THERMOMETERS GO "KER-PLUNK" IN KENDRICK AREA

Following a snowfall of about six inches, accompanied by a wind that whipped the dry particles into freshly cleared road, it was felt that "discretion was the better part of valor" and no school was held on Thursday — and the rattle of snow shovels about town could be heard plainly that day.

On the ridges no snow shovels could be heard, but the roar of motors on snowplows and bulldozers echoed on the still air. Friday, school was resumed, despite readings of near-zero, not only on the ridges, but in Kendrick, and Friday night the mercury bedded down to a neat 5 below.

Saturday morning skies began clearing, and as night fell, with a brilliant moon showing and the stars forming a blanket overhead, the temperature began racing downward, and sometime Saturday night hit a low of 22 below zero, and at 9:15 Sunday morning was still reading a neat 18 below. However, it began warming up a bit and Sunday afternoon a high of 10 above was recorded.

Sunday night, again under cloudless skies, a low of 14 degrees was reached, and that about daybreak Monday morning.

Of course the thermometers in various sections of town recorded a multitude of readings, ranging from 26 below to 18 below on Saturday night, and from 12 to 18 below for Sunday night.

E. M. White reports that the village electric thawer has been a very, very popular item since the current cold wave, and in some few instances home owners failed to report quick enough or he was unable to reach them in time, and a few pipes froze hard enough to burst — a plumbing job is no simple matter in this bitter cold.

There are, of course, no official records, but old-timers say they believe this to be the coldest weather (Saturday night) ever recorded in Kendrick. The Gazette files for January 31, 1930, record 3 degrees below zero for Monday morning of that week; 6 above for Tuesday morning and 40 above Wednesday, with Wednesday night reaching a chill 12 above.

Despite the bitter cold of Saturday night, a fine crowd turned out for the March of Dimes dance sponsored by the Kendrick Grange — a crowd that far exceeded expectations when the thermometer began plummeting Saturday.

School was called for Monday, and all busses were able to make their runs, although a couple were late, due to inability to get the motors on the vehicles started. Holding school under such conditions is no fun for the teaching staff or pupils, but semester examinations must be held and report cards distributed — and the more that is accomplished now, the less will have to be made up next spring.

Monday night the bitter cold of Saturday night closed in again, and Tuesday morning about daybreak thermometers about town read all the way from 21 below to 30 below, apparently depending on their location. Coldest readings were at the Manning Onstott home, and at the Dave Clayton home, where the little red column designated 30 below. There was no doubt about the cold or its penetration, for frozen water pipes were common. Blow torches were in use warming up carburetors, manifolds, transmissions, etc., before many owners could get their motor vehicles going, and cars and trucks on the end of tow cables were common sights.

A car or truck going down Main street apparently made little if any motor noise, as the "creaking snow" under the wheels was so loud that exhaust noises could not be heard.

There appears little doubt that Tuesday night was the coldest for many years. Some old timers recall a reading of 28 below here many years ago.

At Cameron a Taylor thermometer at the Ted Mielke home recorded 28 below zero shortly after 7:00 o'clock, and we understand one at the Joe Clemmensen home on Big Bear ridge gave a reading of minus 40!

As a side-line of the cold four of the local bus drivers were unable to start their vehicles. One driver, Helen Mattoon, brought her pupils in her own station wagon. Other drivers, possessing no alternate equipment, cancelled their routes. At the school house the heating system proved inadequate for the arctic temperature, and school was dismissed shortly after 10:00 a. m.

Cold Bursts Tree Trunk

The Associated Press featured a nation-wide news coverage of cold in Minnesota so intense that it burst a tree trunk. Well, not only did that happen in Minnesota, but also right here in Kendrick.

An oak tree some 14 years old, in the front yard of the Ben Cook residence, and with a trunk about eight inches thick, burst from the ground to the lower limbs from the intense cold sometime Monday night. On his return to town from his mail route Tuesday afternoon, Cecil Gruell, pilot of Gruell's "Lightnin' Express," reported that the thermometer at the Cavendish store had literally "exploded" from the cold, being unable to register that low, and had broken. A little further down the road one read 38 degrees below!

Sorry For Lewiston

The ones for whom we have the most sympathy in these days of bitter cold, are the members of the Lewiston Chamber of Commerce. It must be torture for them to have to admit that it gets cold in Lewiston

Orofino Wins 15th Straight

Orofino, Jan. 28 — Hard-pressed to score their 15th straight basketball victory of the season, the Orofino Maniacs took a narrow 43-37 victory over Kendrick Friday night. Kendrick stormed into an 18-17 half-time lead, but watched its lead melt away to a seven-point deficit at the end of the third period. The Tigers threatened again late in the final quarter when Orofino lost Pat Hayes and Jack Williams via the foul route. Hayes led Orofino with 16 points. Halseth and Ware led Kendrick with 10 each.

TWO LONG-TIME JULIAETTA RESIDENTS PASS AWAY

Mrs. Elizabeth Steigers

Mrs. Elizabeth Steigers, 78, former Lewiston resident and for the last 21 years a resident of Juliaetta, died Sunday morning, Jan. 29, at the home of her son, Melvin, at Myrtle. She had been ill for two years. Death was attributed to heart disease.

