MISS BARBARA POWELL BRIDE OF MARK KERBY

In the presence of many friends and relatives, Barbara Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Powell, Lewiston, and Mark Kerby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kerby, Cheerylanes, were married Sunday afternoon at the Congregational Presbyterian (Federated) church at Lewiston, the Rev. Douglas Vance officiating.

The bride wore a floor-length white satin gown with fingertip veil. She was attended by Dorothy Jean Kerby, maid of honor, who wore a pink formal and bridesmaids Connie Akina and Jeanette Fox, who wore blue and yellow formals. Little Barbara Ware was flower girl, and Jackie Frei, nephew of the groom, was ring-bearer.

Mrs. Bobby Myers sang several songs, among them "Ave Maria" and "I Love You."

The bride's mother wore a light blue dress with black accessories, and Mrs. Kerby wore gray with white and black accessories.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church basement.

The bride chose a light green suit with white accessories for going-away, and wore an orchid.

After a brief honeymoon at Lake Pend Oreille, Mr. and Mrs. Kerby will be at home at 1424 11th Ave., in Lewiston.

The young couple plan to attend N. I. C. E. at Lewiston, where they have been attending school.

Brothers and sisters of the groom were all here to attend the wedding ceremony and included Mr. and Mrs. Harold Frei and son Jackie of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Don Kerby and son Gary of Bonners Ferry; Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Kerby and children, Pat and Karen of Caldwell, Ida.; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Rose of Lewiston, and Mr. and Mrs. Kelvin Christopher of Pullman.

Other relatives who came from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Potter and Doreen of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Curtis and Robert of Colfax; Mr. and Mrs. John Mattmiller of Kellogg; Mrs. Mary Glass and daughters Rosemary and Ramona of Spokane; Mr. and Mrs. David Nolan and Beverly of Colton; Walter Nolan of Colfax and Mr. and Mrs. John Williams and daughter June of Pomeroy. Starting with a picnic in the garden and a scavenger hunt, the trail led back to the dining room and a rose-laden table, where dessert was served. Miss Powell was presented with a hostess gift.

Guests enjoyed the remainder of the evening listening to an impromptu program of music by Miss McKay.

HURRAH! AT LAST!

At last bids are to be called for on a part of the abominable road between Kendrick and Juliaetta. From the Lewiston Tribune of Saturday, June 25, comes the following:

"Bids will be opened July 8 at Boise for construction of 888 mile of gravel-surface on U. S. Route 42 between Kendrick and Juliaetta and for re-conditioning of roadbed and application of crushed rock surface on 8.766 miles of the highway between Kendrick and Deary.

"The Juliaetta-Kendrick job includes rebuilding of the highway at the mouth of Brady gulch, a highway official said. Thousands of tons of rock were rolled into the roadbed on identical days in 1947 and 1948, and smaller slides occurred this spring."

Our Note: The dates are not identical — but the fact remains that for the past two years we have been driving over one of the worst if not the worst so-called "highways" in the state of Idaho — and cheers are greeting the announcement of the call for bids!

GRAIN MARKETS SHOW PLENTY OF CHANGES

Grain markets were quite unsettled during the past week, according to the Market News Service of the Department of Agriculture. Futures prices closed slightly higher on wheat and soybeans but were lower than a week ago on corn, oats and rye. Premiums on cash wheat, on the other hand, dropped sharply in the southwestern markets. Cash corn declined with futures, while oats, barley and soybean prices advanced 2c to 4c per bushel at the principal markets. Prospects of record supplies of wheat and resumption of harvesting following delays from recent rains were weakening influences in the cash market for winter wheat. Cash premiums at Kansas City dropped 10c to 12c per bushel. Prices at Chicago and St. Louis and in the Pacific Northwest gained slightly. Spring wheat prices at Minneapolis were down 2c to 3c per bushel from a week ago, reflecting in part improvement in spring wheat prospects as the result of recent rains which provided needed moisture.

