Dynamites Rattlesnake Den

Friday morning Henry Jones, local fire warden, went up to the Clarence Johnston ranch in Brady Gulch and dynamited a rattlesnake den along the rocky portion of the trail from the barnyard to the pasture. Mr. Johnston had killed eight snakes on this stretch of trail, the largest some three feet long and carrying ten rattles and a button. It finally got so bad that the cattle would no longer use the trail, so Mr. Johnston appealed to Henry Jones, and the dynamiting resulted. So far as is known results of the blast were perfect, for not another snake has been seen.

Apparently, until this time, the reptiles had been on the wane in the Potlatch country, fewer being reported killed each year.

Kendrick Wins From Moose

The Clarkston Moose hammered across three runs in the first inning, but couldn't hold its lead as Kendrick pecked away at the offerings of two Clarkston hurlers to win a Valley division ball game 11-6 at Clarkston Sunday. The contest was Kendrick's home game but was played at Clarkston because of the muddy condition of the Kendrick diamond.

Batteries for Clarkston were Flesham, Ball and Wilde. For Kendrick E. Brammer, H. Millard and Armitage.

Slide Blocks Trams

There was no train Friday night, on Saturday, and none reached town until Sunday at noon, due to a big slide between Kendrick and Troy, just this side of Bovard. The slide was too big to be removed by the local section crews, and had to await the arrival of a ditcher from Spokane. In the slide was mud, rocks and trees, loosened and brought down by the torrential rains of Thursday and Friday.

As usual, the culvert at the foot of Brady Gulch filled up, and the "swamp" near the ball diamonds was again almost impassable. However, a bulldozer was secured from Earl Millsap Friday evening, and he opened up a good channel that drained the water from the "swamp" and put it back into its channel, and Clarence Fryman and Ed Brown again opened the culvert, so cars can now cross the spot without mud than moistening the tread on their tires.

Plans Made For Pool Opening

Roy Ramey, one of the Kendrick "village fathers" said Tuesday afternoon that the tentative opening date for the Area Living War Memorial Swimming Pool at Kendrick has been set for Sunday, June 13. Life guards will be Mr. and Mrs. Sallyday of Moscow, accredited by the American Red Cross.

Present plans call for daily opening of the pool about 1:00 p. m., with free Red Cross instruction in swimming for beginners and life saving for advanced swimmers. The regular swimming hours will then begin about 2:30 p. m. with the pool remaining open until 9:00 p. m. It is not known at this time whether or not the Sunday hours will be the same as those on week days.

Mr. Ramey emphasized that the date and hours above are tentative, with a possibility weather could affect the former, and numbers attending the latter.

There remains a little work to be done before the opening date, as the pool must be scrubbed out and re-filled, and a few minor repairs made in the dressing rooms and about the premises.

Installing New Fixtures

Frank Abrams has been busy the past few weeks constructing, and is now installing new fixtures in his hardware store. The fixtures, of the "receding island type" are in sections, and may be used in a group or singly. They are finished in natural varnish, and the divisions between the various items are of plate glass, held in place with chrome clips, and they indeed present a very neat and clean-out appearance.

Locust Trees In Bloom

Decoration Day the perfume from bloom on the locust trees that line the streets of Kendrick was noticeable, but only a blossom now and then could be seen. However, as we set these words (Wednesday morning) the trees are in almost full bloom, and the air is heavy with their perfume. With their blossoming Kendrick's Main street becomes a thing of beauty.

Not only is the air full of the scent, but also full of bees, taking advantage of the nectar that the blooms offer to them. And we might say that Kendrick, as a town, is well loaded with bees, many families having from one to eight colonies in their yards. On the schoolhouse hill alone we know of 20 hives of the little workers — and they are very busy indeed every minute that weather permits them to work.

Commercial Club Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Kendrick Commercial Club will be held on Wednesday, June 9, with the 6:30 dinner being served at the Kendrick Cafe.

At last month's meeting attendance was very poor, undoubtedly affected by the pouring rain and postponement of a week in date.

It is hoped that a goodly number will be present, as there are plenty of important matters to come before the group.

Remember, it doesn't matter in the least whether or not you are a member, if you would like to attend, you are welcome.