Born March 24, 1870, at West Plains, Mo., she spent the first 40 years of her life at West Plains and Rhineland, Mo. She married William Steigers at Rhineland, May 7, 1895.

The Steigers moved to Kansas in 1910; to Burley, Ida., in 1913; to Lewiston in 1918, and to Juliaetta in 1919.

She was a member of the Catholic church.

Surviving relatives include her husband; sons, Melvin, and Ernest; Robert, Juliaetta; three sisters, Mrs. Emma Taylor, Fort Scott, Kansas; Mrs. Augusta Barton, Peace Valley, Mo., and Mrs. Theodore Koch of Rhineland, Mo.; one brother, Otto Schneider, West Plains, Mo., and 16 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held today, Thursday, Feb. 2, from the Brower-Wann Chapel at 1:00 p. m.

Henry F. Schetzle

Henry F. Schetzle, 73, retired farmer, died at his home at Juliaetta about 4:30 o'clock Thursday, Jan. 26, after a heart attack.

He moved to Anatone with his parents as an infant from Eau Claire, Wis., where he was born July 2, 1876. In 1890 he moved to Asotin, in 1891 to Elk ridge, and in 1903 to Lenore, where he lived until his retirement in 1947, when he moved to Juliaetta.

Mr. Schetzle was married in October, 1907, to Phoebe Anna Dygert at Elk ridge. Mrs. Schetzle died in 1935.

Survivors are a son, Charles, Lewiston; a brother, William, Juliaetta; and one grandson, Gene Pontius of Clarkston.

Funeral services were held Monday at Juliaetta at the Methodist church with the Rev. George F. Calvert in charge. Burial was in the Elk Ridge cemetery.

Brower-Wann Funeral Chapel was in charge.

Brings Good Road News

Jasper Nutting, who was in Boise last Thursday, Friday and Saturday, reports that on Friday he had a 30-minute talk with James Reed, Idaho Director of Highways, and Mr. Reed told him, that following receipt of the Latah County Chambers of Commerce Meeting Resolution, he had earmarked $175,000 for the construction of the road between Juliaetta and Kendrick, and actual work contracts would be called for as soon as possible.

Mr. Reed emphasized, however, that completion could not be expected for about two years, as a considerable quantity of "red tape" would have to be "unwound." This would consist of right-of-way deeds, some of which are through Indian land — and also the moving of the tracks of the N. P. Railway, and the relocating of the road on the present N. P. roadbed, the latter being a joint highway and N. P. project.

Mr. Reed added further that plans called for "dust-rolling" of the present road between the two towns as soon as weather conditions permit — and said that local residents need not feel that this was all the road improvement that would be made — as the rebuilding work would be pushed as rapidly as possible — $175,000 now being earmarked.

This is indeed good news to everyone who has had to travel this terrible stretch of road during past years.

W. S. C. S. Friday

The Kendrick W. S. C. S. will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. O. Kankikberg with Mrs. George Brocke, Sr. and Mrs. Tom Long as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Marvin Long has charge of the program. All ladies are cordially invited to attend.

New Arrival

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Draper are the proud parents of a 9½-pound son, born Feb. 1, at the Davidson Nursing home.

Mother and babe are doing nicely — and "papa" is expected to recover.

(22 below at 7:30 Tuesday mornin), as well as having to own up that that white stuff on the ground is not discarded "banana blossoms."

Tuesday night the thermometer dropped to 12 below, but at 7:30 a. m. had risen to 8 below, and a very light snow fell. Wednesday as we go to press the sun is shining brightly and another really cold night is in prospect.

WHAT HAPPENED HERE TWENTY YEARS AGO

Cupid Busy — Milford Armitage of Southwick and Miss Melvina Rowton of Kookkia, and Kirk Wilson and Hazel Bartlett of Kendrick were united in marriage Monday at Lewiston by Probate Judge E. L. Parker.

Water Is Burning Question — The water question is a "burning one" these days, not so much so as the coal question — which is supposed to burn. The town is not out of coal, nor has it been, local supplies being plentiful, but many residents are certain that it could not cause much more grief than being out of water. Sometimes there is water, and sometimes there isn't. And it seems that not much can be done about it until the weather moderates sufficiently to allow thawing and tracing of the frozen mains. A large pump has been secured from Troy, and a motor has been borrowed from the Barnum Lumber Co., and with which equipment water is being taken from the N. P. Railroad water tank to supply the present needs of the town. The town authorities are doing all that is possible to alleviate the situation and the large pump will be kept going until such time as repairs can be made, the weather permitting a return to normalcy.

