Swimming Pool Donations

Following the renewed plea of the Kendrick Commercial Club for donors to the Living War Memorial Swimming Pool Fund, the following responded: Anonymous (Cameron) $25.00, Herman Silliflow 10.00, Eugene Elliott (Lewiston) 10.00, H. E. Lien 10.00, Frank Wilken 10.00. Total $56.00. Remember: There is nothing secret in any way about this drive for funds or the one purpose for which such money may be used. The Kendrick Commercial Club again extends its invitation to any other local organization or organizations to join with it in this drive for a worthy cause. Have you given?

INTERESTING NEWS NOTES FROM KENDRICK SCHOOLS

The following second graders had a perfect grade in spelling the past week: Jim Armitage, Kenneth Brocke, Howard Holt, Carol Ann Hudson, Jeanette Shreffler, Dorothy Stevens and Sheila Westendahl. The first and second grade room have a new set of pre-primer books and a set of primer books. The primary room students invited their mothers and younger brothers and sisters to a Halloween party last Wednesday. The room was suitably decorated for the occasion, and refreshments were served. A Halloween party was given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Jones for the fifth and sixth graders and their mothers. The room was decorated for the occasion and a short program given. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jones. The seventh and eighth grade boys played the high school subs Wednesday afternoon. The seventh and eighth graders are planning a "Sadie Hawkins Day Party" tonight (Thursday). High School News The Junior class entertained the school with two negro skits, "Cross Fire" and "At the Hobgoblin Hotel" Tuesday of last week. "Bub" Burns, brother of the famous Bob Burns of Van Buren, Arkansas, was here Wednesday of last week as an Assembly program artist. He entertained with songs and stories of his Uncle Slugg and Grandpa Snazzy. The Kendrick Public School Carnival, held Friday evening of last week proved to be a huge success. Gross receipts for the night were $1,033.40 with a net profit to the school of $654.42. Honors in the Queen contest went to Wilma Benschoter, who was crowned by Buck Langdon, president of the student body. A spirited contest took place, with Judith White as chief contender. The Queen, attended by the other contestants as princesses, was presented with a gift, a snowy white, large plush doll. The Students Activities calendar has been tentatively set up for the remainder of the school year. Nov. 9, end of the first 9-week period; Nov. 19, Sophomore assembly program; Nov. 22-23, Thanksgiving vacation; Nov. 28, all-school play, "Daddy Long Legs"; Dec. 2, Freshman assembly program; Dec. 19, Christmas program; Dec. 24-Jan. 1, Christmas vacation; Jan. 2, school resumes; Jan. 18, end of semester; Feb. 11-15, sub-district tournament; Feb. 20, Henri "Black Light" assembly program; Feb. 25-March 1, district tournament; March 8, Senior ball; March 22, end of 9-week period; March 27, all school play; April 12, Junior Senior banquet; April 26, Junior Prom; May 19, Baccalaureate; May 22, Commencement; May 24, end of school term. — Although the above dates have been set, this does not mean that they cannot be changed if absolutely necessary, but it does give other organizations in the community a chance to arrange their programs without conflicting with the public school events. — Robt. Bakken, supt. of schools.

Halloween Mild Enough

Kendrick's Halloween night passed by almost uneventfully, for the most part the youngsters contented themselves with "trick or treat" and the usual soaping of windows, upsetting of outdoor woodpiles, etc. Of course a few trash barrels were moved, and a grain separator set up in the main intersection, etc. Only two real acts of vandalism occurred. In one someone poured concrete into the public toilet in the Perryman Hotel, an act causing some damage and expense of repair. In the other, someone discharged what would seem to be a shotgun loaded with tallow at the Frank G. Harris porch. The load struck a heavy crossbar on the screen door, leaving a dent almost a half-inch in depth, and scattering tallow over the porch. Had the load not struck the bar it undoubtedly would have penetrated the door panel and gone into the living room, where someone might easily have been injured. Mr. Harris says he believes the shot was aimed at the family dog, which was sitting on the porch.

