Writes From Germany

From Schweinfurt, Germany, Cpl. Gerald Halseh writes as follows:

"I have received your paper quite a while now and guess I had better write and thank you for it. It is nearly a month old, but it is better late than never. It sure seems good to read it and find out what is going on as the folks' letters don't cover much town news.

"This is a pretty country but I still think Idaho has them all beat. I would tell you something about the country, but as all have seen the letters from Leon Wolff, the pretty well covers what the country is like — so, that saves me.

"I'm still driving a truck, so I get to see a lot of pretty scenery.

"Enclosed is my new address."

PEARL BROWN BECOMES BRIDE OF DONALD-JENSEN

The marriage of Miss Pearl Helen Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Brown, Kendrick, and Donald James Jensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Jensen, Moscow, was solemnized Saturday, Sept. 15, at 8:00 p. m., in the Kendrick Community church.

The young couple exchanged vows in a candle light ceremony before the altar, which was flanked with large baskets of pink and white gladioli, with candelabra in the background. The Rev. Holmes of Moscow performed the double ring ceremony.

Bob Lind sang "The Lord's Prayer," "I Love Thee" and "Through the Years," accompanied by Mrs. H. C. Schupfer, who also played the professional, recessional and incidental music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown which was fashioned with a fitted bodice and lace yoke. Her fingertip veil was fastened to a tiara of tiny beaded pearls, and she carried a white Bible, topped with a white orchid.

Kathryn Brown, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a light blue gown. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Bruce May and Edna Fey Snyder, both cousins of the bride, wore pink and yellow gowns, and carried bouquets of carnations, complimenting their dresses. Jeannine Weber, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a light blue gown.

Raymond Jensen, a brother of the groom, acted as best man, and Kenneth Jensen and Louis Tribbett, both of Moscow, were ushers.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Ed. Brown, was attractively attired in a lavender afternoon dress with white accessories, and her corsage was white.

The bridegroom's mother chose for her son's wedding an aqua afternoon dress, with gray accessories and white corsage.

About 175 friends and relatives of the couple attended the wedding and reception, the latter being held in the church basement.

A beautiful three-tiered wedding cake, with the top tier fashioned into a cross, and a miniature bride and groom a-top, centered the serving table. Miss Dee Dee May cut and served the cake; Zelma Candler presided at the punch bowl, and Miss Rita Cain had charge of the guest book. Bonnie Anbuckle and Lorraine Clemenhagen presided at the gift table.

The bride is a graduate of Kendrick High school, later attending N. T. C. E., and taught school several terms at Burke.

The groom is a graduate of the Moscow High school, attended the U. of I., and is now employed at the Kendrick Creamery.

The young couple left immediately after the ceremony for southern Idaho on a honeymoon trip, and will be at home to their friends in Kendrick when they return.

She invited all to come and see the finished product and also asked for helpers — anyone willing to assist with this work, contact her. A meeting has been called for Wednesday afternoon at the Nutting home when the committee would dress some dolls that would represent different races and high-light the booth.

Mrs. Wm. Johnson reported on the interesting session she had attended at the District P-T. A. conference.

There followed a discussion about a "Study Group" for this year. Mrs. Gerald Ingle was named leader to determine sentiment and report at a later meeting.

It was then voted to have a concession for Sales Day as a money raising project.

A project for this year was discussed and two suggestions offered: 1st, new books for the library, and 2nd, a new visual education system (movie projector). It was suggested the project committee consider these items in their planning.

At the "White Elephant Sale" Mrs. L. D. Crocker won the prize.

Jasper Nutting was then called on and he in turn introduced the teachers, each responding with a few remarks about their specific department.

Mrs. Elsie Deobald, program chairman, then took charge.

KENDRICK SADDENED BY LOSS OF TWO RESIDENTS

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Goss, Kendrick, received word Sunday afternoon of the death of their son, Pfc. Dwight Marvin Goss, who was killed in action in Korea on Friday, August 30th, while serving with the Ninth Infantry regiment, presumably in the "Iron Triangle" area.

Dwight Marvin Goss was born at Spokane, September 8, 1927, attending various schools in Washington and Idaho, coming here with his parents to make their home at Kendrick in November of 1949. Prior to this he served two years in the Aleutians with the ATS — 1944 to 46.