School Notes — Semester Honor Roll

For the past eighteen weeks only six students maintained an average of 90 percent or above to place on the Honor Roll. Freshman: Mary Johnson and Jack Bailey; Sophomores, Edna Bolon and Nona McMillister; Seniors, Doris Emery and Daniel Lyons. Eighth Grade Exams: Those who passed the mid-year examinations are as follows: History, Kenneth Brocke, Oscar Onstott, Margaret Schultz, Effie Alken; Grammar, Ralph Blevins; Spelling, Rowena Ramey; Arithmetic, Rowena Ramey. New courses offered in the high school this coming semester are: Civics, Commercial Law and Sociology.

Southwick — Twenty-two friends and relatives gathered at the Homer Betts home Sunday to help him celebrate his birthday anniversary. Mrs. C. A. Fetts contributed a big roast goose and a large decorated cake to the dinner which was prepared by Mrs. Homer Betts. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Berreman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kauder, Mrs. Yeager, R. Winegardner, John Lettenmaier and family and the C. A. Betts family. The pupils in Mr. Ben Cook's room gave a party honoring his birthday anniversary Monday night. It was held in the gym, where games and refreshments were enjoyed. Wm. Cowger had the misfortune to hurt a leg while engaged in decking logs Monday. Dr. Field was called and it was determined no bones were broken, but ligaments torn, and deep bruises.

Juliaetta — Two new parlor furnaces have been installed in the Primary and Intermediate rooms at school. An infant son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones on Wednesday, Jan. 22. Mrs. Ed. Grant received painful burns when their service station caught fire, due to an overheated stove. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Clark entertained the Pinochle Club in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cochran Friday evening. Following a delightful evening at cards a dainty lunch was served. High scores were won by Mrs. Cecil Gruell and Creighton Biddison. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Horace Gunther, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Gruell, Mr. and Mrs. Creighton Biddison, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. M. Nutt, Gladys, Alice and Fay Cochran. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Caus Clark on Elk ridge, Jan. 27, 1930. Clarence Perryman of Kendrick spent a few days here this week visiting his grandmother. Miss Wilma Vincent is ill with the mumps.

Truck Over Bank — Julius Hoppe of Cavendish had a narrow escape from serious injury when the truck he was driving swerved and left the road, going over a steep embankment. The mishap is said to have been caused by the steering gear going wrong. He was uninjured, but it will take quite some power to hoist the truck back onto the road. The accident occurred at the head of the Wauncher Gulch grade.

Leland — Ernest Schmidt and family visited with the Herman Meyer family, Sunday. Those giving parties last week were Florence Fabbeck, Saturday afternoon; Ivan Craig, Saturday night; Lovick Walbeck, Monday evening; Fred Zimmerman, Monday night, and Wilhelmina Goudzward on Tuesday evening. Woodrow Flesman, Maxine Flesman and Wilhelmina and Corine Goudzward were Sunday dinner guests in the A. G. Peters home.

Cameron — Frank Wilken and son Milton were in Moscow on business Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Silflow were helping with the butchering at the Gus Kruger home last Tuesday. Among those on the sick list this week are Emil Silflow, Mildred Wegner, Erna Wegner, Willard Schoefler, Robert Werner, Vernon Henry, Kenneth Wilken, Fred Newman and Clarence McCoy.

Cougar Presence Suspected

Following reports from the Louis Porter logging camp of the finding of the carcasses of six freshly killed deer in that area, a group of local hunters took out after the cougar Tuesday morning, but so far as we have been able to learn, had no success.

Deer are very plentiful in that area, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Armitage and family drove that far Sunday afternoon, and counted 57 head — so a cougar would have excellent "pickings."

NEWSY ITEMETTES FROM AMERICAN RIDGE AREA

Correction: Warney May, Sr., who was hurt last week, wasn't in the hospital, but returned home the same day, after having had his injuries X-rayed — and is now slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Mattoon and family were week-ago-Friday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. George Havens.

Mrs. Harley Eichner went to Coeur d'Alene on Thursday to attend a Cancer drive training course. While there she also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bill South (nee Jerry Ferrer) who had recently undergone an appendicitis operation. She returned home on the early Sunday morning train.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Cox and daughter Andrea Sue, spent Saturday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Glenn, in Kendrick.

Mrs. Fockler and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Fockler and daughter of Pullman, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Benschoter and family and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Havens and family pooled their dinners at the Havens home on Saturday to celebrate Ira Havens' 15th birthday anniversary, which was on Friday — Mrs. Walter Benschoter providing one of her lovely angel food cakes for the event. Other guests were Warney May, Jr., and Bill Jones, the latter of Moscow. In turn Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Havens and family were Saturday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Benschoter and family.

Glenn Fockler, Pullman, Wayne Davis and Wallace Fraser bulldozed out the road to the Warney May home on Sunday, and were guests of the Warney May families.

Warney May, Jr., and Geo. Havens opened the Eichner and Nelson roads to have it in shape for Monday morning for the school bus, and were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Eichner. All roads here are now open with the exception of the one leading to the Mrs. Mary Deobald, E. Roberts and Norla Callis ranches.

Saturday Wallace Fraser and Wayne Davis opened up the road to the Laurence Heimgartner home, as Mrs. Heimgartner had suffered an appendicitis attack. After the road was opened she was taken to Lewiston, and at present is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fey, Kendrick, in company with her two daughters.

