Birds Almost Vanished
 It seems as though one never hears of a hunter in this area having any luck at bagging Chinese pheasants — and few are even bothering to go into the field any more.

Before the season opened, and before so much ground was plowed up, reports indicated that the birds were considerably more plentiful than usual — but shortly after the season opened they apparently vanished into thin air.

Of course the very unusual dryness may have had something to do with their disappearance — but it seems as though someone would find their hide-outs, if such there be.

BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS RAPID OVER WEEK-END

Several important business transactions were completed last week in business circles here at Kendrick.

In the first of these Dr. D. A. Christensen purchased from B. F. (Frank) Nesbit, the present Jewelry & Gift Store building, including the adjoining vacant room.

In the second transaction Tom Keene purchased from Mr. Nesbit, who is retiring, the entire stock and fixtures of the Jewelry & Gift Store — and this week-end is holding a big Pre-Christmas Sale of items from that stock, and from his Red Cross Pharmacy stock, where over-lapping occurs. The large ad. will be found on an inside page.

Present plans call for Dr. Christensen to move his office to the former Nesbit building as soon as suitable remodeling can be completed — and the office in the Brocke building, to be vacated by Dr. Christensen, will be occupied by Frank V. Barton, lawyer.

We understand that Mr. Nesbit plans to make his home in Kendrick, and will continue to occupy the apartment at the rear of the present Jewelry & Gift Store. Mr. Nesbit recently underwent eye surgery, but found his sight still inadequate to continue with the store.

It is thought that about a month will be required to remodel the building to fit its new purchasers requirements.

Home From Korea

Cpl. Alex Weaver, son of Mrs. Annie Weaver, Southwick, arrived home on Thursday of last week from Korea, where he spent 11 months and 20 days — and which he says was 11 months, 19 days and 23 hours too long. Alex has to return to Fort Lewis next month to get his release papers.

Alex says Kendrick looks the same as always, after being away almost two years — and that it and home surely look good.

He went overseas with Gilbert Candler, but they were separated in Japan, and from that day on he never saw a soul he knew — until his arrival home.

Alex says the weather in Korea is very "positive" — when it rains, it really rains; when it's cold — it's bitter cold; when it's hot — it's really hot, and when it snows, it does a hang-up job of it — doesn't just mess around!

Alex says he was with a heavy artillery outfit, and though at times the work was hard and the hours long, he had it better than the boys in the very front lines. He adds that the Gazette was most welcome — and that its arrival was fairly steady.

Kendrick To Have Attorney

Frank V. Barton, lawyer, will open a business office in Kendrick today (Thursday) with temporary quarters in the George F. Brocke & Sons warehouse in Kendrick, until offices up town are ready for him.

Mr. Barton is a practicing attorney at Lewiston, with offices in the Carsow building, and will spend, for the time being at least, one day a week here (Thursday).

Scouts Build Cabin

Local Boy Scouts enjoyed an outing at Moscow mountain last week-end. While there they spent most of their time building a cabin, the lumber being donated by Wayne Roush of Troy.

Henry Jones and Manning Onstott accompanied the following group: Lee and George Jones, Darrel Brocke, Darrel Craig, Ray Onstott, Leonard Eldridge, Wesley Jones, Eddie Cor-kill, Randy Wallace and Farrel Miller.

The boys are needing some furniture for their cabin and anyone having an extra straight-back chair they would like to donate to the cause are asked to contact any one of the above boys, who will gladly call for it.

Darrel Mizer, Wesley Jones and Darrel Craig earned requirements for a Second Class badge.

Showing Improvement

Latest reports from the bedside of Weyne Weyen at Seattle, say that he is showing steady improvement. However, no date has yet been set for his return home.

SHORT NEWS ITEMS FROM OUR LOCAL SCHOOLHOUSE

Bus Schedule Changes
 A change has been effected this week in the bus schedule. The lunch hour at Juliaetta has been shortened to enable the Juliaetta bus to leave that school at 8:20. This places the buses in Kendrick at 8:30 to 8:32. Buses will leave Kendrick immediately thereafter, enabling most of the children to arrive home 10 to 15 minutes earlier than usual. In the morning buses are to arrive at Kendrick from 8:25 to 8:30, and Juliaetta buses will leave at 8:30 for Juliaetta. Under this plan there is little or no waiting to change buses for those attending school at Juliaetta.

