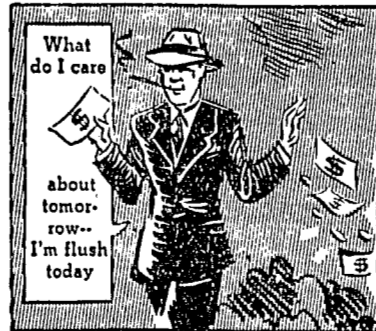

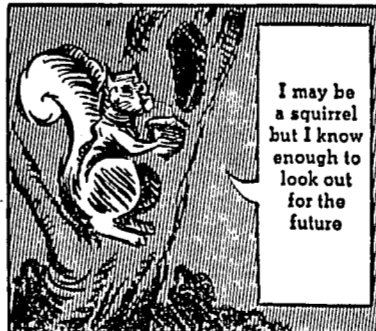

Some of these pests had wings, and some were walking. Those "on foot" had evidently lost their wings, as they do after a time.

Home owners were busy swatting and spraying the pests for a couple of days.

MEMORIAL DAY 1945

"It is for us the living . . . to be dedicated . . . to the unfinished work which those who fought . . . have thus far so nobly advanced. It is for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us."
 —Abraham Lincoln.

These words, spoken at Gettysburg, never before held as much meaning as they do on Memorial day, 1945.

But the homage on this day paid to American dead, to the people who each in his own measure have contributed to our nation's greatness, must be more than words, ceremonies, and parades. In all humbleness of spirit there must be re-dedication to the task of doing those things necessary to end a great strife.

The cause of Victory and Freedom deserves, and must have, the best efforts of every American!

Wherever this banner flies, freedom's cause is protected.

 This coming week-end the offering at the local theatre will be John Wayne and Ella Raines in "Tall In The Saddle," from the Saturday Evening Post story of the same name.  In addition the usual news and cartoon will also be shown.

More Gasoline For Civilians

Victory in Europe has made possible an increased supply of gasoline for civilian motorists. The value of "A" coupons will be increased from four to six gallons on June 22, when coupon A-16 becomes valid. "B" card ceilings will be raised to 650 miles per month uniformly over the country on June 11. The increase in the "B" ceiling will not mean more gasoline for all "B" users, however. Both "B" and "C" rations are based on the individual needs of the car owner. A person who needs only 200 miles a month for home-to-work driving, for example, will continue to receive a "B" ration of 200 miles. But a person who uses his car in his business and who needs more gasoline than he is now receiving to carry on his business will be able to get additional gas up to a maximum of 650 miles a month.

Chance For Young Men

From Congress Compton I. White, Washington, D. C., comes the following notice, which should be of real interest to all young men from this area:

"A competitive examination of candidates for consideration for appointment to the U. S. Naval and Military Academies will be given by the Civil Service Commission July 28th, 1945. There is a vacancy at each academy for 1946 for the first congressional district of Idaho. Interested candidates should make application to me immediately so arrangements may be made for them to take the examination at some point in Idaho. Special arrangements are made to take care of the boys who may be in the service and therefore out of the district."

There will be a special program on Methodist Student Day (formerly known as Children's Day) June 10. Everyone in the community is invited to attend.

New Bridge That "Floats"

SEAGOING HOSPITALS BRING BACK WOUNDED

American service men wounded in the European theatre will be returning home at the fastest possible rate within the next three months, with army hospital ships transporting a large percentage of them, the OWI says in a report on the army and navy programs for bringing the wounded home by sea.

Twenty army hospital ships are now operating in the Atlantic, and 18 of these will be busy in plying back and forth between the home base at Charleston, S. C., port of embarkation, and several European ports. The size of the ships ranges from that of the Milne, which can carry nearly 1,000 patients per trip, and the Clem and Hinds, each of which has a capacity of less than 300 patients. In addition to these 20 ships, there are 13 others transporting the wounded in various parts of the world. These include two army hospital ships operating out of Los Angeles; three navy hospital ships operated for the army in the Pacific, and eight navy hospital ships, all busy in the Pacific theatres. Several army ships now operating in the Atlantic will soon be transferred to the Pacific. Four new army hospital ships are to be commissioned before mid-summer, and three more navy hospital ships are to be put in operation in the next few weeks. It is anticipated that all will be assigned to service in the Pacific.

