GOODLY CROWD ATTENDS P. T. A. MEET MONDAY EVE.

Monday evening the regular P-T A. meeting for this district opened with 55 parents and teachers in attendance. After the group singing of "Columbia The Gem of the Ocean," Mrs. E. M. White called for the reading of the Minutes, followed by the Treasurer's report, which showed $143.00 on hand.

The Membership chairman announced 112 memberships to date. A letter from Gov. Robins was read in which he acknowledged receiving the P-T. A. resolution favoring a mobile unit for mass chest survey, which would permit early diagnosis of T. B., for all in Idaho. Committee reports were then called for.

Mrs. Bob Magnuson reported plans for a kindergarten are fast taking shape, and that it has been arranged by the committee to have kindergarten during the month of April. Mrs. Ben Cook has been secured as teacher, and her services will be 50c per day per child. The time is set for 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon. All parents with children entering school this fall are urged to contact Mrs. Magnuson.

Mr. Nutting, purchasing agent for Hot Lunch equipment in the various schools in the district was called on and in turn reported that Southwick and Leland had received a family-size mixer each, which had been purchased locally. Also, Kendrick had finally received a large commercial size mixer from the Tri-State Surplus agency, and it was now being installed. This is a used, and not new unit, which cost $55.00. Juliaetta has one of the same size on order, but delivery has not yet been made.

Members from the Leland and Southwick schools stood and extended their thanks to the P-T. A. for the mixers, stating they were in everyday use, and a joy to the cooks.

Asa Calvert reported on the playground equipment in Juliaetta, stating the installation was now complete and to see this project finished was one of the finest pieces of co-operative work he had been privileged to witness. Noting that the old Juliaetta P-T. A. furnished $300.00, the new P-T. A. $100.00, the Juliaetta activity fund paid the freight, which amounted to $65.00 and the installation which called for hauling gravel, sand and cement, etc., was around $75.00, was met by the school board. The total cost was $375.00, which would have been staggering to any one unit, but by working together, it was accomplished with little difficulty.

A committee was named to work out a date for the annual Stunt Night, and also to re-arrange the regular meeting nights, as Southwick wanted the P-T. A. to meet with them this spring.

The report brought back was: Stunt Night, Monday, March 27; and the March regular meeting would be held at Southwick with those ladies as hostesses.

The April meeting will be held in Kendrick with the Big Bear ridge ladies as hostesses.

Jacob Brant, Science teacher, made a request for old, discarded musical instruments, broken down motors or battery cells, old electric fans, or any other machinery that could be used as experimental subjects in his Science and Physics classes. He noted the boys had already fixed up one old broken-down motor, and taken it home to put in use again.

Mrs. Bob Magnuson, Program chairman, then introduced the Founders' Day program: The Home, Church, School and Community. Those taking part were the Mesdames E. O. McAllister, Howard Hoffman, Elmo Eldridge, John Darby, Wm. Holt, Kenneth Brocke, Mrs. Oscar Slind played a number of selections on the piano.

Hal Gribble, Boy Scout representative of Lewiston gave an informative and interesting talk on the Cub Scouting program, which takes in boys 8 through 10 years old. He recommended that P-T. A. consider the sponsoring of such a group, stating that it would cost no money — only a little time, and how could time be better spent than helping to build character in our boys?

Mr. Gribble also showed a couple of rolls of film on Cub Scouting. Judd Lee, local Scoutmaster, made a few remarks on the progress being made with the local troop, saying the highest point of enthusiasm was shown in the 11 and 12-year-old groups.

Coach Ross Armitage exhibited the newest trophy won at the sub-district tourney in Lewiston, and announced that the first game of the District Tournament, in which Kendrick would play, would be on Monday, Feb. 27, at 3:45 p. m., when Kendrick would meet Weippe. He invited all to attend the games and support the team. This tourney runs through March 4.

The meeting then adjourned to the Home Economics room where delicious cherry pie and coffee were served by the American Ridge ladies, hostesses for the evening.

Bridge Club Meets

The Bridge club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Watts with four tables in play. High scores went to Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Christensen, and lows to Ed. Deobald and Rilla Davidson.