Mrs. Earl Harris and daughter of Kendrick were Thursday and Thursday night guests in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Mattoon.

Mrs. Walter Benschoter and daughters Priscilla and Judy, accompanied by Mrs. Geo. Havens and Mrs. Harry Benschoter were in Moscow Tuesday. Mrs. Benschoter and daughters went on to Pullman to get her son, Jack, who had been at Pullman for a week. Mrs. Geo. Havens was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Havens and Grandmother Keene, and spent the afternoon with them.

Perry Mattoon was a Moscow business visitor on Tuesday.

Ira Havens spent Friday night with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brammer, after the return trip from Orofino, where he played basketball.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brammer, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brammer and daughter were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Koepf. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brammer, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Werner Brammer, returned to the Henry Brammer home Sunday evening.

Wallace Fraser spent Monday and Tuesday nights at the Walter Benschoter home.

Writes Interesting Letter

In renewing her subscription to the Gazette this week Mrs. Walter Meyer (nee Marion Schupfer) of Long Beach, Calif., says in part: "We certainly enjoy the Gazette, after reading about so much crime in each issue of our papers. Los Angeles is surely getting a rotten underworld."

"I don't envy you your weather right now. Just heard on the radio that it's 22 degrees below in Spokane. We wake up to frost and lots of smoke from smudge pots, but now the sun is shining and we can see the San Bernardino mountains, covered with snow. It's really a pretty sight. Due to the "smog" it isn't possible many days, though."

Girl Scout Hobo Day

Our troop has been divided into two patrols — one taking the south and west part of town and the other the north and east part.

Our "Hobo Day" will be starting Feb. 4, and will continue for two months.

Our troop held an election of officers, as follows: Donna Kankikberg, president; Karen Nelson, vice president; Janice Christensen, secretary; Ann White, treasurer. — Frances Dammarell, G. S. Reporter.

Soil Conservation Meeting

A panel discussion through which farmers may present their ideas on Soil Conservation programs will be held by the Latah and Nez Perce Soil Conservation Districts on Feb. 8, at Fraternal Temple, beginning at 10:00 a. m.

Reuben Bower, agricultural advisor for a Moscow bank, will act as moderator.

Summers Broken Wrist

Carl Hanks, a member of the A team of the Kendrick basketball team, broke his right wrist Tuesday, while practicing basketball in the Southwick gymnasium.

Has Ancient Picture

Clarence Reiman has in his possession a picture of Kendrick's Main street taken following the great flood of 1898. The photograph was apparently taken from about the Red Cross Pharmacy, and looks east toward what is now the village park, but occupied at that time by the Hotel Normoye.

The piles of debris left by the surging waters may be clearly seen. A number of then local residents appear in the picture, and it might be possible for some old-timers to identify them.

The photograph was a possession of his grandmother, and bears the identification of place and year, but not of month or day.

PERSONALS AND NEWS ABOUT KENDRICK FRIENDS

Daymond Schneider of Lenore was a Kendrick business visitor Monday. He stated that a big rotary snowplow of Nez Perce county was just completing the job of opening up roads in that area.

Edwin Coulter left Friday afternoon for Moscow, to spend Saturday skiing with his brother David. From there he went on to Spokane to ski on Mt. Spokane Sunday, and transact business in that city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben P. Cook and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Travis drove up the Clearwater above Lenore Saturday to see the big ice and log jam in the river. They report it a really "awesome sight."

George F. Brocke, Sr., left Sunday morning for Boise, where as state senator, he will represent Latah county in the coming special session of the Idaho legislature.

Bob Watts and Walter McCall, Jr., who are working near Coeur d'Alene, drove home Friday to spend the week-end here with their parents.

Rilla Davidson took the train for Moscow Monday to spend several days with Mrs. Joe Watts and children, while Joe is in Boise on business.

Eilbert McProud, county agent, was in town from Moscow on official business Tuesday.

Russell Smith from the Soil Conservation Service, Lewiston, was looking after official business here Tuesday afternoon, and calling on friends that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Travis and family of Grangeville were week-end guests in the Lloyd Ware and J. G. Travis homes.

Miss Dorothy Holt, who is teaching in Lewiston, spent the week-end at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kolter of Palouse are moving to Lewiston this week and during the process Mrs. Kolter and two children have been staying with Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Wetterow.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Wetterow and baby plan to leave Thursday for Great Falls, Mont., where they will attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Florence Rawls.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Israel and baby and Mrs. Clem Israel and son Marlin of Clarkston were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Gaglioway.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Schupfer and Mrs. Norris Walker were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mrs. Walker's sister, Mrs. Archie Davenport, in Clarkston. The occasion was Mrs. Walker's birthday anniversary. Mrs. Irvin Swenson has received word from Mrs. Bonnie Easterbrook saying her son Jack, who is in the Orthopedic hospital in Seattle, is still a patient and will be for some time. However, he is not missing school as all the children there receive daily school training. He had the casts removed last week for X-rays, but they were put back on much to Jack's disappointment. He is greatly enjoying those letters and packages from friends.

