PARADE DAY SATURDAY Plans Now Complete For Third Annual Event Activities Begin With Parade at 11:00 a. m.

Plans for Kendrick's Third Annual Parade Day were complete Monday afternoon. A committee consisting of Tom Keene, Marvin Long and Dr. D. A. Christensen visited every business house in Kendrick to make sure of a Parade entry from each — as such co-operation is needed to assure the success of this type of event.

The events of the day begin at 11:00 a. m. with the parade. Appearing in this portion will be the 49ers, renowned riding group whose home "port" is Spalding; Miss Idaho, and Princess Patti Murphy of Lapwai, who last fall appeared at Madison Square Garden, New York, and a delegation from the Lewiston-Clarkston Motorcycle Club, the latter appearing in Club "Uniforms" astride their powerful machines.

The Kendrick High School band under the direction of Burke Sower will also be a feature attraction — and there will be the Pet Parade section (sponsored by N. B. Long & Sons), as well as plenty of entries from 4-H Clubs, fraternal organizations, and, of course, the commercial and display entries by Kendrick, Lewiston, Moscow, and other business firms.

Tom Keene, chairman of this event, asks all parade entries to assemble at the N. P. depot at 10:30 o'clock for assignment of positions.

Afternoon Program At 1:00 Beginning at 1:00 o'clock there will be a band program in the Kendrick park, presented by the K. H. S. band under the direction of Burke Sower.

At 2:00 p. m. there will be a baseball game at Armitage Field, with the Kendrick Town team meeting the Troy Town team, and this contest should be a good one, for both teams have excellent records, says Ross Armitage, sports committee chair-

SHORT NEWS ITEMS FROM OUR LOCAL SCHOOLHOUSE

Play Gives Pleasure The all-high-school play, "Peck's Bad Boy," directed by Irvin McGeachy, was presented to a rather small but highly appreciative audience last Tuesday evening, May 13, in the High School gymnasium. It was very well prepared, and the characters were well chosen.

The cast follows: Henry Peck, Sr., (the harassed father) Roger Jones Henry Peck, Jr. (the bad boy) Don Keeler Jimmy Duffy (Henry's friend) Jim Nelson Annie Filmore (the next door "brat") Mona Hammond Sadie Murray (a charming lady of forty) Norma Dagefoerde Ivor Plenty (a psychologist) Charles Parks Nancy Murray (Sadie's daughter, and charming) Joan Lawrence Helen Murray (Sadie's daughter and charming) Priscilla Benscotter Bessie Semple (a "brat") Kathleen Crawford Aggie Semple (a "brat") DeAnn Mielke Dahlia (the Peck's colored cook) Maxine Slind Schultz (the local grocer) Howard Wolff

Between-the-acts music was furnished by Burke Sower, playing saxophone solos, accompanied by Mrs. Claude Jones.

Band Concert Friday The attention of everyone is called to a feature attraction Friday evening at the H. S. gym., when the 60-piece Central Valley High School Band, Spokane, under the direction of Walter Thomas, well known former resident, will present a concert, beginning at 8:00 o'clock.

This band is known throughout the Spokane and Palouse area, and local residents should not miss this opportunity for a fine evening's entertainment.

About Athletic Insurance For a number of years the Idaho High School Interscholastic Activities Association has sponsored an insurance program for High School athletes with varying degrees of success. In general the plan was fairly satisfactory but always there were major possibilities of bankruptcy since there was no guarantee that the receipts would always be greater than the expenditures.

At the annual meeting of the Association in April, 1951, it was decided to tie our program into that of the Security Life & Accident Co. of Denver and thereby give the Association better security. The understanding was that the insurance would be essentially the same as before.

At the time our athletes took out their insurance last fall we assumed the coverage would be the same as before. However, when the schedule was inspected it was found that many injuries covered before were not now to be cared for.

At the Association meeting in Boise last week the insurance was discussed pro-and-con. Many were satisfied with the setup, and many objected. As a result it was decided that the Association accept a plan whereby the athlete, by paying one or two dollars more would be covered on many more types of injuries than now is the case. It is hoped that this will prove to be more satisfactory than the present arrangement.

PARADE DAY SATURDAY Plans Now Complete For Third Annual Event Activities Begin With Parade at 11:00 a. m.

And, sometime along about the middle of the game it will be stopped and a greased pig, donated by the Kendrick Table Supply will be turned loose for the benefit of youngsters under 12 years of age — with whoever catches it becoming the owner.

