NEWS FROM LOCAL MEN IN THE ARMED FORCES

S1/c Don Bateman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Bateman, arrived here Sunday evening on a leave that will just permit him to spend Christmas at home. He accompanied friends as far as Moscow by car, coming across Snoqualmie pass. He stated that their car went into the ditch twice on the icy highways, but deep, soft snow formed a good "shock cushion" and the occupants and car itself remained undamaged.

Don is now stationed on a mine sweeper on the Pacific coast near Bremerton.

Cpl. James W. Morrison USMC, arrived here Monday morning to spend Christmas with his family. Cpl. Morrison has been many months in the South Pacific. His wife, Mildred Morrison and children, have been making their home here during his absence.

RM3/c Ossie Kanikkeberg left Thursday of last week for Newport News, where he rejoined his ship December 23, following a 30-day leave spent at his home here. Ossie is aboard the communications ship U. S. S. Adirondack.

Kenneth G. Wilken FC2/c, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilken, arrived home Friday of last week to spend a leave at his home.

Kenneth is aboard the destroyer U. S. S. Killen, in Pacific waters.

Cpl. Theodore Dorendorf, with the 789th Engineering Forestry Co., who has been stationed in the South Pacific for the past many months, arrived home Friday of last week. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dorendorf, Southwick.

We have not yet had a chance to see or talk with him, so do not know whether he has been discharged or is on furlough.

From S1/c Don Dammarell comes a Christmas greeting card which reads:

Blest Christmas morn through murky clouds Pursue thy way, Thy light was born where storm enshrouds Nor dawn nigh day!

Season's Greetings — Don! The card is addressed to the Kendrick Gazette and the people of Kendrick.

We might add that Don is aboard the U. S. S. Saratoga, one of the larger aircraft carriers.

Mrs. James W. Holt has received word from her husband, Pvt. Holt, that his new address reads care of postmaster, Seattle, which in this case undoubtedly means he will be stationed in Alaska or on one of the Aleutian islands.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Benschoter have received word from their son, Pvt. Dick Benschoter, that he, with his brother Bob, have been transferred to San Antonio, Texas. Their address now reads: 2532 A. A. F. Base Unit, Squadron B, Randolph Field, San Antonio, Texas.

Pvt. Harry L. Harris, who is stationed at Camp Hood, Texas, arrived home last week-end to spend a Christmas furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Harris.

Harry's private opinion of Texas jibes exactly with that of all the other boys who have trained in that state — and wouldn't look good in print.

It seems that local boys, used to the hills, pines and streams of Idaho just can't "cotton" to the sagebrush, sand, wind and horned toads of the Texas plains.

Pvt. George D. Calvert, Juliaetta, returned home last Friday from

TO OUR READERS and FRIENDS...

The New Year is the traditional season of hope. Hope for a lasting peace. Hope for a speedy reunion with loved ones far distant. Hope for happiness and hope for health.

Each of us has a stake in this harvest of hope. How we reap will depend on how we cultivate the opportunities that lie ahead.

Just as a merchant takes stock at the beginning of a New Year and closes his books on the Old, so we at this season ought to take mental inventory and do some spiritual bookkeeping. The past is good only as its achievements strengthen us for the tasks of the future—only as its mistakes teach us lessons for the improvement of tomorrow.

The road of the past was paved with injustice, discontent and tyranny. We must pave the road of the future with hope, confidence, understanding and neighborliness.

The world is no better or no worse than we ourselves make it. It is the sum of thousands of communities like our own, all added together. We each have responsibilities as individuals and citizens to make it better.

With the coming of 1946 let us resolve to work and live so that peace on earth may be a reality rather than a dream. Then the horrors of battle will not be visited on the next generation and the sons of tomorrow will not have to go forth to war.

The future offers challenging opportunities. Strengthened by our nation's achievements in the past four years, we can meet these opportunities with confidence.