Chris Tschantz of Southwick left Tuesday for a visit with friends and relatives at Chicago and Denver. He expects to be gone a month.

Wallace Emmett was a Troy business visitor on Wednesday.

Pearl Brown visited friends in Troy Tuesday.

Harlie Millard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Millard, a member of the U. of I. basketball team, was hurt during practice Monday. However, upon X-ray examination it was discovered no bones were broken, just plenty of severe bruises. He will be in the infirmary through Friday, however, and will be unable to play in the games this week-end.

Mrs. Mary White and son of Juliaetta accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Nutting to Lewiston last Thursday, where they spent the day shopping. Mr. Nutting left from there for Boise, where he attended an I. E. A. meeting, returning Monday.

Mrs. Mary Adams of Moscow was an overnight guest of Mrs. Estella Leith Monday night.

Birthday Surprise

Mrs. Ben Cook honored her husband's birthday anniversary last Friday by inviting in a number of friends for a surprise dinner.

Following dinner pinochle was played, with Mrs. Ross Armitage and W. L. McCreary holding high scores. Loans went to Mrs. W. L. McCreary and R. L. Blewett, and the "galloping geese" to Jack Travis.

Invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Travis, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Blewett, Mrs. Ross Armitage, Mr. and Mrs. Wewe Wever, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCreary, The Whitingers and Wewens were unable to be present, due to the heavy snow.

Birthday cake and ice cream were served at the close of play by the hostess.

GRAIN MARKETS SHOW SLIGHTLY MORE STRENGTH

Prices of the principal grains advanced slightly during the past week the Market News Service of the Department of Agriculture reports. Lighter market offerings with some export trade in wheat and corn were the principal strengthening factors. Domestic inquiry was slow for feed grains because of unusually warm weather in the southern portions of the nation and reduced demand for feedstuffs. Marketings of wheat included a considerable portion of high protein types which brought prices equal to or somewhat above loan values. Disappearance of wheat to the first of January this year fell about 100,000,000 bushels short of that of a year ago. Stocks of wheat, corn and grain sorghums at the first of January were considerably above a year ago, but stocks of oats and barley were smaller.

Stocks of wheat in all positions on January 1 were estimated by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics at approximately 890,000,000 bushels, compared with a little over 888,000,000 bushels a year ago. These figures indicate a disappearance of 548,000,000 bushels for the first 6 months of this season compared with 641,000,000 bushels the corresponding period last year.

Marketings of wheat for the current week dropped to a little less than 5,000,000 bushels and consisted of considerable quantities of types that brought prices at or above loan values. Export trade was slow, although some sales were reported and domestic buyers gave the principal support to the market. Prices of winter wheats were up 2c to 3c per bushel at the leading markets. No. 2 hard winter was quoted at Kansas City at $2.20 per bushel and at Chicago at $2.24.

Cash wheat markets in the Pacific Northwest continued rather quiet most of the period, because of very light offerings and a slow domestic demand. Country selling remained very limited with values most of the week not attractive to growers in general. Reports indicated that growers were placing quite substantial quantities under the support program rather than market their supplies at current values. However, near the close of the week values were advanced 1c to 2c per bushel on export types with the result that trading became more active. The CCC purchased only 113,000 bushels during the week, but trade reports indicated export sales of 100,000 bushels of hard red wheat to Norway and the same amount of soft white wheat to Israel. The CCC reported that export allocations for January were received the first of the week and totaled around 1,500,000 bushels of wheat; also that February allocations were received for 3,000,000 bushels. Receipts of wheat at Columbia river and Puget Sound terminals during the current week amounted to 193 cars, compared with 294 a week ago. This decrease reflects in part the slow movement of grain out of the country sections because of the quite severe weather conditions. At the close of the market ordinary protein soft white or red wheats were quoted at Portland at $2.20 per bushel, all basis No. 1 grade, coast delivery, 15-day shipment. At the first of January Oregon and Washington growers had placed nearly 31,750,000 bushels of wheat under the support program. Oregon growers put 7,926,188 bushels under price support, which was approximately 34 percent of the 1949 Oregon crop. In Washington growers had placed 23,809,989 bushels under the loan program, or about 42 percent of the total state production. In Idaho nearly 13,000,000 bushels were placed under the loan program, at the first of January, which was close to 35 percent of the total Idaho wheat production.

The San Francisco wheat market was quiet with no important changes compared with a week ago. Light offerings and strength in other markets, however, tended to hold prices fairly steady, with California grown No. 1 hard or soft white wheats being quoted at $2.22 per bushel.

Barley prices at Portland were advanced 50c per ton compared with last week, influenced by continued light offerings and a moderate demand. Continued wintry weather was responsible for slightly better buying interest. However, most buyers were taking supplies for current need only, and barely holding up inventories. Trade reports indicated that supplies in Oregon and Washington are limited as local growers are inclined to hold for higher prices. Most current offerings consisted of Montana and southern Idaho supplies and were usually adequate for trade needs. At the close of the market No. 2 western barley testing 45 pounds was quoted at $56.00 per ton.