The condition of the United States wheat crop at the first of June indicated a harvest of 1,037,000,000 bushels of winter wheat and about 300,000,000 bushels of spring wheat. This, together with an expected carry-over of about 300,000,000 bushels, would give a total supply this season of 1,637,000,000 bushels, compared with 1,484,000,000 bushels last year. No estimate is yet available for the Canadian crop but scattered rains and warm weather improved prospects during the past week. The present situation is relatively favorable in most of Manitoba, in eastern and northern Saskatchewan and in the southern and Peace river areas of Alberta. With moisture reserve relatively low, however, continued satisfactory growth will depend upon the receipt of further timely rains.

For the Pacific Northwest states of Oregon, Washington and northern Idaho, the 1949 crop of wheat was forecast on June 1 at 100,869,000 bushels compared with the 1948 crop of 113,862,000 bushels and the 1938-47 average production of 88,011,000 bushels. Continued hot, dry weather since June 1, however, has pushed grain prospects even lower in the Big Bend and other eastern Washington areas with some central and eastern Oregon sections badly in need of rain. Rain is urgently needed to fill the heads of winter wheat and to prevent failure of the spring-sown crop. If dry weather continues, harvest in the earlier sections will start around July 4th.

Receipts of wheat at the principal terminals dropped to about 11,000,000 bushels during the week, largely as the result of rain which delayed harvesting in the southwest. With the clearing weather, combining has been resumed. Harvesting has moved northward into Kansas and the first cars of new Kansas wheat were received at Kansas City during the week. The renewal of harvesting and the arrival of more new crop wheat weakened cash quotations at Kansas City and prices declined 10c to 12c per bushel. No. 2 hard winter being quoted at $2.00 to $2.04 per bushel. Heavy offerings and improved spring wheat prospects lowered cash premiums 4c to 5c per bushel at Minneapolis and No. 1 dark northern spring was quoted at $2.17 to $2.20 per bushel.

Cash wheat markets in the Pacific Northwest were only moderately active but prices advanced about 2c per bushel, reflecting the light offerings. Supplies of old crop wheat have been reduced to quite low levels with Commodity Credit Corporation acquiring large quantities through defaulted loans and purchase agreements. Activity in the cash markets was mostly confined to millers who have an arrangement with the Commodity Credit Corporation whereby they trade ordinary export type wheat for milling qualities held by the agency. Feed manufacturers purchased only an occasional car as needed, waiting until new crop grain is available. Receipts of wheat at Columbia river terminals totaled 705 cars while Puget Sound received 532 cars. Most of the arrivals consisted of wheat for the account of the Commodity Credit Corporation. At the close of the week ordinary soft white and red wheats were quoted at $2.26 per bushel, up 2c from the previous week. Ordinary hard Baart was quoted at $2.28 per bushel.

The San Francisco wheat market weakened with increased offerings from the new crop meeting rather slow demand, and prices declined 1½c to 3c per bushel.

The Portland barley market weakened somewhat with offerings exceeding current demand, which remains on a nearby basis. Liberal arrivals of Montana barley was an influence making for market weakness. Receipts at Columbia river terminals totaled 32 cars while Puget Sound had only 10 during the week. No. 2 western barley testing 45 pounds was quoted for coast delivery at around $49.00 per ton, and Portland delivery brought about $47.50. This represents about $1.00 per ton decline.

The market for oats at Portland strengthened near the close of the week, reflecting strong cash situations at midwestern markets. On June 16, No. 2 white oats testing 28 pounds were offered at $58.50 per ton or about 50c per ton higher than a week ago.

War Prisoners Recall Pies Concocted From Dry Milk

The average "ex-kriegie" (prisoner of war in Germany) probably has had many delicious desserts since returning to the United States, but it is doubtful that any dessert ever will taste quite as good to him as his first "kriegie-pie" after being released from solitary confinement.

Prisoners of War received the majority of their food from Red Cross parcels. Each parcel contained a can of dry whole milk which came to be one of the most important items, valued not only for its nutrition, but for the many diversified foods which could be made from it.

At first, prisoners used the dry milk according to directions, for drinking purposes, but it wasn't long before it was discovered that dry milk had many other uses. It isn't known who discovered that dry milk, mixed with butter or oleomargarine, and whipped until fluffy, then sweetened and flavored, made a rich and satisfying pie filling. However, it wasn't long before all "kriegies" were having dry milk pies for dessert, and any person who drank his milk was considered extravagant.