On September 21, 1950, while employed at the Kirkpatrick Lumber Co., Juliaetta, he was called by Selective Service, and reported for duty at Fort Ord, Calif., where he received his basic training. Following a furlough spent here, he was sent to Camp Gordon, Ga., for advanced training with the Signal Corps. On May 21 of this year, he was sent overseas as a replacement in the Ninth Infantry Regiment, and at the time of his death, was serving as a rifleman.

He had never married.

Survivors are his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Goss, Kendrick; one brother, Pfc. Merlin Dale Goss, now stationed in southern Germany, and one sister, Betty Goss, at the family home.

Several uncles, aunts, and other relatives also survive.

"Greater love hath no man than he give his life for his country."

E. E. McDowell Passes Away

Emmett Emery (Mac) McDowell, died suddenly Monday evening about 7:00 o'clock, following an accidental gun shot wound in the head.

The accident happened about 3:15 Monday afternoon. Dr. D. A. Christensen was called immediately and rushed Mr. McDowell to the Grtman hospital at Moscow. Blood plasma and blood were administered, but he failed to regain consciousness.

Mr. McDowell was born in Kinross, Iowa, in 1883. He was united in marriage to Theresa Stapleton on Aug. 24, 1904. To this union were born three children, a daughter, Mrs. Juanita Kidwell, Vancouver, Wash., and two sons, Hugh McDowell, Kendrick and Herbert McDowell, Lewiston. Several grandchildren also survive.

In 1917 Mr. and Mrs. McDowell and family moved to Kendrick, where they have since made their home.

"Mac," a retired construction and timber worker, loved to work in his garden, and fruits and vegetables of many kinds were his reward. He also loved wild animals, and frequently obtained feed for feathered friends and distributed it during bitter winter weather. He was also a man who made and kept friends, and all will indeed be sorry to learn of his passing.

Funeral Services are scheduled for today (Thursday, Sept. 20) at 2:00 p. m. in the Kendrick Community church, with Rev. F. C. Schmidt speaking. He will be assisted by Rev. K. L. Hardin.

A group of Juliaetta businessmen were welcomed by the club.

Tom Long, reporting for the Highway committee, stated that the local highway district was trying hard to get roads in shape for winter, but the continued dry weather was making such work difficult. He added that the Bear creek bridge, smashed by a logging truck and trailer, had been repaired, but was posted for light loads.

For the Education committee Gerald Ingle stated that school was going well. Some bus transportation problems had been encountered, but these were being settled. He also stated that Latah and Clearwater counties had approved the new emergency levy for this district, but Nez Percé county had rejected it, which definitely did not add to easing the district's financial problems.

Going further on Mr. Ingle's report, Jasper Nutting, superintendent, stated that 370 pupils were now enrolled in the district's schools — Kendrick having 160; Juliaetta 145; Gold Hill 15, and Southwick 50. Three lunch units were operating, with approximately 270 pupils partaking daily. He went on to say that 10 buses were being used by the district this year, and drivers were maintaining schedules. The buildings in the district were in excellent condition, a new interior finishing having been given most of them, as well as other necessary repairs — mentioning in particular the Kendrick gym, with its new ceiling, new interior paint and refinishing of the playing floor.

Mr. Nutting then introduced Warren Fairbanks, new Science teacher in the high school.

W. L. McCreary, reporting for the publicity and special Axel Swanson committee stated that funds for the Axel Swanson medicine were continuing to come in, although slowly. All that is being received at this time being for advance Sales Day activity. He added that publicity for Sales Day, Sept. 29, was the next job ahead.

G. F. Brocke stated that bean and clover seed harvesting was still going on, although tapering off. He added that the crop in both cases was not equal to that of last year — but good.

The Fish and Game committee, was reported for by Frank Abrams, and a brief report of the drive being instituted by the Moscow Wildlife group for the erection of a dam on the East Fork of the Potlatch, with federal funds apparently available for such work.

Dr. D. A. Christensen reported for the Boy Scout committee. He said that the current finance drive was going well, with $387.00 having been received to date. He also complimented Henry Jones, Scoutmaster, on the fine work being done with the group.

