THREE IN DIE WHYBARK FAMILY JOE IN CAR CRASH

Coeur d'Alene (June 22) Two cars crashed head-on at a highway intersection near here Saturday night, killing four persons, one of them a father of five small children.

The dead were Joseph G. Whybark, 45; his wife, Mineva, 42; their daughter, Joan Whybark, 18, and Glenn D. Rhodes, 33. The Whybarks lived at Troy, Idaho. Rhodes, whose survivors include five small children, the youngest seven weeks, was a Coeur d'Alene auto mechanic.

Merrill D. Whybark, 17, sole survivor of the crash, suffered serious injuries.

Police said the two cars crashed head-on at the intersection of highways 95 and 53 about 10 miles north of here late Saturday night. Officers said they hit with such terrific impact that both motors wound up in the front seats and the two cars were just one mass of wreckage. Rhodes body had to be pried out.

Mrs. Whybark and Rhodes were killed instantly. Whybark and his daughter died in a hospital. — Lewiston Tribune.

Troy — June 22 — Merrill Dean Whybark, 16, who was injured Saturday night in a crash that claimed four lives, was reported in fair condition today at the Deaconess hospital, Spokane. He was moved there Monday morning from a Coeur d'Alene hospital.

Tom Whybark, an uncle from Deary, visited the youth Sunday and reported that he is suffering from a broken leg and cuts and bruises. X-rays are to be taken to determine if there are internal injuries.

Mr. Whybark, 45, was a life-long resident of this area. He was born April 11, 1908, at Kendrick, and attended school at Big Bear ridge and Deary. He was married in 1933 to Mineva Holm of Deary. The couple lived for a time at Pendleton, moving in 1945 to Troy, where he farmed.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Whybark are survived by numerous relatives in this area. — Lewiston Tribune.

Bullock-Johns Nuptials

The Palmetto Baptist Church at Phoenix, Ariz., formed the setting Saturday, June 13, for vows uniting Miss Margie Bullock and Richard A. Johns.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Bullock, 2721 E. Alameda, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Johns, Juliaetta, Idaho, are the parents of the bridegroom.

For her wedding the bride chose a ballerina-length gown of white organdy and a fingertip veil of tulle secured with a band of flowers. She carried a cascading bouquet of white carnations.

Maid of honor was Miss Kay Cochran. Her gown was of yellow organdy and she carried a colonial bouquet of carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Bobbie Sue Bullock, who wore a gown of blue organdy, and Kathryn Bullock, who wore pale green organdy. They carried colonial bouquets of carnations. Roland Livingston served as best man, while ushers were Dennis Bullock and Ray Towne.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church. The couple will honeymoon in California and will reside at Ingewood, Calif. — The Arizona Republic, Phoenix, Ariz. (June 16, 1953).

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Johns returned Saturday from Phoenix, where they attended their son's wedding, and from Los Angeles, being away two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Oran Brewer and daughter Nancy of Clarkston (old Juliaetta residents) were also present for the wedding ceremony.

Swim Pool Now Open

The Area Living War Memorial Swimming Pool at Kendrick is now "open for business" on a regular schedule, which is Tuesday through Sunday — closed Monday.

Sunday, a fairly warm day by present standards, saw thirty-three avail themselves of the opportunity for a dip — but on the whole business has been very slack.

Caulking operations were completed last week and the water loss thereby cut to a minimum. New mats have been installed in the dressing rooms, paint applied, and all is now in readiness for the full season.

Parker McCreary, life guard and instructor, had planned to begin lessons immediately after the Fourth — but he now says that until the weather warms up, thereby warming the water, youngsters would be unable to stay in long enough to take a regular training period.

Chatcolet, guests of Mrs. Wm. Rogers. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wegner entertained at dinner Thursday evening.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kickir and family, Mr. and Mrs. August Schwartz and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bullert of Minnesota; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sullivan and family of Lenore and Mr. and Mrs. Aug. F. Wegner and sons Wayne and Vern.