Mrs. Ben P. Cook and Rilla Davidson were invited guests. Delicious refreshments, in keeping with Washington's birthday, were served by the hostess at the close of play.

Weather Chill And Damp

Following several beautiful days, with the thermometer barely getting below the freezing point at night, Monday dawned chill and damp, with spits of rain, hail and snow falling, and Tuesday followed suit — with but little thawing taking place.

A large part of the south canyon slopes are now bare, but plenty of snow lies on north and east slopes — and in deep piles where it was shoveled and bull-dozed about town.

To date, we have heard no reports of butternuts — but a few frost days should bring them.

Country roads are losing their frost and beginning to break through, and traveling will probably get "tougher by the day."

EIGHTEEN ATTEND COMMERCIAL CLUB TUESDAY

Eighteen members were present for the postponed meeting of the Kendrick Commercial Club meeting held Tuesday evening, Feb. 14, with the 6:30 dinner being served at Burt's Confectionery, and the business session in the City hall.

In the absence of Dr. D. A. Christensen, H. C. Schupfer, vice president, presided.

First item of business was the reading of copies of the road resolutions forwarded to James Reed, Geo. McKinney and Governor Robins by the Latah County Chambers of Commerce.

Jasper Nutting then reported on his conversation with James Reed, in which Mr. Reed stated that $175,000 had been earmarked for the reconstruction of the road between Kendrick and Juliaetta. Mr. Reed advised that this piece of work would involve the straightening of Potlatch river, moving the railroad track beds and the occupancy by the highway of the old railroad bed.

Adding to this report Mike Hedler stated that in his opinion there would be but little right of way to buy for this operation, and no difficulties should be involved on that score.

Reporting for the Finance committee Jack Travis stated that all memberships were now in, and the club was on a financially sound basis. Reporting for the Highway committee Tom Long reported that the snow and frost was now leaving, and spring work on roads would soon begin. He estimated that snow removal had cost the district about $3,000.00, and what spring road repairs would cost he was not prepared to state.

Ben Cook, reporting for the Education committee stated that school work was now in its second semester, and going smoothly, however, basketball tournaments were rather interfering with some schedules, but added that all would work out in the end.

W. A. Watts, reporting for the Fish and Game committee said that he believed game had wintered well, but that prospects for fishing were as poor as ever.

R. L. Blewett, reporting for the Merchants' committee stated that winter business had held up well. He pointed out the new churn and other equipment installed in the local creamery. Stated that the city had done some work on a diversion dike up Bear creek, to divert the flow of water from homes in that area. He added that the N. P. Railway was planning a spring program of roadbed improvement which included the raising of the track some three to four inches through this area.

Reporting for the Boy Scout committee Judd Lee reported that he, as Scoutmaster, Henry Jones as Assistant Scoutmaster, and their wives had been among the guests of honor at a Boy Scout Court of Honor in Lewiston, the local Scouts taking part in the program. He added that the Court of Honor had been a big boost and the boys were really working now, there being an average of 15 present at each meeting.

Reporting for the Agriculture committee Gerald Ingle reported that the Extension Service, through the joint efforts of the Latah County agent, Elbert McCroul, and the Nez Perce county agent, Joe Thometz, wished to hold a joint Extension Service meeting for the two counties in Kendrick, with the date tentatively set for March 15. It would be a day-long meeting, for both men and women. The women's section to consist of talks by Marion Hepworth, Home Demonstration agent for the state, and Gerald New, a landscape specialist. For the men speakers would be Dr. K. H. Klages, D. L. Forth and Dean Theoplis.

After a bit of round-table discussion the chairman appointed Gerald Ingle, W. A. Watts and R. L. Blewett as a committee to make arrangements for a meeting place and a free bean feed at noon. On motion by J. G. Travis, seconded by E. T. Long and unanimously approved.

Next came a discussion of flood control work in this area, but no further information on this subject has been received other than that appearing in the Gazette of two weeks ago.

In line with dams and flood control it was the unanimous opinion of the club that a CVA was not desirable for the Pacific Northwest, and the secretary was instructed to write all Idaho congressmen and senators giving the club's opinion.

