HEAVY RAINSTORM DOES MUCH DAMAGE IN AREA

Sunday afternoon, a rather chill rain began falling in this area, and farmers classed it as the "second installment of that million dollar rain", and it seemed to be just that.

However, Monday afternoon, about 2:30, following a few hours of brilliant sunshine, a real downpour began, and which continued for some seven hours — and a downpour it was, although it could hardly be classed as a cloudburst.

On American ridge it struck almost on the point, pouring down the gully back of the Otto Schupfer and Asa Cook homes, washing across the highway and closing the road between Kendrick and Juliaetta. It also rushed through the draw at the Clarence Johnson home on Brady Gulch, carrying mud and debris.

Another finger of the storm hit near the Harley Eichner home, carrying away their garden and closing, for a short time, the Brady Gulch road. This was opened to one-way traffic a short time later, however.

As the storm swung on, it brought a gully washer down back of the Tom Long cattle yards on the Big Bear ridge road, closing that one for a time.

Further on the gully back of the Roy Glenn and Frank Wilken farms, which opens onto Polatch creek below the mouth of Cedar creek, filled with rushing water and spewed tons of mud and gravel across the road, into the creek channel and onto part of the bridge, very solidly blocking that thoroughfare. The debris also filled about half of the Polatch creek channel, causing the water to raise close to the roadbed and bridge underpinning. In the case Louis Porter's big bulldozer was called into play and traffic restored late Tuesday.

A gully-washer also closed the Wauchner Gulch road just above the "cold spring," bringing tons of rock and debris from the hillside across the highway. Here, again, a bulldozer had to be employed to open the road.

To the south and west of town the storm apparently hit hardest near the Bud Heffel, Frank Byrne Ed. Hinrich, Wilbur Corkill, Ericl Woody and Stump ranches, where it literally washed acres of clover, beans, spring grain and other crops out of the ground — although all roads in that area were said to be open.

It would seem that the center of the storm was on a north-south line, from the Ed. Hinrich, Byrne and Heffel farms on Polatch ridge, across the canyon to the point of American ridge, where it hit the Andy Cox, Clarence Johnson and Harley Eichner farms the hardest — although the Texas ridge section, where the Roy Glenn, Frank Wilken, Kenneth Wilken and Wm. Riley ranches appeared to "catch it" heaviest in that section.

A state bulldozer and heavy patrol were brought in from Lewiston to open the state roads, while local equipment cared for the remainder.

BUTTREY-CALVERT NUPTIALS

The Juliaetta U. B. Church was the setting for a pretty afternoon wedding Saturday, when Miss Maryjorie Buttrely became the bride of Milo A. Calvert, the Rev. George F. Calvert of Lenore officiating.

Miss Buttrely is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Buttrely of Craigmont. She is a graduate of Craigmont High school and has attended N. I. C. E. and Whitworth College.

Mr. Calvert is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Calvert of Juliaetta and is a graduate of Orofino High school. The bride wore a gown of white satin and a finger-tip veil held in place by a crown of pearls. She carried a white Bible on which was a single large orchid corsage.

The bridesmaid was Miss Joyce Jordan of Lewiston, a cousin of the bride. She wore an ankle length gown of cerise taffeta.

Rev. Harold Darling of Harvard was best man. Mignon and Sharon Calvert were the flower girls.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. George D. Calvert sang, "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Charles Starkey played the "Bridal March" by Lohengrin.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Orville Buttrely, Craigmont; Rev. and Mrs. George F. Calvert of Lenore; Rev. Harold Darling, Harvard; Mrs. Dorothy Kazda of Southwick; Mrs. Minnie Finch, Al- bion, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. George Larson and Mrs. Minnie Standley, Myrtle; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley, Headquarters; Miss Edna Keltly, Portland; Mrs. Charles Starkey, Ah-sahka, and James Buttrely, Craigmont.

Pre-Nuptial Shower

Louella Forest was complimented with a bridal shower last Wednesday afternoon in the Community Church basement.

Following a number of highly amusing and interesting games the honor guest opened her many lovely gifts.

After their opening and display refreshments were served by the hostesses, the Mesdames Charlie Candler, Clarence Wilson, Raymond Hudson, Eugene Brocke and C. E. Harris.

Farewell For Dr. Coulter

Monday evening the basement of the Community church was the scene of a pot-luck supper honoring Dr. J. H. Coulter and family, who leave this week for his new pastorate at Glenns Ferry, Idaho. There were about 65 present.