INTERESTING NEWS NOTES FROM THE SOUTHWICK AREA

Announcements
The Southwick Homemakers Club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Alma Betts, instead of Mrs. Alice Tarry, as previously announced. Please attend.

The Southwick Community Church Bible School will begin on Monday, June 29, for a two-week session at the church. Meetings will start at 9:00 in the morning. All children in the community are welcome to attend. Transportation will be furnished for those who lack it.

There will not be any church services at the Southwick Church on Sunday, June 28th, as all members and friends will attend services at the Church at Gold Hill. Everyone is welcome.

The Missionary Society of the Church met on Tuesday at the Eula Davis home, and we are sorry that this announcement did not get in at an earlier date.

Friday night this school district (No. 283) will give a reception and dinner at Kendrick as a farewell to the outgoing teachers and a welcome to the new ones for the coming year. Dinner, which will be pot-luck, will be served at 6:30 p. m., in the Kendrick gym. Everyone come and have a good get-together.

The 4-H Club met Wednesday at the home of their leader, Mrs. Rollin Armitage.

RECORD CONTRIBUTIONS GO TO MARCH OF DIMES FUND

New York — Eighty million Americans contributed $51,500,000 to the fight against infantile paralysis in the 1953 March of Dimes, it was announced this week by Basil O'Conner, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.
This total, based on reports from 3,069 volunteer campaign chairmen, represents a new record, being 24 percent higher than the previous record total raised in 1952. Mr. O'Conner said. Last year $41,432,605 was contributed, or 27½ cents per capita for the entire nation. The 1953 per capita is 34 cents. Both figures are based on the 1950 census.
"The new record shows that millions of parents and children who fight against polio realize the crucial stage this battle has reached," said O'Conner. "They know that recent progress in scientific research and the continuing increase year after year of polio cases makes their responsibilities greater than ever before."
He paid tribute to the 2,000,000 March of Dimes volunteers who conducted the fund-raising crusade in 100,000 communities throughout the nation.

"Without their unselfish efforts, the American people would not have been so acutely aware of the increasing responsibilities of the National Foundation. Obligations imposed by five years of heavy outbreaks of the disease plus increased expenditures for new developments in the field of research have made larger sums vitally necessary for the fight against infantile paralysis.
Despite larger public contributions each year, the National Foundation has ended the last four years with outstanding bills, mainly to hospitals, for from three and one-half to seven million dollars. Thus, for this period of time, each succeeding March of Dimes has been, in effect, mortgaged for such an amount before any new cases were reported in the new year.
"But each year, thanks to our tireless volunteers and to an awakened public, the bills have been paid, research has gone forward unimpeded by financial limitations, and every polio patient who needed help was given assistance for medical and hospital care."
In 1953, as in the past, the course of the disease cannot be predicted. All chapters of the National Foundation, however, are prepared to assist the unknown thousands who will need help this year.

The preliminary financial figures showed that all 48 states exceeded their 1952 contributions to the anti-polio fight, with the state of Nevada showing the largest percentage of increase. Other large increases were reported from Minnesota, Iowa, Michigan, Nebraska and New Mexico.
Top per capita figures were recorded by Nevada, which averaged 94 cents; while Wyoming, with 69 cents, and Idaho, with 65 cents, came next in order.
Residents of New York state made the largest dollar contributions, totaling $5,098,000 for the state, while California with $4,426,000 and Ohio with $3,074,000 followed.