Has Narrow Escape

"Perky" Powell, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Powell, had a narrow escape from serious injury or possible death Monday, when he fell from the back seat of the family car. Mrs. Powell, driving, was making an intersection turn on Main street, when he fell from an open rear door of the car, having evidently leaned against the door handle. He suffered a severe bump on his forehead, and plenty of deep scratches, but no serious injuries.

NEWS FROM LOCAL MEN IN THE ARMED FORCES

Hope For Lt. Davidson Gone In a letter dated October 30, 1945, Mr. and Mrs. George Davidson, formerly of Kendrick, but now residing at Moscow, have received a little more information regarding their son, Lt. Edgar A. Davidson, in which no hope for his ever being found alive is held. Excerpts from the letter follow: The records show that Edgar A. Davidson, 19081842, was enlisted 27 March 1942, at Los Angeles, Calif., for the Air Corps, and was sent to Air Corps Replacement training center, Santa Ana, Calif., 24 June 1942. He was commissioned as second lieutenant 10 March 1943, and reported for active duty 19 March 1943. He left the United States for service overseas 22 June 1943 and arrived in Da Kair, North Africa, 2 July 1943. Lt. Davidson was reported missing in action 17 February 1944, when the aircraft on which he was a crew member failed to return from a combat mission to Campoleone, Italy, and his death is presumed to have occurred 2 May 1945, pursuant to the provision of Section 5, Public Law 490, 77th Congress, as amended. The records further show that he was attached to the Navy Air Corps, and served at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Florida, from 20 March to 15 May 1943; Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Florida, from 15 May to 5 June 1943, and Air-Sea Rescue Squadron, Natoussa, from 5 June to 13 August 1943. Another letter enclosed with the official notification bears this information: All available records and reports concerning the absence of your son have been carefully investigated and are deemed to warrant a subsequent review of his case. Information in the hands of the War Department indicates that your son was a crew member of a B-17 (Flying Fortress) bomber on a bombing mission to Campoleone, Italy. His plane was hit by flak and went into a dive and crashed near the target. The sympathy of this entire community, where Edgar grew to young manhood, goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Davidson.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Wilson of Cedar Creek have received, from the War Department, a copy of the Citation awarded their son, Pfc. Elmer C. Wilson, as follows: "The 1st Battalion, 188th Glider Infantry Regiment, is cited for outstanding heroism and conspicuous performance of duty in action against the enemy on Luzon, Philippine Islands, from 31 January to 5 February, 1945. During this period this airborne battalion by its aggressiveness and courage contributed immeasurably to the rapid advance of an airborne division to Manila. Despite the disadvantages imposed by lack of transportation and small-sized companies, the battalion landed at Nasugbu, 31 January 1945, against the fire of enemy automatic weapons and artillery. The battalion proceeded rapidly inland by a forced march of 20 miles in 24 hours. En route, they reduced the Japanese beach defenses, captured the towns of Wawa and Nasugbu, Nasugbu airport, the strategic Palico Bridge, and were attacking the main Japanese line of resistance in the Carilo Delle. Without halting and in the face of heavy machinegun, mortar and anti-aircraft fire, they captured and held the dominating terrain of the Japanese position. The battalion defended this position and held it through numerous enemy counterattacks. Then one Japanese attack thrust through the lines and cut the battalion off from the remainder of the regiment, the exhausted men attacked and annihilated the Japanese force. In conjunction with two other battalions, the 1st battalion then overran the enemy position and proceeded on foot toward Manila, reaching Siland before being picked up by trucks. At the end of the fifth day, the battalion, en route to Manila, had marched on foot a distance of 45 miles, had fought three minor and one major engagement, and with tireless determination was preparing itself for the battle for Nichols Field. The unhesitating subordination of personal safety to the task in hand, and the magnificent courage, fortitude and physical stamina displayed by the soldiers of the 1st Battalion, 188th Glider Infantry Regiment, are in accordance with the highest traditions of the military service. — (General Orders 69, Headquarters Eighth Army, 25 June 1945, as approved by the Commander in Chief, United States Army Forces, Pacific — G. C. Marshall, Chief of Staff.)

