Mail Pick-up Refused

Newest "wrinkle" in the local mail delivery set-up was disclosed last Friday morning, when Fred Stedman, local postmaster, received word that outgoing mail would not be picked up by the big star route truck which now travels from Spokane to Lewiston, via Kendrick. Previous to that date Mr. Stedman had been "pouching mail" for the down trip. This mail was picked up, carried to Spokane, there sorted, and returned to the various points.

Now, under the "no pick-up order" all mail after the noon train south-bound, will be carried to Spokane on the 4:13 train, there sorted, and carried back again.

Let's presume you mail a letter to a Lewiston address at 2:30 p. m. That letter will be sent to Spokane, there sorted, lay over-night, and then come back through Kendrick to Lewiston on the morning mail truck — thus taking about 18 hours to reach Lewiston — and probably 24 hours before it is delivered.

It is the same situation as a rural carrier delivering mail to a patron's mail box, but refusing to pick up any mail the patron may desire to send.

This situation will undoubtedly receive a thorough going over, and plenty of protests will be filed by the Kendrick, Troy, Moscow and Lewiston Chambers of Commerce.

More Christmas Decorations

More and more Christmas decorations are making their appearance in Kendrick. Across Main street are three long evergreen-bedecked strings of colored lights, and in the city park is the big community Christmas tree, all being put there by Wm. Bamberg, city workman, assisted by his son Bill. Local stores are also gaily decorated for the season, with candles, trees, evergreen decorations, tinsel and gay wreaths.

All reminders are that despite the grave war news, Christmas is, and always will be, Christmas.

Local stores are filled with Christmas goods, and in this issue will be found many ads, describing the large and varied stocks that await shoppers.

4-H Achievement Day

Sixty-five parents and children attended the annual 4-H Achievement Day festivities Saturday evening in the Fraternal Temple, with five 4-H Clubs represented. There were two from Troy; two from American Ridge and one from Big Bear ridge.

Elmer McCroud, county agent, showed colored slides of live stock exhibits of 4-H'ers exhibits at the Latah County Fair this past fall.

The evening finished with games and refreshments, the Kendrick Commercial Club furnishing ice cream.

Those from Moscow attending were Wm. Mason, County 4-H Club leader; Elmer McCroud, County Agent; Richard Bates, Farm Representative of the W. V. P. Co., and Miss Martha Darscheid, secretary to the county agent.

It was a "big night" for the 4-H'ers, and a most enjoyable one for their parents, as well.

Tigers Win One — Lose One
Grangeville's Bulldogs defeated the Kendrick Tigers 48-25 in a basketball game played on the Grangeville floor last Saturday evening. The winners were ahead 25-14 at the half-way point, and led all the way.

Glen Hosley dropped in 14 points to lead the Grangeville scoring, and Halseth of Kendrick led the Tigers with eight.

The Tigers are hoping to "turn the tables" in their return game with Grangeville, which is to be played on the local floor.

Tuesday evening of this week the Tigers met the Deary Mustangs in a double-header game on the local floor, emerging victorious in both tilts.

In the B squad opener the Tigers emerged victorious by a score of 54-25. The scoring by quarters follows: First, 19-2, Kendrick; half, 28-10, Kendrick; third, 42-14 Kendrick; final, 54-25, Kendrick. Coach Dennis Racicot substituted freely, at times completely changing teams.

In the A squad event the Deary Mustangs drew first blood — a field goal, which was quickly matched by Kendrick, and from that point on the Tigers were never headed. The score by quarters follows: First, 15-5; Kendrick; half, 19-15, Kendrick; third, 36-24, Kendrick; final, 49-34, Kendrick. Play was fast, but not rough, there being comparatively few fouls called.

Starters for the Tigers were Orville Halseth, Stanley Smith, Max Clemenhagen, Keith Thornton and Parker McCrary. Among the substitutes used by Coach Racicot as he tried out different combinations were Albert Clemenhagen, Rex Knight, Charles Christensen and Ole Arnett.