As another feature of the day there will be a Flower Show at the Red Cross Pharmacy, sponsored by that business institution, with prizes for the best bouquets.

The Women's Auxiliary of the local V. F. W. Post will sell Buddy Poppies on the streets Parade Day. Be prepared to help by purchasing one of these "Memory Flowers."

Miscellaneous Activities Chief item in this category is the request that everyone donate some used but serviceable clothing to the South Korean relief drive. This clothing is to be left at Dick's Barber Shop, where it will be picked up and sent to its destination by the Moscow Lions Club. — And by the way, one of our local Korean veterans, Jack Benscotter, says that this is indeed a most worthy cause. He has been there, and has seen the desperate situation and extreme needs of these people.

Also to be found will be cooked food booths and other like sections, plus "Parade Day Specials" in most of the stores.

All in all, this promises to be a really pleasant day — weather permitting.

CPL. FRANK DAMMARELL WRITES FROM HOSPITAL

From Yakusaku, Japan, under date of May 2, Cpl. Frank Dammarell, U. S. M. C., writes as follows: Dear Bill and All: Well, now that I have a long rest period in front of me, I can write you a few more lines. I am in a navy and marine hospital in Japan! I was on reconnaissance patrol with the C. O. and a Major. We were riding in a jeep out on a road leading up to a hill top where we could observe the country. No sooner had we gotten on a small knoll than the Communists started to drop mortar fire on us. Where it came from, I don't know, but they were getting rather close, so when we got in the jeep the driver drove off the road to turn around — and that's when things happened.

We hit a land mine. It blew the jeep into the air, and us with it. I hit in a rice paddy and I thought I would drown before I could get out. We were flown back to a medical station at Munsun-Ni (that's where the truce group stays). There we were given first aid and kept over night, and then flown to Inchon to a hospital ship (U. S. S. Consolation). I stayed there for about a week and then was taken by train to Kimpo Airbase, where I was put aboard a C-54 and flown to Yokahama, and then brought here by a bus.

This is a very large hospital — from A to Z, and lots of smaller buildings. It's located in the middle of town, surrounded by lots of Japanese cherry trees which are in full bloom, and which really add freshness to the air.

I haven't much to say other than that I'm getting along good, but I'll be here for a few months and then maybe back to the states. I found an item in a magazine about the Marines, and I find it's true to form all the way.

"Mr. Gen. F. E. Lowe, USA, President Truman's observer in Korea, has written a report that the U. S. Marine is the best fighting man in the world, according to a Washington Daily News dispatch. Lowe is quoted as saying: "The safest place in Korea was right behind a platoon of Marines. Lord, how they could fight! The Reds told us they were afraid to tangle with Marines and avoided them when they could. It is utterly impossible for me to express in words my admiration and respect."

Not much more to say, so I'll stop. Always, Frank Dammarell. * Our note: Frank's new address, should his friends find time to write him is: Cpl. F. C. Dammarell, U. S. M. C. 1193480, Ward K, Navy No. 3923, c/o F. P. O., San Francisco, California, and we believe he would appreciate plenty of letters.

Town Team Defeats Pomeroy

The Kendrick Town team took the measure of Pomeroy 14 to 9 Sunday afternoon on Armitage Field, Kendrick. Each team had seven hits to their credit.

Batteries for Kendrick were Don Millard, Jack Shepherd, Stanley Kuykendall and Ross Armitage, For Pomeroy Ledgerwood, Obenland and Ruchot.

The high-light of the game came when Don Millard hit a home run with two on bases.

The Town Team plays here Saturday (Parade Day) when they meet Troy. They will return the game with Troy at that town Sunday.

Weather Stays Cool And Damp

Despite the best efforts of the sun to break through the clouds, it has met with only brief success, and plenty of rain has fallen.

Lawns, pasture, shrubs and gardens here in the canyon have been growing like mad, and the whirring of lawn mowers can be heard everywhere when the grass and ground is dry enough to permit such work.

Lilacs, which have been in full bloom the past week or ten days, are now beginning to fade. Tulips and like flowers are also passing from the picture — but peonies, poppies and roses are beginning to bud, so perhaps there will be some flowers for Decoration Day.

