MORE SCHOOL NOTES

wide array of colors and designs.

All-High School Dance
The Freshman class is sponsoring an all-high school dance Friday evening in the gym. Refreshments will be served and fun for all is assured.

Our Thanks To The Fans
With the closing of the basketball season the school wishes to take this opportunity to thank the fans for their fine support during the past season. Weather and poor roads put attendance at the games much less than in recent years, but we feel that it was exceptionally good considering the conditions. The school also appreciates the fine sportsmanship of its supporters. Although the team did not win as consistently, or go as far in the tournaments, our fans seem to accept this fact without murmuring. After all, true sportsmen are determined by being able to take wins and losses alike in stride, and remain loyal to the team.

If basketball is to assume so large a place in our program, it must be on that basis. Character development and sportsmanship are brought out under both winning and losing conditions and the true values of the game should be determined by the lasting value that the player, the rooting sections and the fans in general receive from the activity, rather than the score-board.

Hold Fire Drill

Attend Dinner

Ross Armitage, Dave Clayton and Jasper Nutting attended a dinner at the Bollinger hotel, Lewiston, Saturday at noon, sponsored by Lloyd Harris of Lewiston, for school officials and coaches of the Lapwai district. Also in attendance was the basketball team from N. I. C. E.

Fire Destroys Lapwai School

Fire, which apparently originated in the boiler room of the Lapwai school building, Saturday morning about 7:00 o'clock, completely destroyed the Lapwai grade and Junior high school building.

Firemen were able to save the new high school building and gymnasium, attached to the old building by a corridor — despite the fact that there were no fire doors.

The grade school building cared for about 280 pupils, who are now attending school in the Lapwai Indian agency buildings.

It is understood that the loss was covered by insurance, and it is more than probable that rebuilding will be begun as soon as possible.

Sentenced To Life In Prison

Mike Foley, 15, a handsome boy who pleaded guilty to the second degree murder of his mother, stood calmly in the district courtroom at 10:10 Monday morning and heard Judge Leo McCarty sentence him to spend the rest of his life in the state penitentiary at Boise.

For Mike it was the climax of a drama which began at Leland the evening of Jan. 19. The boy's mother, Isabelle, 42, and brother, Jack, 12, were shot to death as they sat in the family living room after supper. Mike has admitted both slayings.

Mike has never been charged with killing Jack.

His composure was in sharp contrast to his frenzied Thursday when he endured nearly two hours of testimony in order to enter a plea of guilty to second degree murder. There were no tears or nervous quiver.

Judge McCarty sentenced Mike to the maximum indeterminate term prescribed by state law for second degree murder. In 10 years Mike will be eligible for probation, also in accordance with state law. Whether he is put on probation in 10 years, when he is 25, is in the hands of the state board of correction. — Lewiston Tribune.

"Slab" Crossing Really Bad

Monday evening local residents who braved the rushing waters at the foot of Brady Gulch to attend the Joint P-T. A. meeting at Juliaetta, were greeted on their return with a state road sign which read: "Closed," as the water was deeper and swifter than during the early period.

Some back-tracked and detoured over American ridge, others braved the rocks and water and all got through, although the stream was more than "running board" deep.

The cool nights have held flow down, and the state highway crew has been able to keep this section "bouncable" for cars, but with the added rain and warm nights Clarence Perryman says he does not know if they can keep the stream "fordable".

The only solution to this problem would be a bulldozer and dragline ditching operation and a temporary bridge, but with the new road slated this spring, it is doubtful if the state will go to that expense.

Fellowship Meeting Postponed — The Adult Fellowship meeting of the Community church scheduled for Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. R. L. Blewett, will be postponed until Sunday evening March 20.

Should Reduce Federal Waste

An opportunity for the American people to "reduce the Federal waste-line" was seen this week by Presley F. Horne, president of the Associated Taxpayers of Idaho, as a result of the work of the Hoover Commission on government reorganization, which made its first report to congress on Feb. 7th.

Mr. Horne said the work of the non-partisan, non-political commission, which has the strong support of President Truman, is reaching its climax with publication of detailed explanations showing where there is waste and overlapping in the federal government, and how they may be eliminated.