Next came a round-table discussion of the state road oiling program in this section, and on motion by Jack Travis, seconded by Mike Hedler, the Highway committee of the club was asked to contact the Village trustees and the state engineer in an effort to get new oil through town, to be extended as far as the city limits on the east.

There being no further business to be adjourned.

KENDRICK WINS SUB-DISTRICT TOURNAMENT PLAY

Kendrick handed Winchester a 44-38 defeat and Lapwai overpowered Culesac 45-36 in opening games of the Valley sub-district class B basketball tournament last Wednesday evening at Northern Idaho College of Education gym. The Kendrick-Winchester match was a tussle from start to finish. It wasn't until the final period that Kendrick was able to establish and hold a lead.

It was in the final four minutes of play that Kendrick pulled away from Winchester, which had held a 10-7 lead at the end of the first period. The score was tied at 22-all at the half and at 32-all at the start of the final stanza.

Early in the fourth period Ted Fey, Bob Ware and Max Clemenhagen of Kendrick found the range at the basket to throw Kendrick into a lead from which they were never threatened.

Lapwai Defeats Kendrick
Lapwai upset one of the Valley sub-district tournament favorites last Thursday evening by defeating Kendrick 39-32 in the N. I. C. E. gym. at Lewiston, and Winchester remained in the running for a district berth by defeating Culesac 48-38. Culesac dropped out of title contention, but will be entitled to consolation play.

Scoring in the Lapwai-Kendrick match was fairly even during the first half, which ended with a 14-all tie. The Wildcats were ahead three points at the three-quarter mark.

Charlie Taylor led Lapwai scoring during the fourth frame with 11 points. Cal Wilson and Phil Ellenwood stole the ball from Kendrick several times to stymie its scoring efforts.

In the eye-opener of the evening Winchester's Loggers defeated the Culesac Wolves 48 to 38, to put Culesac out of the running except in the consolation bracket. It was a hard-fought and rather rough game from start to finish.

Kendrick Defeats Winchester

Kendrick's Tigers sped through the Winchester Loggers 45 to 33 Friday evening at the Northern Idaho College of Education gym. Friday evening and right into the finals Saturday night of the Valley sub-district class B basketball tournament.

In the consolation bracket Culesac defeated Reubens 45-29, and will play Winchester in the final consolation bracket.

The Tigers' speed was the telling difference between Kendrick and Winchester. Kendrick displayed the ability to get the ball into scoring position and blocked several Logger field goal attempts by stealing passes.

Luther Parks, Kendrick forward, dropped in the first points after a minute and a half of play. His field goal was offset by Forward Paul Giles' shot, and Winchester forged into a 6-2 lead.

Four of the five Kendrick starters scored goals and Parks counted twice at the free-throw line to end the quarter with Kendrick ahead 10-6.

Winchester remained in contention throughout the game, but was never able to threaten the Tigers' lead, except momentarily.

Joe Rush, Winchester guard, kept the Loggers in the contest during the fourth period with three long shots which were dead-centered through the hoop.

The winners attempted 31 field goals and made 17, for a 53-percent mark. At the foul line Kendrick dropped 11 of 21 tries for a 52-percent average. Winchester scored on 13 of 27 field goal tries for a 48 percent average. At the gift-toss line the Loggers made 7 of 14 tries.

Reubens Downed

Reubens stayed almost even with

Culesac during the first period but the winners jumped into a 20-10 halftime lead and improved the advantage throughout the contest, the final score being Culesac 45; Reubens 29 — to eliminate Reubens from the Consolation bracket.

Kendrick Swamps Lapwai

Kendrick's Tigers ripped Lapwai 32 to 19, to walk off with the tournament championship and Winchester captured the consolation award by sneaking past Culesac 42-38 last Saturday night as the Valley sub-district class B high school ground came to a rousing finish at the Northern Idaho College of Education gymnasium. As finalists in the sub-district tilts, both Kendrick and Lapwai are assured of entering the district tournament, which opens Monday of next week at the same spot.

In ceremonies after the final game Kendrick was awarded the gold championship trophy and Lapwai the runner-up award. The Culesac squad was named the winner of the sportsmanship trophy and Winchester won the tournament basketball as a consolation award.