LINDEN ITEMS

Art Foster and family of Kendrick were Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Souders and daughter Diana.
Gene Perryman spent the week-end with Eddie Galloway on Big Bear ridge. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Harley Perryman were afternoon callers in the Galloway home and Gene returned home with them.
Mrs. James Holt returned home on Thursday from a visit with relatives and friends at Boise and Weiser.
John Gentry, Weiser, left Wednesday for his home, after spending three weeks here visiting in the area.
Mr. and Mrs. Al. Pederson and sons were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Benjamin at Southwick.
Marion Souders killed a bob cat in the road in front of his home last Wednesday evening. The cat seemed quite fearless, as it made no effort to get away.
Mrs. Rollin Armitage returned home Saturday, after having spent the past two weeks in the John Cuddy home, nursing Pat and Judy Cuddy through the measles. Rona, Dave and Doug Armitage stayed with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cuddy, while their mother was away.
Mr. and Mrs. Ted Grinolds and family and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Alexander went to Lake Pend Oreille Sunday evening on a fishing trip. They expect to be back Thursday.
Rickie Alexander, Kennewick, Wn., is here to spend the summer vacation with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Alexander.
Mr. and Mrs. Dale Parsley and son were week-end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Parsley. On Sunday all attended a Parsley family reunion at Spalding park, honoring Dick Parsley's father, Mr. and Mrs. Harv Parsley and two sons, from Arkansas.
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Abrams and family of Port Angeles, Wn., and Glenda Birge visited from Monday until Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Gil Erlwine.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Galloway and children of Big Bear ridge were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kechter and family. Raymond Whybark was an evening caller.
Jerry Erlwine left Saturday for San Francisco after having spent a two-week furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gil Erlwine.
Mr. and Mrs. Al. Pederson and sons called on Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Keeler Thursday.
More Theater Seats Arrive
Phil Johns came in last Monday with the final load of upholstered seats to complete installation in the Kendrick Theater. It is not known at this time whether they will be in use this week-end or not.
Carnival Here
A carnival under the name of "Ross United Shows" set up "camp" in the ball park Tuesday. A merry-go-round and other concessions are offered for entertainment.

Duke Psychologist Offers Tips on Cigarette Control

Do you have trouble leading a sane cigarette life? If so, here's a common sense recipe by Dr. Gelolo McHugh, Duke University psychologist, that may help you "use cigarettes instead of being used by them."

"People who have to have cigarettes need psychological help, not scare tactics such as threats of stomach ulcers or lung cancer," Dr. McHugh says. "Swearing off entirely is dangerous, because if you fail once, the next try will be that much harder. Limiting your cigarettes to eight or 10 a day is also risky, because it keeps the thought of smoking uppermost in your mind."

Here are Dr. McHugh's suggestions for cutting down:

1. Set aside an hour or two at the beginning of each day and don't smoke during that period no matter how much you want to. After that, smoke as much as you like for the rest of the day.

2. Don't make your daily no-smoking period longer than you can safely control. Over-ambition sometimes leads to failure.

3. Tell your friends what you're doing. Their interest will help you keep control over your no-smoking period.

"After following this plan for several weeks, smokers often find that their cigarette control is growing stronger," Dr. McHugh said. "Experiments show that smokers who set aside a no-smoking period do not have a tendency to smoke more than usual during the rest of the day to make up for lost time."

"Most important of all, after two or three weeks of controlling part of the day, the smoker begins to find himself smoking a little less during the free period. This means that he is on the way to mastering cigarettes instead of being mastered by them."

Dr. McHugh's suggestions are based on data collected over a period of five years and covering some 600 people.

Chubb Crater 1,325 Ft. Deep, Largest Meteorite Crater

A new champion's official measurements have been announced by the National Geographic Society.

The champion is Chubb Crater, established as the largest of all known meteorite craters in the world as the result of four weeks' research carried on last summer at the crater site in northern Quebec by Dr. Victor Ben Meen, Toronto geologist, and five scientist-associates.

The huge pockmark in the sub-arctic granite has a maximum depth of 1,325 feet, figured from the level of the highest point on its rim. The surface of the lake in the crater bowl is 500 feet below the rim's top level, and the maximum depth of the lake is 825 feet. Diameter of the rim averages 11,500 feet, and its circumference is 6.8 miles.

The depth is thus a few feet less and the rim diameter a few hundred feet more than indicated by preliminary figures dispatched from northern Quebec last August at the time field work was completed. Both dimensions, however, are more than twice the corresponding ones of Arizona's Meteor Crater, long officially recognized as the earth's largest scar known to be due to an earth-meteor collision.

