Entertain At Card Party
The Kendrick Masonic Lodge entertained at a card party for their wives and the Eastern Stars and their husbands last Friday evening at the Fraternal Temple. Canasta and pinocle were played at 16 tables.

Prizes were awarded as follows: Pinocle — High, A. O. Kanikberg and Mrs. Andy Cox; lows, Ed. Mielke and Mrs. Lester Wallace.

At canasta highs went to Frank Abrams and Mrs. Darwin Tarry; lows to Eugene Taylor and Mrs. John Johanson.

Delightful refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Scouts Take Winter Hike

On Feb. 23, four Kendrick Boy Scouts armed themselves with the proper equipment and took off on a hike up Moscow Mountain. They pitched camp and spent the night in snow which was five to six feet deep — and report a wonderful time, even though it was a bit chilly! The thermometer read 8 degrees above zero at the D. A. Christensen ranch that night, so we'll wager it was a bit lower at the boys' camp.

Those making the trip were George and Lee Jones, Jim Armitage and Roger Christensen.

BEVERLY SCHUFFER WRITES MORE INTERESTING LETTERS

The morning after we arrived in Venice we took a ride in a gondola down the Grand Canal (Main Street) as far as St. Mary's Square, where the cathedral and ducal palace are located. We nearly froze ourselves while going through the palace and seeing the church. There were many little shops on the square with gorgeous leather goods, jewelry and all kinds of souvenirs. We window-shopped for a while and bought a few trinkets. There was much more to see in Venice, but we were rather anxious to get home and also the money situation was becoming tight.

We left Venice in the morning (Tuesday) and were in Graz that evening about 7:30. When we got here into Austria we were so glad to hear German again and agreed that there is no language quite like it. And we had a good Austrian meal on the train, and agreed that the Austrian cooking is the best in Europe — of anything we have had so far. I have always read so much about the wonderful French food, but it was a disappointment, because I honestly think that the Austrians are artists in the kitchen. And next to the Austrian food, we liked to eat in Italy best. The spaghetti is only an appetizer, and we really ate a lot of it. I gained some weight, I'm afraid.

Now that we are back in Graz it is sort of a let down feeling not to be on the move all the time. The consolation is that in two weeks more we have another month of vacation. They hardly ever seem to have school over here. I don't know what I will do. Dr. Pfanner wants me to go to Sicily with her, because they have a bargain rate on now — 30 percent cheaper if you stay seven days on the island. The train fare is 30 percent cheaper, that is. But I've seen Italy twice already now, and if Eloise comes next summer she will want to see Rome, so I have been saying that until later. The students in Vienna have only a two-week vacation, so am considering spending the last two weeks in Vienna, because they will be there then, and I want to hear more operas and concerts.

This letter is practically a book, but I wanted to tell you all about everything. I have been writing on it for about six and a half hours off and on. When I got home there were 42 letters waiting for me, and I just don't know how I'll ever answer them all. A lot of them were cards, but nearly every one had a note or letter with it.

Now I'll get around to answering some of your questions and I will be all caught up. Yes, the packages have all arrived and in good shape. The little package that Auntie sent me had been opened by the censor or the customs men at Innsbruck, and even the packages inside had been opened, but were carefully put together again. That is the only instance that I have ever heard of a package being opened.

That is very nice of you to send us so much food, and thank Mrs. Johanson for the orange juice. Since Christmas we have had oranges here in Graz, but I imagine they will always be very expensive.

I have one roll of color film back from the processing. It takes six weeks, and in three weeks I'll have another one. They didn't all turn out good, but it was a pretty good batch, and those that did are quite good considering my lack of photographic ability. I took a lot of colored pictures on the trip.

That's all for now. Tell everyone "hello." — Beverly Anne.

Well Proves Disappointing

Drilling operations on the new village well are proceeding steadily, the depth now being about 360 feet, with the drill making about 5 inches per hour through solid blue-black basalt rock.

