A coronet of orange blossoms held the fingertip veil, and she carried a heartshaped bouquet of pink rose-buds and stephanotis with a white orchid corsage in the center.

The maid of honor was Miss Eileen Jeanette Maxfield, sister of the groom, and her gown was of blue net. She carried a fan-shaped bouquet of pink roses.

Richard F. Harris, brother of the bride, was best man and Dale Hagans of Lewiston sang "Because."
He was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Wells, who also played the processional and recessional.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony.

Mrs. Maxfield is a graduate of the Kendrick high school and attended Washington State College at Pullman and N. I. C. E. at Lewiston. She is now employed as a copy writer for Syverson-Kelly Inc., in Spokane. She was formerly advertising manager for C. C. Anderson Co.

Mr. Maxfield attended school in Salem, Mo., and graduated from the Ontario, Calif., high school. He attended Chaffey college in Ontario and is now employed as a junior draftsman for the Interstate Telephone company in Spokane.

The Harris family resided at Lewiston for several years, Mr. Harris being manager of a creamery there. Leaving Lewiston they moved to Kendrick, where he was again man. ager of a creamery, coming to this town last year.

Albrights Enjoying Trip

From Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Albright, now visiting in Gastonbury, Conn., comes a most interesting let- birds. ter, one we pass on to our readers: ing the long-talked-of trip to the east coast. We left home on Tuesday at noon and arrived in Old Greenwich, Conn., the following week on Thursday. We drove across the northern part of the country following Highway No. 2 until we reached Ashland, Wisconsin.

The weather was sunny and fine all the way with the exception of two hot days in the middle west. It was interesting to see the agreement tural practices and crop differ as we ing.

PLANS FOR SALES DAY MAKING PROGRESS

Big Free Auction — Agricultural Exhibits — Football Game Part of Plans For The Day

Kendrick's Annual Sales Day will be held on Saturday, October 16, for the auctioning of farmers' livestock, implements, household goods - in fact anything of which they may have a surplus and wish to turn into cash. The sale will start at 10:00 a. m. sharp with Auctioneer Roy Glenn crying the sale — and all goods will be auctioned off absolutely free of charge. Farmers are asked to bring their goods in in sufficient time to have them listed by Ira Foster, who may be found at the City Hall. No goods will be auctioned for town residents until all farmer goods are sold and then only if time permits!

The Big Free Auction Sale will take place on the street between the Red Cross Pharmacy and the Kendrick Cafe — or in the Auto Freight Depot, should the weather prove inclement. Rules are simple. All articles purchased at the Auction must be settled for before being removed — and all articles put up must be sold.

We had hoped that the recent special Congress would honestly enact legislation reducing the price of necessities and many housewives hoped the same thing. In this we have been disappointed. Of the many requests made by President Truman, four bills were passed, namely, to restrict installment buying, tighten bank credits, provide government aid to private home construction and authorization of a building loan to the United Nations. Price controls, low-cost housing and slum clearance. aid to education, increases in old-age benefits and reduction of eligibility from 65 to 60 years for women, and various other worthy causes were by-passed by the Congress, though advocated and made the subject of the Republican platform declarations.

UNITED CHURCH OVERSEAS RELIEF NEEDS ARE HEAVY

Only through the generous, immediate assistance of Christian people of America will it be possible for life again to hold any meaning of dignity or decency for millions of homeless people of Europe, and reestablish for them a normal way of existence! This was the opinion sof strongly expressed by Dr. S. C. Eastvold, president of Pacific Lutheran College, Parkland, Wash., upon his recent return from a three-month trip through 10 European countries where he was an observer of economics and service workers, the delegates, state and sectional winners in national 4-H awards pro-

"What Christian aid from America has done for the refugees from many countries now living in Displaced Person's camps is best illustrated by visits I made to two such camps in Germany," stated Dr. Eastvold in an interview with United Church Overseas Relief.

Later I visited a nearby camp under direction of the National Lu-theran Council. Here each family had some privacy. The place was clean. There were homelike touches with overseas relief work, according to Dr. Eastvold. It was primarily to discover the uses to which this money had been put, the results obtained, and what still remains to be done for relief abroad, that his trip was planned, he explained.

"In every country I visited I found the people full of mingled fear and receive.'

"Christian aid is dispensed without injuring the dignity or pride of the recipient," said Dr. Eastvold. "We cannot give too much of it to people whose lives overseas were ruined by the war. Unprecedented interest in salmon fishing, Murray said, has accounted for part of the sharp climb in license sales. Chinook spawning tributaries have been lined with fishermen since the middle of July. The department also reported larger than usual crowds on trout streams and lakes.

About Tuberculosis

Tuberculosis is usually thought of as a disease of human beings and cattle. But dogs have tuberculosis, too, according to a recent report from the American Foundation for Animal Health.

New cases have been reported just lately, this organization says where dogs who lived with tubercular persons contracted the disease. In one case, a dog lived in a house-hold where one person had T. B. The dog was sold, apparently healthy. Years later, latent T. B. came out as a complication of another more acute disease. Although dogs don't often get T. B., it can happen, and the American Foundation says this 40-2x is just one more reason to check on the life history and former home of

HELLO, FOLKS —

About Lockers:

Need a locker? We have different size lockers available for your convenience. If your luck has been good on your big game hunt this year and you need a big locker, that's fine, we have just what you need.

If your luck hasn't been so good, we sympathize with you, but have smaller lockers available — just the size to fit your need and at a lower price. By paying for your locker in advance you are allowed a 10 per cent discount. Take advantage of this saving and buy your locker at the creamery.

Wholesome Foods:

Serve your family the best of foods — serve them Potlatch Chief Dairy Products. Keep plenty of pasteurized milk, whipping cream, cottage cheese, butter, eggs and ice cream in your refrigerator at all times. They are not only handy to serve, but are delicious, and the most healthful foods you can buy.

Locker Supplies:

For locker supplies, shop at the creamery. We have a complete stock of cellophane bags, boxes, locker paper and string.

We are always in the market for your cream. Investigate the co-operative way of marketing through us. You will find it will