The crater lake averages 9,100 feet in diameter. Its shoreline measures 5.4 miles around.

Dr. Meen, director of Toronto's Royal Ontario Museum of Geology, and Mineralogy, led an expedition to the crater site. With magnetometers, they defined a "magnetic anomaly"—a subsurface mass of iron outlined by its effect on the earth's magnetic force. Such an anomaly is attributed by scientists to meteorite fragments buried deep in the granite rim.

Kinds of Mines

Coal mines are of four kinds, three of them underground. If the mass of coal can be reached horizontally, say from the side of a hill on a level grade straight to the heart of the coal, it is called a Drift Mine. If you have to reach the coal at a perceptible angle, down or up, you have a Slope Mine. To get inside either of these mines, tunnels are made into the sides of the hills. The miners may go to the working areas by "man-trip" cars, which are trains of mine cars pulled by especially designed mine locomotives. If you must ride a cage (mining term for elevator) to reach the coal seam, you are in a Shaft Mine. If the coal lies near the surface of the earth and you can rip it out by huge electrically operated shovels and bulldozers, you have an Open Cut or Surface (sometimes called "Strip") Mine.

Indian Legend

Hiawatha, who is believed by many persons to have been a purely legendary character, really lived about 1450 A.D. The mighty Iroquois chieftain of the Onondago tribe of North American Indians was transformed by legend into a miraculous character with supernatural powers. About 400 years after his death, he was immortalized by Longfellow in "The Song of Hiawatha", an epic poem written after the style of the great Finnish Kalevala.

Care Of Your Car Important
The driver who cares for his car also is more inclined to give due care to how he drives, always being alert for the actions of other drivers, always watching pedestrians, and always remaining wide awake to his traffic responsibilities, declares R. H. DesAulniers, traffic safety director for Idaho.

The life of a car can be prolonged in winter, and in general, by following these suggestions:
Start right. Keep the clutch pressed down while starting to lessen the strain on electrical system.
Don't abuse the choke. Improper use of this device can waste enough gas to drive your car several blocks. If you have an automatic choke see that it is properly adjusted.

Warm up the engine slowly. The warm-up period is important as it will help prevent your car stalling or "crow-hopping" in the first few blocks of driving.
Go easy on starting. When moving from a parked or stopped position, put only a slight pressure on the accelerator. Racing the engine will cause tires to spin on snow or ice. The best thing to do is to use second gear, which has less power than low and allows you to get better traction on ice.

Keep your headlights, fog lights and parking lights clean, as well as your windshield and windows. Ability to see, day or night, is a wonderful accident preventative.

Your W.W.P. Electric Service is a NEIGHBORHOOD AFFAIR

The neighborhood is large (the entire Inland Empire), but the neighbors have much in common. They think it's a great place to live—they depend on the sound development of its resources for their security and prosperity—they have faith in its future under the American system. A large number of them have backed this faith by buying common stock (which means ownership) in the company which is helping to develop these resources efficiently and economically for the good of all—your pioneer electrical servant, the Washington Water Power Company.

Who Are These Partner-Owners?

Below are just a few of many thousands of your neighbors who own common stock in the Company—and so by their votes dictate Company policy and management...

Z. N. is a union machinist. He owns 25 shares, and depends on earnings from them to help his son and daughter through college a few years from now

S. D. is a railroad man who owns 50 shares, the earnings from which will mean a lot to him when he retires soon

R. P. is a Palouse rancher, who knows ranchers have poor years as well, as good, and counts on the return from his 100 shares to help him at such times

N. S. is a retired farmer. He counts on a fair and just return from his 50 shares for a part of his living now that he can no longer farm

K. D. is an office worker in his fifties, who counts on the modest income from his 20 shares for help in non-earning years ahead

C. H. is a teacher with 10 shares, who is saving the dividends to help pay for future graduate study in her field

How to stop extra wear on gears

Even in the toughest operating conditions you can be sure your differential and transmission gears have full protection against wear by keeping the cases filled with RPM Multi-Service Gear Lubricant. It withstands the extreme pressures that develop in spiral bevel and hypoid gears. A special compound in the lubricant reacts chemically to form a lubricating, wear-resisting coating on the gear teeth.