Stocks of oats at the first of January totaled about 876 million bushels, or about 100,000,000 bushels less than a year ago. Disappearance of oats the first six months of this season amounted to 743,000,000 bushels, or 40,000,000 more than last season.

At Portland trading in oats continued rather light with movement to terminals markets particularly slow. Coast delivery, No. 2 white oats, testing 38 pounds, from the Patons or Montana were quoted at $57.00 per ton, while Willamette valley supplies of the same grade were quoted at $53.00.

In Critical Condition

Frank Snrval, Juliaetta, who fractured a hip when he fell on the ice near his home in Juliaetta last week is reported in a critical condition. He is at St. Joseph's hospital in Lewiston.

Writes Interesting Letter

ET2 Dee Miller has written his parents a most interesting letter regarding Bermuda, and they have kindly allowed us to publish sections of it, as follows:

"Well, we went ashore today and took in the whole island. Left the ship at 9:30 this morning, rode the liberty boat into the fleet landing. We hired a taxi all day. Had them drive us over the whole island, from 10:00 this morning till 5:00 this evening.

"We really had an interesting day — visited the Crystal Caves, they are really something, such great masses of crystals, took hundreds of years to form. They said that Holiday Magazine is going to run an article on them in the near future, and you might watch for it — it really is something.

"Went to the aquarium, museum and zoo. Very small and not too good. Went to Devils Hole (an outside aquarium, just like natural surroundings) and they had a shark, turtles, tortises, etc.

"Also inspected the light house. It has about 200 steps in it, on the highest point on the island. They use an oil lamp with great magnifying glasses, so the light can be seen 40 miles out at sea, and reflections out to 100 miles. The light house was built by the British in 1846.

There's a church in the town of St. Georges, built in 1609, when the island was first founded. The church is still in use and in fine condition.

The Bermuda government is made up of representatives (4) from each section of the island, which is divided into nine sections, called parishes.

There is no fresh water here, so every house has its roof equipped to catch rain water, each home having its own water supply. All the houses are built from limestone, dug in the hills, and then plastered over.

"Of course, about the only source of income for the people here is tourist trade, but they say anyone with initiative can make a nice living and own his own home.

"The roads are very narrow, and only small cars can be used, like Austins, Crosleys, etc. The speed limit is 20 miles an hour. A lot of the people travel by bicycle, but many own cars.

"Boy, the hotel rates are high here, range from $10 to $60 a day—that is, most places. A few are cheaper, but they aren't nice at all. Don't think I could afford a very long vacation here. Everything in general is much higher than in the states, as it has to be imported.

"Had a good steak dinner tonight. Seemed wonderful after what we've been eating.

"Guess this covers about everything, so I'll sign off. — Dee."

Tigers Take A Pair

The Kendrick Tiger A and B squads defeated the Troy aggregations on the local floor last Tuesday evening, before a very small crowd of shivering spectators.

In the B squad "eye opener" the Tigers won 38-22. The first quarter ended 7-all; half, 7-10, Kendrick; third period, 31-17, Kendrick, and at the buzzer the board read 38-22 for Kendrick.

In the main encounter the Tigers took the ball on the opening tip-off and were never behind or tied. The first quarter ended 14-3, Kendrick; half, 26-10, Kendrick; third, 36-22, Kendrick, and at the buzzer the board said 50-31, Kendrick.

Coach Armitage substituted freely throughout both games, all who wanted to play apparently seeing action.

Next home game is with Orofino on Friday, Feb. 3 — and should be a game well worth watching.

March Of Dimes Dance

The Juliaetta Rebekah lodge is sponsoring a March of Dimes dance at their hall in Juliaetta on Saturday, February 4, with Johnny Miller's orchestra from Lewiston scheduled to furnish the music.

Despite the bitter cold, the Kendrick March of Dimes dance last Saturday evening at the Kendrick gym, was well attended, and it is to be hoped that the one at Juliaetta receives like treatment. The money goes for a cause that is indeed worthy.

News Very Scarce

This is another of those week's when local news just doesn't seem to exist, the bitter cold weather having caused the cancellation of almost all gatherings of any and all kinds — and there seems to be more activity on the part of country folk than those residing in town despite the roads they must travel. Perhaps, as the weather warms up, news will also "thaw out."

A New Policy Will Go Into Effect Feb. 1, 1950

There are a number of customers who have abused and ruined our system of credit. Therefore, A 30-DAY CASH BASIS has been forced upon us. If you are paid up, your credit is A-1. If not, we can not extend further credit to you.

We will extend our DUE ACCOUNTS UNTIL MARCH 1st — after that we must take action!

The machinery, parts, tires, etc., were sold to you as cheaply as possible. Our margin of profit is small — therefore we MUST HAVE OUR MONEY. Our business is not operated like some — we do not make the customer who pays — pay for those who do not.

This organization, The Kendrick Bean Growers, belongs to the farmers. The Board of Directors is only doing what is essential for sound business.