"In the next six weeks, the Commission on Reorganization of the Executive branch of the government will present a series of reports to congress that will be a blueprint for efficient, economical government," said Horne.

Although the first report of the commission does not mention how much money would be saved for the taxpayer by putting into effect its recommendations, Horne recalled that former President Hoover, as chairman of the Commission, has estimated potential savings at at least $3,000,000,000 a year.

"This fact is especially significant today since congress has just been asked to raise an additional $4,000,000,000 in taxes," said Horne. "It is not impossible that forthright application of the Hoover Commission recommendations could obviate the necessity for any additional taxes at this time."

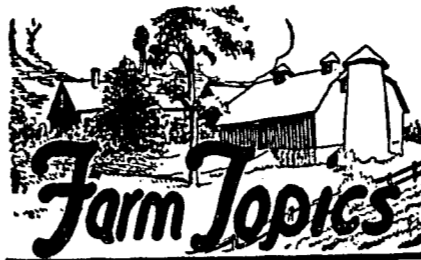

The magnitude of the problem is indicated by the fact that the Federal government has become "the most gigantic business on earth," said Horne. In less than 20 years the number of its civilian employees has risen from 570,000 to more than 2,100,000; the number of bureaus and units has increased four-fold to over 1,800; annual expenditures have increased from about $3,600,000,000 to more than $42,000,000,000; the national debt per average family has increased from about $500 to about $7,500, despite our increased population.

"In view of these circumstances, successful application of the Hoover Commission blueprint to trim down the Federal colossus is of great importance to every taxpayer," said Horne.

To Graduate Large Class

U. of I., Moscow — For the first time since the war and the second time in the history of the University of Idaho, over 500 bachelor's degrees will be awarded to graduating seniors at Commencement on May 30th.

The number of graduates has increased by approximately 200 each year since the war was over. In 1946 there were 166 degrees awarded; in 1947, 346, and in 1948, 440. This year approximately 650 seniors will receive degrees. The only other year in which over 500 degrees were given was in 1940, when there were 535 graduates.

Little Pigs Stunted By Worm Infestation

Tests Show Marked Retarding of Growth

Seldom are farmers inclined to argue with scientists, livestock specialists and others who keep warning that internal parasites are harmful to swine. Occasionally, however, a farmer will pose the question: "How much injury is caused by worm infestation?"

The answer to that question is provided in tests conducted by the bureau of animal industry to determine how much the growth of pigs is retarded by roundworms (ascariids).

Growth of this pig will be determined largely by number of worms present.

In carrying out the experiment, the bureau used eight litter-mate pigs eight weeks old, feeding four of them infective roundworm eggs. The other four, which served as controls, received no worm eggs.

After four months all eight pigs were weighed, killed and examined for roundworms. None were found in the control pigs, but the other four harbored 109, 39, 20 and 12, respectively.

Growth of the four pigs that had roundworms at autopsy was less rapid than the four controls. The pig with 109 worms weighed 8.7 pounds less than at the time it was fed the worm eggs; its control litter-mate gained 96 pounds.

The pig with 39 roundworms gained only 48 per cent as much as its control; the one with 20 roundworms, only 55 per cent as much as its control. The growth of the pig with only 12 roundworms was not retarded very much; it weighed nearly as much as its control mate.

Research to Intensify Winter in Meat Tests

Freezing is one of the oldest ways of preserving meat. It is also one of the newest, the U. S. department of agriculture points out.

In old-time freezing there was not much that could be done about the process. It was a winter method depending on continued cold. A mid-winter or early-spring thaw might spoil a meat supply intended to last for additional weeks or months. This was true whether the meat was wild game brought in by hunters or was from domestic animals.

Modern freezing is still so new that there is a good deal to be learned about it.

This is the purpose of an expansion of studies of meat freezing and curing made possible under the research and marketing act. A first step will be to survey freezing and curing methods now in use. Samples of meats typical of these methods of preservation will be assembled and compared for quality and nutritive value. Next, the experimenters will try first to duplicate, then improve the methods which the survey and comparison work indicate are most effective.

The bureau of animal industry will have equipment that can improve on even the most severe winter weather. It will be able to freeze meat at 100 degrees below zero if that proves desirable.