A test run by Jim Burns, driller, when water was hit at a depth of 273 feet proved disappointing, the flow in the ten-inch bore being but 30 gallons per minute. Also, at that depth, a definite connection between the old and new well showed up, the steady pumping in the old well lowering water level in the new.

Just what depth the new bore will be sunk to, has not yet been decided, but Mr. Burns feels that when the present "plate" is punched through an ample flow will be found.

World Day of Prayer Service

"Christ Our Hope" which is this year's theme of the World Day of Prayer, will be observed in the Community church Friday afternoon at 2.

The Kendrick W. S. C. S. is sponsoring this meeting and extend an invitation to all to come and share in this world-wide observance. Since it is interdenominational, Christians around the world are meeting together.

VIRGINIA FAYE CUDDY IS BRIDE OF LEONARD M. COLE

At a charming candlelight ceremony in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cuddy, Southwick, Virginia Faye Cuddy became the bride of Leonard M. Cole, son of Fred F. Cole, Orofino. The Rev. Earl Johnson performing the simple but sacred double-ring ceremony, against a background of lighted candleabra and bouquets of pale pink carnations and white stocks.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dusty rose suit with navy accessories. Her corsage was an orchid and her jewelry, a necklace and matching earrings, were gifts of the groom.

Her sister, Annabel Cuddy, was maid of honor. She wore a blue suit with navy blue accessories. Her corsage was a gardenia. Her necklace and earrings were gifts of the bride.

Best man was John R. Cuddy, a brother of the bride.

Mrs. Cuddy, mother of the bride, chose for her daughter's wedding an afternoon dress of soft green. Her corsage was a gardenia.

Mrs. Cole wore a gray suit. Her corsage was also a gardenia.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony, at which the guests were served cake, ice cream and coffee.

Mrs. Margaret Brown, a sister of the groom, baked and served the beautiful three-tiered wedding cake, which was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Hattie Southwick, grandmother of the bride, poured.

Mrs. Cole was a Senior at Kendrick High school, and will complete her studies and graduate at Cheney High school.

The groom is a graduate of the Orofino High school and is in his Junior year at Eastern Washington College of Education, at Cheney, where the young couple will make their home for the time being.

Guests at the ceremony and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Cole, Orofino; Mr. and Mrs. Omar Brown, Pullman; Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Powell (grandparents of the groom); Mr. and Mrs. Foster McFadden; Mrs. Hattie Southwick (grandmother of the bride), and Richard E. Nichols.

Cub Scout Pack Meeting

The Cub Scouts held their regular Pack meeting Monday evening in the Community church basement, and were hosts at a pot-luck supper. There were some 65 parents, Cubs and friends present.

As all were seated around the banquet tables Rev. F. C. Schmidt gave the invocation. High lights of the dinner were the clever place cards, little blue and gold Freedom Bells, and a birthday cake with 42 candles, which commemorated the 42nd anniversary of Scouting. Norman Wilson, whose birthday anniversary fell on the same day, brought his birthday cake with candles, and all sang "Happy Birthday."

A short program followed in which Den II gave a summary of the activities participated in at a Den meeting.

Den I sang about the "Freedom Bell" and gave a little skit explaining its meaning.

Awards were then presented, Leonard Eldridge receiving a gold Arrow Point and Denny Abrams the Lion badge.

Floyd South, a sportsman of Lewiston, who has a large collection of nature pictures, showed several movies and a cartoon film, which concluded the program.

Surprise Birthday Party

Mrs. George Wilken was surprised on her birthday anniversary, Tuesday, Feb. 19, when a group of friends called to spend the evening playing pinocle.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilken, Mr. and Mrs. Reinhard Wilken and Marge, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wendt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reil, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Koepf and the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wilken.

Pinocle was played at three tables with high scores going to Mrs. Geo. Wilken and Henry Wendt. Second highs were won by Mrs. Henry Reil and Geo. Wilken, with Mrs. Reinhard Wilken taking the galloping goose!

Refreshments of sandwiches, birthday cake and coffee were served by the self-invited guests. They also presented Mrs. Geo. Wilken with a remembrance for the evening.