Note: On the same day this citation was received, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson received from their son a very fine 12-gauge automatic shotgun, which he had made. Elmer had written weeks ago that he was sending it, and they had all but given it up for lost, when it arrived. Cpl. Kenneth Sleed, Cameron, who returned two weeks ago, after receiving his honorable discharge at Fort Douglas, Utah, was a Gazette caller Friday. To thank all concerned for the paper, received during his more than three years of army life. Cpl. Sleed, who spent more than 20 months in Italy wears eight Battle Stars, the Good Conduct Medal with Ribbon, and the Cluster With Leaf.

Cpl. Sleed entered army service in August of 1942, he landed with his unit in Italy in March of 1943, and arrived back in the states on October 8, 1945.

Kenneth was a groundcrewman in the 15th Air Force, but laughingly relates that he didn't spend a great deal of time at this work, as shortly after landing in Italy, he was sent to the mail room of his squadron, then stationed at Foggia, and here spent many drudging hours sorting "bales and bales" of mail. The worst part of this job, however, was in tying up and returning to sender the mail intended for A. A. F. men who failed to return from missions. His work, however, threw him into greater contact with Italians, and he soon picked up their language — and when this became known to his superior officers he was transferred from the mail room to directing a work detail of 75 Italians — a job which he held for the last 14 months before accumulating enough points to come home. Kenneth said that his outfit had undergone many air bombardments by the Germans, but the worst, or so it seemed to him, was when the unit was landing at Naples. Here the Germans really "poured it on" and there wasn't any place to hide! As time went by, however, the air raids grew fewer, but the ones that did occur were pressed home with a greater ferocity. On the field to which he was assigned, a squadron of British heavy bombers (Halifaxes and Sterlings) was stationed. These planes flew at night, and on one occasion, when things weren't progressing as they were scheduled at the front, made 25 straight night missions. A record for that field, and a very rugged life for pilots and crewmen alike. Kenneth's opinion of the Italians with which he came in contact agrees with that of all the other boys. It was a case of put everything moveable under heavy military guard at all times, if you wanted to see it again. Even small children had to be watched all the time. He told of one instance in which a group of young boys were caught stealing from the field at 2:00 a. m., loaded with "requisitioned" items. He said the kids refused to tell where they were taking the stolen goods, or answer any questions, so two husky sergeants removed their leather belts and began applying them where it would do the most good. Finally the boys told him (he was acting as interpreter) where they were taking the items. A raid was promptly pulled on a farmhouse, and it was found crammed with G. I. food, clothing, cigarettes, candy, shoes, etc. The Cluster with Leaf which Cpl. Sleed wears was given as the result of his volunteering, along with other members of the 15th A. A. F., to go as part of a truck convoy, carrying food, water and ammunition, to a stranded front-line unit. Kenneth said this trip was really a "rugged one," but was successfully accomplished despite heavy bombing and strafing by the Luftwaffe. It did, however, break the monotony of herding Italian workers and acting as interpreter, a job which he got to thoroughly despise. During his "off duty" hours he "stood up" (acted as best man) at the weddings of 28 G. Is to Italian girls. He said it got so he knew the marriage ceremony by heart, both in Italian and English. Anyhow, he is mighty happy to be home again — and has no desire to ever go back, either as a G. I. or as a post-war tourist.

S/Sgt. Clem Lyons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lyons, Cedar ridge, arrived home Thursday afternoon of last week, bringing with him his army "sheepskin," a document which Clem says he is very glad to have in his possession. Clem wears the Battle Stars of four major campaigns, including the Ribbon and Star of the Philippine liberation. In addition he wears the Good Conduct Medal and Ribbon.