Following the dinner songs were sung by a group of young people — followed by group singing of a number of old-time favorites.

Dr. Coulter was presented a silver offering by those present, and a beautifully bound volume of "The Classics" by the Kendrick Grange, he being a member of that organization.

It was a jolly evening in many respects, but mixed with sadness at the thought of his departure.

MONAGHAN-McCALL NUPTIALS AT COEUR D'ALENE MAY 18

Miss Jean Monaghan and Walter C. McCall were married May 18 at the Methodist church in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, the Rev. Forrest Tibbits performing the ceremony.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Monaghan of Salem, Ore., was given in marriage by her grandfather, Fred Kirkpatrick, in the absence of her father, who was unable to come north for the ceremony.

Miss Monaghan chose for her wedding a white gaberdine suit with white accessories, and carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli and pink carnations.

Mrs. Laverne Nelson, matron of honor, wore a white linen suit with green and white accessories and her flowers were white carnations and red rosebuds. Mrs. Monaghan, the bride's mother, wore navy blue with white accessories and a purple orchid corsage. Mrs. McCall, the mother of the bridegroom, wore a cocoa brown suit, brown accessories and a purple orchid corsage.

The bridegroom, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter N. McCall of Kendrick, was attended by Robert Watts as best man. Laverne Nelson and James Candler were ushers.

Edmund Braune sang "Through the Years" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. P. J. Thompson.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kirkpatrick. Mrs. Woodrow Shockley, sister of the bride, cut the cake, after the traditional first slice was cut by the bride and groom. Mrs. Roy Kirkpatrick, Mrs. James Joseph and Miss Betty Barber served. Mrs. Herman Fry had charge of the guest book.

Following their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. McCall are residing at 101 Coeur d'Alene Ave.

Mrs. McCall attended grade school in Coeur d'Alene and graduated from the Salem high school in 1949.

Mr. McCall attended school at Kendrick, graduating from the high school here in 1945. He served four and a half years in the U. S. navy and is at present employed by the Idaho Board of Education at Far- ragut.

Mrs. McCall is employed at the office of the Interstate Telephone Co., in Coeur d'Alene.

Those who attended the wedding from Kendrick were Mr. and Mrs. Walter McCall and son Bob, Mr. and Mrs. Dick McCall, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Peters and James Candler.

Robbers Caught "On Job"

Friday morning about 2:00 o'clock, Mrs. Walter Zimmerman awoke to feed their baby, and as she did so she heard a noise from across the street at the Antelope Inn. Peeping out, she saw two men working at the front door, attempting to force an entrance.

Mrs. Zimmerman awakened her husband who called E. M. Wente, city marshal. Mr. Wente awakened his son Dick, and the two came on up the street, where they were joined Mr. Zimmerman. Mr. White parked his car in such a way that the lights illuminated the front door of the Inn, and then called for the two men, who by this time had removed the front door glass and were inside, to come out. This they did — after some hesitation.

They proved to be unarmed, and were then marched to the city hall and held until Deputy Sheriff J. F. Jordan came down from Moscow to get them.

Both are said to be "ex-cons" with plenty long records.

Nothing, so far as Mr. Magnuson can find out, was taken from the Inn, the thieves evidently being stymied immediately after gaining entrance. Their car contained a number of tools suitable for burglary work, including an electric drill.

This is the second time that Mrs. Zimmerman has been instrumental in catching thieves trying their work on that side of the street — and the suggestion has been made that she be "put on the payroll."

Road Work At Standstill

The pouring rains of Sunday and Monday have effectively put a stop to finishing operations on the new road link between Kendrick and Juliaetta — and the hillside near the Brammer ranch is "acting up" a bit worse than usual, due to the rain loosening the rock and dirt.

It had been hoped to finish this section by the end of the week.

The rain also softened logging roads and stopped truck operations, thereby closing down the Lewis mill at Kendrick, and their log supply was exhausted.

Roofs about town, almost without exception were also showing the strain of the past two days of heavy rain by leaking!

LOUELLA FOREST BECOMES BRIDE OF NORMAN L. FRY

The Kendrick Community Church was the setting last Friday evening for the wedding of Miss Louella Forest to Norman L. Fry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fry.

A profusion of spring flowers adorned the sanctuary and made a lovely background for the candle light ceremony.

The simple but always impressive single ring service was read by the Rev. Theo Meske, pastor of the Cameron Emmanuel church, in the presence of 75 relatives and friends.

