INFANTILE PARALYSIS CASES ON UPSURGE

Forty-seven cases of infantile paralysis have been reported to the Idaho Department of Public Health during the first six months of this year, Dr. Madeline M. Donnelly, director of maternal and child health, reports. For the corresponding period in 1947 only 13 cases were reported.

"A large percentage of the cases reported during the first four months of this year were carry-overs from the epidemic which occurred in the state during the last six months of 1947." she said.

Dr. Donnelly said that no prediction could be made as the number of students from Troy, Bovill and cases that might occur in the state Deary will be held, there having been during the next few months because: 'there is no medical or scientific method known that can be used in that there is available this instrucmaking a forecast." She added that tion under proper conditions for our epidemics which have occurred in young people. Should this work sucother sections of the country were ceed in saving even one life, whether generally followed by smaller re-

Dr. Donnelly urged parents throughout the state to become familiar with the following precautionary measures; to exercise sound thinking if any of the symptoms are observed, and to remain calm. 'Panic or hysteria, so frequently found during polio seasons have never been known to cure a disease or to prevent its spread.' 1. Consult your family physician if a headache, nausea, cold, upset stomach, muscle soreness or unexained fever is observed.

4. Do not become over-tired. Extreme fatigue often makes a person an easier victim of the disease.

5. Parents should see that their children have regular rest periods during the heat of the day and that strenuous play is avoided. 6. Do not swim in water that is known to be contaminated or polluted. 7. Do not permit children to go swimming for long periods of time and avoid fatigue. 8. Sanitation, in every way, should be practiced to the utmost.

Two engines were pulling the neavy load of rails from Spokane. As the train began its descent of Kendrick grade slippery wheels failed to grip the rails when brakes were applied.

The train careened around curve after curve, its shricking whistle Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brocke and son shouting of the impending calamity Darrell drove to Priest Lake Satur- perhaps the same whistle recovered after 50 years rest in the sands of the Potlatch river.

Time stopped for the seven crewmen. One who lived for a few days after the accident said, "it seemed but a minute from the time I realized the train was out of control until the terrible crash.'

Two men — the conductor and under the stigma of deserting fellow crew members in time of peril.

But they were alive, although dismissed from further railroad employment. They saved themselves by uncoupling the caboose in which they were riding and slowing it with hand brakes. Dead were two engineers, two firemen and a brakeman. —

WHEAT MARTS DECLINE AS OFFERINGS INCREASE

Wheat prices declined several cents per bushel at most markets during the past week, reflecting large receipts of winter wheat and good to excellent crop conditions in the main spring wheat belt, according to reports to the Federal-State Market News Service, Additional purchases by governmental agencies and announcement of higher loan rates for 1948 crop wheat were strengthening factors but purchases by the trade were chiefly for nearby require-ments. Prices declined around 2c per bushel at the principal southwestern winter wheat terminal markets, about 7c per bushel at middlewestern spring wheat markets and about every minute, but thought that 6c per bushel at Pacific Coast white wheat distributing points. In Europe the weather continues most favorable for crop development. In the United Kingdom heavy rains and high winds caused some lodging but the general crop outlook is most promising. In France the estimated production of wheat is placed at 257,600,000 bushels compared with an out-turn in 1947 of only 150,000,-000 bushels and a pre-war average of 286,510,000 bushels. The weather is more settled and crops are progressing favorably. In Italy crops are maturing satisfactorily and in Hungary wheat and rye out-turns are expected to be above average with recent rains improving spring seeded grain. In the Russian Ukraine winter wheat harvest has started and trade reports indicate a good out-turn. In Belgium crop prospects are reported as excellent.

Among those enjoying a picnic dinner at the Spalding Park July 4th were Don Candler and family of Bovill; Robert Chilberg and family of Southwick; Mrs. Harry Rigg and children of Spokane; Mr. and Mrs. Children of Spokane; Mr. and Mrs. Neil Candler, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Candler and Dale, and Mrs. Gifford Candler and daughter Zelma of Kendrick.

The board of regents have approved a bond issue of up to $70,000, which it is believed will be adequate to finance the first unit of a proposed field house 175 feet wide, 300 feet long and about 50 feet high. The first unit would be 100 feet long. Site is the western end of MacLean field.

AMERICAN RIDGE NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Glenn, former residents of Juliaetta, but now residing in Los Angeles, are visiting Mrs. Lulu Buchanan and his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Glenn. Also visiting Mrs. Buchanan is her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Shell of Wilmington.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Mc-Allister over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dodd and son and daughter from Bell, Calif.; (Mr. Mc-Allister's niece who he had not seen week for 40 years); Mr. and Mrs. Earl week. Calvert, Deary (Mr. Calvert is a brother of Mrs. McAllister).

To Build New Field House

Under a self-liquidating bond issue, to be retired out of existing student activities fees, the University of Idaho will get — it hopes in time for use late this fall — the first unit of an athletic and intramural sports field house, it was announced by President J. E. Buchanan, following approval by the board of re-

"The need for a field house at the physical education staff and the students," commented Mr. Buchanan.
"But the wet spring, which almost nullified the entire spring sports and outdoor recreational program, made this need imperative and immediate."

Demands Are Heavy

"Demands for graduates this year have been heavier than last year." Harlow H. Campbell, director of the University of Idaho Placement Service, states.

Biggest demand is in education, with emphasis on grade school teachers. There is also an acute shortage in high schools of science, commercial and home economics teachers.