Next came a round-table discussion of Sales Day, which will be held Sept. 29. After some discussion Ed. Long was chosen to do the listing as articles are brought in; Norris Callison will clerk the free auction, and Roy Glenn will be the auctioneer, their activities were also discussed briefly.

Heran Schupfer then mentioned the condition of our local cemetery, and brought up the matter of forming a cemetery district. He was then appointed as a committee of one to obtain such information and present it to the club at the next meeting.

Gerald Ingle, secretary, was asked to draft a telegram of congratulations to station KHO, Spokane, on the occasion of its big party and show and initiation of the new, huge tower.

There being no further business, the club adjourned, to view Soil Conservation, 4-H Club, Fair and general tonic slides which were shown by Gerald Ingle.

Writes From San Diego

Under date of Sept. 13, from San Diego, Pvt. Frank Dammarell, U. S. M. C., writes:

"Just a line to let you know I am receiving the paper, and like it. I'll tell you little about the U. S. M. C. boot camp (it's rough!) Why? Because it's the best fighting outfit in the world. We run all the time, no matter where. We put on field transport packs and march and run for about five miles — twice a week.

"I'm now a squad leader, over 27 men. My squad is divided into two scout groups and two rifle groups, all together this is a rifle squad. I have the leading record for high shooting in the platoon with 236 out of 250.

I have a carbine, but often change off with my BAR man because it's more effective. The captain told me one day that the platoon sure was a tough bunch because there were about six men (at one time) who had black eyes. (They fell over a lockerbox or that's what the men came in and told me).

Well, Bill, I'll be home on leave in a few weeks, so I better stop — and finish the life of a Marine some other time. — Frank Dammarell.

ALCOHOL RECOVERY CLINIC ESTABLISHED IN IDAHO

An "Alcoholic Recovery Clinic" is now established at Lava Hot Springs, Idaho, for the specific purpose of assisting those individuals suffering from alcoholism to recovery. The clinic will not only serve Idaho but surrounding states as well.

Alcoholism is a disease which can be accurately diagnosed and from which the victims can recover. The disease is no respecter of persons, but is found to afflict people of all strata and walks of life. The outstanding symptom is the uncontrolled use of alcoholic beverages in an impulsive and compulsive manner. About seven percent of those using alcoholic beverages succumb to the disease. If the disease is not arrested, some agency will eventually have to support them or their families.

The Alcoholic Recovery Clinic will work closely with industry, private citizens, law enforcement, welfare agencies, hospitals, doctors, in fact, any source which may have cases of alcoholism to be helped.

The clinic is directed by one who has himself recovered from alcoholism and who has had several years of successful results in treating individuals suffering from the disease or who were problem drinkers. The other members of the personnel are men and women who have recovered from alcoholism. The counseling staff is made up of a physician, psychiatrist, social worker, physical therapist, vocational counsellor and members, both men and women, of "Alcoholics Anonymous."

It is highly advantageous to have counselors who themselves have suffered and recovered from alcoholism, since they are better able to understand the attitudes, frustrations, lack of personal discipline and other characteristics of the individual suffering from the disease.

The treatment applied varies with the needs of each patient and will incorporate considerations as to the patient's physical needs coupled with those of personality and mental discipline. There will be follow-up attention given the patient, such as assistance in obtaining employment where necessary, rehabilitation, and help in making adjustments to a new environment and pattern of life. There are already some funds available by the Idaho State Committee on Alcoholism in industry from which the employer or employee can borrow, without charge, money for the purpose of covering the expense of treatment for alcoholism. Applications for assistance or loans from the above fund should be directed to Mahlin S. Hansen, 346 State House, Boise, Idaho, who is executive secretary of the Idaho State Committee on Alcoholism.

Cigarette Use Tapers Off After Long Upward Trend

Although U.S. smokers used three and one-half billion more cigarettes in 1949 than in 1948 there was a decrease of about one package of cigarettes per capita says the U.S. department of agriculture. The bureau of agricultural economics reports suggests that the demand for cigarettes may now be leveling off after a series of record breaking years.

Last year, the BAE reports, that the increase of three and one-half billion in use of cigarettes was about 1 per cent, bringing the total for the year to 352 billion. But population increased more than 1 per cent. The increase in cigarettes for the first half of the year was about 2 per cent, and for the last half was just about even with the 1948 consumption for those months. With an estimated population increase of more than two and one-half million, this figures to a per capita supply of 2,435 cigarettes in 1949 as compared with 2,455 in 1948.