Kendrick's victory turned the tables on the speedy Lapwai Wildcats, who had won a previous tournament tussel 39-32, and upset a number of "dope buckets."

The Tigers trailed throughout the first half, tying the score at 13-all on Center Orville Halseth's gift toss as the half ended. As the third stanza progressed, Kendrick became hotter and Lapwai colder.

The Wildcats were unable to hit consistently from the floor, while the Tigers, who had been puzzled by Lapwai's zone defense during the first half, rattled the backboards from all angles.

Lapwai rallied to narrow the Tigers' lead to 21-19 as the fourth period opened, but didn't score a single point in the final frame. The loss of starting forward Phil Ellenwood and Charles Taylor on personal fouls stole much of the spark from the Lapwai offense.

Halseth, a lanky lad, brought the game home for the Tigers, controlling the backboards and tips and leading his team in scoring with 12 points. Guard Jack Sabotta paced Lapwai with 7 tallies.

Winchester Wins Consolation

The consolation contest between Winchester and Culesac was a battle all the way, with the score tied several times in the late minutes. Culesac, which had trailed during the first half, connected for 16 points, while holding Winchester to six during the third period to take a 30-25 lead. However, the Wolves were unable to stand the pressure and Winchester emerged the winner 42-39.

Kendrick Plays Weippe

Coach Ross Armitage announces that the first game of the District Tournament, in which Kendrick will play, will be on Monday, Feb. 27, at 3:45 p. m., when the Tigers meet Weippe.

Coach realizes that this is a bad time for people to get away from their work, but hopes that as many as possible will attend. The tournament runs through March 4.

Grange Meets Tuesday

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Kendrick Grange was held Tuesday evening, with 37 members present, and three officers absent.

At the regular business session plans were laid for a women's degree team.

Following the business session pinocle was played. Marvin Vincent received high for the men, Frankie Benscoter, low. High for the women was won by Mrs. Szensen (alias Bill White), and low by Mrs. Andy Cox. The "galloping goose" was awarded Mrs. Fred Glenn. This latter prize was auctioned off later in the evening at a "Chinese auction" and purchased by Earl Wittinger.

Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

A Standard Oiler works with $41,073 worth of tools

It has long been known that the better a man's tools, the more he can produce and earn.

The farmer with one plow and a horse cannot produce anywhere near as much as today's farmer with a gang plow and a tractor. And today's oilman is a far more efficient producer of good products than ever in history...because he is backed by a tremendous investment in tools.

Every one of the 29,970 employees of Standard of California and our subsidiary companies has behind him $41,073 worth of equipment. With it, he produces more and earns more than ever before—his average income last year was $4083.81 in wages.

It is our responsibility to keep his "kit of tools" in excellent shape and provide more if he needs them. To that end, $450,000,000 has been invested in new plants and facilities since the close of the war.

Implement Company

Famed Manure Spreader
 First Built in 1889

The story of American free enterprise is graphically illustrated by two buildings at the Coldwater, Ohio, plant of the New Idea Division, AVCO manufacturing corporation, which this year is celebrating its golden anniversary.

One of these buildings (actually a series of connected buildings) covers over 15 acres and houses 705,000 square feet of manufacturing facilities. Newly expanded, it boasts one of the most modern foundries in the nation and a full complement of equally modern production machines and processes. It is the plant in which New Idea produces its specialized line of farm implements and equipment.

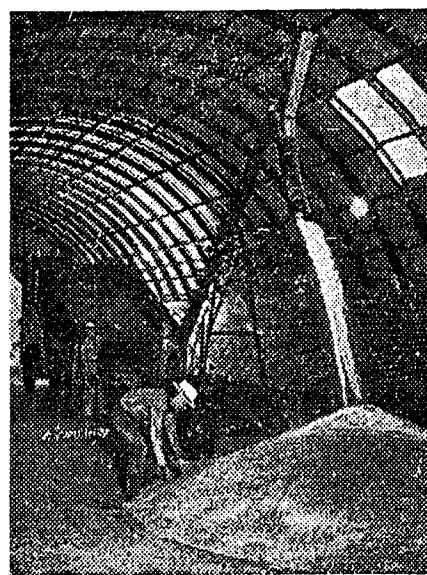

August Reutschilling, who has been with the company 47 years, stands nostalgically at the forge in the "museum"—a replica of the original plant, and it is the same forge at which he worked in his early days with the company.