So it is with a spirit of hope, fortified by a feeling of thankfulness that this newspaper asks for every one of you

A Very Happy New Year

CAMP HOOD, TEXAS, WHERE HE HAS BEEN STATIONED THE PAST SEVERAL MONTHS, BRINGING WITH HIM HIS HONORABLE DISCHARGE.

George entered the service early in July — but due to his family, three children, he was discharged upon completion of his basic training.

George wishes to extend his sincere thanks to all for the Gazette, received during his months of army duty.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Blewett have received word from his brother, Lt. Rex Blewett, that he was on his way to Germany as a part of the army of occupation. If on schedule he should have landed last week-end.

From Mrs. Rose Farrington and daughter Evelyn comes a brief note saying: "We expected Lum home for Christmas but he won't be here until sometime in January. This is his third Christmas over there, and it's pretty tiresome for all concerned. Hope he'll be home soon. His last letter came from Karachi, India, where he was awaiting transportation.

From Selman Field, La., comes a Christmas Card from Lt. Kenneth B. Woody which reads: "Many thanks for the paper during the past two years. I have appreciated it more than I can say. Best wishes — Ken."

Manilla, P. I. (Official Dispatch): Sgt. Frank Abrams, whose wife, Leasel, and their two children, Kathryn and Dennis Paul, live at 1208 Broadway, Bremerton, Wash., is enroute home for his discharge from the army after 13 months overseas.

Sgt. Abrams arrived at Hollandia, New Guinea, and then moved to Leyte in the Lingayen Gulf operations, where he joined the 12th replacement battalion. In April the 12th battalion rejoined the 5th Replacement depot at its present location near Manila. Abrams is entitled to wear the Asiatic-Pacific Theatre ribbon with three campaign stars, the Philippine Liberation ribbon, Good Conduct ribbon and the Victory ribbon.

Dear Mac and Bill:

I guess it's about time I wrote and gave you my new address. I was in hopes that it wouldn't have to be done again, but it seems Uncle Sam just won't let me go home or stay in one place either.

It surely was quite a jump from Texas to Maryland — can hardly stand the cold weather.

It's goodbye "tanks" for me, as I'm in a medical division here. Don't like it so hot, but guess I'll be here until I get my discharge. Can take it if the rest can.

Sure is good to read about all the boys coming home. Hope to be there myself sometime in January or February.

Before signing off I want to take this opportunity to wish everyone a Very Merry Christmas and thank all concerned for the paper.

As ever

AMM 2/c Larry Langdon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Langdon, Kendrick, arrived home Monday morning of this week from the Naval Air Station, Sandpoint, near Seattle, bringing with him his honorable discharge papers.

Larry, who spent three years and three months to the day in the navy served aboard the U. S. S. Corrigador, an aircraft carrier, saw action in the Marshalls, Carolines, New Guinea, Guadalcanal, Espirita and San-

TATEBAYASHI AIRFIELD TATEBAYASHI, JAPAN

Dear Mac and Bill:

I guess it's about time I wrote a few lines to thank you for the paper and give you the correct address. So far I have received only one paper since I was home in July, but believe, fellows, that one paper was really appreciated and read over and over again. I'm hoping to receive another copy any day.

Landed at Yokohama on September 25th after a 30-day trip from the states. Land really looked good even if it was Japan. Enroute we stopped at the Caroline Islands, Philippine Islands, and finally on to Japan. I am now with the 97th Q. M. corps about 50 miles northwest of Tokyo. I got transferred from the infantry to the Q. M. about six weeks ago, and I must say driving an army 6x6 is far better than hiking and carrying an M-1. We do have buildings to live in and electricity, plus running water. This place was formerly occupied by Japanese Air Corps men. In fact, when we first arrived here there were about 50 to 75 Jap planes all lined up on the field, loaded with bombs and ready to take off. The devils never got to use them. You should see them now. We took the bombs out, hauled them off a ways and then made a nice bonfire. They really burn swell, too.