Basically, all the recipes for pies were the same. The crust was made in one of two ways. One method was to grind the crackers from the Red Cross parcels and, using this as flour, bake in the normal manner. The other method was to soak the crackers overnight in milk, then spread the swelled crackers to cover the bottom of the pie tin and set in the sun to dry. The latter method was preferred because of the fuel shortage and limited baking space.

Blood Replacement Cited For Reducing War Deaths

"Adequate timely replacement of blood was an exceedingly important factor in the reduced mortality of battle casualties admitted to hospitals in World War II," according to Dr. Howard E. Snyder of Winfield, the American Medical Association. Dr. Snyder states that observation and laboratory investigations revealed that transfusions of whole blood rather than of plasma, the liquid portion of the blood, were needed for battle casualty patients suffering from shock. "The advantages of adequate blood replacement with whole blood are manifold," states the author. "Mortality from shock is lowered. Prolonged adequate surgical intervention is possible when the replacement of blood is adequate. Operations which lasted three to five hours were not uncommon; in a number of instances they lasted even longer with satisfactory results. In the early days a few wounded persons lost their lives because surgical intervention was inadequate or was cut short due to the patient's poor condition and to the fact that gas gangrene later developed in an undebriided wound (one from which contaminated tissue had not been removed) or one inadequately debriided. It reduces morbidity. It permits early radical reparative surgical operations."

Revamped Communications

Forty years ago Lee de Forest gave his invention, the three-element electronic tube, to the world. It completely changed the methods of "wireless" communication. It took the place of the arc and spark for generating electromagnetic waves, producing beautifully uniform waves which made possible the use of voice instead of the Morse code for communication. It substituted also for the variety of inefficient detectors and made use of the loudspeaker possible, for it could receive, detect and amplify its own waves. Recognition extended to De Forest, in the form of financial reward of scholarly honors, has been very inadequate. Next to atomic energy the De Forest tube holds the record for the speed with which it was applied to an unnumbered array of purposes.

Sagging Mattresses

Sleeping continuously on a sagging mattress can cause a permanently curved spine which can be disfiguring and injurious to the general health as well as painful and crippling. Sometimes this results in one shoulder being higher than the other, in a tilted pelvic bone, vertebrae that are out of line or some other unbalanced bone shape. Only a level, resilient mattress can prevent this condition, for it properly supports the body, keeping the spine level throughout the long hours of sleep. While the sleep equipment of children, whose bones are more pliable, should be especially watched, damage can also be caused by adults sleeping on wornout mattresses or springs.

Delaware Flower

The peach blossom was adopted as the official floral emblem of the State of Delaware on May 9, 1895. Prior to the passage of this act there had been much sentiment among some of the citizens of the state who favored the golden rod as the state flower. As result of this sentiment agriculturalists and school children sent petitions to the legislature pointing out that Delaware had the reputation of being the "Peach State" since her orchards contained more than 800,000 peach trees, which yielded a crop worth thousands of dollars. These reasons prompted adoption of the peach blossom as the official state flower.

Urge Caution in Use of DDT on Domestic Animals

Owners of farm animals and domestic pets are advised to exercise at least "ordinary caution" when they use DDT to protect their animals against insects and parasites. Although federal regulations do not require that DDT be labeled "poison" but only with the word "caution," the American Foundation for Animal Health recommends a conservative policy in use of the new insecticide, especially around milk cows.

Because cattle and cats commonly lick themselves, they are probably more likely than other animals to suffer toxic effects from DDT sprayed or powdered on their bodies, the American foundation warns. Furthermore, it is known that DDT, when consumed in excess, is excreted in the milk of cows. It appears unlikely that a cow would absorb enough to poison the milk, but there is much yet to be learned on this potential hazard. In the meantime, the cautious use of DDT is recommended.

Farmers are advised to use DDT only in a water solution or powdered form when applying it direct to animals. Oily solutions of the insecticide are absorbed through the skin to a degree that might prove dangerous.