Culdesac Bows To Kendrick

Culdesac put up a game but losing fight at Lapwai Wednesday evening of last week before bowing to the Kendrick Tigers 52-42 in the second round of the Valley Elimination contest.

Reubens clung stubbornly to Winchester, but finally bowed out of the tournament by a 58-44 score. Reubens had previously lost to Kendrick.

Culdesac was still within shouting distance of Kendrick at the end of the third quarter, when the score favored the winners 35-29. Kendrick held only a one point lead at the half 21-20.

Culdesac lost four players, three of them starters, via the foul route, in an effort to stop the taller Kendrick Tigers at the backboards. Kendrick (52) . Pos ... (42) Culdesac: Craig 9 F G. Many Deer In Area

Deer in this area may well be described as "thicker than flies" at this time, for the Poltatch canyon is literally "alive with them" — and has been for the past three weeks or more — they probably having been driven down by deep snow in the sections further back.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Wilson counted 136 last Friday while on the way from their Cedar creek home to Kendrick. Clarence Weaver counted 89 from his home to town the other day, and various other large counts have been reported by reliable witnesses.

Saturday, from Main street, 15 deer were counted feeding on the hillside east of town, and 13 were seen Sunday morning.

Vern and Wayne Wegner spotted very fresh cougar tracks Sunday while coyote hunting, the big beast's paw prints measuring 5 by 6 inches, so it is highly probable that the local deer will move out rapidly unless some state or other hunter bags the big cat.

Two Local Businessmen Back

J. G. Travis, who some three weeks ago closed out their stock of furniture and electrical appliances by auction, is back in business again — opening for business in the old location with new and used items. He is now operating under the trade name of "Jack's Trading Post."

Phil Johns, who formerly did wiring and sold electrical items, is back as a licensed contractor.

All are glad to have these two businessmen with us.

Weather Cold But Sunshiney

Weather here in the canyon has been what might be called "ideal" for winter. We have had bright sunshiney days with cool to cold nights. The ice ridges thrown up by the snow plows the past winter may still be seen along Main street in a few short stretches, but on the whole the snow and ice of winter is gone.

However, the Poltatch ridge section toward Southwick was visited with a real blizzard Monday, and the county snowplow was called out to clear side roads. New snow drifted so badly that travel was all but impossible in some of that area.

DAVID F. GENTRY, PROMINENT AREA CATTLEMAN, PASSES

David Frederick Gentry, 72 years old, a prominent farmer, cattelman and lumberman of this area since 1908, died at his home here in the east part of town at 9:30 p. m., Tuesday, February 19. He had been in failing health for the past several months, and his final illness was of some three weeks duration.

Mr. Gentry was born March 17, 1879, at Galena, Mo., and married Nancy E. Holt there, on February 20, 1902. Mr. and Mrs. Gentry would have celebrated their golden wedding anniversary the following day (February 20).

They moved to Oregon in 1906 and then in 1908 to Bovill, where Mr. Gentry engaged in logging and cattle raising. They moved to Kendrick in 1916, purchasing a farm on the hill north of Kendrick, and there farmed and raised cattle until about two years ago, when Mr. Gentry retired, moving to their present home in the east part of town.

Mr. Gentry was baptized in the Galena Christian church in his early twenties.

Besides his wife, survivors include three foster-children, William and Dorothy Holt of Kendrick and Mrs. Mildred Spicer of Whittier, Calif., whom he raised since their early childhood; a stepmother, Mrs. Nettie Gentry Stone of Juliaetta; one brother, Ira Gentry, of Helena, Montana; five half-brothers, Ben Gentry of California, Lester Gentry of Michigan, Ernest and Victor Gentry of Oregon and George Gentry of Washington; and two half-sisters, Mable of Michigan and Libby of Arkansas.

Funeral services were conducted at the Kendrick Community church at 2:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon, with the Rev. F. C. Schmidt, delivering the sermon. Burial was in the Wild Rose cemetery on Big Bear ridge.