Clem, who came home some 11 months ago on furlough, was home for Christmas, and on his return rejoined his outfit on the island of Luzon in the Philippines, and saw plenty of action in that theatre until the end of the war. His return home on a fast transport required 23 days, and a bit of figuring with pencil and paper shows that he has traveled more than 30,000 miles by water since entering the service early in 1942 — a mileage which he says is going to last him the rest of his natural life. He says he rode so much that he began to wonder if he didn't belong to the navy or Marine Corps, rather than the army.

S/Sgt. Lyons says he has no plans for the immediate future, and for the present at least, is going to stay out on the farm, resting, absorbing home cooking and working the tabular out of his system.

Clem says that parts of the Philippine islands are beautiful — and parts are rank jungle. Some of the Filipino girls are very pretty, and some of the men handsome — but it's America for him, first, last and all the time.

Sgt. Bill Cuddy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cuddy, Southwick, arrived home Friday evening of last week from Fort Douglas, Utah, bringing with him his honorable discharge papers and accompanying "button," "a little metal jigger" which Bill says is the most welcome one that Uncle has yet given him.

Bill, who is a veteran of the E. T. O., including France, Germany, Belgium and Austria, came back to home on furlough at that time. He reported back to Fort Douglas, Utah, at the end of his furlough, but had too many points to be sent overseas again, so, after a bit of shifting here and there, he was given his

Leaves Come "Tumbling Down"

Following the second heavy frost of the season, which came on Monday night of this week, the locusts and maple trees about town are very busily shedding the bright yellow and red leaves which have made the canyon so pretty. Tuesday morning as the sun came out, the leaves fell so fast that they gave the appearance of a snowstorm. The last of the fall flowers, mums in particular, were quite hard hit, and rather did away with hopes that there would be local blooms for the Thanksgiving season. Tuesday morning when Kendrick residents arose, they were greeted with the sight of snow lying on the hills about town — and a chill in the air that meant winter was close.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sillflow were Tuesday visitors in Lewiston.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Koopp and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ramey at Kendrick.

Mrs. Henry Wendt and daughter Marjorie, and Mrs. John Blankenship and son Larry visited with Mrs. Walter Koopp Saturday afternoon.

Glady's Wegner, N. I. T. C. student of Lewiston, spent the weekend at her home here.

GOLDEN RULE

All the ladies of this community went to school Wednesday and enjoyed a combined Hallowe'en and birthday surprise party on the teacher, Mrs. Holman. A pot-luck dinner was served. Mrs. Holman was presented with miscellaneous gifts, and she in turn, treated all to candy bars. Games were enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Laurence were Lewiston visitors the last of the week.

Fred Stage spent the past week in Portland, visiting his daughter, Laura Jones, and his son Ralph Stage, who was there on leave from the navy. He brought home with him his granddaughter, Kaye Jones, for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ware and sons of Kendrick were supper guests at the Carl Finkle home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilken, Frank Wilken, Fred Stage and Kaye Jones were visitors at the Glen Betts home Sunday.

Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, her mother, Mrs. Lena Koopp, and grandson, Dallas Flomer, Jr., went to Spokane Friday for a few days visit and to attend the wedding of a granddaughter of Mrs. Koopp's.

Sgt. Chester Martin returned home from Fort Douglas, Utah, the first of the week, with his honorable discharge. Pfc. Ishmael Martin received another 45-day "observation furlough."

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin and Chester went to Spokane Monday.

Demonstration Scheduled

High prices and acute present-day shortages have prompted farmers throughout Idaho to utilize their easily decayed woods for fence posts, root cellar poles, etc.

The Idaho Extension Forestry department now recommends chlorinated phenol-type preservatives and similar raw wood items.

In order that the farmers of the Troy and Kendrick communities might have an opportunity to see first-hand just how this treating process is done, Elbert McProud, Latah county agent, has arranged for the following demonstration:

Vernon Ravenscroft, extension forester, will show how this wood treating process is carried out at the B. F. Steelsmith farm on the Troy-Kendrick road on Tuesday, Nov. 13. The demonstration will start promptly at 2:00 o'clock. Everyone interested in preserving the life of their fence posts and other wood material should make it a point to see this demonstration. Mr. Ravenscroft will be prepared to answer questions regarding the various wood treating processes and other questions pertaining to the production and utilization of farm forest products.