The new navy hospital ships, including three which were recently commissioned, are air-conditioned throughout. Medical officials state that the air-conditioning not only provides greater comfort for the service men, but that incidence of fungal infections, prickly heat and other ills typical of the tropics will be minimized.

The ships are provided with the latest medical equipment such as is found in standard shore hospitals. The nurse and doctor staffs are supplemented by a large group of enlisted medical personnel. The mechanical operation of the army ships is in the hands of merchant seamen, but enlisted navy personnel is used on the navy vessels. The medical complements of the navy ships operated for the army is furnished by the army medical corps to the army transportation corps.

Patients returning home are classified as litter, ambulant and mental cases. The ships have special facilities for the mental patients, most of whom are suffering from what is known as "combat" fatigue and will be restored to full health following sufficient rest in the states.

The programs of entertainment on board the hospital ships are varied and full. Orchestras and choral groups are organized on most of the voyages home; motion pictures are shown daily and games of many types are arranged. Each army ship publishes a newspaper, with the patients providing a part of the editorial staff.

Children Need Hot Lunches

Plans for community canning project, to insure an ample supply of fruits and vegetables for school lunch programs in Idaho's schools should be made immediately. Mrs. Jane Gorsuch DeBuse, nutrition consultant for the Idaho Department of Public Health, said today.

"Only about 20 per cent of all school children in our state have the opportunity to partake of hot lunches," she said, "and parent-teachers units and similar civic organizations should take it upon themselves to see that canning projects for school use are placed in operation in all of the state's 44 counties."

"Every school child needs certain essential kinds and amounts of substantial food each day for continued growth and good health. A hot school lunch program has many advantages, and the food eaten by children must be sufficient both in quantity and quality to keep the child alert and energetic until supertime."

"It has clearly demonstrated that children attend school more regularly, have greater endurance, show less fatigue, require less discipline, are more attentive, and learn more quickly and easily when good nourishing lunch has been eaten," Mrs. DeBuse declared.

"In addition, a hot lunch offers an opportunity for a greater and steadier rate of growth and builds up more resistance to infection and disease, as well as improving food habits."

"It is our plan that eventually every school child in Idaho will be offered a good lunch daily, and one

REMEMBER FOLKS:

It may be 221 days until Christmas, but it is only 25 days until the Creamery's annual meeting is being held. It will be a "big" day for everyone, so plan to be present.

The business meeting will commence in the morning around 10:00 o'clock as usual, and will adjourn at 12:00 for a picnic in the park. Further business will be taken up in the afternoon.

We'll be seeing you June 23rd!

And Remember:

The warmer the weather gets the greater care must be taken of cream and eggs. A cool, clean place, with the temperature below 50 degrees if possible, is the best. And the warmer the weather the oftener these products should reach us. If you can't come in personally, send them in with your neighbors when they come to town.

The Present "Tight" SUGAR and MEAT Situation Requires Careful Meal Planning

LET US SUGGEST —

Use syrups, of which we have a good supply and selection, or honey, in the place of that precious sugar for home baking or pastry making. There are many good recipes for pastries available that use sugar substitutes. Use them and save the sugar for the canning of berries and fruit.

For table use we have a good selection of jams and jellies. Their use will also help stretch that sugar!

YES — FRANKLY the meat situation is desperate, and gives no promise on an immediate improvement. However, we will do our best to supply you! We will also do our best to obtain fresh fish, as the market may afford.

We also pledge ourselves to do our level best to equitably distribute such supplies of meat and fish as we may obtain.

Bring that grocery list here. Quality groceries at reasonable prices!