The bride, Louella Forest, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Forest of Big Bear ridge, was lovely in a sheer white floor-length gown of mousseline-de-soir, over taffeta, fashioned with a fitted bodice, a sheer yoke and jewel neck with shirred bertha, which was edged with chantilly lace. The sleeves were long and tapering, with a full skirt that extended in a court train. Her veil was of finger-tip length of bridal illusion, edged in a border of matching lace, which was fastened to a coronet of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stepanotis.

The maid of honor, Mickey Harris, and bridesmaid, Nallie Fry, wore dresses of satin in identical patterns of rose and blue respectively, and carried bouquets of yellow roses.

The candle lighters, Gwen Cook, dressed in an orchid satin formal, wore an arm band of yellow roses, and Patty Brocke, attired in a pastel green formal, had an arm band of pink rosebuds.

The two little flower girls, Jillian Wegner, in floor length yellow taffeta dress, and Carol Nelson, in a blue taffeta floor length dress, preceded the bridal party down the aisle, scattering flower petals, as the party moved toward the altar to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Oscar Slind at the piano.

Mrs. Theo Meske sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Oscar Slind.

The groom's mother chose to wear for her son's wedding a grey suit, and corsage of pink rosebuds.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church parlors. A four-tiered wedding cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Meske, was cut first by the bride and groom.

Both young people are well known here, having spent all their lives at Kendrick. Both graduated from the Kendrick High school, and are popular and active among the younger set. The groom served three years in the U. S. navy and is now employed by Louis Porter in lumbering work.

They left immediately for Boise on a short honeymoon, and are now at home to their many friends in Kendrick, in the house on the school house hill, formerly occupied by the Glen Herr family.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Don Johnston of Lenore; Mrs. Clem Israel of Clarkston; K. Knutson, Amanda Knutson, Oscar Knutson and Elsie Grimm, all of Deary.

The Kendrick Community church and the Leland Methodist church will be without the services of a minister this coming year — due to the transfer of Dr. Coulter, and inability of this pastorate to meet the higher financial requirements for another pastor.

Sunday School will be held as usual, and it is hoped to obtain a pastor for services at least once a month.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Nation Displays Might on First Armed Forces Day; Atlantic Pact Nations Announce Defense Plans

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

ARMED FORCES: A Workable Team

Any doubts that observers might have entertained about the success of armed forces unification in the United States was dispelled with the observance of the first national Armed Forces Day.

For the observance, America's fighting forces across the world paraded in the mightiest show of power since World War II. The biggest show of all went on in Germany where more than 85,000 Yanks demonstrated their readiness.

The day's message to the world was plain: The United States is awake to the menace of Communist aggression and is readying its defenses.

President Truman took the occasion to tell the public that if congress had passed his universal military training program five years ago "there would have been no cold war."

He also invited all Americans "to take stock of the state of our readiness to defend ourselves against aggression."

And, in general, Americans were pleased and impressed with what they saw on parade. Although the forces were less in number, they seemed well trained, power-packed units that would form the backbone of new armies should the situation arise.

Army, navy and air force put on a united front that was pleasing to observers who remember recent unification squabbles between the services.

BOSTON: Taste of Tradition

Climaxing its jubilee celebration, staid old Boston let down its hair by serving dinner to 10,000 on the Common and holding a barn dance at the Garden.

Believed to be the largest meal ever served to a seated group, the guests got a taste of tradition by consuming five tons of baked beans, three tons of potato salad, and 3,500 pounds of ham.

Earlier events of the jubilee were designed to call attention to the cultural, business, industrial, and recreational advantages of Boston and New England.

Serving the "baked-bean supper" and all the trimmings took less than an hour, some kind of a record. The trimmings included 2,000 loaves of brown bread, 12,000 individual apple pies, 12,000 servings of cheese, and 12,000 Parker house rolls.

One thousand volunteer waitresses, supervised by 40 home economists and dieticians, served the food.

UNEMPLOYMENT: Worker's Output Up

According to the federal reserve board the individual worker's increased output has been one of the big factors in the unemployment picture since last summer.

The board analysis of "labor market developments" point to two influences at work on the part of business management:

1. "Large profits and strong financial position in recent years have encouraged business to spend record amounts for new machinery and equipment of highly efficient design.

2. "Intensified-competitive pressure on management to reduce costs partly by curtailing employment and by utilizing those employed more efficiently than earlier in the postwar period."