Quality Cream Boosts Returns to Dairymen

Production of high quality cream will pay dividends to the dairymen.

A few suggestions for assuring top production: Protect separator from rust; rinse with chlorine solution before using; wash with powder immediately after each separation; cool cream immediately; separate milk immediately after straining; cool cream rapidly and thoroughly before mixing with older cream; keep containers covered from the time the milk is strained into cans until it reaches the receiving vat; strain milk in milk room or milk house, not in the barn; cover cans tightly and place in cooler with cold circulating water.

Several Sheep Ailments Are Caused by Worms

Several ailments of sheep, including "nodular disease," "stomach worm disease" and "black scours," are caused by worms. Main attack by successful sheep men, therefore, is directed against development or reproduction of the offending worms. While most of the eggs and young worms of these parasites are destroyed in winter, sheep must be treated to prevent entry of worms into the intestinal tract.

NEIGHBORS OF YOURS

That Have Served You Long and Well!

The names below are those of 69 men and women who, as pioneer employes of Washington Water Power, have blazed trails that brought to your home and your community better living, electrically, at low cost.

Many of them "strung wire" from horse-drawn wagons along rough trails in the early 1900's—worked long hours on the first crude generators to "produce the juice" that first lighted your home electrically—introduced to you those then "new-fangled" aids to better living, the electric iron, washer, cleaner.

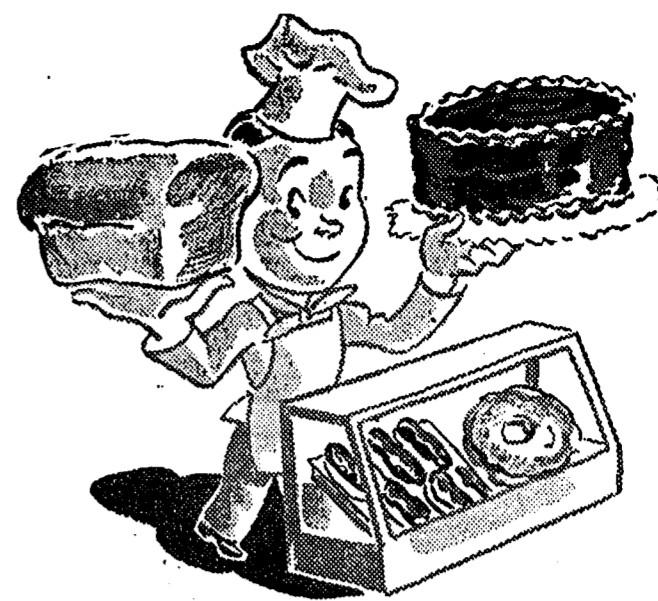

On this 60th Anniversary of its founding, Washington Water Power wishes to give special recognition to these Trailblazers of Service, your "good neighbors" and loyal electrical servants for 30 years or more . . .

Latah Soil Conservation Report

Last week Harry Benschoter handed us a copy of the Ninth Annual Report of the Latah Soil Conservation District, and in its contents we find the following items of interest: 'We have gone through the year of heaviest precipitation on record, and coming as it did after years of extensive over-cropping during the war and post-war period, it has resulted in heavy erosion through the Palouse — and Latah county is no exception. Erosion here, too, is extensive and in places intensive. 'The outlook is not all dark, however. Stubble utilization and sweet clover and grass rotations or varied with alfalfa hay, or clover are producing some bright spots in the picture. 'Farm plans written during 1948 number 94 for a total acreage of 19,183. Total farm plans written to date number 1,236 for an acreage of 267,142. Total active plans number 1,003 for an acreage of 220,888. 'Our district records show that 122 farmer-district cooperators used district equipment during the year 1948, which means that 10 percent of the farmers availed themselves of this service. Under the heading of district needs we find the following: 'The Latah District needs the return of the Work Unit Conservationist to Kendrick, who was removed to another station in the economy drive. 'The tractor and dozer (TD-35) now in use in Latah county is too small to do the work we require of it. The supervisors must continue their efforts to secure a heavy-duty tractor-dozor suitable to our needs. 'The 1948 committee consisted of C. V. Brabb, who lives in Latah county but whose address is Palouse, Wash.; King D. Ingle, Kendrick; Roy Emerson, Genesee; Harry S. Benschoter, Kendrick, and G. W. Kitch, Troy.'