Across the street is a small, wooden frame building occupying just 1440 square feet of space. In it are an old forge and several simple machines of the kind used for manufacturing in the early 1900's. This is an almost exact replica of the modest structure in which Joseph Oppenheim first began building his now famous manure spreader in 1899 in the nearby village of Maria Stein, Ohio. The communities for miles around Coldwater, and sales personnel throughout the nation, know it as the "museum."

Large letters painted on the front wall identify the building as "New Idea Spreader Works-1899." Inside are the four rooms in which Oppenheim and six helpers fashioned the first one of the most important and most widely used implements ever devised by the farm implement industry.

The first room as you enter was the "forge and machine room," containing a forge, hand shear, hand punch press, hand threading machine, small high speed drill, benches and water tank for cooling a gasoline engine.

Experiments in breeding range cattle show that—animal for animal—crossbreds are a finer type than the purebred stock from which they stem originally.

In making that assertion, a livestock specialist claims there is a definite advantage that could result from planned cross-breeding of beef animals, and lack of uniformity of color is not an indication of inferior market yield.

Young Calves Hit Hardest By Baffling 'X' Disease

When X disease strikes a herd of cattle, death losses may run as high as 90 per cent in affected animals under 6 months of age. Losses average 10 to 30 per cent in adult cattle. In addition, pregnant cows often abort or give birth to dead calves, and many of these cows die after freshening.

At least 12 different nutritional, parasitic, and infectious conditions look somewhat like X disease and may be mistaken for it by persons not familiar with the characteristics of this malady. Watery eyes, ulcers in the mouth and around the muzzle, drying up and wrinkling of the skin, and progressive emaciation are typical symptoms.

Veterinarians have been studying X disease ever since it first was reported several years ago, but up to now they have been unable to determine its exact cause.

According to some observers, the changing chemistry of the soil and forage in certain areas may be an important factor. The view is that chemical changes cause smaller amounts of beneficial minerals, and larger amounts of harmful elements, to become available for plant growth. Cattle are then poisoned by consuming plant growth on such soil.

It also is believed that a virus or other infectious agent may be involved. In view of the possible contagious nature of this disease, and until further investigation reveals more about it, owners are urged to segregate all cattle suffering from X disease and to keep them in quarantine.

Revolutionary War Women Who Won Fame from Flags

Betsy Ross wasn't the only American woman of the Revolutionary war period who gained fame for her flag making prowess. A young matron named Rebecca Young made the flag that Gen. George Washington carried when the Continental army took part in the siege of Boston.

Mrs. Young, who had a flag shop in Philadelphia, was noted in the Colonies for her exquisite needlework. Her fine stitching, embroidered scallops, and beautiful patchwork quilts were the talk of the countryside, according to childcraft books.

The flag that General Washington requisitioned Mrs. Young to make, had thirteen alternate red and white stripes. Applied on the blue field in the upper left-hand corner were crosses of Saint Andrew and Saint George—a design which represents the union of Scotland and England.

It was named the "Grand Union Flag" by General Washington and flown by troops of the Continental army, for the first time about January 1, 1776.

Like Betsy Ross, who is credited with having made the country's first official flag, Mrs. Young did not design the flag General Washington ordered from her. He is said to have adopted the design for it from an ensign that had been raised by John Paul Jones from the deck of the ship Alfred on December 3, 1775.

"Crazy" Foxes in New York

Mass vaccination of dogs has brought canine rabies under nearly complete control in New York state, but foxes infected with this disease continue to cause heavy losses of livestock. During the past three years in this state alone, nearly 1,000 cows have died of rabies after being attacked by "crazy" foxes. Rabies is known to exist in foxes and other wild animals in the states of the Appalachian range from New York to Georgia, in the southern tier from Florida to Arizona and up into California, and in the midwestern zone from Ohio to Iowa. Trapping programs have been inaugurated in several states as a means of eliminating the rabid fox menace to domestic animals and human beings.