In addition the board reports there is an increased "tendency for married women to work outside the home," and a similar trend among teen-agers.

FARM INCOME: Likely to Dip

The agriculture department predicts that the cash income of the nation's farmers will be well under 1949 totals.

The department explained: "Prices farmers receive for their products have generally been below those of a year ago, while their costs have declined only slightly. This situation is expected to continue for the rest of the year."

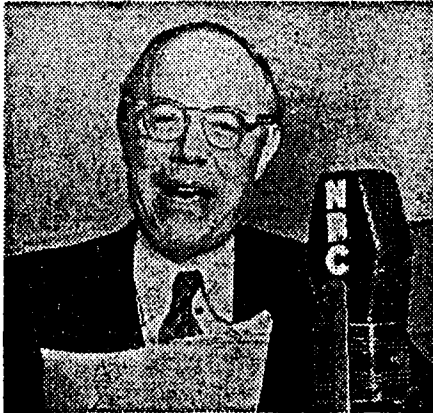

Cash receipts from marketings in 1949 totaled 27.5 billion dollars. Forecasters expect the 1950 total to be approximately 25 billion dollars.

NATIONALISTS: Ready for Last Stand

Observers believe the long expected last stand of Chinese Nationalists is now underway. They base their opinion on the fact the Nationalists have withdrawn from all except one of their blockading bases along the China coast.

Apart from Formosa and the neighboring Pescadore islands, the only territory remaining to the Nationalists appears to be Quemoy island, off Amoy.

Assails Truman

Sen. Robert Taft is shown above speaking over a nationwide radio network. He charged in his speech that the administration has shaken the confidence of the people and seeks to elect a "subservient" congress to vote into law policies that would wreck the country.

DEFENSE: West United

At one point in their policy making in recent years, the Russians reasoned, and not without basis, that the western powers would never really be united. That reasoning, however, has received a terrific jolt.

The 12 western nations, members of the Atlantic pact, have agreed to pool their economic and military might into one vast armed force, centrally directed to resist Soviet aggression.

The plan, in reality a unification move, is American inspired. It will "create a balanced collective force," which means each of the 12 nations will contribute specific units to the central western armed force and not try to maintain expensive over-all military establishments, each self-contained in all arms.

The move was seen by military men as the one means of giving the west a balanced defense force, working in harmony, and with maximum efficiency.

The United States is expected to bear the greatest part of the cost, although each nation will share in proportion to its resources. The U.S. share is expected to cost more than a billion dollars this year.

That the West is deadly serious and intends to have the plan in operation as soon as possible was evident by the creation of an over-all council of deputy foreign ministers, meeting all year round, to put the plan into force. The council will have a permanent powerful chairman who, it is understood, will be an American.

Some sources predicted the U.S. may require a larger air force and navy under the plan, since this country will be entirely responsible for atomic and other strategic bombing in case of enemy aggression.

DEMOCRATS: Harmony Disturbed

Surface harmony prevailing among Democrats at the Jefferson jubilee celebration in Chicago was shattered by the controversial civil rights issue, which split the party in 1948.

Most southerners who attend the Chicago meeting chose to ignore the civil rights panel. Jonathan Daniels, North Carolina national committeeman and former White house aide under both Presidents Roosevelt and Truman, did not so choose.

He sat through the meeting, listening to 16 speakers demand enactment of the Truman program, and then insisted upon speaking at the conclusion.

He told them flatly he could not go along with them in favor of a compulsory fair employment practice act, and added: "you cannot have a prohibition law against discrimination in the south."

He asserted the propaganda for the creation of a fair employment practice commission "gives a weapon to our enemies, the Dixiecrats" and makes it possible for them "to hide behind the civil rights issue while they fight every progressive measure."

Moscow Tool

The independent United Electrical Workers union has been denounced again as "Communist dominated."

Maurice J. Tobin, secretary of labor, and Phillip Murray, president of the CIO, made the charges in speeches at a rally of General Electric workers. The UE was expelled from the CIO last year on charges of having left-wing tendencies.

One Utility's Tax Bill

In mid-April, in San Francisco, an executive of a privately-owned, publicly-regulated electric utility handed the city tax collector a check for $1,581,317.94. The payment was the second installment on the company's total city property tax bill of $3,177,597. That sum, incidentally, represents more than five percent of all the property taxes assessed in the city and county.

This same utility's total tax bill—federal, state and local—will exceed $40,000,000 this year.

