Bring In Big Drag-Line

Monday morning the Northern Pacific Railroad unloaded a big drag-line (clamshell) outfit on crawler tracks, and plan on putting it to work deepening the channel of Potlatch river from the Bear creek bridge down past the Lewiston Grain Growers warehouse.

This same outfit was tried out here about a year ago, but owing to the un-seasonally cold weather, which had frozen the creek bottom, they were unable to do much more than "scratch around a bit," but this year they expect to really accomplish some good.

The outfit is a huge diesel-powered machine, with a boom capable of reaching clear across the river, and a widening and deepening of the Potlatch with piling of the rocks along the edge for a dike, will be very welcome news to Kendrick residents.

Circle Meeting Friday

The Kendrick W. S. C. S. will hold their Circle meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Brocke, Sr. All are invited to attend.

PERSONAL MENTION

ly building playgrounds. Edwin Coulter left Sunday afternoon for Seattle, where he expects to find employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Manning Onstott attended a S. C. S. party held at the Civic Club in Lewiston Saturday evening, honoring two members who are transferring to southern Idaho and California, and to welcome another who joined the group. Following a potluck supper games were played. Highlight of the evening was when Don Benscoter turned up a 1500 pinochle trump hand in hearts. A most enjoyable evening was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Orville Storer and children of Craigmont were visitors in the W. A. Waits home Wednesday. Lt. and Mrs. John Wallace of Seattle spent Thursday night with his parents, and Friday Mr. and Mrs. Wallace and Randy accompanied them home, returning Sunday.

HEALTH PROGRESS

Newest Drug Fights Fever

LOUISVILLE, KY.—The army believes chloromycetin will make the country much safer against typhoid in wartime.

This was indicated by Col. William Spencer Stone, Washington, chief of army medical research, who came here to discuss communicable-disease control in a lecture sponsored by Alpha Omega Alpha, medical fraternity of the University of Louisville school of medicine. Colonel Stone was graduated at the U. of L. medical school in 1929.

Colonel Stone pointed out that enteric diseases—those transmitted by food or water—are being given special attention by army researchers. The diseases have low incidence now, he said, but if safeguards such as water and milk controls were lifted, the number of cases would skyrocket because the population has developed little immunity.

In a similar situation, a breakdown of water sanitation caused 5,000 cases of typhoid in Berlin after World War II.

Drug Fights Typhoid

Chloromycetin would play a big role in case of a similar threat to the health of the people in the U. S. Should water protection fail, the drug could hold the fort against typhoid until proper purification safeguards could be set up again.

Chloromycetin is rapidly being developed to the point where it can conquer these diseases in two days: Typhoid, typhus, Rocky Mountain spotted fever, undulant fever, and others.

It is an antibiotic which means it prevents reproduction of germs instead of killing them. It is the purified extract of a fungus found in a soil in Venezuela.

Scientists under Colonel Stone's medical research and development board discovered potentialities of using the drug against typhoid and some other diseases.

Ray Method Used

Experimenting in another direction, his researchers have developed an ultraviolet-ray method of disinfecting blood plasma to prevent jaundice being transmitted by it. Heretofore, Colonel Stone said, about 5 per cent receiving plasma ran the risk of getting jaundice, too. The army collaborated in this study with the University of Pennsylvania.

Colonel Stone said army scientists keep foremost in mind the status of diseases as related to the entire population so they can estimate what would happen in case of an "adverse situation."

As contrasted to enteric diseases which are fairly well controlled now, respiratory diseases are as prevalent today as ever. There are better treatments, Colonel Stone said, but the city-rural populations mingle more and cause greater spread of infections. Respiratory diseases also occur at a relatively younger age now, he reported.

Pacific Coast May Expect Another Large Earthquake

WASHINGTON.—The U.S. Pacific coast is headed for another large earthquake or a series of small ones, Dr. Beno Gutenberg, director of seismology at California Institute of technology, says.

"When, where, or why" the earthquake action will occur cannot yet be determined, he said. But, he added, "we know something is going on" because subsurface strains are increasing from Oregon to the Gulf of Lower California off Mexico.

He made his statement in presenting a paper on earthquake action prepared by Dr. Hugo Benioff of Cal. tech. His prediction was based on Benioff's charting of earth movements on the Pacific coast.

Gutenberg said Benioff's charting has shown that the distortion of the subsurface and resulting strain, which was released by the San Francisco earthquake of 1906, is building up again.

Recent Pacific Northwest quakes bear no relation to the Pacific coast movement he said. The Pacific coast movement is in a zone known as the San Andreas fault while the Pacific Northwest quakes are believed to be part of an Alaskan fault.

