Recipe For Preserving Children

Take one large dirty field; onehalf dozen children; two or three dogs; a pinch of brook and some pebbles. Mix the children and the dogs well together, put them into the field, stirring constantly. Pour the brook over the pebbles, sprinkle the children with dirt; spread over all a deep blue sky and let bake in the hot sun. When brown, remove, dunk in bathtub and tuck into bed.

By selling to us, or perhaps we should say "through us," you get the full market price, plus your share of the profits, so it is easy to see that co-operative selling really pays dividends. We suggest that if you are not selling through us that you come in and talk the matter over with our manager, Ned Van Campen. It won't take but a few minutes of your time and the return will be profitable.

About Cottage Cheese:

You just can't beat "Potlatch Chief" cottage cheese for that cooling, refreshing, nutritious salad. Served plain — or with fruit, it will fit into any menu and it's pretty, too.

Have You Tried Buttermilk?

There just isn't any substitute for a cooling, refreshing glass of cold "Potlatch Chief" buttermilk. Take home a quart, half-gallon or gallon. It will meet the most critical "taste test." Nutritious,