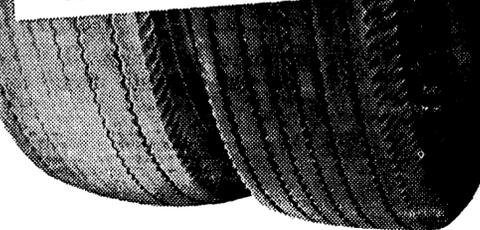

RPM Multi-Service Gear Lubricant stands up in high operating temperatures and is oxidation resistant. It contains an anti-foaming agent that helps control expansion and prevent leakage. Ask us about RPM Multi-Service Gear Lubricant.

Giant Industry Arising From New Patent Fibers

Ever since Adam and Eve left the Garden of Eden with nothing to wear, mankind has been clothes conscious. The Bible story tells us that Eve fashioned her first garment from a fig leaf — maybe it was leaves.

We wear clothes from the time we are born. It would take books to tell the progress of the clothes story down through the ages. Long ago it was found that the clothing of the cotton seed was better than fig leaves for human garb. For centuries we have used the skins and wool of animals, as well as the covering of the cotton seed, for our own clothing. Still we were not satisfied. We took the cocoon of the little silkworm for its silk.

But we can thank that same little worm for our modern system of producing fibers for textiles that do not necessarily deprive any other living creature of its coat. We learned that the silkworm extruded a fluid from a spinnerette near its mouth. The fluid became a stout silken thread on reaching the air.

This observation led to a man-made fluid extruded through a mechanical spinnerette which produced our first rayon thread. The device was called a "mechanical silkworm." This invention came from France about 70 years ago. During the past 15 or 20 years American inventors, encouraged to find new processes and products through the protection and rewards provided by our patent system, have devised new machines and new fluids to make many new kinds of fabrics for human clothing.

Coal, oil, various gases, glass, brine, and many organic substances such as wood, cornstalks, peanuts, and feathers provide the substances from which we now have fabrics that resemble wool, silk, and cotton.

'Won't Hurt' Boast Not Idle Promise to Army Blood Donor

It takes courage to give blood that will save a soldier's life, but your fears of pain or ill effects now are unwarranted.

Army medical authorities recognize that thousands of Americans who are willing to die for their country if necessary have a horror of seeing blood flow from their veins. Just as many shudder when they think of a needle just under the surface of their skin.

But ask anyone who has ever donated a pint of blood to help replenish the nation's seriously depleted stocks and chances are he will tell you there's nothing to it—no pain, no ill effects. But you will have a deep satisfaction that you have helped a fellow American in a critical hour.

If you have ever pricked your finger with a pin, you already have experienced all the pain you will suffer when you give a pint of blood. It's that simple.

If you are not physically able to donate blood, you will not be permitted to do so. You are given a thorough examination before the blood is taken from your arm.

A single drop of blood from your fingertip is all that is required for the tests that will determine whether you are able to donate blood. If the results of these tests are satisfactory, the remainder of the procedure is entirely painless.

You lie down on a bed and an attendant puts a little procaine on your arm. As the blood is drawn, you feel nothing. In five minutes, the bottle is full and ready for processing and shipment to the battle zones of Korea.

Within a few minutes you feel like your old self again — probably better, for you realize what a precious contribution you have made.

That Parallel

The 38th parallel in Greece ferries the legendary River Styx and passes close to Corinth and Athens. Dodging Aegean Islands, it borders the Maeander River south of Smyrna on the Turkish shore. It crosses the Turkish headwaters of the Tigris and Euphrates en route to Tabriz, metropolis of Iranian Azerbaijan. Across the Caspian Sea, it finds itself on both sides of the critical frontier between Russia on the north and Iran and Afghanistan on the south. At the Russia-China border, the parallel climbs to its greatest height on the shoulders of Stalina and Kungur, both 25,000-foot peaks. Touring China, it runs near the ancient Silk Route past Yarkand and the Takla Makan (desert). China's Great Wall crosses the 38th frequently near the cities of Yulin, Ningsia, and Wuwei.