The steady and sometimes sharp upward trend in cigarette consumption in the United States has been under way for many years, the BAE records show. Only one drop in civilian consumption has been noted. In 1944 the civilian use ran below the 1943 record. But the bureau says that "when allowance is made for the great volume consumed by large numbers in the armed forces and overseas personnel, total consumption in 1944 substantially exceeded that of 1943."

During and since the war, cigarette smoking has continued to gain. The figures for the last half of 1949 are the first indication of a break in the climb.

Eniwetok Atoll Ranks High Among Battered Land Spots

When the history of the 1941-1950 decade is written, Eniwetok Atoll will take top rank among the most bludgeoned of Pacific land spots. Typhoons, World War II bombs, and atomic weapon tests will have pooled their awesome power to put it there.

Eniwetok, soon again to feel atom blasts in its role as proving ground for the Atomic Energy commission, has already been battered by all three of these forces in the now waning decade.

This northwest outpost of the scattered Marshall Islands, 2,725 miles southwest of Honolulu and about the same distance southeast of Tokyo, was home to 138 island natives two years ago when its destiny in the atomic program was announced. The inhabitants were moved to Ujelang, 150 miles southwest of Eniwetok, a few weeks before the first secret atomic tests at Eniwetok in the spring of 1948.

They left with little regret, since the main islets containing Japanese installations had been razed to their coral bases and denuded of trees by heavy bombardment in mid-February, 1944. That attack culminated in a quick conquest of Eniwetok by U. S. amphibious forces.

Something About Cats

Cats can be trained easily to be neat in houses and apartments. The mere provision of toys for their personal entertainment, plus a little discipline, will keep them from damaging curtains and other household items. They are slaves to habits, such as eating, and are homebodies in that they seem to become more attached to their homes than to people. When a cat fails to respond to its master's orders, it isn't necessarily being ornery. More likely, it fails to comply because it sees no sound reason for doing so. Cats may breed at any time of the year, although January and February are their preferred months. A cat "in heat" may wriggle along the floor and cry as if she had a severe stomach ache. "People unfamiliar with this symptom are apt to think that the animal is critically ill," he said.

High School Students

High school students who earn the best grades follow specific study procedures, a northwestern university professor discovered in analyzing the study habits of more than 1000 secondary school pupils. Dr. William G. Brink, a professor in Northwestern's school of education, made the study to provide data for high schools considering changes in curricula to produce higher scholastic achievement. As the result of his investigations, Dr. Brink recommends that "guidance in the improvement of study habits should be integrated with instructional activities." The study habits of students in the upper fourth of their classes followed similar patterns, the educator found.

Sea Anemone

A strange partnership of the tropical coral reefs exists between the sea anemone, which paralyzes its prey with its stinging cells, and the small anemone fish, somehow immune to the sting of its companion. The fish lurks among the tentacles of the anemone until the prey passes within reach. Deftly it maneuvers the prey, usually another small fish, within range of the stingers and holds it there until paralyzed. Then anemone and partner share the meal.

Watch For Food Poisoning

Housewives were warned again this week to take precautions against botulism food poisoning resulting from home canning, by Miss Viola Fisher, nutrition consultant of the state department of public health. "Canned foods having a disagreeable odor or coming from containers having bulging lids, indicating gas pressure, should never be tasted," she said. Such spoiled foods should never be dumped or fed to animals, but should be buried or otherwise destroyed by boiling or a chemical treatment.

The following precautions were advised in canning food stuffs: Use only fresh and firm fruits and vegetables. Meats should be in good condition. Food should be thoroughly washed, cleaned and canned as soon as possible after gathering. If canning is done by the hot water method, the food, when opened for use, should be boiled for a full fifteen minutes before tasting. Food should be thoroughly mixed while boiling so that all parts of the contents will be sufficiently heated to destroy the toxin causing botulism. This organism grows in non-acid foods such as vegetables and meats and produces an extremely poisonous toxin.

A. W. Klotz, director of laboratories says: "Even a small spoonful of food containing this toxin can cause death." He emphasized that if any illness is suspected to be caused from contaminated food, a physician should be called at once if botulism is present — the antitoxin used for treatment is effective only if given within hours after exposure.