Seagulls Able to Identify Planes of Friendly Pilots

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA.—Seagulls at the Rose Bay flying boat base can identify the four-engined Sandringham seaplane used on the Tasman sea flights to New Zealand from others using the base.

When a Tasman plane approaches Sydney, the gulls take off with glad cries, to meet it and escort it to base. Other flying boats they ignore.

There is almost no visible difference between the Sandringham and the Hythe flying boats which also use the base, but the gulls know every time. The birds are fond of the Tasman planes because maintenance men throw overboard scraps of food when servicing the plane at the base.

Fishermen Soviets in Need

MOSCOW.—The newspaper Evening Moscow wants Moscow public opinion to mobilize in support of improvement of conditions for Moscow fishermen.

The newspaper reported that Moscow's fishermen are no slaves. All they need is shelter in rainy weather, boats, bait and a glass of hot tea. Thousands of Muscovites are addicts of Izaak Walton and the Moscow region abounds in good fishing spots.

Evening Moscow said many places do not provide live bait and even ordinary worms are unobtainable frequently. Boats also are nonexistent at some fishing spots and on popular Senezhsky lake last summer only 50 boats were provided, with another 50 tied up on shore too leaky to put in the water.

The newspaper proposed that ponds in Moscow's Izmailova park be opened to fishing and that a special direct bus service from Moscow to the fishing spots be established.

Democratic Mascot, Replacing Old One, Bears Name 'Francis'

JEFFERSON CITY, MO.—Francis got a Democratic sendoff.

Francis is the new Democratic party mascot, stepping into the horseshoes of Marilla, the donkey which served the party faithfully for years before her recent demise.

Francis left for Washington after a farewell appearance with Gov. Forrest Smith, a man who knows good mules and good Democrats when he sees them.

Smith said he was certain Francis was a good Democrat, all right, and that the party's fortunes would be in good hands with her as the mascot.

She was born and bred a Democrat, Ed Frazier, Drexel, Mo., told Smith. The mule was purchased by Democrats here for $225 to become the party national mascot.

Frazier said he knew President Truman well. He figured he was doing him, and the party, a good turn by selling Francis into the Democratic service. Francis left here, wearing a large sign which proclaimed:

"Greetings from Missouri—home of good mules and good Democrats."

Francis was airlifted from Kansas City to Washington.

'Cargo Corps' Pilots Fly Many Strange Haul Items

MIAMI, F.L.A.—The "cargo corps," an inner circle of pilots and copilots, many of whom welcome the change from clockwork passenger flights over routes that have become as familiar as the postman's, are flying many strange things today.

Come aboard with Capt. Robert F. "Bob" Pfaff and first officer Truman "Slim" Cummings, of Pan-American World Airways cargo clipper division.

They started from Miami with 12,000 pounds of wearing apparel—mostly brassieres—for Barranquilla, Colombia. There they picked up a load of bulls for bullfights in Caracas, Venezuela.

That night they were ordered to fly up to San Juan, Puerto Rico, to get some oil well equipment from New York urgently needed in Venezuelan oil fields.

Pfaff and Cummings had headed back to their home base at Miami when a radio message intercepted them over the Caribbean.

"Go to Port of Spain (Trinidad) for rush shipment to Miami," it said.

They swung around for Port of Spain, loaded the cargo and more gas and took off for Miami.

The shipment was destined for Allentown, Penn. At Miami the cargo was transferred to another P.A.A. clipper that had arrived only three hours earlier from the factory, where it had been modified for cargo service.

The new clipper delivered the shipment to Allentown, then swung over to New York to pick up a load of assorted merchandise for Latin America.

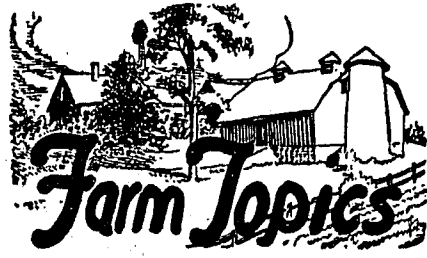

Flight crews of the air freighters are skilled airmen, trained in all aspects of air cargo from customs forms to import licenses, loading, stowing and unloading.

Youngsters Prefer Jobs In Modern Activities

MILWAUKEE.—Once upon a time almost all little boys wanted to be firemen or policemen. Nowadays, they want to be radio broadcasters, engineers, physicians or dentists.

Authority for this statement is Mrs. Esther Hamilton, chief of the education department of the public library. Mrs. Hamilton is responsible for supplying information on all phases of all careers to library visitors trying to make up their minds on how they wish to direct their lives. Most of her inquiries come from high school pupils with the college students running second. But the grade school pupils, too, are already planning their future and come in for information as to qualifications, pay ranges and competition.