Since I've been driving truck I've been able to go all over the island of Honshu. Have been all over Tokyo, Yokohama and many other smaller towns. In fact, I've driven right up Ginza street in Tokyo, past MacArthur's headquarters and had a good look at the Emperor's palace. Some joint, I must say.

Tokyo is pretty well leveled from bombs and fire, but there are a lot of buildings unharmed, too. In one sense the Japs were pretty smart, because their country isn't damaged as badly as Europe. Of course, where the "A" bombs hit — well, there just isn't anything left. Maybe they should have used them sooner.

Laying all this aside I have seen many interesting places and sights. For instance, the new Grand Hotel in Yokohama (nearly as modern as the Waldorf-Astoria), the Dia-Etchi Hotel in Tokyo (another very modern place), the former American Embassy building (now a Red Cross set-up) and many other places of interest.

Haven't seen anyone from around home although I'm sure there must be a few fellows around somewhere. I am really keeping my eyes open, too, but so far no luck.

It is very surprising how well the Japanese are co-operating with the

Masons Install Officers

Nora Callison was elected and installed as the worshipful master of the Kendrick Masonic lodge Thursday evening, December 13. Other officers elected and installed were: Darwin Tarry, senior warden, Claude Jones, junior warden, Wade Keene, secretary and Lester Crocker treasurer. The appointive officers for the ensuing year are: Manning Onstott, senior deacon; Clay King, junior deacon; Eugene Taylor, senior steward; Gerald Ingle, junior steward; G. W. McKeever, marshal; Frank Nesbit, chaplain; Lester Wallace, tiler.

The election and installation was followed by a social hour and lunch.

Brisk Christmas Trade

Local merchants report a very brisk and most satisfactory Christmas season trade, not only in the line of material items for gifts, but in foodstuffs also.

They report an unusually good demand for practical items, not only in clothing, but also "family gifts" for the home. They are unanimous in the remark: "I don't know how much we could have sold had goods been obtainable."

It all goes to show that the American public not only wants but needs many consumer items that have been denied it by necessity during the war, and now by strikes and like disturbances.

Entertain At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wilson, Big Bear ridge, entertained with Sunday dinner at their home in honor of Mr. Wilson's nephew, Elbert Dyer. Mr. Dyer recently received his discharge from the Air Corps, where he had served 30 months in the Pacific war zone.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Dyer and small daughter of Miami, Florida; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Adams and daughters Joy and Karen of Deary, Miss Leona Wilson and Jay Dee Wilson.

Word From Swansons

Wheeler, Oregon Dec. 18, 1945

Dear McCrearys: Well, I guess it is about time I was writing and letting everyone know how Axel is improving.

I can't say that he is a lot better than he was when I wrote last, but he is improving slowly, and that is much better than getting worse.

We want to say "Hello" to everyone and a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all.

Guests At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Blankenship were Christmas dinner guests in the John Hewett home in Clarkston. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harlen Hewett, Culdesac; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hewett and children, Culdesac; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hewett and children, Sweetwater; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hewett and children, Clarkston; Clarence Hewett and son Donald, Lewiston; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blankenship and son Boyd of Moscow. A most delightful time was enjoyed.

Memorial Services

Memorial services for David Levi Groseclose, six-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Groseclose, Kendrick, were held Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock at the Full Gospel Church, the Rev. Lester Damron, pastor, officiating.

The tiny infant lost its life when fire destroyed the family home near Kendrick.

V. F. W. Meeting

There will be a V. F. W. meeting on Thursday, January 3. All members and any service or returned service men who would be interested in joining are asked to attend this meeting.

Carl Menelly of Moscow, district commander, will be in attendance.

ANOTHER DAY — ANOTHER YEAR!

For the day, all the joy and gladness that the New Year holiday can possibly bring. For the year, all the blessings that can be treasured up for you in 365 golden days. Come in and see us so we can wish you a HAPPY NEW YEAR with a friendly shake of the hand.