Palbearers were all old-time friends of the deceased, John Heath, John Galloway, Tom Long, Roy Glenn, Gil Erlwine and Richard L. Blewett, all of Kendrick. Short's Chapel, Moscow, was in charge of the arrangements.

The big church was filled to overflowing, many standing in the vestibule, and the attendance, together with the beautiful floral offerings gave mute testimony to the high esteem in which Mr. Gentry was held.

It may be said of "Dave" that his word was his bond, and that he spoke ill of no man. These two qualities in themselves would endear him to all — but he also possessed the knack of friendliness, and counted his friends by his acquaintances.

He took a prominent part in the formation of the local cattlemen's association, and was to a large degree responsible for its success. Mr. Gentry shunned public office, but was always working for the betterment of the community. His passing leaves a gap that will long be vacant.

Wins Free Trip

Leonard Eldridge joined 125 other Spokesman-Review carriers in Spokane Saturday for a two-day "jamboree" at the expense of the newspaper. These lads were subscription contest winners, Leonard having to obtain 15 new ones, which entitled him to this trip.

Leonard is the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Eldridge, and well known to most local residents as their polite and courteous carrier.

Leonard left Lewiston Saturday with 9 other boys from this area for Spokane. Their itinerary included a visit to KHQ in the afternoon, where they were featured on Bob Schwartz' matinee — dinner at the Desert hotel, and in the evening an ice hockey game. On Sunday they viewed the city from a-top the Old National Bank bldgs., and following their noon meal, returned to their homes.

"It was a wonderful trip," says Leonard, "and worth working for."

Town Team Loses To Kookkia

A last period onslaught brought Kookkia its win over Kendrick at the tournament at Culdesac Monday evening, after the Kendrick town team had been well ahead for the first two periods. Kookkia began to connect in the third period and narrowed the margin to two points at the end of the third frame. Then Nygaard turned on the steam and dunked ten points through the hoop during the final stanza to wipe out Kendrick's lead and clinch the victory.

Kendrick led 16-15, 39-29 and 49-47 at the quarter stops.

Kendrick Bows To Lapwai

Lapwai and Culdesac came from far behind in the fourth quarters of both games last night to score victories in the Valley Elimination Tournament at Lapwai Tuesday night. Lapwai clinched a berth in the district tournament next month at Lewiston by defeating Kendrick 49-43. Culdesac eliminated Winchester 42-40 and maintained its chances of advancing to the district.

Lapwai's triumph gave it a day of rest before meeting either Culdesac or Kendrick in Thursday's final game.

Everyone who played for Lapwai chipped in points in the 4th quarter against Kendrick. The losers played their best game in the third quarter, scoring 14 points to apparently hold a good lead of 8 tallies.

Lapwai had been ahead 13-11 after eight minutes of play, but Kendrick held a thin 17-16 lead at half-time.

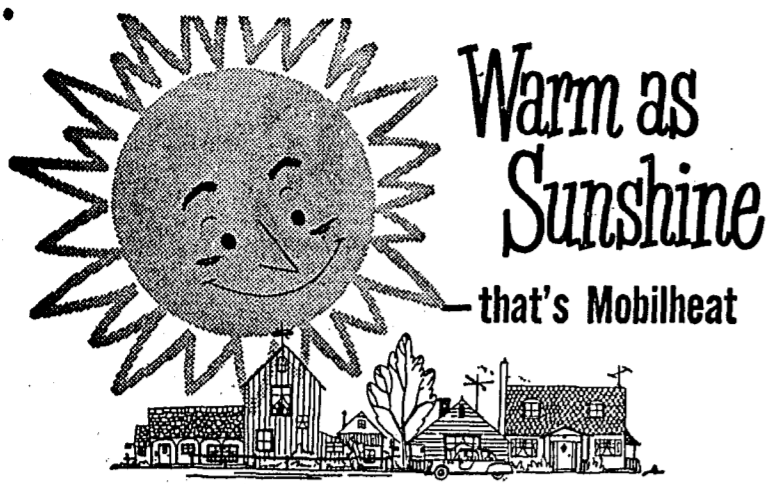

Stan Smith of Kendrick led the Tiger's and all game scoring with 25 points. Eddie Madsen paced Lapwai with 13.