Sponsoring "Grab Box" Sale

The Women's Auxiliary to the local V. F. W. post is sponsoring a "Grab Box Sale" in Kendrick Parade Day. Those bringing in articles during the week are asked to leave them at Blewett's Grocery. Tells Of German Conditions

Mrs. Carl Gustafson has received a most interesting letter from her daughter, Mrs. Karl Hanke, who is with her husband (an officer in a tank battalion) in Germany, as follows:

Dear Mom and Lorine: Hope you haven't given up hope hearing from us. Seems like every time I get a letter started, there isn't any way to mail it.

After I left Bremerhaven, where we docked it took another day by train to get to Stuttgart, then it is only eight miles to Esslingen, where we are staying.

I'm afraid there are going to be an awful lot of lazy American girls over here by the time we get back to the States again. We have a maid that does all the work. All we do is the cooking. I tried pressing my own clothes but the maid was insulted, so I don't do that any more, either.

Right now she is out fixing us some lunch.

The town we are living in is about 100,000 population. It's quite a quaint town with narrow streets. They all go in such funny angles that I'll never be able to find my way around in it. This town had hardly any bombs dropped on it, so it looks pretty good. Stuttgart really has had a lot of bombing. They have done a pretty good job of cleaning it up and rebuilding it. As far as the Americans go it's a little like home. We have our own stores, shows and things like that, but we can still go into the German stores and buy things. I expected things to be cheap here, but they are far from it. I suppose it's a little cheaper than at home, but they still aren't giving things away.

The first week-end after I got here we went down to the resort town of Garmisch. It has been taken over by the Americans for the soldiers and their families. It surely is a pretty place. It's way up in the Barvarian Alps. We also took a tour and went to see King Louis XIV's castle. That can't be described in words, but it seemed to be all done in gold.

We're going down town now, so I had better close. We are taking Maria (the maid) this time, so she can help us out with the German language. — Aleunia and Karl.

JULIAETTA, IDAHO

"Am I supposed to be glad you're big?"

Many people write us such comments as this: "I've heard people talk against big companies like you. Lately I've been reading your statements about bigness. Am I supposed to be glad you're big?"

The answer to this question depends on your answer to certain others. Some people have come to feel that bigness itself may be bad. Consider the good that comes from this same bigness.

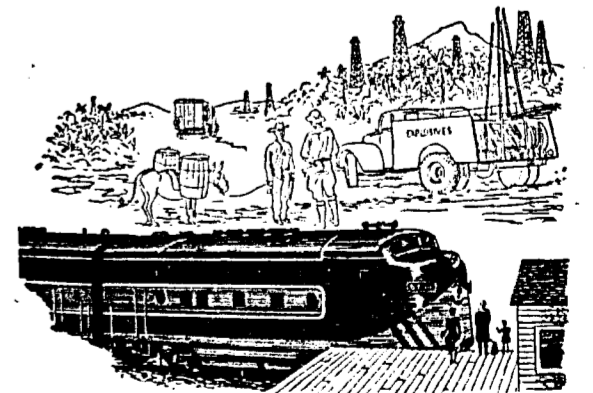

Do you like a bargain? You're getting one in gasoline. Except for taxes, gasoline today costs just about what it did in 1925. (And it's better gas; 2 gallons now do work that then took 3.) Why? Largely because of competition among big oil companies.

Do you like new and better things? Standard has spent over $35,000,000 on research and technical service in the last 5 years, developing new or improved products, and new raw materials for other companies. Yet only when allowed to grow big, by serving you better, can we take on the work and risk involved.

Do you want to keep your country strong? It takes big companies to back our fighting men and keep defense goods in full supply. Standard is at work for our government on aviation gasolines, atomic research, synthetic rubber, and other vital projects.

Are you glad you have the conveniences of this "machine age"? They depend heavily on oil. You're assured an ample supply of oil by the enterprise of big companies like Standard. We seek out new crude reserves, in this country and abroad, with exploration that may cost millions before the first gallon is found.

Obviously, there are countless ways to express the benefits you gain by our bigness... countless questions we could ask, to which you'd probably answer "yes" just as readily. And if you like the things that bigness brings, then you can be glad we're big.

Wacs Work Overtime in Japan; Aid Army in Korean Conflict

Approximately 1,500 members of the Women's Army Corps are filling important jobs in Japan and in their off-duty moments are enjoying life in the Orient.

The excitement of an important Army job, the fun of a tour through an oriental city, and the chance to help soldiers wounded in Korea have all become part of a day's routine for members of the WAC serving in Japan.