And, too, we want to extend our sincere thanks for the liberal patronage you have accorded us during 1945!

FOR VICTORY!

VICTORY does not apply only to nations at war. We can win victories over ourselves, too, and over the problems which lay in our path

As 1946 sweeps in upon us we wish for each of you an unbroken series of victories over any and all circumstances that may tend to retard your progress towards every individual's cherished goals — health, happiness, prosperity. Good luck to you every step of the way!

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

STEVE: "How was the hospital dinner, Judge? Sorry I couldn't get there."

OLD JUDGE: "Very interesting, Steve. One of the doctors on the staff read a paper on the research work that is going on at one of the big universities where they are studying chronic alcoholism."

STEVE: "I'd like to have heard that, Judge."

OLD JUDGE: "He pointed out that approximately 95% of the people who drink do so sensibly. Only 5% abuse the privilege oc-asionally and included in that 5% is the very small number known as alcoholics. Then he quoted a doctor from a famous university who said 'Alcoholics are sick persons and, if treated as such, may be cured.' Alcoholism, he said, is not caused by alcohol but by deep-rooted emotional derailments which can be prevented by education and often cured through modern psychology!"

STEVE: "That's the most sensible approach to the problem I've heard."

Victory Loan Drive
 The Victory Loan Drive will soon come to a successful conclusion, and with that knowledge there comes a feeling of sadness over the fact that our great patriotic organization will soon disband.

All of you are entitled to the highest praise and commendation for the loyal and energetic part that you have played in making all of the War Loan Drives the success that they were in Idaho. Your greatest reward for this accomplishment will be the satisfaction of knowing that you have done your full patriotic duty under the emergency of war.

In addition to telling you of our heartfelt appreciation, we wish for you and yours the greatest of happiness, comfort and contentment during the Holiday Season and in all future years.

Yours sincerely,
 John A. Schoonover, State Chm.

CRESCENT CLIPPINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Souders arrived in our neighborhood Sunday evening. Miss Eileen Garner, daughter of Mrs. Mattie Garner, Kendrick, and Marion Souders of this neighborhood were married in Lewiston on Wednesday, and left immediately for Pendleton, Oregon, on a short honeymoon trip. They returned to Kendrick Saturday evening, and arrived here Sunday. They will stay in the Frank Souders home until they get the house on Marvin Souders' place ready for occupancy.

Christmas dinner guests of the Ben Baker family were Mr. and Mrs. Ersie Hudson and family, Mrs. Geo. (Bud) H. Magee and son of Kendrick, and Mr. and Mrs. Alva Craig and children. During the day they had a wreck — a collision with Bennie Pressnall on the hill near the Carl Finke place — no one was seriously hurt, but the car was badly damaged.

Christmas dinner guests at the Frank Souders home were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Greenwood and Mr. and Mrs. Burton Souders and son Burton, Jr., of Kendrick; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Souders, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Souders and Marvin Souders.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Craig and family visited Sunday at the Andrew Dorendorf home, and in the evening at the Frank Souders home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Farrington and son Everett were Christmas dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arne Kloster.

Fifteen guests of the Clem Israel family enjoyed a bountiful dinner Christmas day. After dinner gifts were exchanged and visiting enjoyed. Those present included Mrs. Sylvia Jenks, Lewiston; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Alexander and son Clarence, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Michaelis and daughter Joell, Mr. and Mrs. Addie Alexander, Mrs. Vera Stewart of Lewiston, George and Eva Smith, Clive Hardesty, Mr. and Mrs. John Darby and daughter Jo, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Israel and sons Don and Marilyn. Mrs. Louisa Fry, who is being cared for in the Israel home, also shared in the good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Souders visited at the L. A. Watson home in Southwick Christmas eve. Two of our neighborhood are home again, with discharge papers, the past week: Marvin Souders returned Friday and Floyd Dorendorf returned Saturday.