Max Clemenhagen led the local boys with 17 points; Orville Halseth was next with 11, and Al Clemenhagen had 8. Kermit Olso led the Mustangs with 10 points.

The Deary squad has improved a great deal the past year, and they really gave the Tigers a big "surprise."

GRAIN MARKETS FIRMER—PRICES MAKE SHARP GAIN

Grain markets strengthened materially during the past week, the department of agriculture reports in its weekly grain market review.

Wheat advanced 6 cents to 7 cents per bushel in the central western markets, while corn gained 8 cents to 9 cents. Other feed grains advanced with corn, but gains were somewhat less. Principal strengthening influences were the critical situation in Korea, reports of stock piling of grain in central European countries, trade expectations that price ceilings would be established at around the parity level, which is at present slightly above current market values; some reduction in market receipts, and an active demand for most grains in the cash market.

Market receipts of wheat dropped to a little over 9,000,000 bushels and offerings were readily taken as the prices advanced. Domestic supplies, however, are around 50 million bushels larger than a year ago and the world wheat harvest, now estimated at 6.4 billion bushels, is with the exception of the unusually large crop of 1948, the largest since 1938. The greater part of the increase is in North America and Asia. The new Southern Hemisphere crop, which is now being harvested, is about the same as last year with a reduction in the Australian harvest about offset by reported increases in Argentina. The Australian harvest is now placed at 190,000,000 bushels and the Argentine crop about 230,000,000 bushels. From a slightly larger crop last year Australia exported about 120,000,000 bushels, while Argentina exported 100,000,000 from a correspondingly smaller crop.

Cash wheat prices gained slightly more than futures in the Central Western markets as a result of a good milling and export inquiry. Inspecions of wheat for export during the last week of November totaled about 3,300,000 bushels. Stocks at the principal terminals decreased slightly but were still about 25,000,000 bushels larger than a year ago. The advance in cash prices brought them to or above the basic loan value. At the close of the market Dec. 7, No. 2 hard winter wheat was quoted at Chicago at $2.33; $2.30 at Kansas City, and $2.46 at Fort Worth.

Pacific Northwest wheat markets turned firmer, reflecting advances at the major markets and an improved local demand for the continued light offerings. Pacific Northwest wheat futures at Chicago were steady to 1/4c higher for the week. December wheat closed at $2.15 bid.

Cash wheat values at Portland advanced 1c to 1 1/2c per bushel, reflecting some improvement in local demand from exporters and flour millers. Continued light country marketings were also a factor in the making for firmer prices. Receipts of wheat at principal Pacific Northwest terminals continued heavy at 1,225 cars for the week, compared with 1,182 a week earlier. Terminal capacity, reflecting the recent large volume of arrivals and slow export movement. Compared with a week ago, bid prices at Portland on export types were materially higher,

WHAT CHRISTMAS MEANS TO ME

Christmas — the magic word — what memories it conjures up. The wild rush of the crowded stores, the push and pull of the toy counter, the garland and holly strewn windows, wreathed and candled yule, carols of near and far, Christmas trees lighted and tinselled; Santa Claus of fancy and of flesh, reindeer prancing across the imaginations of children young and old; the whirl of snow crystals, the crunch of them underfoot, the jack frost on the windows, the icicle bedecked and flake covered gables; gift wrapped packages, nuts in assortment, sugar candies, plum pudding, the roasted gobbler, and the merry laughter of bright-eyed youngsters; all these are of Christmas. All these we love. Surely with so much, nothing is lacking. But look, there is no Christ-Child; the Prince of Peace is not there. It is only when the multi-colored mufflers, fur-collared and flannelled coats, heavy tweeds and mackinaws are donned and paths turned toward the stables, adorned by the hands and gifts of the poor and of the rich, that Christmas finds its full meaning. Selfishness alone should find no dwelling at Christmas. Alongside the giving of Christ, what is of ourselves fades. But the stable awaits us. The Infant Christ is there to receive us. If our life is tattered, He shall restore it. If our life is sorrowful, in our giving he shall make it full of joy. If hate has found a part in our heart, His love shall convert it to stronger love. He shall teach us the way of peace and of good will.