Abe Lincoln

When Abe Lincoln was 21 he crossed the Wabash and encountered the first level land he had ever seen — the fertile prairies of Illinois. At two sites there he helped his father build log cabins. Then he struck out for himself, settling in the village of New Salem, 20 miles northwest of Springfield, Illinois. Lincoln received his first popular notice in New Salem. He was elected captain of a volunteer company in the Black Hawk War, and later was sent to the state legislature. Afterward he moved to Springfield, the state capital, and New Salem literally disappeared. Many of its log buildings were dismantled and carried to Petersburg, two miles north.

Step-Ramp Loading Chutes Are Safest Many Livestock Yards Are Remodeling Ramps

Livestock markets across the nation are continuing in their program of modernization and the installation of step-ramp chutes to replace old wooden chutes that cause great damage to animals.

Cattle prefer steps to the old-style cleats. Many animals are injured and much meat lost from bruising due to the constant prodding necessary to get the animals up and down the old ramps, cattlemen have reported.

The Chicago stock yards recently opened 12 of the modern step-ramp chutes. Of concrete and steel construction, the new chutes are designed to ease the task of unloading stock, and insure safe and efficient operations. Galvanized steel fencing and grates add to the safety features of the dock area. Waffle-grid concrete floorings provide safe footing for animals during the penning process.

The first truck to unload over the ramps brought 24 head of Hereford and Angus steers shipped by Carroll Snola of Onslow, Ia.

Cracked Corn Found Best Feed for Suckling Lambs

Tests made at the University of Kentucky experiment station indicate cracked yellow shelled corn is the cheapest and best ration for the creep-feeding of suckling lambs.

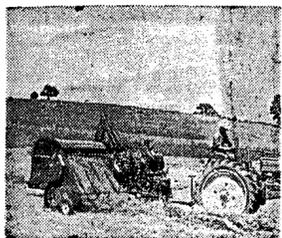

Experiments carried on over a period of nine years compared cracked yellow corn with mixtures of feeds. These included cracked corn, crushed oats and pea-sized linseed oilmeal; cracked corn and commercial milk substitute, and a third ration composed of "sweet feed" made of corn, oats, bran, linseed oilmeal, molasses and salt.

The experiment was conducted under the most controlled conditions possible, Kentucky educators reported.

The conclusion of the experimenters: "None of the three more costly mixtures showed any consistent or significant superiority to corn alone in rate of gain, efficiency of gain or market finish of the lambs."

The experiments were not designed to answer the question of whether creep-feeding pays, but rather to determine what rations are best for creep-feeding under Kentucky conditions.

Baler

This automatic baler is a good example of how machinery is saving manhours on the farm. The baler can package a ton of hay in less than half the time needed by hand methods. With only the tractor driver in the field, this machine automatically picks up hay, slices it, presses it into compact packages and then ties the bale with two strands of twine. Further information is available at local machinery dealers or in the local hardware stores.

Rice Is Most Important Food in the World Today

Although most Americans believe the statement exaggerated, rice is the most important food crop in the world today. It is the basic food of more than half of the world's population. In recent years the cultivation of rice has increased in this country, but in Asia it is the important crop because it is virtually the only food millions of people have—their means of sustaining life.

Diabetics Can Live Long, Active and Normal Lives

The control of diabetes so that a person suffering from the disease may lead a long, normal and active life has become a reality.

In a study of 760 diabetic patients suffering from the disease 25 years or more, Dr. Elliott P. Joslin, of Boston, found approximately 80 per cent active and a few in perfect health.

"The patients in perfect condition are those whose treatment was initiated (with hardly an exception) with strenuous control of diabetes in their early years," Dr. Joslin stated, "this control being maintained for 10 years, more or less, to more than the usual extent and even then continued."