Mrs. Jones Struck By Car

Mrs. A. W. Jones, Juliaetta, is at St. Joseph's hospital, Lewiston, as the result of being struck by an automobile yesterday (Tuesday) noon at the intersection of Main and N. 6th street.

According to the police accident report and a statement made by Mrs. Jack Maynard, daughter of Mrs. Jones, who was with her at the time of the accident, the Juliaetta matron had started across the intersection and was knocked down by a car driven by D. D. Smith of 1115 N. N street. Smith was not held by the police.

Eyewitnesses declared the Smith car was moving slowly and stopped within a few feet. Mrs. Maynard claimed her mother was thrown seven feet by the impact.

Mrs. Jones is under the care of Dr. Almon J. White, who stated yesterday she was being kept at the hospital for observation as to the extent of her injuries. — Lewiston Tribune.

Returns From Extended Trip

G. A. Wayland, Juliaetta, returned Wednesday, October 31, from a month's vacation trip, including seven states. He visited a niece at Denver, Colo., then on to Liberal, Kansas, where he met two brothers, visiting there for a short time, then in company with these brothers, went on to Arnett, Okla., where the group visited a brother and sister, as well as a sister of Mrs. Wayland's, where a family reunion, with some 25 present, was held. At this gathering Mr. Wayland met a number of nephews and nieces whom he had never seen. He had seen none of the group for about 37 years.

Mr. Wayland and a niece went from Arnett to the eastern part of Oklahoma, where they visited one of his nephews, and an old-time friend. From Oklahoma they went on to St. Louis to visit a niece, then to Murphysboro, Ill., to visit a sister. From there they returned to St. Louis for another visit with relatives, returning home via Denver.

Mr. Wayland accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Bert Grant of Portland, Ore. The trip was made by car, the distance traveled being about 5,000 miles.

To Visit Canyon Chapter

Mrs. Grace M. Johnson, Worthy Grand Matron, O. E. S., will visit Canyon Chapter, Tuesday, Nov. 13.

There is to be the usual school of instruction at 2:30 p. m. at Fraternal Temple. At 6:30 a dinner will be served in the banquet room, cover charge $1.00.

Chapter will open at 8:00 o'clock. Members and sojourning members cordially invited.

worth keeping

A Rainbow trout, 14 inches of fighting fury from a rushing mountain stream, is a worthy trophy . . . It took skill and "know-how," hard work and a willingness to get off the beaten path, to land that trout . . . You bet it's WORTH KEEPING!

It took a willingness to pioneer, over fifty years of hard work, and plenty of skill and "know-how" for The Washington Water Power Company to develop for your service the dependable, low cost electric light and power you now enjoy . . . Washington Water Power's rates are among the lowest in the nation—it serves you and your community efficiently, courteously, reliably . . . This, too, is WORTH KEEPING!

MORE ABOUT ARMED FORCES

health, wears three Battle Stars, two from the South Pacific and Asiatic campaigns, and the last from the Philippine campaign. His unit, which landed on Luzon from the Linguan gulf, October 11, was the first air force unit to land on that island.
 Hen says that there is one day he will never forget. They were making the trip in an L. S. T. in convoy, and while out in the China sea, with night falling, the engines broke down — and there they were, bobbing around in Jap waters like a cork — just seven miles behind their convoy. The captain of the boat told them that when the engines were repaired he would rejoin the convoy or break the boat in two — and he kept his promise. He didn't break the boat in two, but Hen says that a couple of times he thought it would break.

Cpl. Cox, who spent 20 months on New Guinea and in the Philippines, says that so far as he is concerned, he doesn't want any more of that country. Sweat, salt tablets and atabrine don't contribute to a pleasant life in any way.

The most pleasant words he heard spoken while overseas were the "Forward, march," given as they boarded the boat to come home.