For the peace to be found, the peace to men of good will, cannot be found outside the stable. The answer to a troubled, selfish and war-ridden world lies in giving as the Omnipotent God gave Himself one clear starry night long ago. There you will find it in Bethlehem's cave amid the joyous singing of the angels, the warm breath of the sheep and the donkeys, the admiration of the simple shepherds, and the adoration of Mary and Joseph. To the stable then go to seek peace. There look for Christ the Savior. There find with Mary and Joseph, kneeling and pondering in adoration and humble prayer, the meaning of Christmas. — Author unknown. St. Edward's Seminary, Kenmore, Wash.)

To Oppose Any Tax Raise

Boise — Statewide support for a "stable fiscal policy" for state government in Idaho, including a "budget balanced within the estimated yield of present revenue sources" was urged by the Idaho State Chamber of Commerce at the meeting here last week.

In action by its board of directors, the organization pledged united action to strengthen the announced intention of governor-elect Jordan to stem the rising cost of government. The statewide organization will ask local groups throughout Idaho to actively promote a policy that would strengthen local government and push back the cost of many governmental services to the local areas as a means of bringing the taxpayer into a realization of what it is that makes up his tax bill.

Other features of the statement of policy include opposition to subsidies from one level of government to another; any form of new taxes for Idaho, and any expansion of regional authorities.

State laws that discourage investment of capital within Idaho should be eliminated, in the opinion of the state chamber.

The organization voiced opposition to federalization of unemployment compensation and employment service systems.

Members of the Idaho legislature will receive from the State Chamber of Commerce, prior to their coming to Boise for the session, which opens January 8, a detailed analysis of the state revenues and expenditures for the past six years. This will provide an opportunity for ready comparison with the new budget requests which will be available very shortly after the session opens.

Sessions of the All-Idaho Congress, sponsored by the State Chamber of Commerce, drew a large number of members of the Legislature to Boise last week, as well as representatives from many Chambers of Commerce throughout the state.

Idaho Music To Travel Far

U. of I. Moscow — The traditional Christmas music of the University of Idaho will travel far this year — from coast to coast. A specially arranged Yuletide program by the Vandaleers, 60-voice choral group of University students, will be broadcast over the nation-wide network of Mutual-Don Lee radio stations, it was announced today by Prof. Hall M. Macklin, head of the music department.

Additional programs are also being arranged for stations throughout Idaho, and KHQ and KXLY of Spokane. Exact times for the various broadcasts will be announced later. Prof. Macklin said. Music is to be taken from the annual Candlelight service of the Vandaleers, to be presented at the University of Idaho auditorium Dec. 17 and 18.

The mutual network program will be produced on the Idaho campus by Don Thomas, manager of stations KRLC, Lewiston, through a combination of the facilities of KRLC and the university radio center. It will be released out of New York City for broadcasting either Dec. 23 or 25, and it is expected that it will be carried by a majority of Mutual's 400 stations. and Dick Coulter, Glenns Ferry, are members of this famous choral group.

Advertising Rates To Raise

Faced with spiraling costs of paper, ink, rollers, tympan, equipment, and all the other items that enter into the production of a newspaper, there appears no alternative to us, but to raise our advertising rates — beginning January 1, 1951.

As an example, newsprint, which we buy by the ton, used to cost us $88.00 f. o. b. Kendrick. The last ton purchased (November) cost us $165.67! A kit of news ink, which used to cost about $14, now costs $26.75 — and so it goes. Type metal, which used to cost around 8c per pound, now costs 29.5c per lb., f. o. b. Portland — and it takes a lot of pounds to put out a single issue, even though the loss per issue is small.

Our rates today are the same as were changed during the depression of the '30s, we having purposely kept them down in the hopes that prices would level off and finally come back to normal — but that seems to have been a dream that is further and further from materializing.

We have discussed this problem with most of our advertisers, and to date not one has protested — some said: "We expected that a couple of years ago."