The Height Of Modernism

I was driving through the country with an old gentleman to inspect a farm and we were discussing that inevitable topic, taxes. As we passed a school bus, he exclaimed. "See! That's what I mean. When I was a boy we walked three miles to school. Now we spend $5,000 for a bus to pick up the children so they don't have to walk. Then we spent $50,000 for a gymnasium so they can get proper exercise!" — Reader's Digest.

Allan Flansburg is one of those flying farmers you read about in the magazines . . . alert, progressive, a real pioneer of modern farming methods, and he's quick to recognize in Reddy Kilowatt another pioneer of modern farming. Allan's wheat farm is about three miles south of Palouse. He's active in the Flying Farmer's association, flies his own plane and uses it in the business of farming as well as for pleasure. As you would expect, he has a completely electric work shop and his home is all-electric for modern farm living. Allan says:

"Down here in the Palouse we are proud to be running some of the most progressive farms in the country. Research work in farm electrification that the Water Power and State College people started twenty-five years ago has helped this area a lot."

Way back in 1906 the Washington Water Power began a rural electrification program in the Inland Empire. Today 98% of the farm homes in Washington and Idaho are electrified. It's been a big job, this rural electrification, but now, thanks to private enterprise and the REA, it's practically done!

- ★ Fan shaped flame gives more heat with less fuel
- ★ Visible flame provides the joy of an open fireplace
- ★ Pre-heating of fuel vaporizes all of the fuel and eliminates carbon
- ★ Heat trap prevents heat loss up the chimney
- ★ Warm air circulates without a fan due to special construction
- ★ Beautiful Neutraltone finish blends with any color scheme
- ★ SPARK is an Oil Heater, not just an oil burner
- ★ See the SPARK operating and you can see the advantages

This is a cut-away view of the Spark Burner, showing the pre-heating tunnel and burner where automatic air intake and vaporized fuel create the fan-shaped flame. Fuel oil, fed continuously into the burner, is vaporized into a clean, carbon-free gas. This gas travels to the flame-spreader to ignite and form the SPARK fan-shaped flame. This unit is the heart of your SPARK HEATER . . . This is why SPARK is a better heater . . . This is why YOU should get a SPARK today.

 Mr. and Mrs. Lester Weaver and daughter Mary Ellen and Ronald Benjamin attended the Community Days celebration at Troy, Saturday.
 Mr. and Mrs. George Lyons and son motored to Thompson Falls, Mont., last week to visit her sister. They made an over-night stop with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Baever of Spokane, enroute.
 The Gold Hill W. M. A. met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Al Pederson, for its regular business session. At the close of the meeting refreshments of jello, cake, fruit juice and coffee were served by the hostess, followed by a social hour.
 A family reunion was held Sunday at the Art Foster home, the event honoring the birthday of Mrs. Foster. This was the first time their family group had been complete since 1942, when a reunion was held previous to Marvin leaving for Europe in World War II. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Garner and children of Pierce; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Ball and children from Orofino; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Garner from Riggins; Mr. and Mrs. Archie Garner and children from Kendrick; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Souders and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Foster and children.

 Dick Konen arrived in Lewiston Friday to begin his two-week furlough, after which he expects to be sent with his division, to Germany.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Grim received their first letter last week from their son, Pvt. David Grim, after his arrival in Panama. We take it, that, even though farther away from home, he is well pleased with the change in stations. Some of his pals may feel a slight twinge of envy when they hear that he's done with K. P. duty and all the irksome little training details are done there by hired natives of Panama. David reports wonderful food served at tables for four people — table cloths — really fine treatment. Let's hope that he will send a letter to the Gazette telling us something of his routine — the country and its people and customs — so all can enjoy it.
 Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Grim were her mother, Mrs. W. P. Simms and her brother, W. E. Simms, both of Clarkston. Bob Grim was also home over the week-end from Camp 40.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harley Perryman and son Gene spent the week-end fishing in Wildhorse and Fish Lakes, in the Buffalo Hump region, southwest of Elk City. While fishing on the bank, Gene's attention was attracted by some twigs snapping close behind him, and on looking to investigate, he was startled at seeing a big moose standing about ten feet away. Moose are very numerous in that region.

