Painting Store Front

The front of the McCoy Confectionery is receiving a coat of paint at the hands of Jack Kuykendall.
A cream color is being used, and it presents a clean, neat appearance.
Before the painting it was decided to remove the old paint, and lye and paint remover were used. On investigation it was discovered that 10 distinct colors (or color-layers) were on the front door.

Suffers Broken Leg

Mrs. A. J. Sheneman received word Sunday that Mrs. C. A. Biddison, formerly of Kendrick, but now of Kennewick, fell June 13, while in a store, and suffered a fractured leg, the bones being broken just above the knee.

She was taken to a Pasco hospital, where a traction splint was applied, and later a cast. She will have to wear the cast for some six to eight weeks.

Goodbye and Thank You
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Noble and Patty, through the columns of the Gazette, wish to say goodbye to the friends we did not get to see before leaving Kendrick. We also wish to thank our customers for the loyal support we enjoyed in our business. We have purchased an apple or-chard near Oroville, Wash., and cordially invite any who are interested in a fishing trip, a swim, or a nice red apple to visit us in our new home. — Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Noble and Patty. 25-1