Brady Gulch Road "Tough"

While ostensibly open to travel, the Brady Gulch road, which is still under construction, should be avoided whenever possible, it being described by those who have gone over it lately "as tough" there being plenty of mud, ruts and rock.

Anyone going to Moscow or just to the top of the ridge, is advised to take the Juliaetta grade, especially if driving a car.

It is not known at this time just when the Brady Gulch road will be completed.

Grange Christmas Party

All local Grangers are reminded of the annual Christmas party, scheduled for next Tuesday evening, Dec. 19, at 8:00 o'clock. There will be a program, Santa will arrive with treats, and there will be a gift exchange — with a 25c limit on each gift, which should be marked for "child" or "adult."

It is open house, and all Grangers are urged to attend and bring their family and friends.

Women Play Bridge

The Bridge Club ladies met at the home of Mrs. R. L. Blewett Friday afternoon.

At play, Mrs. D. A. Christensen received high. Invited guests were Mrs. John Johansen and Mrs. A. O. Kanikkeberg.

Pot Luck Supper

A "singspiration" and pot-luck supper was enjoyed Friday evening, Dec. 1, at the Assembly of God church, with 60 present. Out of town guests were Mrs. C. A. McAlister, Southwick, and her mother, Mrs. Rennick, of Lind, Wash.

Make Good Use Of Electricity

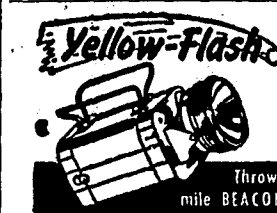

While electric pumps are reaching underground to bring water to the desert lands of Mindoka county for irrigation, similar electric pumps are lifting water off the land in drainage districts in Benewah county.

In both cases productive land is reclaimed, and in both cases local initiative and private enterprise are joining hands to do the job. Independent farmers of Mindoka county, using Idaho Power Co. energy, and farmers of Benewah county, using power from the Washington Water Power Co., are finding costs for electricity low enough to justify the water raising for irrigation and for drainage.

The drainage job in Benewah county, around St. Maries and along the St. Joe River, was a tremendous one. Lake Coeur d'Alene, which provides more water for badly needed electric power, backs up the St. Joe river to a point about 10 miles above St. Maries. Spring floods added to the problem and much land was flooded each year, drying out too late to grow a crop.

Engineers of the Washington Water Power Co. made surveys and company representatives got together with farmers and worked out a plan to improve drainage for over 5,000 acres with new facilities. The company and the farmers cooperatively share the cost. Improved dikes along the river are supplemented with drain ditches near the hills to intercept the runoff. The water is pumped out with large electrically driven pumps, some with a capacity of several thousand gallons per minute. Farmers report the cost at about $1 an acre.

Some farmers start their pumps whenever the water table in fields is within two feet of the surface, even if the date is December or January. The result is early drying of the fields after spring rains and crops of hay and grain where there was only soggy ground a few years ago.

STONY POINT NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Steigers were very pleasantly surprised with a dinner in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary, Sunday. They were invited to the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Billie Steigers — and there were gathered a house-full of relatives and friends to wish them many more years of happiness together. Their children presented them with a set of silverware in a beautiful cabinet. Those present were the honorees: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Steigers; Kenneth and David Steigers; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Steigers and three sons; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Steigers; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hammond; Wm. Steigers; Mr. and Mrs. George Coffland of Culdesac; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brown, Donnie and Carol; Mrs. Merle Cooper and little daughter Shirley, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Billie Steigers and small daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Heimgartner were called to Glendale, Calif., Wednesday of last week by the death of Mrs. Heimgartner's father. They will probably be gone until after Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Cletis Hoisington and sons Frank, Jim and Don spent Sunday visiting at the Wm. Heimgartner home on Fix ridge.

LINDEN ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lyons were called to Nampa, Idaho, last week by the death of Mr. Lyons' brother-in-law, Ernest Goodnight. They left on Wednesday and returned the following Monday. They also visited briefly with relatives in Boise, Ida.