Dressings for Fish

An endless variety of dressings may be served with fish. The secret is to add just the right amount of seasoning to enhance the delicate fish flavor rather than to mask it. Sour cream can be used as the basis for preparing a number of different fish sauces. Miss Frances Cook, foods specialist, University of Illinois college of agriculture, recommends this easy-to-prepare one: To a half cup of whipped sour cream, add 2 tablespoons of vinegar and a dash of tobacso sauce and salt to taste. Then just before serving, blend in 1/2 cup of finely chopped or grated cucumber. Be sure the cucumber is thoroughly chilled, and blend it in carefully.

Use of Trifocals

Trifocals, which provide a middle-range for seeing as well as the near and far vision of bifocals, are becoming increasingly prevalent, partly because the United States is becoming an "older" nation. (The number of older persons is increasing in proportion to the number of younger ones.) At about the age of 40 the average person enters the "double-vision era," when glasses are needed for near-far seeing. Trifocals offer also the transition step of middle-range seeing.

RED CROSS HOSPITAL WORKERS HELP SPEED PATIENT RECOVERY

The job of rebuilding sick bodies and minds of servicemen in military hospitals and restoring them to useful life is carried forward by a team—doctors, nurses, and Red Cross workers. The Red Cross worker may be a medical or psychiatric social worker, a recreation specialist, or a combination of them assisted by a Gray Lady.

Military physicians and nurses find that restoring the health of a sick man requires much more than medicine and food. The will to live and the will to do things must be revived before medical treatment can get in its beneficial work. That's where the Red Cross enters the picture.

A young soldier, only 23, was injured in an accident at a munitions proving ground. Half of his face and neck were blown away. Painracked and frightened, he had little taste for ordinary hospital recreation. He loved music, though, so the recreation worker brought to his bedside a radio phonograph and then, by mere chance, found she could satisfy a greater longing. The boy revealed that he wanted to write to his young wife those tender, personal things that he hesitated to dictate.

Under federal statute and regulations of the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force, the American Red Cross furnishes volunteer aid to the sick and wounded of the armed forces and acts in matters of voluntary relief and as a medium of communication between the people of the United States and their armed forces.

A recording machine was bought to his bedside, and he found the words to tell his longings to his distant wife. It wasn't easy because his injury had damaged his vocal chords and articulation was difficult. But after patient practice with the hospital worker, he finally poured out his heart to the record and sent it off to his wife.

To the arthritic, the tubercular, the rheumatic heart sufferer, doomed to long periods of bed care, the recreational services provided by Red Cross ease their burden of restlessness and discouragement. Nearby chapters in cooperation with other local agencies bring into the hospitals young people from the nearby communities, women who serve as hostesses for parties, young people who dance and play games, all reminding the sick soldier that he is not forgotten by those he served.

Experimenting With Mice
Several hundred white mice in the small animals laboratory at the University of Idaho do their eating in a most un-mouse-like manner. They can't even use their paws to drag their food. But their handicap is all in the interest of human health.

The white mice are used in the cancer research project being conducted in the department of agriculture chemistry department with funds from the Idaho division of the American Cancer society. These funds are provided by the Daymon Rymun Memorial Foundation. Carrying on the Idaho study is William V. Hartwell of Idaho Falls, a pre-medic graduate from the university last June and now a research fellow. Supervising is Dr. A. C. Wiese, head of the department of agricultural chemistry.

Between the mice and their food is a funnel-shaped wire tube about three inches in length. The small end, just large enough for the mouse to poke his nose through, opens into a tray containing pelletized food. The tube is built so that the mouse can't drag any pellets back into the cage with its paws.

The university's cancer research program is looking into the relation of amino acids — the intermediate stage in the utilization of proteins by the body — on cancerous tissues in mice. Are some acids used at an abnormally fast rate? At an abnormally slow rate?

Methionine is the first amino acid being tested. All together there are about two dozen amino acids coming from plant and animal proteins. Each of these acids will be tested in the university experiment.

Various amounts of the amino acid are fed to mice in their pelletized food. Urine is analyzed to determine the amount excreted.