Commenting on the tax payment, the utility representative said: "These figures emphasize the importance of a taxpaying business enterprise contributing to the support of local government, schools and special districts.

"Contrast this company's position with that of the tax-free, government-owned utilities. They pay no taxes, while our tax bill in 1949 was one and a half times the dividends paid to 160,487 stockholders."

This is just one utility, albeit a large one. All over the country power and light companies of all sizes are among the largest and most stable taxpayers that government has. The only exceptions to that are the regions where the power comes from government-owned systems, which are tax free, which are unregulated, and which live on public subsidies that constitute a substantial part of every tax bill.

When the tax factor is brought into consideration, it is usually the case that free enterprise supplies power cheaper than the specialized systems. The propogandists for socialism at any price can find small comfort in the actual, unvarnished facts. — Industrial News Review.

"Private Enterprise Reddy... Reporting for Further Duty, Sir!"

Yes, sir, YOU, Mr. General Public, are the commanding officer of Pvt. "Enterprise" Reddy Kilowatt . . . and here in brief is a report* of his services to you in 1949—his 61st year of faithful carrying out of your orders.

THE WASHINGTON WATER POWER CO.

Annual average use of electricity by W. W. P. residential customers reached a new all-time high in 1949—5,138 kilowatt hours . . . more than three times the national average residential customer use of 1,684 kwh.

More than $4,000,000 was expended during the tremendous building program carried forward in 1949. New lines, new substations, and modernization of facilities kept large crews employed.

Average cost of service to W.W.P. residential customers was only 1.27/100 cents per kilowatt hour . . . less than half the national average residential cost of 2.95/100 cents per kwh.

The Company served a record number of customers during the year—111,708. New by the Company and by the Northwest Power Pool, of which it is a charter member.

During the Inland Empire's most severe storm of record, November 27, 1949, hundreds of skilled, loyal W.W.P. men and women worked against great odds to restore and maintain service.

New programs to help find and meet community needs in the Inland Empire were initiated, and Farm Development Department work was extended and intensified.

Elementary Teachers Needed
 Washington, D. C., May 31 — Jasper L. Nutting, superintendent of schools at Kendrick, Idaho, and president of the Department of Administrators, Idaho Education Association, today joined with educational leaders from 40 other states in an appeal to school boards to "exert every effort to bring about conditions which will retain in service every qualified elementary teacher possible."

In many parts of the country, the joint statement issued here through the offices of the American Association of School Administrators pointed out, colleges will graduate only one new elementary teacher this year for every five that will be required to staff the classrooms this fall.

POLITICS: Are Both Parties Split?

Observers are wondering if the Republican and Democratic parties both are going into the November election with split political fronts. The Republican trend came to light in the Oregon senatorial primary which was won by independent voting Sen. Wayne Morse. His campaign is not likely to resemble any other Republican drives this fall.

In many quarters the Duff and Morse victories were seen as signs that many Republican voters think the party needs to offer more than mere opposition to President Truman's Fair Deal.

On the Democratic front, a few more cracks have been added to the split caused by the civil-rights conflict started in 1948.

Southerners are still battling the program, and recently, have generally opposed Truman's plans for more government spending. The Truman plan has added fuel to the fire of discontent among some of the President's best western friends.

With these points in mind, the September and October political speeches of both parties may prove the most interesting in years.

Meanwhile, a high-ranking Republican took another swing at the President, charging that he seeks a "rubber-stamp" congress elected in November.

Said GOP national chairman Guy Gabrielson: "The 1950 issues now are clear. President Truman has asked the voters to give him a rubber-stamp congress that will approve his program of socialism."

WINNIPEG: Wet but Undefeated

Flood battered Winnipeg slowly returns to normal. With nearly a fifth of the city at one time under water, the citizens raised a banner proclaiming they were "wet but undefeated" on the court house and waited for the Red river to show its first drop.

Before it came flood waters had reached a record high for the century. Some 100,000 of Winnipeg's 350,000 population were forced to evacuate and many of southern Manitoba's towns were deserted.

When the river showed its first drop, flood waters were about two feet below the absolute peak at which engineers figured nearly all of Winnipeg would be waterlogged and the whole population would have to be evacuated.