The career department has over 500 books and thousands of pamphlets on various occupations.

Ayrshire Breeders Testing Production

Keep Average Chart, Record of Animals

The Ayrshire breeders' association is the only cattle-breeders' organization in the field which maintains "average" rather than "selective" production records of its cows, according to officials.

At this time, it was reported, some 16,000 Ayrshire cows are voluntarily "on test." Daily, certified records of all phases of production and lactation are averaged into monthly records and these, in turn, are averaged into annual records. From these annual figures, "herd" averages are then computed, and these are computed into the only "breed" averages extant.

Owners of the Ayrshire cattle are given duplicate copies of the production records compiled with the help of foolproof IBM machines. This system is of immeasurable help to Ayrshire farmers in operating their herds and disposing of surplus cattle.

But this painstaking "cows on test" project is only one of the many operations conducted by the A.R.A. staff. The birth of every Ayrshire calf is recorded and registered.

The operations of the A.R.A. are helping to make Ayrshire cattle one of the most popular breeds of dairy cattle in the country. The Ayrshire is reported the highest producer of 4.0 per cent milk of any breed. Only Ayrshires produce "naturally homogenized" milk—the fat globules are so fine and tiny that they are integrated by nature with the rest of the milk. Ayrshire milk is in great demand by hospitals, and by doctors with on-diet patients.

De-Humidifier

Now the home-owner can protect property in his basement from mold, rust and mildew damage by moist summer air with any one of several simple and inexpensive de-humidifiers and a low-cost chemical—calcium chloride.

Scarce in supply during the war years, calcium chloride is now in plentiful supply. Low-cost de-humidifiers are available nationally through hardware and lumber dealers.

De-humidifiers designed to use the chemical have a container such as that shown here, for the flake which is exposed to air. Calcium chloride has the unique property of being able to absorb several times its own weight in moisture.

Montana Farm Families Assist County Agents

More than 6,500 rural men and women in 43 Montana counties gave freely of their time during 1948 to assist county extension agents in carrying forward programs aimed at bringing about improved farming and homemaking methods and better rural community living, according to the year's end report of R. B. Tootell, director of the agricultural extension service at Montana state college.

To Begin U. S. O. Drive

Ted Dufour, Lewiston, was this week announced by the governor's state U. S. O. committee as district chairman for the Lewiston trade area. The district comprises Nez Perce, Latah, Clearwater, Lewis and Idaho counties. Mr. Dufour will organize the five counties for a USO campaign for funds to provide facilities in 1950 for the 6,000 Idaho youth now serving in the armed forces.

State USO headquarters have pointed out that the entire state is being organized in a campaign to raise the Idaho quota of $40,000 and that community chests of the state have generally included USO in their fund raising campaigns.

STILL A TIMELY WARNING

On this, the 75th birthday anniversary of ex-President Herbert Hoover, belatedly now acknowledged as one of the greatest Americans and foremost humanitarians of the world, it is fitting to reprint one of the best speeches he ever made. It was a warning to Americans on the "weakening of the structure of liberty in our nation."

Mr. Hoover cited Europe's hundred-year fight for liberty and then how Europe in less than 20 years after World War I surrendered freedom for bondage.

Strangled Private Enterprise

This was not due to communism or fascism, said Mr. Hoover. They were the effects. Out of the vexations and dislocations came fascism in one place, communism in another, and "social democrats" in another, really socialists, all winding the chains of bureaucratic planning that strangled private enterprise. Liberty had been weakened before the dictators arose with their appeals to prejudice and class, racial and religious animosities. In explaining the cause he said:

"In every single case before the rise of totalitarian governments there has been a period 'dominated by economic planners.' Each of these nations had an era under starry-eyed men who believed that they could plan and force the economic life of the people. They believed that was the way to correct abuse or to meet emergencies in systems of free enterprise. They exalted the State as the solvent of all economic problems.

"These men though they were liberals. But they also thought they could have economic dictatorship by bureaucracy and at the same time preserve free speech, orderly justice and free government. They might be called the totalitarian liberals. They were the spiritual fathers of the New Deal.

More and More Control

"These men are not Communists or Fascists. But they mixed these ideas into free systems. It is true that Communists and Fascists were round about. They formed popular fronts and gave the applause. These men shifted the relation of government to free enterprise from that of empire to controller. Directly or indirectly they politically controlled credit, prices, production of industry, farmer and laborer. They devalued, pump-primed and deflated. They controlled private business by government competition, by regulation and by taxes. They met every failure with demands for more and more power and control . . . When it was too late they discovered that every time they stretched abuse, then somehow, somewhere, men's minds became confused. At once men became fearful and hesitant. Initiative slackened, industry slowed down production.