School Plans Progressing

Jasper Nutting and his assistants have been very busy the past week transferring desks, books and other equipment back and forth between Kendrick, Juliaetta and other schools in the district, but particularly between Kendrick and Juliaetta.

CROP PRICE PREDICTIONS BY U. OF I. AND U. S. D. A.

The following predictions were made by the University of Idaho, College of Agriculture and the United States Department of Agriculture, co-operating, and are not in any sense of the word, our own:

Wheat

The outlook for U. S. wheat production and exports indicates that prices are not likely to decline much below loan level following harvest. Prices will average substantially above that level for the marketing year as a whole. In the meantime, wheat prices will be sensitive to changes in the weather, and are expected to develop seasonal declines in early June.

If the parity price next June is the same as now, the average loan rate to growers on the new crop would be about $1.98.

The 1948 wheat crop appears likely to be close to the 1,153,000,000 bushels produced in 1946. The 1946 wheat production was the second largest on record. A crop of over 1,100,000,000 bushels and a domestic use of about 775,000,000 bushels would provide over 300,000,000 bushels for export or addition to carry-over. Total exports, including the European Recovery Program, are expected to exceed 300,000,000 bushels.

Idaho's winter wheat production was indicated to be 21,420,000 bushels on May 1. This indicated production is about

Moving To New Building
Despite the fact that their new building still is a long way from being completed, the Kendrick Bean Growers are busy moving into their new building, and are now conducting most of their business from it. It's quite a struggle keeping track of their stock during moving operations, but they seem to do it, somehow.

When completed the building will be a distinct addition to the Kendrick business district, and it is to be regretted that we do not have more business buildings, as there always seems to be an enterprise of some sort to occupy every room — there not being a single vacancy in Kendrick at this time — either business or home.

And the 9-inch pail opening . . . how can that mean better milk for you? Because it simplifies your cleaning job, thus keeping bacteria at a minimum, and speeds up drying.

There's a good way to prove these facts. Stop in and look over this great milker or, better yet, arrange for a demonstration. Find out for yourself just how the McCormick-Deering Milker turns out cleaner, healthier milk.

Trout Season Opens June 4
June 4 is the day — fishing that is, son, fishing — for general trout season begins in Idaho.

The date is the same as last year. So is the outlook for the first few days of the annual attack on rainbow, cutthroat and eastern brook. The water is high and muddy. According to a summary prepared this week by the fish and game department, the average creek is likely to be running a torrent of water full of the customary debris that rides the spring run-off, and puts a crimp in good fishing. So, better take plenty of bait — and your chains! Regulations vary little from those of 1947. Bag and possession limit for trout is 20 fish, but not more than 10 pounds and one fish. Not more than five fish less than six inches long may be kept. And, oh, yes, be sure you have your license.

Potlatch Chief Sez

PUBLISHED BY THE KENDRICK CO-OPERATIVE CREAMERY

YES, FOLKS —

"Tis' true, there's nothing as thoroughly American as Ice Cream, but did you know that Ice Cream was first made by a Sicilian in 1660? Louis XIV of France is said to have been the first customer. Here in America ice cream was first sold in New York in 1777, and a few years later Dolly Madison first served it at the White House.

Whether ice cream was first discovered by Louis XIV, Nero, Marco Polo or Columbus, there is still nothing as typically American as Ice Cream. There are people in many parts of the world today that have never tasted or even heard about Ice Cream. Have you ever stopped to realize just how lucky we are to live in America, and to be able to enjoy such things as Ice Cream? Ice cream is a luxury, but a very inexpensive one. Also it is a very healthy food, so serve it often to your family. When serving Ice Cream make certain it is Potlatch Chief Ice Cream, your assurance of quality and flavor. Potlatch Chief Ice Cream is a product hard to equal and it comes in a large variety of flavors: Vanilla, Chocolate, Strawberry, Tutti Frutti, Black Raspberry and Maple Nut.

Remember: Keep your refrigerator well filled with Dairy Products, and always buy Potlatch Chief Dairy Products for satisfaction.

The absent minded professor had been out late and was caught in the rain. Drenched, he staggered to his bedroom, and being the typical absent-minded professor, he put his umbrella to bed and stood in the corner and dripped all night — and the next day wondered why he had a cold.

The name "Potlatch Chief" is your assurance of quality.