Rev. C. E. Lichty from American Falls, Presiding Elder of the U. E. church, was a guest in the Frank Lyons home from Friday until Sunday. A business meeting was held Saturday evening. During the Sunday service five new members were taken into the church.
 Rev. Norbo will not be preaching here next Sunday, but all who can are invited to attend services at Cildesac and be guests of the Norbos at a pot-luck dinner. There will be Sunday School as usual, however, here at Gold Hill.
 (Delayed)
 Mr. and Mrs. Bob Chilberg accompanied his brother on a trip to various coastal points, where they visited relatives and friends. Mrs. W. L. Candler of Juliaetta kept Grandma Chilberg and the children company while they were away, and the Smith boys, Jerry and Donald, stayed at the Chilberg home to do the farm chores.
 Bear hunters who bagged their game last week were Stewart and Billy Wilson, Clarence Alexander and Clement Israel. Two of the bears were "cedar ridgers" and the third was killed toward Elk River. We understand.
 A family gathering was held Sunday at the home of Mrs. Annie Weaver, the event honoring Pvt. Alex Weaver, who will leave Tuesday, ending his "pre-Korea" furlough.

Flying Farmers Meeting
 Grangeville — Late harvest season in southern Idaho caused many farmers from that part of the state to miss the two-day Idaho Flying Farmers convention held in Moscow Sept. 10 and 11, according to George Crea. A good program had been arranged by agricultural department heads at the University, followed by a tour of the campus and visit to the university farm.
 George Crea, Grangeville, was moved from district director to president of the Flying Farmers; Otto Kuble, St. Anthony, vice president; Stanley Hepler, Southwick, secretary-treasurer. Wayne Harper, Emmett and John Cobb, Boise, were elected directors from the south Idaho district to succeed themselves. Other directors include Mrs. Darline Cox, Shelley, and Gilbert Breeding, American Falls.
 E. G. McCarty, Idaho Falls, retiring president of Idaho Flying Farmers, is a director of the National Flying Farmers Assn. for Idaho, Oregon, Washington and Montana. This organization, in cooperation with Texas A & M college, developed a duster-type airplane for experimental and demonstration purposes. This plane will be on display and demonstrated at the Idaho aviation breakfast to be held in Weiser on Sunday, Sept. 23.

Buys Blooded Bull
 Beloit, Wis. — Hemman Meyer, Kendrick, Idaho, has recently purchased the registered Brown Swiss bull Silver Spring Chief 93262 from H. O. Woodruff, Juliaetta, according to Fred S. Idace, secretary of the Brown Swiss Cattle Breeders' Assn., Beloit, Wis.

Weather Remains Warm
 The weather this past week has certainly been ideal for the wind-up of harvest activities. We have had bright, sunny days, and very little dew at night.
 Sunday recorded a high of 85 degrees, Monday 88, and Tuesday 90. — Guess it's really Indian summer.

Potlatch Chief Sez

Published by the Kendrick Creamery

HELLO, THERE, FOLKS —
Yes, hunting season is drawing nearer and near — have you picked out that locker box yet? You know we have one to fit ever need and purse. Come in and look them over.

An American resident in China remonstrated with her houseboy for taking her linen into her bedroom without first knocking.
"Is all right, Missy," said the native. "Every time come, lookie in keyhole. Nothing on, no come it. Is all right."

Cool fall weather makes us think of hot drinks. Be sure that the milk you use in making hot chocolate is "Potlatch Chief" brand — and when you put cream in your coffee, it will taste lots better if it is "Potlatch Chief" brand. One trial will convince you.

Mike, returning home with Pat: "Are you sure you told your wife you were bringing me home to dinner?"
Pat: "I'll say I did — and we had quite some argument about it!"

Hot cakes taste lots better when pure, sweet "Potlatch Chief" brand butter is used. A hot cake, dripping butter and syrup make a swell breakfast dish.

Young Nancy was told not to ask her grandmother a lot of questions when she came for a visit because they were annoying to her.

"But it's not the questions that annoy her," explained Nancy. "It's the answers that bother her."

Friend: "Was your uncle's mind active and normal to the very end?"
Heir: "I don't know. The will won't be read until tomorrow!"