Tells Of Governmental Danger
Moscow, Feb. 15 — U. S. Senator George W. Malone (R. Nev.) said tonight, at a Lincoln Day banquet, that the "four horsemen of American disaster — free trade, deficit spending, progressive taxation and progressive education" — are a greater danger to the United States than any outside threat.

Malone declared that progressive education "produces misinformed, skeptical and discontented citizens who are 'sitting ducks' for any reasonable liar standing on a soap box."

As a result of this, he said, "millions and millions of young American boys and girls have been sent from the classrooms to their first job hating business, the profit system, the boss, and looking to the great white father in Washington as their only champion against capitalistic greed and the law of the jungle."

He said it was not the federal government's job to stop it, and advised parents to "find out what is being taught in your schools" and "what the textbooks say."

Free trade, he said, "lowers living standards and weakens the nation from the standpoint of national defense."

Malone said deficit spending "destroys the value of money and savings, brings on high cost of living and if allowed to proceed without the restraint exercised by the gold standard, can bring on ruinous inflation."

He advocated adoption of a constitutional amendment limiting the amount of a person's income the government can take at 25 percent as the best means of halting progressive taxation. — Lewiston Tribune.

A young professor and his wife were meticulous about the language they used in their children's hearing. After one of those hectic days which befall every mother of small fry, the father greeted his family with a cheery: "Well, how is everything?"

WINTER'S ICY GRASP IMPERILS W.W.P. CREWMEN

Men Battle Elements as Work Continues Despite Snow and Bitter Cold

In the rugged northern Idaho mountains east of Pend Oreille lake, men and machinery of contractor crews are fighting a continual battle with winter snows and ever-treacherous terrain, as they push construction of the 230,000-volt transmission line from Cabinet Gorge to Spokane. This is country so primitive as to be considered next to impassable in the dry summer months, and it now costs many man-hours in snow-clearing operations to enable men and machinery to pass—so that the Inland Empire and national defense will have that essential extra power which is needed so badly at this time.

Construction of this line was planned to begin the middle of the summer, 1951, adjacent to the proposed Bonneville line that would carry power from Hungry Horse. Construction work required joint use of Bonneville's access roads in several places, and permission was given by Bonneville to use its roads starting in October, with operation to cease by April 1, 1952.

It's been a long, cold winter for these contractor crewmen. There have been times when the next move seemed impossible, seemingly blocked on every hand, but they've gotten through! And, in typical private enterprise fashion, will deliver more power to Inland Empire homes, farms and industry this year!

Potlatch Chief Sez

Published by the Kendrick Creamery

HELLO, THERE, FOLKS —

Yes, we're improving for better service as rapidly as possible. We plan soon to offer you Grade A milk, plus other improvements looking toward better handling in our receiving as well as dispensing departments.

And speaking of our receiving department: Bring us your cream. We want to buy it. You'll like the check you get, and we return a steam-sterilized, ready-to-use can. You don't have to scrub and fuss with it, or wait for it to be returned to you. Try us!

The conceited young man had been in the hospital for some time and had been extremely well looked after by the pretty nurse.

"Nurse," said the patient one day, "I'm in love with you. I don't want to get well."

"Don't worry," replied the nurse cheerfully, "you won't. The doctor's in love with me too, and he saw you kissing me this morning."

It's always ice cream season — and "Potlatch Chief" is just the brand that will please you. Keep it on hand for snacks and desserts all the time. Take home at least a half gallon next time. We have it in all the standard flavors, plus pleasing "specials."

Foreman (to applicant with a slight physique): "Do you think you are fit for hard labor?"
Applicant: "Well, some of the best judges in the country have thought so!"

Hot rolls, hot biscuits or hot cakes — all take plenty of butter to bring out their finest flavor — and that's where "Potlatch Chief" enters the picture. It's pure, sweet and flavorful. Made from pasteurized cream you'll never find a better. Ask for it by name, at your grocer or at the creamery.