GOLD HILL SCHOOL NOTES

(Delayed)
 The second grade has finished a half-year course in phonics, and the first grade is now beginning it. A new game has started among our boys since hearing "Tornado Boy" and "Silver." During our recess periods the past week our hall has been full of whinnying coils and screaming wild horses, as they rear and plunge while protecting the band from the attacks of howling wolves on the plains.

The first book reports have been handed in by Gene Foster, Gary McAlister, Douglas Pederson and Janice Foster. They are due on February 1st, March 15th and May 1st.

During the extreme cold last week Gil Erlewine came to the school house and built up a good fire, so the room was warm for us when we arrived at 7:30.

Marion Rowden cleaned our stove pipes again last Sunday.

Owing to snow drifts, (more than half our pupils were absent.

This ends the first half of our school year. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday are test days for Arithmetic, Geography, English and Spelling.

Our janitors will change next Monday. Dorothy and Gene will help in the place of Jeanette and Elmer, as they planned at the beginning of the term.

At least one rabbit won't suffer for food this week. Yesterday Bernal brought a huge carrot and put it in the rabbits' runway on Banner Lane. The report this morning was that the rabbit had found it and had eaten part of it for breakfast.

We have just learned from one of our third graders that a "shepherd is a big cat."

We have had six absences this week due to snow drifts.

Kendrick School Notes
 Gerald Ingle, Harold Parks and Jasper Nutting attended an educational meeting at the N. C. E. lounge at Lewiston Monday of last week.

Jasper Nutting attended an organizational meeting of the Idaho Educational Association in Boise, Friday.

Although blocked roads and cold weather have caused school closures on several occasions during the past three weeks, the semester examinations were completed Monday of this week.

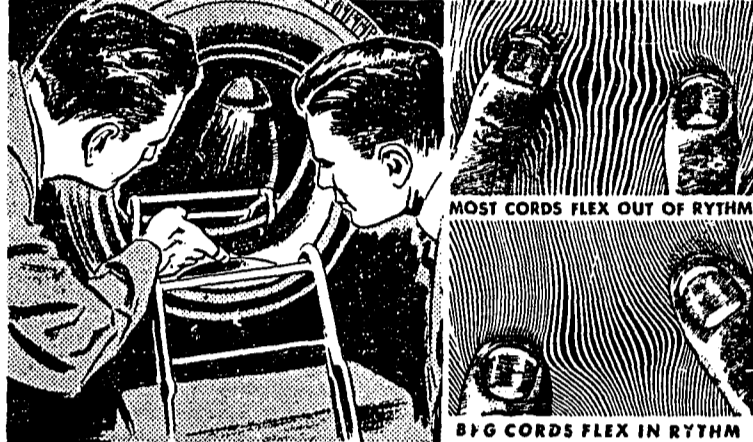

School was scheduled for Tuesday of this week, but the extreme cold weather made it impossible to heat some of the school buildings to a comfortable temperature, and the students were dismissed. Four busses failed to start in time to make their scheduled runs and other drivers experienced much difficulty.

Fresh frozen Bird's Eye fruits, vegetables and juices are available at Blewett's Grocery-Market. 1-adv

JULIAETTA NEWS

Mrs. R. J. Stuart left Monday for Orofino to visit her daughter, Mrs. Frank Grasser for a time. Before returning home she will go on up to Weippe for a visit.

Mrs. Frank Barton and daughter Charlene of Moscow spent several days this past week at the Chas. Hicks home.

Mrs. Chas. Hicks was confined to her bed for a few days last week with a bad cold.

Miss Juanita Kite of Lewiston spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Chas. Hicks.

Recent visitors in the Chas. Hicks home were Mrs. Bruce Sherman, Mrs. Otto Schupfer and Mrs. Marion Rathbun.

About Feeding Birds
 Many local farmers are giving helping hands to the bird population these days — despite the expressed opinion of our state fish and game department that the birds don't need feed — for local residents feel that they do, the snow crust lying under the last fall, making it very difficult for them to find feed.

Otto Schupfer says he is feeding a fine big mixed bunch of quail, hungarian partridge, chinese pheasants and native pheasants at his ranch — and will continue to do so despite the disapproval of the game department.

On Big Bear ridge Ole Kleth and Joe Forest say they are feeding birds, and here in town E. E. McDowell is thoroughly enjoying caring for a fine bunch of quail.

A call by a member of the Kendrick Commercial Club to Lewiston in an effort to get the state fish and game department to buy a little feed for distribution brought the reply that they "would call back in about an hour," but they failed to state which hour of which month or year — and to date no authorization for feed distribution from either of the local warehouses has been received, and in the Lewiston Tribune appeared the statement that the birds didn't need feeding.

Local residents, almost to a man, are in violent disagreement with the department on this non-feed policy. They feel that there is no sense in hatching and distributing game birds, and then allowing those hardy specimens in the fields to starve to death.

Well, perhaps the department needs the money they would expend for feed to buy a few hundred more acres of land — to take off the tax rolls.

Grange Meeting Tuesday
 The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Kendrick Grange will be held next Tuesday evening, Feb. 7 — the weather permitting. All members are urged to be present if possible.