"Success of the study depends upon our knowing that every food pellet leaving the food tray is eaten by a mouse," explains Dr. Wiese. "Hence the food funnel handicap."

IT WON'T BE LONG UNTIL SPRING FLOWERS

Again Scent The Air And It Will Be Time To Go "Back To Work"

And everyone is going to welcome that day, for there is a "something," a satisfaction about working in the soil, digging in the earth, that nothing else can bring. It's the satisfaction of doing something, of accomplishment — that honest effort produces.

To the farmer, the long black furrows stretching behind his plow, the smell of the good earth is in itself a reward, to say nothing of the financial gains his efforts will produce.

To the business and professional man, spring means a bit of the great outdoors, pattering about the house, pruning shrubs, raking the lawn, and otherwise removing winter's marks, but it also means that the farmers' needs are changing rapidly, and that his stock and services must and will change to meet the farmers' needs.

Here in Kendrick, a farming community, you will find that the local businessmen and merchants have anticipated your needs, and right now are ready to serve you.

However, anticipate your needs as best you can, as soon as you can, and be ready to go when the weather permits.

Always remember that there are no parking meters on Kendrick's streets — because Kendrick business men welcome you — and friendship should always be a part of the business world.

We are prompted to sponsor the above advertisement through our desire to serve the best interests of our community in every way possible.

 Spelling workbook and Puzzle workbook (for reading) this week.
 Duane Chilberg has completed his Geography and will be studying Science, instead.
 Believe it or not!! We now have several patches of mud around our schoolhouse and woodshed.
 On Friday afternoon our teacher
 read us two stories about Lincoln.
 Then we told stories and asked questions about him.
 We hope to have our "Pilgrim Village" ready for inspection next Friday. It is a project for all the grades. We've been working on it for about two weeks.
 Our sixth grade has finished their Reader and Health. They will now begin Science and Ancient History.

Lift-Type Device
 Used on Tractor
 Will Aid Materially
 In Easing Farm Chores

To help with those odd chores about the farm that so often are time-wasting and back-breaking, Pittsburgh forgings company of Corapolis, Pa., has developed a lift-type utility carrier for use on tractors.

The Pittsburgh carry-lift is attached in a few seconds to tractors through the regular implement suspension points. Made of alloy spring steel and structural steel, it will handle loads as heavy as 700 pounds.
 An important feature of this new unit is its quick conversion from a platform lift to a fork lift, making it universal in the types of loads it can both lift and carry. It can be used as a platform lift either with or without a back panel, and pock-

The farm carry-lift is attached in seconds through the regular tractor implement suspension points. Heavy containers can be tipped and rolled onto the platform without lifting. The tractor engine raises the carry-lift.

Popular Belting

A victim of the war, the first red rubber agricultural belting has been made available to farmers by a Pennsylvania manufacturer. Available since 1940 only as a higher-priced industrial belting, the red rubber belting was a pre-war favorite with America's farmers. This farmer's smiles as he gets his first roll indicates a big welcome on its return to the farm market. This belting is particularly popular because of its added flexibility and toughness.

Sends To Ripley

From Jack May, well-known former resident of Kendrick, but now of Roseberg, Oregon, comes this interesting letter:

When I was home to see my folks at Christmas time I discovered what I thought to be a cat they have which is exceptionally old. I remembered the cat when I was living at home, myself, but never dreamed he was still alive. I wrote the University of Idaho, and they have records of cats reaching 20 years, but not 24! — which is the age of that one.

I wrote to "Ripley's Believe It Or Not" and they are using it in the very near future — they have notified me. Ripley's had a record cat of 17 years old a short time back. My dad, Warney May, Sr., seems to keep his cats in good health as a general rule. He has had other cats which have passed the 20-year mark, also. They get warm, whole milk from the cow twice a day, plus table scraps.

I am sending this to you, knowing that it will be of interest, as from all I can find out, it is really a record of old age in animals of that class. The State College at Pullman was consulted on this matter, also, and Dr. Dallen Jones stated he had never heard of a cat of that age before.

The cat in question is very active, and is clear-eyed, and appears as if he might live another 24 years! However, he is rather "childish" about some things, and if he gets "offended" he will "pout for two or three days at a time!"