We are happy to state that there was scarcely anything molested around the school or about the school property on Halloween this year. The school slide had been condemned and was removed from its concrete foundation by the school custodian a day or two before Halloween, and no vandalism occurred there. Mr. Arnett states there were two soap marks on schoolhouse windows and two ash cans were upset. While the school has escaped Halloween attacks in previous years very well, we feel that this year "tops them all" and school officials wish to express their appreciation for this consideration.

Assembly Program

Last Wednesday we heard an address by John Nichols, an advertiser who gave us an interesting talk on his travels throughout the U. S. as a hitch-hiker, and over the world. He told of the various jobs he had held to obtain spending money and material to talk on. Some of the more interesting subjects he told us about in his humorous manner were the Trappist Monks, who dedicate themselves to their church for the rest of their lives, during which they are not allowed to utter a word, unless released to do so by the Abbott, in case of emergency.

Mr. Nichols also told of his experiences in Leavenworth Prison, where he was allowed to stay for a while for the purpose of viewing and taking notes of the prisoners — and the infamous Skid Row of San Francisco, where he posed as a bum and learned some of the terrible living conditions that are provided in this place for the small amount of money the average bum has to live on. He then gave an account of an experience in a slaughter house, where he had several exciting encounters.

In his last, and most enjoyable talk, he told of his work in a clown suit, and the good times he had had while he was with the circus.

School Pictures Taken

Thursday afternoon group pictures were taken of K. H. S. students. Among the groups were the four classes; the girls' chorus; boys' chorus; Pep Club, and Football team.

Final Test Grades
 Thursday and Friday, Nov. 6th and 7th, the teachers gave some real puzzling questions, which are known around the halls of K. H. S. as "those 9-weeks' tests that everybody dreads so much. Wednesday the final reports of the tests and the nine weeks just past, will be recorded on cards and handed to their respective owners.

Basketball Schedule

The basketball schedule has been drawn up for the Kendrick season — and it is hoped it will be a good season. If the student body gives the team and the yell leaders as much support throughout the year as they have to date, it will be a great help in making it a successful season.

In this precinct, as in most others throughout the state, voters "went for Ike," then crossed party lines to vote for their respective choices. George F. Brocke and Eugene Taylor, local candidates, led all others in numbers of votes received, despite their party captions.

Weather Still Wonderful
The Kendrick area is still enjoying wonderful fall weather — despite the fact that farmers and townfolk would appreciate a good rain.

For the past week the skies have been almost cloudless, with a daytime high of around 60 to 62 degrees, and a night low of from 22 to 28 degrees.

Late Monday night a drizzly rain began falling — and all hoped that it would continue into that long-needed "soaker." However, Tuesday morning skies cleared, the sun came out, and by mid-afternoon all traces of the moisture fall had vanished. Not even enough fell to clear the air in the canyon of the blue haze that has filled it for many days.

P. S.: Another light rain Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning.

No Substitute For Victory
Washington, D. C. (NINS) — A year ago last April General Douglas MacArthur summarily fired by President Truman when he had an enemy on the run and wanted to bomb their Manchurian bases and chase them back across the Yalu, said: "There is no substitute for victory."
This month, after fifteen months of "truce talks" have utterly collapsed; after fifteen months of continued American losses, averaging 1,000 a month in dead, wounded and captured; after 15 months of enemy build-up in which Red strength has been reported as more than doubled, the enemy has resumed his fanatical mass attacks. In the first 29 days of October, enemy dead, wounded and captured were estimated at 32,885. Our own battle casualties for last week were reported at 1,278, over 500 more than the week before, and making a total of 123,395.

And this week, all the top UN commanders in Korea were reported as anxious to take the offensive, but only General James A. Van Fleet, commander of the U. S. 8th Army was willing to be quoted. He said: "We need military victory. We must defeat the Chinese armies in the field. Korea is the key to Asia. Beating them is the only way to get back our prestige. We don't have to go all the way to the Yalu, but we must be prepared to hit the Manchurian air bases if we have to."

No, that's not MacArthur talking. That's Van Fleet, the field commander who took over from General Ridgeway when the latter was sent to replace the ousted MacArthur.

That's Van Fleet, who has been under wraps for eighteen months, who for fifteen months has watched the enemy building up an overpowering force in his Manchurian sanctuary across the Yalu.
And at the Pentagon in Washington, the signs of rebellion against continued domination of the military by the State Department are beginning to show. We look for some new ground rules — perhaps before the new Commander-in-Chief is sworn in.