Hen says he has no regrets on the three years of his life that he gave Uncle Sam, but hopes that the boys of the coming generation won't have to do it.

Anyway, home is swell. He has gained 12 pounds since leaving the islands, and still hasn't caught up on his eating and sleeping.

On Monday of last week Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Deobald received word that their son, Sgt. Charles Deobald, had landed in Boston, Mass., from the E. T. O. No further word has been received, so he is expected to arrive home about the end of this week.

FC2/c Bob Lind left Wednesday afternoon for San Pedro, Calif., where he reports again for duty following a 30-day leave spent at his home here.

Bob doesn't know whether his address will again be the Cassin Young, but hopes that it will. He says his ship is a "faithful old girl" and he prefers her.

Cpl. Leon Lind arrived home on furlough Tuesday night from Camp Siebert, Alabama.

AMM2/c Lerray Langdon of Seattle, surprised his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Langdon, arriving for a week-end visit Friday evening and leaving Sunday at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brammer have received word that their son, FM2/c, has received his honorable discharge from the navy at Seattle last Friday, and at present is visiting friends in Portland. He is, however, expected home this week-end.

Word From Swansons

Wheeler, Oregon
 Nov. 1, 1945

Dear McCrearys:
 Just a line to let you know Axel is much better than when I wrote the last time. He has gained weight and looks so good in the face.

Fred Hove, Genesee, Idaho, helped me put Axel on the davenport today, and he sat there for two hours — sitting up all alone. He is surely a lot stronger. His knee finally came loose, but the doctor says his legs will have to be straightened by an operation, so guess it will be some time yet before he is on his feet.

We are getting along fine, and like it down here — especially the rain. Hello to everyone.

Sincerely yours
 Mrs. Axel Swanson.

Pump House Now Finished

Last week, Jack Kuykendall, local marshal, put the finishing touches on the concrete and sheet-iron building which houses the new village pump. He lined the inside with a new fire-proof and frost-proof insulating material, filled the hollow walls with sawdust and installed galvanized sheet iron over the outside.

Not only does it now present a neat, clean appearance, but it is safe from frost or fire.

Can Hunt November 12

Upland game birds may be hunted in northern Idaho November 12, the fish and game department announces, following proclamation of the Armistice holiday by Gov. Charles Gosselt. November 11 falls on a Sunday.

The proclamation is important to bird hunters because they are permitted to shoot only on Sundays, Wednesdays and legal holidays from October 14 to November 25, inclusive. Armistice Day is the only legal holiday in the period and that would have added nothing to the shooting time because it fell on a date that was open in any case.

With the Monday following Armistice Day added to the schedule the gunners will have two consecutive days of hunting.

Note: We were rather of the impression that Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 22, was also a legal holiday, but this dispatch would indicate the case to be otherwise.

AN IMPORTANT DATE FOR THOUSANDS OF ARMY VETERANS NOW IN CIVILIAN LIFE

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE NEW ENLISTMENT PROGRAM

1. Enlistments for 1½, 2 or 3 years. (1-year enlistments permitted for men with 6 months' service.)
2. Men reenlisting retain their present grade, if they reenlist within 20 days after discharge and before Feb. 1, 1946. The same applies to men discharged between May 12 and Nov. 1, 1945, who reenlist before Nov. 21, 1945.
3. An increase in the reenlistment bonus to $50 for each year of active service since the bonus was last paid, or since last entry into service.
4. 20% extra pay when overseas.
5. Paid furlough, up to 90 days, depending on length of service, with furlough travel paid to home and return, for men now in the Army who enlist.
6. Mustering-out pay (based upon length of service) to all men who are discharged to reenlist.
7. Option to retire at half pay for the rest of your life after 20 years' service — or three-quarters pay after 30 years. (Retirement income in grade of Master or First Sergeant up to $155.25 per month for life.) A previous active federal military service counts toward retirement.
8. Benefits of GI Bill of Rights.
9. Family allowances for the term of enlistment for dependents of men who enlist or reenlist before July 1, 1946.
10. Choice of branch of service and overseas theater in Air, Ground and Service Forces on 3-year enlistments.