CALL FOR BIDS

Sealed bids will be received by the Latah Soil Conservation District, until March 19, 1949, for the sale of one International Diesel Crawler, 35 h. p., with Gar Wood hydraulic adjustable angle dozer, new electric starter. Can be seen at the Kendrick Bean Growers, Kendrick, Idaho. Tractor recently overhauled. Terms: Cash. Bids must be accompanied by check for 10% of bid price. Checks of unsuccessful bidders promptly returned. Right to reject any or all bids reserved. Bids opened March 21, 1949, at Kendrick, Idaho. Mail bids to Latah Soil Conservation District, c/o Soil Conservation Service, Kendrick, Idaho. G. W. KITCH, Chairman, Board of Supervisors.

HELLO, THERE FOLKS:

Why Wait?

Almost all of you who live on farms know that sooner or later you are going to purchase some baby chicks and raise them, either to eat or for egg production. So why let the days flit by? Place that order now for delivery when you want them. Such an action insures the kind you want when you want them — and the sooner you get them — the quicker you can enjoy that golden fried chicken or cash in on egg production.

So why wait? Remember, we take orders for Erving's Winlock Hatchery Chicks — the chicks that really produce, as the stock behind them is the best.

Ice Cream:

Now that we have a bit of spring and you can stir out, either for outdoor work or to do a bit of entertaining, ice cream makes the finest of desserts. It is easy to serve, economical, and yet delicious and satisfying. Also remember, that we handle "Toppers," those delicious top coatings for making sundaes at home.

About Milk:

Milk, as you probably know, is not a luxury, but a food — and as such should be on every table at every meal. Not only should children have at least a quart a day for good health, but adults should drink at least a pint daily. There is nothing more important to you and your family than health — so don't slight it. Drink those vitamins in milk!

"As I understand the case," said the judge, "you and your husband had a drunken altercation and you were kicked in the ensuing rumpus."
"No, suh, judge," replied Manddy, "Ah was kicked in the stum-mick!"

Send us your cream!

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Lyons and son George were Lewiston callers one day last week.

home from the Shriner's hospital at Spokane on Thursday and we are all very happy to hear that the operation on his feet was a success — and we know how happy the Chilberg family must be to have him home again.

Charley has been keeping the home fires burning since Christmas and seems to be getting along fine.

Mrs. Charley Keeler wishes to thank the ladies who sent her the potted plant and states that she is still enjoying it very much.

Gold Hill School News

Jeanette Rowden was absent most of last week with a sore throat.

Mr. Parks and Mr. Ingie inspected our heating plant and the suggested changes were made by Art Foster. We have had no trouble at all with smoke this week, so perhaps our problem is solved.

In the second and third grade English test on sentences and sentence endings, Douglas Pederson made a perfect score.

The "Cubs" entertained the "Lady Slippers" last Friday during an afternoon period with a long-delayed health party.

Janice Foster was absent three days this week due to illness.

Mr. Nuttine made a short visit to our school Thursday. He brought Science readers for our second grade class.

We heard a true story in our fifth grade English class which, we think, beats some of those told in the "Believe It Or Not" columns. According to Dorothy, her kitten lost its tail when it was very small. Not just a part of the tail was gone, but all of it. The kitten was tailless for several months, but now that it is about grown it is getting a new tail. The new one is about two inches long at this time.

To Be Company Guests

Twenty-five Washington Water Power employees in its Palouse division will be special guests of the company at the 11th annual Trailblazers banquet to be held in Spokane March 12 in honor of 366 veteran employees.

The banquet is sponsored by the W. W. P. in recognition of all employees, both active and retired, who have completed 20 or more years of service, and will this year highlight the company's celebration of the 60th anniversary of its founding, March 13, 1889.

Twenty-one employees of the pioneer hydro-electric firm will receive special Trailblazer pins honoring their entry into the organization as "cubs."

Pins will be presented by J. E. E. Royer, vice president and general manager of the company, who is toastmaster for the event.

Well known employees from this area who will attend will be Eben Adams and V. S. Casbolt of Moscow, and H. C. Schupfer, Kendrick.