In answer to an urgent request, the Army sent large numbers of its women to the Far East Command shortly after the outbreak of the Korean war. Many of them replaced men who were sent to the battle zone while others aided the 825 Wacs already there. The women soon earned well-deserved recognition from their superiors.

Upon arriving at their new post, the Wacs were assigned to important tasks utilizing their special skills. Included in the long list of job assignments were positions as technicians in the Army Medical and Signal Corps and military intelligence duties.

The women settled down in their strange surroundings, comfortably combining the customs and language of the country with their own. They enthusiastically tackled the jobs given them, frequently putting in long, tedious hours to finish special assignments. But whatever the task—it was always done well—so well that General Matthew B. Ridgway complimented them on their splendid performance.

"Your loyalty, integrity and devotion to duty have again been generously displayed during these many trying and anxious months," he said. "The outstanding manner in which you have performed your mission in support of the United Nations troops fighting in Korea adds another fine chapter to the history of the Women's Army Corps."

'Chemical Eye' Reproduces Reactions of Human Eye

A group of scientists has recently created a "chemical eye" in a test tube, in which certain chemicals reproduce all the chemical reactions that take place in the human eye when it sees in dim light. These scientists, headed by Dr. George Wald of Harvard University, have also produced in the test tube electrical changes such as occur in vision.

The retina or back-screen of the eye contains two types of nerve ends—the cones, which are used for daylight seeing, and the rods, which are used in near-darkness. The rods contain a rosy, light-sensitive substance called rhodopsin which is necessary for vision in dim light. Rhodopsin is made directly from Vitamin A, and this is normally present in high concentration in the retina. An inadequate supply of Vitamin A causes night blindness.

Bright light bleaches rhodopsin, so that the eye loses its ability to see in dim light. But darkness reforms the rhodopsin, and sensitivity is regained. The "chemical eye" demonstrated how this continuous cycle works: In the dark Vitamin A is converted into retinene, which combines with a substance called opsin to form rhodopsin. In the light, rhodopsin bleaches back to retinene and opsin, and the retinene again becomes Vitamin A.

The "chemical eye" studies are expected to bring about a better understanding of how vision works, and consequently better means of preserving it. They include experiments which seek to solve the mystery of how the bleaching of rhodopsin stimulates the retina's nerve cells electrically so that vision is transmitted to the brain by way of the optic nerve.

Coaxial Cables

Coaxial cables make it possible to transmit as many as 400 words a minute (2,400 letters) by intricate teletypewriters and relay equipment. Scores of messages are sent simultaneously, in both directions, over a single line. Many cables, however, are 30 or more years old, and can handle only about 50 words per minute. Undersea "repeaters,"—vacuum-tube amplifiers—are now being installed in older lines to boost their capacity. Submarine cable is thin, usually less than an inch in diameter in deep water. It thickens to three or four inches near shore where there are hazards from chafing, trawling or ships' anchors. Standard 3.15-inch cable weighs 19 tons to the mile in water. Twenty miles or more of such line may be suspended in the sea while it is being laid, but once down, the cable hugs the ocean floor.

Nation's Timber

Biggest timber producer of all, the United States is one-third forest covered. Its woodlands yielded some 37 billion board feet of lumber in 1950. Notably wasteful in the past, the nation's forest industries have increased their replenishing and conserving activities steadily in recent years. Wood chemistry provides uses for previously wasted parts of trees. In 1950, some 600 square miles of U. S. forest land were planted in trees for future commercial use. Only a beginning, it nevertheless represented a 50-percent increase over the area planted in 1949.

REPORT RECEIVED FROM SURVEYING-RATING BUREAU

A report on the survey made last fall by the Idaho Survey and Rating Bureau on Kendrick, was received here last week, and we reprint portions of it.

Under "City In General" we find the following: Streets of fair to good width; principal streets oiled, in fair to good condition. Climatic conditions; High winds infrequent. Moderately short, hot summers with little rainfall. Winter temperatures moderate, with occasional short periods of severe cold. Snowfall light. Prevailing winds from the west. Fire Record: No definite record. National Board Grading: Seventh Class.