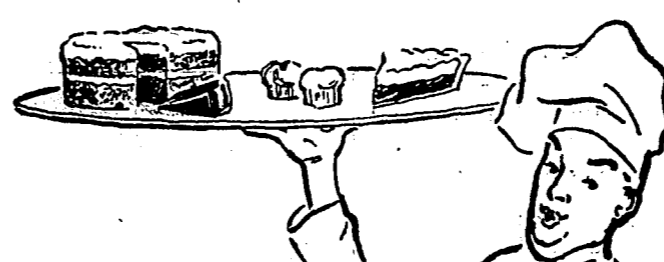

Even with the river back in its banks, however, observers said it would be near the last of June before the city would be back to normal.

MRS. ROOSEVELT: Comforted Distressed

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt was awarded the seventh annual Williamsburg Settlement gold-medal award for typifying the American way of life and aiding the underprivileged.

At the presentation dinner, former congresswoman Clare Boothe Luce called her long time political foe the "best-loved woman in the world" and said that no woman ever had "so comforted the distressed—or distressed the comfortable."

"When her justly notable tolerance and patience with the Communists finally gave out, that day tolerance of communism in America ended officially. It is safe to say that her resistance to Soviet communism is a more potent factor in winning the cold war than an extra billion dollars of Marshall plan aid," she added.

Something New

With all the investigations that have been under way in Washington, Rep. Usher L. Burdick of North Dakota has come up with a new one. He asked the house rules committee to approve a resolution to investigate—of all things—congress. The committee postponed action on the resolution indefinitely.

EXPLOSION: Second in Generation

The stunned and battered community of South Amboy, N. J., 30 miles south of New York City, tied up its wounds and, for the second time in a generation, went about the business of rebuilding.

On May 19 four explosive-laden barges blew up with such force debris was splattered over a 10 to 12 block area. Twenty-six persons were dead or missing and nearly 400 were injured.

NEW HEARING AID BATTERY CHARGER CUTS HEARING COSTS

The new Mercury battery devised for the armed services, and constantly improved during the last four years, is now safe to charge. The RM 1 is the smallest battery ever made for a hearing aid, being less than a thimble in size, and the charger cuts the cost of operation to a new low. The Mercury battery differs from the carbon type by giving a full level tone from the time you start using it, until it is finished. It can be charged from 2 to 8 times. RAY FARNELL & ASSOCIATES, W. 385 Sprague Ave., Spokane, Wash., distributors of the famous "BELTONE HEARING AID" are pleased to bring you better hearing at a lower cost. For full information FREE, write Ray Farnell today. Also show this important news to a friend who may be hard of hearing. Do it now! (Adv.)

A Vast Difference

There are many concrete examples of the difference between a controlled government-dominated economy and a free, competitive economy. One of the best is found in retail trade.

The typical retail store in the totalitarian countries would seem incredibly bad to Americans. Practically everything, except for luxuries which can be afforded only by the ruling class, calls for ration tickets. Practically everything, save for a few basic necessities, is always in short supply. Prices are frequently very high — the government sets them, and it can make as much profit as it wants — a process which is sometimes euphemistically described as "draining off the surplus income of the people." Service is of course, terrible by our standards. After all, when government makes all the decisions and establishes all the rules, and real competition simply does not exist, why should any merchant or clerk try to do a better job?

The contrast with American stores is glaring. Here we have a vast abundance of goods of all kinds — both production and distribution are geared to the needs, desires and fancies of the consumer. And those goods are sold at the lowest possible price — competition takes care of that. The profit earned by typical stores runs to only a few cents on sales per dollar. The potential customer is free to shop wherever he pleases. If a store fails to satisfy him he doesn't return.

Retail stores are truly America's show window.

Take A Deep Breath

The other day a friend of mine coped masterfully with a situation which has baffled many a woman driver. She was driving through very heavy traffic on an Indianapolis street when a man squeezed his car in too close and promptly blamed her — profanely and at length. My friend listened quietly until he ran down, then leaned over her window and said:

"Relax... take a deep breath and say 'Ah!'"

PUBLISHED BY THE KENDRICK CO-OPERATIVE CREAMERY

ABOUT COLD DRINKS:

Yes, the weather this week might well be entitled: "And The Rains Came," but it will pass, and with it will come the desire for cool drinks, cool salads, and cool dessert — and you can't find a better place to satisfy that cool desire than at this creamery.

Serve delicious, refreshing "Potlatch Chief" Cottage Cheese with that lunch, either by itself or with fruit and lettuce. Man, but it's good.

For a cool drink serve "Potlatch Chief" milk, the nutritious, refreshing necessity of life — or, if you prefer, get a quart or a gallon of Green Spot orangeaid — serve it in tall glasses with plenty of ice — um, good! You bet!