PUBLISHED BY THE KENDRICK CO-OPERATIVE CREAMERY

REMEMBER FOLKS —

Certain producers hold to the theory that no matter what quality of cream is delivered to the creamery, good butter can be made from it. This is not true. It is a harmful idea, too, in that it keeps a lot of producers from doing as well as they know how in caring for cream.

One cream has been allowed to reach a condition where it is no longer Grade A cream, it is impossible to make it into Grade A butter. All the skill and science of the buttermaker are of no avail when this condition is reached.

Take good care of your cream. Keep cream cool and in a place where the air is pure and free from objectionable odors. Even though this cool weather helps greatly to keep cream sweet, bring it in often. Cream may be sweet and still have old, rancid and other undesirable flavors that make it unsuitable for butter-making.

A psychiatrist was examining a selectee.

Psychiatrist: "What is your occupation?"

Selectee: "I'm a gag writer for radio."

Psychiatrist: "Let's see you invent a gag."

Selectee (rising slowly, goes to the door and looks down at the long line of other selectees): "O. K., you guys can go home now, the job's taken."

Stage Hand: "I hear that you and the leading lady are on the outs."

Electrician: "Yep. It was one of them quick change scenes with the stage all dark. She asked for her lights, and I thought she said 'lights'."

Father: "Young man, what do you mean by bringing my daughter home at 6:00 in the morning?"

Charlie: "Well, my gosh! I have to be at work by 7:00!"

MORE ABOUT ARMED FORCES

papers at Fort Douglas. Bill looks the picture of health, and says he is mighty glad to get home for keeps.

S/Sgt. Vern Spekker, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Spekker, Cameron, who arrived home some three weeks ago, says he is thoroughly enjoying life on his parents farm, and getting a real kick out of prowling the hills and fields hunting Chinks on the open days. He says that later he may return to his government work in the Forestry Service, but for now he is content to stay at home and "work the bugle calls out of his system."

Mr. and Mrs. Warney May have received a very interesting letter from their son, Pfc. Warney May, Jr., U. S. M. C., and have kindly allowed us to use excerpts from it: Pieping, China 14 October 1945

Dear Mom and Dad:

Well, here I am, a China Marine, and it sure is quite some life over here. Everything is wide open and the only thing that is out of bounds is water — and outside of that we can go as far as our money will take us, and that isn't very darn far. We change our American money to Chinese, and get 1,500 Chinese dollars for one of ours — but there is a catch in that. A 12-ounce glass of beer costs 240 bucks. Three of us went out and had a steak dinner, with apple pie and ice cream, french fried potatoes, green beans, bread and butter, and it cost 5,950 Chinese dollars! So you can see that it doesn't take long to get rid of ten bucks just the same. There is a lot of nice stuff to buy if a guy had the money. They say that the government will allow only 20 bucks per man, and boy, are the fellows yelling their heads off. The beer here tastes like Mexican beer, Dad. There are lots of Chinese girls around, but of course, since I can't talk Chinese, I'm out of luck, just like the rest of the boys. There is a German compound across the fence from our barracks, and I have gotten to talk to them quite a few times. There are quite a few pretty girls over there, but only the old ones can speak English — and I never learned my German very well — I sure wish I had.

Thanks a million for the pipe. I sure do like it. I have already tried it out, and it sure is O. K. I don't have very much tobacco, but the P. X. will be open in a few days and then I will be able to get some.