He Has A Real System
A doctor in Berkeley, California, is making a name for himself by his success in reducing over-weight women. Asked his secret, he replied: "I get a head start on a case, that's all. On the patient's first call I spend only a few minutes with her, just long enough to weigh her and instruct her to keep a complete written record of every bite she eats during the two weeks until her second appointment. And," he smiled, "by the end of those two weeks most patients have already lost about ten pounds!" — Reader's Digest.

Farm Safety Important
 The general theme of this year's observance of Farm Safety Week, sponsored by the National Safety Council and the U. S. Department of Agriculture was: "Adopt right attitudes towards farm safety. Think safely, act safely."
 Accidents to farm residents could be reduced if farmers adopted right attitudes toward farm safety. When right attitudes are present, individuals are receptive to safety advice. It is hoped that farmers can be convinced that farming the right way is the safe way and the efficient way.
 Most farm accidents involve attitudes. There are several types of individuals who exemplify the wrong attitudes toward safety. They are:
 "Hurry Harry," who never takes time to take care. Harry doesn't realize that haste makes waste and that short cuts or failure to stop long enough to correct a hazard may result, in a loss of time, money or health.
 "Gambler Joe," who gambles with life and happiness. He depends on luck and takes such needless chances as allowing children to operate tractors and to ride on them.
 "John Scofflaw," who doesn't take safety seriously. He knows the safety rules, but thinks they are meant for the other fellow.

"Sloppy Sam," who puts off until tomorrow the elimination of hazards he finds today. He never has a place for anything and everything is out of place on his farm. In other words, he is a bad housekeeper.
 "Hap Hazard," who tries to crowd everything into one day. He never plans ahead. Consequently, he always has to hurry to get things done.
 "Arnosic Al," who smokes around the barn, throws away matches and cigarettes before they are out, always smokes in bed, and never bothers to properly label inflammable liquids and poisons.

"Roadhog Charlie," who, like his city pal, thinks the whole road belongs to him. Generally obnoxious in his attitude toward highway safety. —Summerfield (Ill.) Sun. Brought in by Mrs. Mary A. Deobald.
Scorching An Old Bogy
 A college sophomore recently asked his father in all seriousness what he thought about 60 families owning 90 percent of the wealth of this country. The father said: "I think you have been getting a lot of misinformation." For years politicians, labor agitators and left-wingers, as well as Communists, have used large corporations and the capitalistic system as the basis of attack to gain publicity. You never hear them mention the fact that there are over 4,000,000 business enterprises in the United States, of which over 9/10ths are classified as "small business." Small business accounts for 55 percent of the total employment of all business enterprises.

 How many people know that more than 3,000 meat packers are in this "small business" classification? Look around your own community and it's a safe bet you will find a meat packing plant or some other comparable "small business" within a radius of a few miles. It buys and sells its products in competition with the largest producers.

 Among the largest property owners in the nation are the farmers and ranchers. Their land and buildings have a total value of about $55 billion.
 Why don't our schools and colleges present some of these facts which are available for all who care to find them, rather than let the unscrupulous politician present them in a twisted form to further his own ends? Why don't we try to build pride in our millions of small businesses and millions of farms instead of allowing the undermining of confidence in the record of American enterprise?

 It's time to call the bluff of those who try to sell America short. They have no substitute to offer than can even begin to equal it! Let's believe in America — let's be Americans!
 Bottled Cola, Orange, Upper Ten, Sparkling Water and Ginger Ale in quarts is available at Blewett's Grocery-Market.

A wife with horse-sense never becomes a nag!

That the TRUCK is important to Idaho's Agriculture makes good horse-sense . . . when you figure that Farmers own 85% of all Idaho's Trucks.

A Salute to 4-H Club Members and Their Leaders!

Thanks to 4-H Clubs, more and more farm boys and girls are eagerly learning the best ways to make a good living on the farm—and how to make farm living the best way to live!

Few people are doing more for the future of America than the men and women who lead and instruct 4-H Club youth. They are wise in the ways of farming and farm homemaking, understanding and interested in youngsters. Among them are many Washington Water Power Company employes, providing special training in the use of electricity on the farm and in the farm home, and cooperating in every phase of 4-H Club work.