Australia Supports 16 Times As Many Sheep as People

In Australia there are nearly 16 times as many sheep as people, Prof. J. F. Wilson of the University of California points out. Some 7 1/2 million people live on the vast sub-continent, mostly along the sea coasts.

The Australian wool clip is the world's best, Wilson asserted. This is made possible because of the high and rigid standards imposed. The production of wool is of primary importance with lamb production secondary. Wilson saw one lot of 25 rams which averaged 31 pounds of wool and a thousand wethers whose fleece weights averaged 22 pounds. Drouth and rabbits are two factors to contend with, Wilson said. A drouth may in one year cause the death of thousands of sheep. Rabbits are a perpetual menace. Five will eat as much as one sheep and 250,000 miles of rabbit-proof fence have been built.

Urge Care in Deodorants

The careless use of non-perspirants or deodorants may do as much or more damage to garments than perspiration, according to textile and clothing specialists of the department of agriculture. When a good dress goes to pieces under the arm or changes color, even skillful patching may not make it wearable again. In using these chemicals women should be careful to follow directions on the label. Any chemical strong enough to stop perspiration may rot fabric or cause the dye to fade or change in color. Cotton and rayon fabrics especially are likely to be rotted by preparations that have an acid reaction.

Range Land

Slightly more than half of the range land in the 11 far western states, including Nevada, is now in private ownership, according to a report on livestock production in relation to land use in irrigation made by the bureau of agricultural economics. About 10 per cent of the range land is in state and county ownership, and the remaining 40 per cent in federal ownership. Much of the range is still unfenced open country although more and more is being fenced. Grazing on most of the publicly owned range is now controlled by public agencies.

British Union

For more than a thousand years history and geography have combined both to link and to separate England and Wales, notes the National Geographic society. Into the Welsh hills the early Britons fled before the Anglo-Saxon invasion. There, in the shelter of narrow, isolated valleys, these Celtic people maintained their independence until near the end of the 13th century, when Edward I of England brought about submission. It was at this time — as a result of Edward's naming his infant son the "Prince of Wales" — that the familiar title for England's heirs to the throne originated.

Attack V. D.

Using a new publicity approach, Louisville public health officers aided by the U. S. Public Health Service have discovered 433 cases of venereal disease in the first 1,740 persons examined during the city's current anti-V.D. drive. The American Municipal association reports that the primary aim of the all-out campaign against V.D. is to teach people through all publicity media to recognize the first symptoms of venereal disease and to come to public clinics or their private physicians for treatment. In seven other cities where anti-V.D. drives have been waged recently, publicity encouraged all citizens to appear at clinics for blood tests. Although this approach is being used also in Louisville, more emphasis is being placed on clarifying V.D. symptoms. This accounts in great measure for the high V.D. rate among those tested in Louisville.

A woman drove into a service station to complain that her car was using up too much gas. The attendant pointed to the choke lever, which protruded from the dashboard. "Do you know what this is for?" he asked.
"Oh, that," said the woman, airily. "I never use it, so I keep it pulled out to hang my handbag on."

Says People Will Support It
"I may be wrong, but I believe a prairie fire is starting among the folks back home to resist the efforts of big central government to become bigger and to crowd in more and more upon their personal lives. That fire is caused by spontaneous combustion, so to speak. I believe the economy-minded among you can take heart at this. I believe you can begin now to go to work on the federal budget and slice big chunks out of it, and the people back home will support you!" — Testimony of Verbon E. Kemp, executive secretary of the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce, before the sub-committee of the Senate Appropriations committee.

Marked Increase Reported In Admissions to Hospitals

During 1949 one patient was admitted to a hospital in the continental United States every two seconds and a live baby was born in a hospital approximately every 15 seconds, according to the 26th annual report of the council on medical education and hospitals of American Medical association.

The figures reveal that in comparison with 1945 the number of hospital beds has decreased from 1,738,944 to 1,468,714, the number of admissions from 16,237,402 to 15,153,452 and the number of patient days from 512,915,155 to 452,400,710. However, a total of 2,136,373 births was reported for 1946 as compared with 1,969,667 in 1945. This is the first year that hospital births in the United States have reached the two million mark.

