Cattle Going Through Town

To guess at how many thousands of dollars worth of cattle have gone through Kendrick the past week or ten days would be foolish — but there have truck load after truck load heading toward the summer range in the mountains, not to mention those that have been driven through — of which there have been several herds.

Anyway, it represents a "real pile of federal reserve lettuce" if one should try to figure it up.

VISIT TO SAWMILL, PLANING, MOLDING PLANT INTERESTING

A visit to the modern electric sawmill, planing and molding works at Juliaetta is worth anyone's time these days, despite the fact that these are busy times.

The sawmill is operated by the Juliaetta Lumber Co. (Puckett Bros. & Shearer) and the planing and molding works by J. M. Mead Lumber Products Co. (J. M. Mead), and although closely integrated, are separate units.

It was about six years ago that the Trustees of the Village of Juliaetta leased the best ball field in the Potlatch valley to E. A. Kirkpatrick of Post Falls for the establishment of a sawmill, and very shortly thereafter Mr. Mead began the construction of a planing mill to operate in conjunction with the sawmill.

It was true that Juliaetta had lost a baseball diamond, but also had gained a profitable lumbering plant that gave many residents of the town and surrounding area steady employment.

At the start the mill was small, but its growth, and that of the planing mill is evident, for each year new buildings and equipment have been added and a steady increase made in the number of employees.

Today the village can boast one of the most modern and efficient all-electric circular sawmills and planing mills in Idaho. Each day the plant saws from 25,000 to 30,000 board feet, which is enough lumber to build three average homes.

Logs at the Juliaetta plant are carried through a 54-inch bottom saw and a 30-inch top saw, driven by a 125 h. p. motor, and the smooth even flow of electric power permits the steady operation that so often means the difference between profit and loss. The hum of the motors is almost inaudible, but the whine of the saws as they cut often cause the uninitiated to put their fingers in their ears.

Common varieties of timber sawed at the mill are red fir, ponderosa pine, white pine, white fir, larch, cedar and hemlock. Timber is hauled by truck about 20 miles from various tracts in the area north and east of Kendrick, including the Cedar creek, Three Bear, Bed Rock, Pine Creek, Bear Creek and Potlatch ridge areas.

The present sawmill includes one main building for sawing; two dry sheds for rough lumber, an office building, a machine and paint shop, a lunch hall, a two-acre mill pond which lines both sides of the state highway at the edge of Juliaetta, a five-acre drying yard and a loading dock near the railroad. Owners of the plant are P. S. Puckett, O. K. Puckett, Ray Sherer and Earl Sherer.

In November when general woods work was over the Juliaetta Lumber Co. had more than 2,000,000 board feet piled about their dumps ready for winter sawing, and for the first time in its six-year life sawing continued throughout the winter, giving employees steady work.

No baseball bats have been made as yet at Juliaetta, despite the fact that the mill and planer plants are located on a former baseball diamond, but the industry has expanded to include custom planing and the manufacturing of molding and fancy interior paneling by the J. M. Mead Lumber Products Co.

More than 8,000,000 board feet were planed in Juliaetta during the past year, and to accommodate this greatly increased volume Mr. Mead found it necessary to install a very modern planing unit. The new machine is capable of planing 12,000,000 board feet yearly. It is powered by two 25 h. p. electric motors on the planer head itself, and added to these are five more electric motors on this machine, these running everything from the feed to the blower unit, which carries away the chips and shavings as the knives smooth the rough lumber. This section of the mill is operated for Mr. Mead by Ellsworth Weaver. In addition to planing all the lumber from the Juliaetta Lumber Co., they also custom plane for the Lewis Lumber Co. of Kendrick, and the Rauch Lumber Co. of Troy.

Probably of greatest interest to the spectator is the molding manufacturing of the Mead company. The first operation in the novelty or molding line was begun in the winter of 1947, when, to keep men employed, the production of fence pickets from scraps was begun. These "sold like hotcakes at a circus" and gave Mr. Mead the idea of a molding machine. One was purchased and installed, and its first operation was the using of scraps and edgings from the local Clarkston, Pierce and Orofino, as the local mill could no longer meet the needs of the machines. Demand continued to grow at a rapid pace and edgings proved inadequate to meet the demand, so he turned to the utilization of molding grade lumber, as a shift on the present machines produces 20,000 lineal feet or about four miles of molding, siding, lattice material, or like items.

Let's follow a board through the plant:

When it arrives at the molding factory door the board is first ripped to approximate size, and cut to a suitable length. It is loaded on a cart and goes to the re-saw, where it is split to any needed thickness. From there it goes into the molding machine, where heads, carrying six

Clothes Cause Excitement

Sunday a group of youngsters decided to rush the season and went swimming in the creek at the old "Deep Hole," near the Lewiston Grain Growers upper warehouse.