Monday Marvin Souders and Floyd Dorendorf were business visitors in Moscow.

Two Shows Scheduled
 The local showhouse will offer this week-end Betty Grable and Dick Haymes in "Diamond Horseshoe," a technical production. This is said to be one of the finest love stories produced in recent months.

On Monday and Tuesday nights, Dec. 31 and January 1, "Junior Miss," starring Peggy Ann Garner will make its appearance. This picture is said to abound with laughs as well as touching the serious side of life.

The usual news and shorts will be shown also.
 Life is too short to spend knocking and grousing. Give to the Living War Memorial Swim pool. You'll feel better right away.

Rising Temperature Takes Snow

The rising temperatures and rain of the past few days are rapidly taking the snow. Here in the canyon there is still plenty to be seen, but roads and walks are bare.

On the ridges roads are bare, but there is still plenty on the fields and in the timber.

Shopping Hangover

SHOPPING is hard work at best—hard on the feet and hard on the pocketbook. Stores are crowded with holiday buyers, goods are still scarce, and bargains aren't always easy to find.

Except electricity! Lady, you don't have to stir one step outside your home to get a whopping big bargain in comfort and convenience—at low pre-war prices.

Electric service is always right at your fingertip—plentiful, dependable, ready 24 hours a day to lighten your household burdens and make your way of living more pleasant.

And it's cheap! As a matter of fact, the average family is getting just about twice as much electricity for its money as it did 15 years ago.

Yes, electric service is a rare household bargain. But not by accident. It's the result of the hard work and experience of the men and women in your company.

• Hear Nelson Eddy in "The Electric Hour" with Robert Armbruster's Orchestra. Every Sunday, 1:30 P. M., KFPY.

"I hope not," replied the wife, "we adopted him."

Mary had a little lamb;
Her father shot it dead,
And now it goes to school with her
Between two hunks of bread.

A doctor at a mental home met a patient who was in an irritable mood.

"What's the matter with you this morning?" he asked.
"I want to get married, doctor."
"How old are you?"
"Fifty-seven."
"Then I suppose you would like a wife of about fifty?"
"Well, doctor, if it's all the same to you, I'd rather have two at twenty-five."

Papa Robin: "How did that speckled egg get in our nest?"
Mama Robin: "I did it for a lark."

MORE ABOUT ARMED FORCES

occupation forces over here. So far they have given hardly no trouble. They sure have a lot of funny customs. Thank God I live in the good old U. S. A.

Many of the Japs speak perfect English, and all the children are very eager to learn anything we want to teach them.

I have high hopes of getting home some time next summer. Am just "sweating it out" in army "lingo." A few of the high point men have already gone, but I'm not too well stocked with points myself, so I guess I'll be spending a while in Japan yet — "damn it!" Truthfully, I'm ready to take that one-way boat ride, believe me. I've seen a good portion of this old globe now, and it's the U. S. A. for me.

Well, it's time to hit the sack, so I guess I'll close for this time. In closing, let me thank you again for the paper and I hope to receive a copy soon.

Carrollers And Candles

Christmas eve a group of girls and boys led by Lois Deobald and Paula McKeever made the rounds about town singing Christmas carols at the various homes — their way lighted by flickering candles.

The songs were greatly enjoyed, and all went well until a group of boys decided they needed to snowballing, which they proceeded to do very thoroughly. Two of the girls were hit in the face with "ice-soakers," inflicting painful bruises.

It is indeed regrettable that boys who are almost young men would indulge in such "kindergarten" actions" — on Christmas eve of all times.

March Of Dimes Jan. 14-31

Half of your contributions to the March of Dimes, January 14 to 31, remain with your local chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, to be used for special equipment, hospitalization, transportation and treatment and care of polio patients. The other half goes to the National Foundation for research, education and emergency aid during epidemics.

Children Doing Nicely

The two small children of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Groseclose who were burned in the fire which destroyed their farm home, are recovering very nicely.