According to the present survey governmental hospitals have 1,082,734, or 73.7 per cent of all beds, the non-governmental group 385,980, or 26.3 per cent. In 1945 the corresponding percentages were 78 and 22.

There were 15,153,452 admissions exclusive of outpatients and newborn infants in 1946. For comparison it may be noted that in the period 1933 to 1945 hospital admissions increased from 7,037,982 to 16,237,402. The greatest annual gain, a total of 2,829,088, occurred in 1943, with subsequent increases of 662,150 in 1944 and 220,554 in 1945.

This trend was sharply reversed in 1946, however, when the number of admissions decreased by 1,103,950.

Mental hospitals with a total of 674,930 beds, had 271,209 admissions, or 1.7 per cent of all patients admitted in 1946. In comparison with the previous year there was an increase of 22,333 admissions, with gains reported in all governmental and non-governmental classifications.

An increase in tuberculosis hospitalizations is shown in the survey, which reports a total of 99,741 admissions in the tuberculosis sanatoriums as compared with 86,186 in 1945.

Church Bells Prove as Delicate as Hen Eggs

Six per cent of the world's bell production is supplied by a French founder named Piccard.

The strange thing about his business is that the French fleet not been sunk at Toulon during the war, Piccard could never have accepted bell contracts for the huge weight of bronze going into the bells manufactured had to be taken from vessels which were once the pride of the French navy.

The bells range from 600 pounds in weight to three tons. One of his most ticklish jobs will be to transport an order of 150 church bells to Canada. Bells are sensitive and must be handled as respectfully as a crate of eggs; otherwise the slightest damage will put them off tone and give them a false note.

Following established custom, the bells are sold by weight, and at the present value a pound of butter will cost about the same as a pound of bell.

Following a time-old custom, bell founders still throw silver coins into the molten bronze during casting. They insist that this improves the tone.

Conservation Gives Results
Where soil conservation has been practiced it has resulted in at least a 20 per cent increase per acre in provided a practical guide to production. Soil conservation has greater crop diversification and has, as a matter of record, resulted in greater farm diversification. Soil conservation has meant increased income to the farmer in savings in seed, fertilizer, labor and power. Soil conservation has accounted to a high degree for land protection, even under the pressures of intensified wartime production. Soil conservation has provided farmers and ranchers with a practical, physical guide for shifts in the type and intensity of production that may become wise in the years ahead to meet possible changes in price and demand for farm commodities.

Electricity Dangerous
It is dangerous to handle electric equipment with wet hands because water is a good conductor of electricity. Wet hands may establish contact with the electric current. For safety use all electric appliances far enough away from water faucets so you cannot touch faucets or water and the appliances at the same time. Never use an electric appliance in the bathtub. Never have a pull-chain socket where it is likely to be touched with wet hands—they are dangerous in the kitchen and bath room. It is also a safe rule to follow in not using a knife as a screw driver. Most knives are good conductors of electricity.

Spray With Caution
Dusts and compounds that are used to control plant diseases and pests may be poisonous. Farmers are advised to follow the manufacturer's directions in handling, mixing and applying poisonous materials. Sprays and dusts of a poisonous nature should be stored in strong, leak-proof containers out of the reach of children or animals. Hands and exposed parts of the body should be thoroughly washed after poisonous chemicals have been handled.

HELLO, THERE FOLKS:

About Milk Bottles:

Folks, we hate to take this step, since it involves a lot of red-tape for both of us, but, beginning July 1st, we are compelled to ask a 10c deposit on each bottle — and will make a refund when the bottle is returned to us.

We dislike having to take this step, but our bottle costs have been steadily rising, and finally reached the point where we could no longer carry the load.

So — Please don't be offended or feel you are "singled out" when the deposit is required — we are treating everyone alike.

About Cream:

Yes — you bet — we want to buy your cream. Bring it in often, no quantity too little, none too big. And remember, when you market through us — co-operatively — you not only receive the full market price, but also a yearly dividend. You'll like our service, too.