FARMERS are first and foremost among this nation's free enterprise businessmen. As a pioneer self-supporting, tax-paying free enterpriser of the Inland Empire, the Washington Water Power Company salutes farm youth . . . builders of agriculture's future unlimited the American free enterprise way!

LINDEN ITEMS

The W. M. A. needlework sale, held here on Friday evening, netted $161.50. The "Chinese Auction," together with donations, which is to be applied to the church building fund, brought in $40.00. A donation sent in later from King's store at Southwick increased this amount to $50.00.
The Harvester project will have earned about $12.00 when completed, as seeds are still being purchased. The door prize was won by Judy Cuddy.
Alva Craig, who usually auctions for us, was ill at his home at the time of our sale and, while we wish to thank everyone who helped us, a special "Thank You" goes to Given Mustoe of Southwick, who donated his services as auctioneer.
Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Keeler learned last week of the arrival of a new great-grandchild — born to Mr. and Mrs. James Horan of Spokane. (Mrs. Horan is a daughter of the former Olive Keeler).
Mrs. Louis Alexander was called to Dayton, Wash., Monday of last week, when their little granddaughter, Joella Michalis, underwent surgery for a ruptured appendix. Clarence Alexander made the trip to take his mother Monday night. Mrs. Alexander returned home on Sunday night and reports Joella as improving, although she is still in the hospital.
On Tuesday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Grim accompanied his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Boyd, to their home at Puyallup, Wn., where they visited until election day. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd, after voting in their precinct, brought Mr. and Mrs. Grim home in time for them to cast their vote here. The Boyd's remained to visit for a time.
Robert Chilberg and son Allen took his mother, Mrs. Wm. Chilberg, Sr., to Spokane on Saturday of last week. They returned on Monday.
Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Weaver and daughter were Mrs. Annie Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Weaver and children of Lewiston; Dayma Weaver, Alex Weaver, and Mrs. Patty Tout and son. Little Libby Weaver had been a guest of her grandparents since the night before.
Mrs. Al Pederson called on Mrs. Chas. Keeler Monday afternoon.

"VERY PROFITABLE RESULTS"
from commercial fertilizer . . .
AND SO CAN YOU!

Since 1949, they've used commercial fertilizer, both in re-cropping to wheat and in growing wheat after peas. (Their farm's in the Hogeeye area, Columbia Co., Wn.)

"Inexperienced in that type of farming, we were fortunate in obtaining the advice of Warren G. Marshall, now agronomist with Kettle Farm Management Service. "His fertilizer recommendations were based on our available nitrogen and soil moisture. The results have been very profitable."

ACT NOW for greater profits next fall. Let us help you plan your spring cropping program while you can still order fertilizer for early spring delivery.

Potlatch Chief Sez

Published by the Kendrick Creamery

HELLO, THERE FOLKS —

Now that the "shouting and tumult" of the election is over, let's consider your income for the winter. Old bossy and your chickens are sure bets — feed and take care of both of them, and watch how they will pay your grocery bill, especially when you sell their products to us. You'll like our money and our service! Try us!

A master sergeant in North Africa was talking to his fellow Texans: "Our job here is to protect this air field and promote good will and friendliness. We've got to be friendly and polite with the natives. If they say Africa is bigger than Texas, agree with them!"

Chill, damp mornings call for hearty breakfasts. Put several big chunks of "Potlatch Chief" brand butter on that stack of hot, let it melt and mingle with the maple syrup — man, that makes a breakfast fit for anyone — but be sure the butter is "Potlatch Chief." It's made from pure, pasteurized cream! Taste that fine flavor!

According to a story going the rounds in Western Europe, one Prague resident refused to join the general outcry against a new huge Stalin statue in the city's public square. "Why not?" he said. "It will give us shade in summer, shelter in winter, an opportunity for the birds to speak for all of us."

Milk is one of the necessities of life — especially for growing children. See to it that your children have at least a quart a day of pure pasteurized "Potlatch Chief" milk, and that you have at least a pint a day, which science says is the minimum requirement for good health.

Sell us your cream!

No Clearwater County Information

The Gazette has received a number of requests for information as to whether or not the general elk and deer season has been extended in Clearwater county, and we must say that although we have had several dispatches on season extension in various parts of Idaho, none reaching our desk has mentioned Clearwater county.

The closest county mentioned is Idaho-Adams county line — and the reference is to the "south of that line."