For a change in diet get Fresh Salmon, Halibut or Oysters at Blewett's Grocery-Market. Arrive every Thursday. 1-adv

WHAT CAMERON FOLKS ARE DOING THESE DAYS

The March of Dimes card party, scheduled for Monday night, was postponed due to the extremely cold weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meyer and family moved into their new home last week-end, construction having been completed last week.

Wally Newman, Roy Silflow and Cecil Brammer spent Saturday afternoon with Harold Brammer at the U. of I. at Moscow, and attended the U. of I.-W. S. C. basketball game that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Lohman and family were Sunday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lohman.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newman and daughter Linda spent Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Whitinger and son James.

Mrs. Leonard Wolff and Mrs.
Walter Silflow were the hostesses at an all-day Ladies Aid meeting Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Kruger visited with their daughters Dorothy and Elsie in Lewiston, Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. Meske and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sullivan and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Aug. F.
Wegner and sons were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wegner, Wednesday. The dinner was given in honor of Glen Wegner, Jr.'s birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilken of Texas ridge spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wilken.

Miss Helen and Ted Mielke spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wegner.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Kruger visited with Herman Silflow, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Silflow visited with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Silflow, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hudson and son David were Monday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wegner.

James Whitinger visited with relatives and friends in Lewiston over the week-end.

There is not much news in this community, the bitter cold and snow keeping everyone pretty close to home.

GOLDEN RULE

Jan. 31 — It's 18 below zero this morning.

Roy Martin is now at home. He has pretty well recovered from injuries received some time ago, while employed in Montana.

Mrs. Oscar Lawrence and daughter Caroline visited with Mrs. Glen Betts Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lawrence were Orofino visitors on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Bashaw and daughters of Grangemont spent last week-end at the Martin home, as did Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Tarbert and children and Mrs. Roy Martin of Lewiston.

Eugene Betts accompanied George Finke, Jr., on a business trip to Spokane last Friday and Saturday.

Jimmie Finke stayed in Kendrick a couple of nights the past week with his uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ware and family.

George Finke, Jr., left last Monday for Portland, for a medical check-up. From there he will head south, and his plans are to land in Louisiana where he will visit with friends.

Mrs. Verla Chairrest and brother Lloyd Thornton came up recently on horseback to remove the snow from her buildings. She is spending the winter at her parents' place below Southwick.

Carl Finke was on the sick list the past week with tonsillitis, but is better at this time.

Ben Pressnall and Claude Kimes called on P. J. Smith, Monday afternoon.

STONY POINT NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Heimgartner and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heimgartner visited Wednesday, Jan. 11, with Mr. and Mrs. William Steigers and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Steigers at the Alvin Steigers home near Gifford.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welker and family of Council, Idaho, stayed over-night, Jan. 12, at the Glen Stevens home. Mrs. Welker and Mrs.
Stevens were school chums.

The deep snow which fell here
Jan. 15 and 16 delayed the mail service here on Monday and Tuesday, but it was resumed when the Hubbard Gulch road was cleaned out Tuesday evening.

A few members of the Friendship
Club were able to meet with Mrs.
Nellie Steigers Thursday, and spent a pleasant day working on quilt blocks for Mrs. Steigers' daughter, Mrs. Loren Ratliff. Mrs. Glen Steigers took home the White Elephant.
Mrs. Eldon Heimgartner plans to entertain the club at its next meeting, postponed from Feb. 2 to Feb. 16.

The Lapwai school, which closed because of road conditions on Jan.
16, resumed classes on Thursday.

After being closed for two weeks,
the road leading from Hubbard Gulch to the Cletis Hoisington and Eldon Heimgartner homes, was opened Sunday evening, releasing those families, and the Leslie Heimgartner and Marion Stevens families for a trip to town for supplies Monday.

But during the day strong winds closed the road again, making travel by car impossible to their homes. Some walked home, the others spending the night at the Albert Heimgartner home. On Tuesday, Leslie Heimgartner brought a team and sled through the fields and brought the group as far as his home, where strong winds again delayed the others. It wasn't until Saturday that the entire group got to their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stevens and family attended the funeral at Orofino, Tuesday, of James Clark Gillespie.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs.
Walter ZumHofe at 12:39 p. m. January 24. Mrs. ZumHofe and infant son came home Sunday to stay for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Parks. The baby has been named Von Hugh.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Edwards of Genesee became the parents of a daughter January 28, at Moscow.
The child has been named Katherine Margaret. This was the second grandchild in four days for Mr.
and Mrs. Hugh Parks.

Temperatures of 24 degrees below zero were recorded here Tuesday morning.

FAIRVIEW NEWS ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dagefoerde and family were Sunday afternoon callers in the home of Dr. and Mrs. D. A.
Christensen and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewald Hinrich and son Herman visited in the Paul Dagefoerde home Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Bateman visited in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Bateman at Kendrick,
Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Glenn and family and Mr. and Mrs. Errol Woody were Lewiston shoppers on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Craig and daughter Paige were Sunday dinner guests in the Wilbur Corkill home.