Dinner guests at the C. A. McAlister home Sunday were Rev. and Mrs. Norbo and children, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Weaver and Mary Ellen, and Raymond Whybark. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Brocke were afternoon callers.

Duane and Skippy Chilberg spent Sunday with Doug and Jerry Pederson. Mr. and Mrs. Chilberg were visitors in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Keeler were Kendrick visitors on Monday.

Well, I can't help but comment on the weather. Back where we came from (that is N. D.) it was 26 below zero, and here we are having typical March weather.

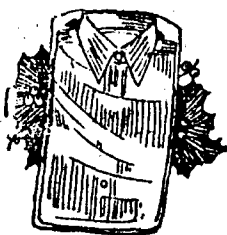

On Friday a group of ladies gathered at the Pederson home to quilt, and on Tuesday we worked on Mrs. Geo. Lyons quilt. We will soon have both finished.

Mr. and Mrs. Arley Allen drove to Orofino on Tuesday afternoon to help Mrs. Claude Pippinger celebrate her birthday anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Porter were visitors there in the evening.

Well, folks, how about helping me gather these items? Jot down any happenings of interest and mail or phone them to me. —Your correspondent, Mrs. Al. Pederson.

Get Realistic Training
 U. of I. Moscow — An armed patrol creeping through the brush, enemy riflemen waiting in ambush, the bark of guns as the two factions met — these were among the factors which added realism to the ROTC training at the University of Idaho the other night.

The patrol was one of several made up from 143 sophomore ROTC students and the "enemy" consisted of members of the university chapter of Pershing Rifles, national military honorary. Blank cartridges in the rifles provided the flash and roar with safety. The scene was the university arbor-urn.

The night problem was arranged by Capt. Rex Blewett, a member of the university military staff, to give sophomore members of the ROTC a touch of the practical as well as the academic.

"We don't want University of Idaho ROTC students thought of as 'classroom soldiers,'" said Capt. Blewett. "Classroom training is essential, but the actual problems and methods of operation can better be taught in the field."

The training mission opened with demonstrations on sound — how far they can be heard at night, how the various sounds can be identified, how far lights can be seen, proper dress and action to be taken in case the enemy used flares.

Few Pheasants Killed
 Data gathered in field checks during pheasant season in ten southwest Idaho counties shows that 703 hunters checked had shot 611 pheasants, of which 547 were recovered, says the game department.

This means that hunters averaged .77 birds each in possession, although 48 percent of the parties used dogs, which would tend to increase the number of birds recovered.

Average hunting parties were composed of 2.25 persons, or nine hunters to every four hunting parties. The young-old ratio of recovered birds was 2.88 to 1; 406 of them being young, and 141 old birds.

The figures gathered indicated that hunters averaged three hours and 19 minutes of hunting in the field, but each bird took an average of four hours and 16 minutes of hunting.

Potlatch Chief Sez

Published by the Kendrick Creamery

AS WE SEE IT:

In 1942 this Creamery was organized as a co-operative unit — and steadily grew in volume, as well as turning out dairy products of which any firm might well be proud — under the brand name "Potlatch Chief." This was made possible by the loyalty of producers and patrons alike, co-operating in every sense of the word.

In 1950 it was decided to disband the organization and sell the business — and we, the purchasers, pledge ourselves to do all in our power to continue the policy of the company in products, as well as paying top prices for dairy items.

We are rapidly modernizing the plant to meet today's demands — and with your patronage we hope to serve the Juliaetta and Kendrick trade area for the coming years.

Jewelry Store Burglarized

The Jewelry & Gift Store at Kendrick was burglarized sometime Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning — and as near as Roy Davis, owner, can estimate at the time of going to press (Wednesday noon) the loss will run about $1,000. Included in the loot was some 24 watches ranging from "cheap to excellent" in quality, plus other items of real value.

Members of the sheriff's office, Moscow, who are investigating the burglary, classed the job as "professional", due to the way the door had been "jimmied" open.

Mr. Davis stated that he carried no burglary insurance.