"Then came chronic unemployment and frantic government spending in an effort to support the unemployed. Government debts mounted and finally government credit was undermined. Out of the miseries of their people there grew pressure groups—business, labor, farmers, demanding relief or special privilege. Class hate poisoned cooperation." (Reprinted from the Pendleton Umatilla County Record as a public service by the Washington Water Power Co.)

Potlatch Chief Sez

PUBLISHED BY THE KENDRICK CO-OPERATIVE CREAMERY

HELLO, THERE FOLKS:

About Thanksgiving:

Well, here we are, with the calendar saying that next week is Thanksgiving — so we think we should say that there is no finer dessert than Potlatch Chief Ice Cream for that dinner dessert — or it's just wonderful served with hot mince pie.

Or, if you're serving pumpkin pie, Potlatch Chief Whipping Cream is just the topping you need.

And, of course, you'll want lots of Potlatch Chief Butter, Milk, Cream and Eggs for the preparation of that meal and for table use. Ask for them by trade name. They are your assurance of purity and quality!

Also Remember:

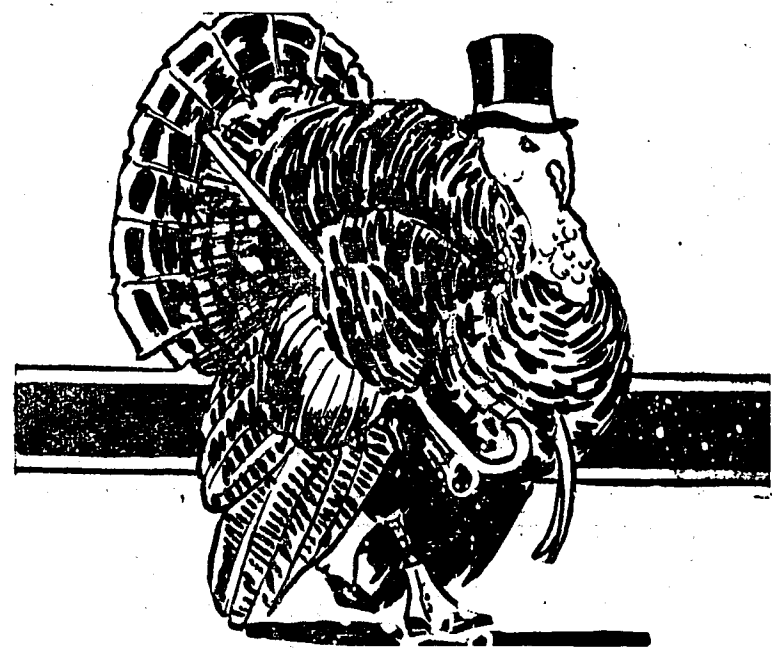

Farmers: We want to buy your cream. No quantity too big, none too small.

Lady (bragging about her new home): "And the bathroom is simply out of this world."
Listener: "Makes it slightly inconvenient, doesn't it?"

A man on vacation was paying his bill at a fashionable hotel. Looking at the cashier as she took his money, he asked her what she had around her neck. "A necklace, of course. Why do you ask?"
"Well," said the vacationer, "Everything else around here is so high I thought it might be a garter!"

Special: Fresh "Potlatch Chief" brand Buttermilk, gallon 35c (bring your own container).

Saturday Night Closing: During the winter months this creamery will close at 8:00 p. m. on Saturday.

Gold Hill School News

We received a letter last week from Curtis Farrington, who was a seventh grade pupil here last year. He now lives about six miles from Mount Vernon, home of George Washington. He sent us some very interesting booklets about Mount Vernon and a picture of the George Washington grist mill. He attends the Mount Vernon Junior High school, where there are eight rooms for the eighth grade and 225 students in that grade alone. There are 800 students in the school, which is the smallest in the county. His math and English are very easy, since they are reviews of his last year in Idaho. He was one of the two students making E (excellent) on his first six-week's report.

This school has completed its "Heart Sale" and sent the remaining hearts, together with $4.50, to the Children's Home in Lewiston. In Art class, Friday, the lower grades made paper feathers for a "stuffed" turkey. The upper grades did a bit of hand molding to be used later for gifts.

The first grade is reviewing its "Blue Book" and will begin the Primer about Thursday. Everyone knowing every word in the Primer on our last day of review will earn a "funny cookie" to eat after reading class.