After disbanding Jimmy Armitage spotted an extra pair of pants lying on the bank, and in the pockets was found possessions of Jerry Bateman. Ross Armitage was called, and he began an immediate check of the kids known to be in the group. — All were finally accounted for, but whose pants Jerry Bateman was wearing has not yet been learned.

Anyway, all the kids were safe, and that is the important matter.

Writes From Japan

Under date of May 24, Cpl. Ray S. Thornton, now in Japan, writes: Dear Bill — I have been thinking about dropping you a few lines and letting you know I appreciate you sending me the Gazette. It is great to hear about what everybody is doing back home.

We aren't doing much over here now. We just got back from Okinawa a couple of weeks ago. We were there for a month, and while there Neil Erlwine and I went to see Bob Ware. It was good to see him again. Guess this winds up the news, so again, thanks a lot for the Gazette.

Locust Blossoms Gone

The locust blossoms on the big trees that line Kendrick's Main street are almost gone, the dried white petals drifting here and there along the streets as a puff of wind comes.

But while they lasted, they were beautiful, and the air was heavy with the scent, as well as filled with the hum of bees gathering honey from them.

Rose beds around town are taking the limelight now, for the first June roses are the loveliest of the year. They are blooming in profusion.

Honored By Bridal Shower

Mrs. Keith Thornton was honored with a bridal shower Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. A. Deobald, with Kathleen Crawford, Nancy Callison, Dorothy Glenn and Priscilla Benscoter as the hostesses.

Wonderful Summer Weather

Weather the past few days has certainly been all that anyone could ask for late spring or early summer.

A brief rain squall hit Saturday evening, but other than that the sky has been almost cloudless and the sunshine warm.

Farmers are making the most of it in their farm work — seeding, harrowing, weeding, and otherwise making up for lost time due to the wet weather in early May.

The sunshine is just what is needed for wheat, as much of it had a rather yellow color, but is now coming to a true green and fairly shooting upward.

The beauty weighed 4 lbs. 13-oz., and was 27 1/4 inches in length.

When your fan won't run, disconnect it and try turning blades by hand. If they turn easily, the trouble is probably electrical. Check the brushes—make sure they are clean; that they have not worn past the point of good contact. Check the cord for breaks. If your fan is of the brushless, induction type, better have a serviceman check the starting mechanism.

SCHOOL NOTES
About School Records
With the closing of another school year, and the records mostly in, it is interesting to note some of the statistics which have been compiled in various phases of the program.
For instance, the attendance records are of significant importance. Attendance records tell one of several interesting things about the child, or possibly its parents, who sometimes permit unnecessary absences. The child that is often absent either has poor health, he has to help support the family, he isn't interested in education, or lacks ambition and initiative. Sometimes parents could do wonders to help perfect the attendance record by directing and encouraging the child a little more from the home front. Regular attendance is a necessary habit, not only at school but on the job and, in either case, is necessary if a good job is to be performed.
The following students, who were enrolled all year are to be commended for having a perfect record during the past year: Gerald Kuykendall, Judy Bartlett, Burton Bowen, Marjory Ingle, Marian Saboski and Monty Celemehagen.
The following students were absent three days or less and are on the "Faithful Attendance Honor Roll": Roger Christensen, Joe Cuddy, Joan Davis, Wanda Peters, Mary Ann Pavel, Lee Swanson, Lee Grin-olds, Sonja Swanson, Jimmy Burns, Keith Jones, Roger Nelson, David Eldridge, David Hudson, Rodney Nutting, Jerry Armitage, Byron Bower,

Johnson, Edward Jones, Albert Westendorff, Paul Dageforde, Ann Dageforde, Lynn Koepf, Marilyn Zum

About Annuals
There are a limited number of this year's High School Annuals left over.
These annuals cost $3.56 and will be available to anyone at that price. If interested, or you have yet to get your previously ordered annual, it may be obtained at the Kendrick Bakery.
Students who have not received the last seven sheets of the annual may obtain them by calling at the Kendrick Bakery. This pertains only to those who have purchased an annual.

Pioneer Association To Meet The Latah County Pioneer Association will hold its annual picnic at the Elk's Temple on North Main Street, in Moscow, June 15th.
The picnic dinner will be served at 12:30 p. m. instead of the regular noon hour, due to church services.
Coffee, cream, sugar, dishes and silverware will be furnished by the Elks' lodge and some members near Moscow. But all coming to the dinner, if they can, should bring their own food, and the meal will be served family style.
There will be a program at 2:00,
with the first item the Elks' Flag Day ceremonial, followed by the regular program. The main address for the pioneers will be delivered by Virgil T. McCrosky. The Invocation will be by Rev. W. Warren Prall of the Presbyterian church. A vocal solo will be sung by Rex Elkum, and the main community singing will be by the Genesee Valley Lutheran church sextette. Shirley Danielson will be the accompanist.
Many old-time pictures and relics will be on display and any pioneer who has any other should bring them.
All who have lived in this section of the Palouse country for more than 30 years are pioneers and are heartily welcome.