About Buttermilk:

Have you tried our new buttermilk? You'll find it a mighty cooling and refreshing drink these days. Good for you, too.

Ice cream:

Always keep a quart to a gallon of "Potlatch Chief" Ice Cream in your refrigerator. It's the ideal dessert or between meals "pepper-upper." Or, when about town, get a cone at the creamery. A sample will convince you that you should take some home.

A city man crawled over a fence, only to find himself in a pasture with a vicious-looking bull.

"Hey there," he called to the farmer, "is this bull safe?"
"He sure is," answered the farmer. "A darn sight safer than you are."

School Canning Project Going

The school canning program committees are not overlooking any opportunity to fill their locker, so when Mrs. Geo. Havens donated a couple of pickings of strawberries from her patch, a group rallied forth and picked and prepared 48 quarts of the fruit for freezing.

On Saturday Mrs. Norla Callison and daughter Nancy, Mrs. Perry Mattoon and daughter Beverly, Mrs. Harry Benscoter and Mrs. George Havens and sons prepared 28 quarts.

Then on Tuesday, Mrs. Louis Lindquist, Mrs. George Brocke, Beverly Mattoon and Mrs. George Havens and sons picked and prepared 20 quarts. This makes 110 quarts in the school locker and promises a lot of shortcakes this winter for hungry boys and girls.

The committees in charge are so grateful for the fine spirit of co-operation in making this canning project work and want to thank the ladies who helped so willingly.

Also, they ask that anyone having fruit to donate contact Mrs. Eugene Taylor. Then, too, those who have fruit suitable for making jams or jellies for the project, will be interested to know sugar, pectin and lids will be furnished.

Weather Freakish

The past week has seen this section visited with almost every kind of weather in the dictionary with the exception of snow — and we wouldn't have been too surprised to see that.

Thursday was an averagely warm day for June, but about 80, in the south, was seen one of the most beautiful displays of the aurora borealis ever seen here (or at least that's what everyone thinks it was). Anyway, long bands of ragged colors running from deep blue through red, green and purple were visible for about an hour and a half — and they were truly beautiful!

Friday was marked down as the day of the big wind storm — a high wind (for this section) carrying with it tons of Columbia river soil that darkened the sky and left a grimy coating on everything, was our lot.

Saturday was quite cool — and jackets and star shirts were very much in style. Saturday night rain began falling, which lasted for about two hours, clearing the air and freshening lawns and gardens, although not enough moisture fell to mean anything to grain.

Sunday and Monday might be classed as "average" days, although a bit on the cool side. Tuesday night a nice rain fell, and Wednesday was a day that could be classed as "chilly."

O. E. S. Meeting

At the regular meeting of the O. E. S. Tuesday evening, Mrs. Nell Crocker, Worthy Matron, gave her report from the Grand Chapter at Coeur d'Alene. Mrs. Cecil Gruell, Grand Representative, also reported.

During the social hour Mrs. Howard Hoffman was complimented with a pink and blue shower, given by members of Canyon Chapter.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Johanna Nelson, Mrs. Claude Jones and Mrs. Lester Nelson.

City Having Troubles

The winter's ravages at the Area swimming pool were no more than repaired, than a big leak showed up in the big village water main near the Frank Nesbit home — and Bill White was forced to begin excavations through the rocks. The leak was found without much trouble — but re-caulking the big pipe was no easy matter, since settling had evidently been the cause, the leak coming right at a joint.

Enjoy Picnic

The Young People's class of the Kendrick Community church held a "delayed" picnic Sunday evening. After some of them had gone swimming, a group of 18 young folks and adults had a picnic supper at the church. Then the group went to Lewiston where some enjoyed roller skating, while others attended a movie.

Another New Home

Another new home under construction is that of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hoffman on Potlatch ridge. Reed & Wilson of Lapwai are doing the work.

Southwick Couple Marry

Jeanette G. Mael and Jacob J. Reibold, both of Southwick, were united in marriage at the home of Justice of the Peace Ben E. Kelly, Lewiston, Friday evening, June 24.