Under "Fire Fighting Facilities" we find: Water Supply: Municipal system originally installed in 1908. The system was extended and improved to some degree in 1934 by the installation of some larger mains. Organization: The system is under the general supervision of the village board and is under the direct supervision of a water superintendent. Records are generally poor and incomplete. Emergency provisions are generally fair, with one man and truck available for major repairs. Alarm not received by other than public alarm. Source of supply is from small developed springs augmented by flow from underground water table through a drilled well by means of a deep-well turbine pump delivering water directly into the system against a 225-foot head of the elevated storage reservoir. Total spring flow is estimated at 56 g. p. m. and is said to be constant.

Under the heading "Fire Department" comes the following: Organized 1949 as volunteer department and operated as such since that time. The department is under the general supervision of the village board and under the direct supervision of the chief who is elected annually by the membership of the department. The membership total 13, of which three are chief officers, four are company officers and six are firemen. One pumper company organized, one required. Apparatus consists of one 500-g. p. m. Grey-Ford, model 1949, triple combination pumper, new and in good condition. First aid appliances and minor equipment is moderately complete. Hose totals 1,000 feet of 2½ inch and 550 feet of 1½-inch, of which none is over five years old. All N. S. hose tread; no annual test. Response includes the pumper to all fires. Fire methods are elementary and basic in nature and about average for a volunteer department. Inspections of the P. M. D. are made on an average of six each year and cooperation is said to be good. Fire Records, good. No other records are maintained.

There follows a long list of suggested improvements, particularly as they apply to building and wiring regulations, improvements to fire hydrants, etc. Anyone interested in reading the full report may do so by contacting Frank Abrams at the Abrams Hardware.

About Your Cancer Drive

Boise, Idaho — Physician members of the board of directors, American Cancer Society's Idaho division, will meet in McCall on April 26 to select candidates for the annual post-graduate course on cancer, scheduled for the week of September 15, at the University of Oregon Medical school in Portland, Dr. Raymond L. White, Boise, chairman, said this week.

Committee members also will review the work of the Society in helping cancer patients and consider budgetary requirements for providing maintenance, transportation, loan equipment for home care, dressings, nursing visits and hormone therapy, all projects in direct aid which are provided by contributions received each April during the Society's annual educational and fund-raising campaign.

Dr. White said that 30 Idaho doctors will be invited to attend the September cancer course, another big step in making every doctor's office a cancer detection center. A total of 168 Idaho doctors have previously taken advantage of this opportunity, which is made available through joint sponsorship of the doctors themselves, the American Cancer Society, and the State Department of Public Health.

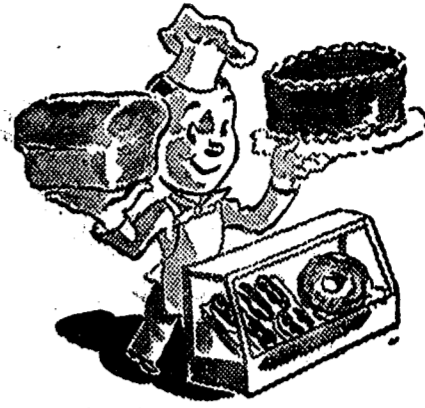

It is easy to see how the funds

B.F. Goodrich

POWER-CURVE TRACTOR TIRES

Power-Curve cleats dig into any kind of soil and hold firm. That's why these king-size cleats give you maximum traction — not only in forward gear, but in reverse, too. You get added pulling power—even in muddy going — because Power-Curve cleats are curved to stand rigid.

The famous BFG open-center tread flexes as the tire rolls. Dirt drops out, leaving each arrowhead nose clean to bite the soil better. And Power-Curve cleats dig deeper and wear longer because they're higher in the center than those of the other two leading makes. For more power in your tractor work, get the B.F. Goodrich Power-Curve tire!

District Hoop Stars Chosen

Lewiston, Moscow, Grangeville and Kendrick placed men among district two nominations for berths on the west team for the 1952 state high school all-star basketball game, it was announced at Lewiston Sunday.

District two coaches made their selections at a meeting in Moscow Saturday night after the district track meet. They chose Frank Moore, Moscow; Ron Webb, Lewiston; Bob Suhr, Grangeville, and Stan Smith, Kendrick. Moore plays guard, Webb center and forward, Suhr forward and guard and Smith forward.

Gary Barton, Lewiston guard-forward was named first alternate and Gene White, Moscow center, second alternate.

Only seniors are eligible for the all-star game, which will be played Aug. 15 at Jerome. George Kell, Kimberly, west coach, will name his team from the selections of district one, two and three, centered around Boise, Lewiston and Coeur d'Alene.