MORE ABOUT SAWMILL
knives each, plane it on all sides and cut the desired molding pattern on one side.
Leaving the machine it is loaded on a cart again, which is taken to the grading tables. Here it is sorted as to grade and length, bundled "so many feet to the bundle" and tagged.
Then it goes to another saw, where every piece in the bundle is cut to exact length. Again it is loaded on a cart and goes to the storage room or to the loading dock for shipment.
All items except "linoleum cove"
are bundled, this latter being boxed.
A visit to the pattern shop or "nerve center" of the plant, presided over by Albert W. Bailey, proves almost as interesting as a trip through the operations area. Here you will see the tool steel or knife bars as they come from the manufacturer.
They are two inches in width, and from 18 inches to 30 inches in length. When a given pattern is desired, Mr. Bailey proceeds to cut from the bar a suitable length of tool steel, and on the modern machines grinds out the knife shapes and styles needed for any pattern of molding, and as about 50 heads, each carrying six knives are in operation all the time, one can see that Mr. Bailey is kept mighty busy at his specialists job, at which he is classed as an expert, as his duties include supervising the "setting-up" of the machines.
In stock Mr. Bailey keeps about 100 patterns of knives, all neatly catalogued, sharp and ready for instant installation. We are told that the steel used for these knives costs $2.00 per inch; there are six knives of 2-in. each per head, and about 50 heads in continuous operation, so it's easy to see that making molding is far from being all profit.
Although some carload shipments have been made from the mill, Mr.
Mead says most of their products move by auto freight, shipments having been made to as far east as New York.
A visit to one of the big storage sheds also proves very interesting.
Here will be found piled or standing neatly bundled around the wall knotty pine and cedar paneling, fir flooring, siding of many patterns, hand rails (round and smooth) closet poles, lattice work, screen door framing, and molding patterns by the dozen. And Mr. Mead adds that:
"Give us a sample of any pattern molding or paneling desired, Mr.
Bailey will grind the knives, and we'll match it!"
In addition to the custom planing, molding manufacture and allied work the Mead plant also handles at retail almost everything needed for the construction of a home — plywood, shiplap, roofing, insulation, windows,
doors, etc.
Visitors are always welcome at the Juliaetta plants provided they observe two strict rules: "No Smoking" and "stay out of danger spots."

Potlatch Chief Sez

Published by the Kendrick Creamery

HELLO, THERE, FOLKS —

Wonderful weather, isn't it? And with wonderful weather we all think more and more about getting out doors — picnicking, fishing, or just eating outside on our own lawn. Of course when these thoughts come, it's also time to think about Potlatch Chief products.

For example: It takes butter to make a good sandwich, and when that butter is Potlatch Chief it's a better sandwich, for the pure, sweet flavor of our butter adds just the flavor needed.

Friend: "Why do you have such misspelled and ungrammatical signs in your front window?" Sharp Merchant (with a grin): "People think I am a dunce and come in to swindle me. Business is booming!"

Berry season is at hand, and so it's time to think about canning.

But why stand over a hot stove? Can them the quick, easy way by freezing. Come in and look over our lockers. We have one to suit every purse and need.

A new draftee was hailed before the company commander, charged with using insulting language to his sergeant.

"But, sir," he protested. "I was only answering a question."

"What question?" snapped the officer.

"Well, sir, the sergeant said: 'What do you think I am,' and I told him!"

Ice cream is America's favorite dessert, popular with young and old. Keep it on hand at all times, and be sure the brand is "Potlatch Chief." That name is your assurance of quality and purity—of fine fresh flavor and texture.

Sell us your cream!

ALL THAT EXTRA WHY COMFORT WEAR? THAT'S EASY TO FIGURE OUT!

EXTRA WEAR because BOTH soles and uppers are of inner-shell horsehide. The center layer is the shell. The grain runs vertical—the wear is on the end of the fibers—like the wood in a butcher's meat block.

EXTRA COMFORT because Wolverine's exclusive triple-tanning process tans this super-tough 3-ply hide so it is buckskin-soft—dries out soft—yet retains all its remarkable strength and wear.

WOLVERINE SHELL HORSEHIDES

ONLY Wolverine SHELL Horsehides have this stronger, tougher inner-shell leather in BOTH soles and uppers—this 3-ply leather that wears and wears—that costs less to wear month by month on any work shoe job. No other work shoes in the world of leather tanned like Wolverine Shell Horsehides. Come in and try on a pair... no obligation.
