HELLO, THERE FOLKS:

Remember That Old Saying: Do you remember that old saying: "Time and Tide Wait for No Man?" Well, folks, the same thing applies to baby chicks. It takes time for them to grow to the size where they can become golden, sizzling, delicious platters of fried chicken — or where they can add to the family income with fresh eggs. So why wait? About Pure Milk:

As you know, we do not sell raw milk — all is pasteurized, which means that you and your family can drink those necessary vitamins with assurance and

About Ice Cream:

Now that spring is almost here and busier days are ahead, don't worry about a dessert when you entertain. Just get the necessary amount of "Potlatch Chief" Ice Cream and serve it with the assurance it will please the most fastidious.