Boy Scouts Have Big Day

Saturday was a big day for the local Scout troop, as they worked like beavers piling brush. A number of the parents were also out to lend a helping hand, for which the boys were very grateful. They also want to thank Jim and Bill Thornton for their help. The money earned on this project will be used for equipment, and also to finance camping trips for the troop.

The Boy Scouts are also having a "Cat Stand" Parade Day (ball throw). The idea is to hit the cat on the nose!

Thank You — I wish to thank all "Cubbers" for the nice Mothers' Day gift, and to tell all I greatly enjoyed working with you these past two years. I know you will continue to grow in body and mind and keep working with "Adela" to make our Kendrick pack a success. Mrs. Wm. Johnson.

The recent rains have set field work back several days in this area.

Heavy Rain Hits Potlatch

Tuesday, during the noon hour one of the heaviest rains in many months hit the Potlatch section. Here in the canyon the big drops fell so hard and so fast that they literally "bounced" on the street paving.

On top the hills American ridge was the hardest hit, suffering what might well be termed a "cloud burst." Little Bear ridge and Big Bear ridge also were hit hard, some damage resulting from washing soil.

Further south, on Texas, Cedar and Potlatch ridges the rain was heavy, but so far as we have been able to learn did little if any damage.

There is now ample moisture in the soil for all types of crops, and farmers throughout the area are hoping the rains will cease so that they may resume field work, which is now ten days to two weeks behind the usual schedule.

Mothers Are Honored

At the Mothers' Day service in the Community church Sunday morning special recognition was given to some of the mothers.

A lovely corsage was presented to Mrs. L. Ameling as the oldest mother present; to Mrs. Allen Madalen for the youngest mother present, and Mrs. Roy Glenn was also given a corsage for being the mother with the largest family present.

Garage Being Painted

A crew of painters moved in on Bob's Garage Monday morning and began a complete re-paint job inside and out. The outer portion of the building is being painted white with red trim. The office interior is a pale yellow-green.

The improvement in appearance is quite noticeable.

Friendship Club To Meet

At the special levy election held Saturday the vote was 33 to 0 in favor of the needed extra levy.

Entertain At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Travis entertained at dinner Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Herman Travis and son Donny of Grangeville; Jackie Ware of Lewiston, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Raiment and family of Southwick.

Name Was Omitted

During "Home Demonstration" week the display in the N. B. Long & Sons window was made possible by the local clubs. The Evergreen Friendship Club's name was omitted by mistake as having a part in the attractive arrangement.

Word Game

A small-town officer went to the city, visited a police station and picked up some big-town cop lingo. He was on the witness stand a few weeks later when the defense attorney cross-examined him thus: "So you testified I arrested the defendant and took away all the paraphernalia. That's a pretty big word for folks around here, Officer." "Shucks," the officer replied, "I thought everybody knew what paraphernalia meant. Why, that means anything at all that's used in making bets on races!"

Potlatch Chief Sez

Published by the Kendrick Creamery

HELLO, THERE, FOLKS —

Here it is "Parade Day" time of the year again — Saturday, May 17—and a big day is being planned for everyone.

Now here's a suggestion that will make that day all the more pleasant and complete for you: When you come in, bring us that can of cream. We'll take care of it while you enjoy yourself, and return to you a steam-sterilized, ready-to-use can. Then, when you go home in the evening, take with you come "Potlatch Chief" ice cream. Take home at least a quart, but a gallon would be better, and enjoy it anytime. In all the standard flavors, plus specials.

Cab Driver: "You don't look so good, old man. What's the trouble?"

Second Cab Driver: "I got domestic trouble."

First Driver: "But, Harry, you always said your wife was a real pearl!"

Second Driver: "Yeah, that she is. It's the mother-of-pearl that makes the trouble."

Yes, it's picnic time again, and of course picnics always make us think of sandwiches, and when we think of sandwiches, we think of butter. Now that's where we come in. You just can't make a better sandwich than one that's spread with pure, sweet "Potlatch Chief Butter. It's made of fine pasteurized cream, which is your assurance of purity.

Lady Driver: "Can you fix this rear fender so my husband will never know I dented it?"

Mechanic: "No, but I can fix it so you can ask him in a few days how he did it."

And don't forget — we want to buy your cream!