We left Okinawa the 27th of September and got to the bay the 3rd of October. Stayed on the ship until midnight of the 11th, and then came ashore. All were ashore about 5:30 that morning, and then got aboard a train (a lot nicer train than the one running from Portland to Lewiston. It was brought from the states by the Japs, and then the Chinese took it over) and came on to Pieping. It took us until 2:00 that afternoon, and when we got off there was the whole city of Pieping to greet us. Boy, did we get a big welcome, and it was quite some sight. We thought it would look like all of the pictures of Chinese cities — well it isn't. It is very modern, with lots of the most modern types of homes, and very nice. The country is fairly flat, with fair-sized farms. I saw several old 22-ton tractors out in the fields. They raise good crops of oats and wheat, some corn and cotton. There are also quite a few fields of flax. There are lots of truck farms around Pieping and quite a few cows. There are lots of cars running around town, and traffic lights on the intersections just like any big city. It is really surprising — and lots of other things to see too. We haven't even gotten out of the International Settlement yet. There are better than 2,000,000 people in the city. I saw a car just like mine the other day, only the driver was on the wrong side, for, like everything else, you drive on the left side of the road here. There are lots of modern cars of '38, '40 and '41 models. They have three pickups just like yours at the train depot. It was the first thing I noticed when I got off the train.

We are living in the old Dutch barracks. They are pretty nice, with rooms about the size of our dining room at home. We each have a dresser, table, and big cabinet to hang our clothing in, rugs on the floor, and a big sun porch with davenport and soft chairs and a writing desk. We don't have any water yet or heat in the rooms, and it is really cold here (it froze last night). Coming from Okinawa here was just like going from California to B. C. in the middle of the winter.

Well, Dad, I guess I better quit for this time, as it is getting late and I have guard duty from 8:00 till 12:00 tonight, so guess I had better be getting out there. We stand guard right out in the street and watch the women go by. Sure have quite some time. We are in the same area as the Marines were before (I mean in the same quarter-master area) but we are far from set up yet, and it will be quite some time, probably two weeks.

We got one liberty before our gear came in, and I guess that will be all we will get this week, but it wouldn't do me any good to get out anyhow, as I have about 30 cents in American money. If you have any idea of sending a Christmas present now, the cash would be the only thing any good over here now. If you send any, don't make out a postal order or anything, as we can't cash them. Just put the bills in an envelope and send them, as cash is the only thing we can use.

Well, I guess I had better get going now. Will try to drop you another line sometime soon. I also got the package that Sis sent, and I hope to get some good pictures out of that roll of films. Thanks a million again for the pipe, and everytime I smoke it I will be thinking of you and Mom.

October 17 Here it is two days later, and I got your lovely letter last night, and was sure glad to hear from you again. Speaking about a jeep — yes, Dad, they are lots of fun and all of that — but they haven't got too much value. They are pulling little fools, and have about as much power as the "B Farmall." They would be a keen rig for going in and out to the fields and things like that, but they are colder than the devil. * * * Speaking of getting home pretty soon — it's pretty hopeless, as the 85-point boys are still on Okinawa, and lots of the fellows have had 24 months overseas and haven't gotten to go home yet — so I am sure far down on the line for the home-ward bound end.

Note: Enclosed in the letter was a "10-Yuan" bill. Chinese money and what Mr. May takes to be a Japanese War Bond — but what it's value many be is something unknown. Enclosed also was a clipping from an English language newspaper describing the chaotic conditions that existed in China before the arrival of the American Marines, including pitched battles between Jap troops, Chinese Communists and Chinese regulars.

Fort Lewis, Wash. Nov. 2, 1945 (Official Dispatch) — Lt. Roy E. Long, of Kendrick, Idaho, who for the past five years, has served in the Service Forces, will revert to inactive status on February 9, 1946.

It was announced here today by Lt. Col. Harvey D. Taylor, commanding the separation center here.

Lt. Long will return to Kendrick, Idaho, where he will resume his profession of school teaching.

Like many of his fellow officers, Lt. Long responded to the call for patriotic men, and his valuable experience contributed to the rapid organization and training of our present day fighting forces," Col.

Taylor said.

Cpl. Warren H. (Hen) Cox, was a Kendrick visitor Tuesday. He received his honorable discharge papers on October 25, just three years and three days after being called to the service, where he was a ground-crewman for the 14th Air Force. Hen, who looks the picture of