"In this series the evidence is overwhelming that strict treatment of diabetes pays and, moreover, that control of the disease is possible."

Of the total group studied, 23 patients had had diabetes for more than 25 years and yet had a sound body with urine free from albumin, eyes without diabetic complications such as hemorrhages and cataracts, and had arteries free from calcification.

Of these 23 patients, all of whom lived in unusually favorable homes, and under comfortable social circumstances according to the survey, 13 inherited the disease, the age of onset ranging from 1 4/5 to 32 years. All take insulin. Seventeen married, resulting in 28 living children, all of whom are healthy.

"Corroborative testimony that diabetics are living long and—most of them—useful lives is afforded by 40 of our patients with diabetes of 30 to 35 years' duration whose onset was in childhood," Dr. Joslin stated.

Mosquitoes Eat Dog (Food) In Unique Clinic Studies

Three million radioactive labeled mosquitoes raised on tap water and finely ground dog food containing radiophosphorus or a phosphate derived from it, were recently used in experiments conducted by the Chemical Corps Medical Laboratories of the Army in order to determine insect flight ranges.

With the constantly increasing human activity in northern regions, the study of arctic and subarctic species of biting insects has assumed great importance. Control of the enormous numbers of mosquitoes that occur in most arctic and subarctic areas is difficult even with large scale spraying. Even after such spraying, it has been established that reinfestation from the surrounding territory may occur rapidly. Accurate knowledge of the flight range and dispersal patterns of the important types of biting flies is needed in order to increase the effectiveness of control measures.

In this particular research project the region near Churchill, Manitoba, was selected. This region is on the timberline, and has enormous mosquito populations which include both tundra and conifer forest species. Radioisotopes were used as tracers. Adult mosquitoes were also made radioactive by feeding them on radioactivated rats and rabbits, raisins, flowers, and sugar solutions.

Insomnia

Insomnia is a demon that has plagued people all through the centuries. Now there are so many individual remedies that if a person tried them all, he'd never have time to sleep. There are many ex-insomniacs, though, who swear by their own particular remedy, and if sleep really is elusive every night, then the person suffering from insomnia has nothing to lose by trying one or two which appeal most to him.

A word of warning, though! Don't be too upset or disappointed if a "guaranteed-to-stop-insomnia" cure doesn't work. Before he settles down to the long list of suggestions that friends are more than willing to thrust on him, the insomniac should make a thorough check of his bed.

First, he should see that his mattress is level, resilient and in good conditions—that is, no sags, lumps, humps or bumps. Then he should check his bedspring—if it is in good condition, it will have no broken coils or sags. Next comes his pillow. To provide adequate support it should be fluffy, buoyant, resilient and fill the gap between his shoulders and neck. If his bedding passes this test, then he is free to try some of the 1001 sleep inducers—and with the best wishes of all ex-insomniacs.

Another suggestion, perhaps more to the liking of the teetotalers, is to drink a glass of warm milk every night.

Lightning Bugs

The full details of how a lightning bug produces its light are not fully understood, although it is known to utilize a chemical reaction involving water, oxygen, a rather simple compound called "luciferin" and a more complex one, belonging to the class known as enzymes, called "luciferase." Probably the luciferin, after it has become properly activated, actually produces the light. The insect may exercise some sort of nervous control over the organs that produce light, perhaps in the same way that a nervous impulse controls the contraction of a muscle, and several scientists are engaged in research to find how this happens.

ARTHRITIS

I have been wonderfully blessed in being restored to active life every joint in my body and with after being crippled in nearly muscular soreness from head to foot. I had Rheumatoid Arthritis and other forms of Rheumatism, hands deformed and my ankles were set.
 Limited space prohibits telling you more here but if you will write me I will reply at once and tell you how I received this wonderful relief.

GOLDEN RULE

June 23 — Mrs. Ernest Cowger was in Lewiston the first of the week receiving medical treatment for an infected throat.

Mrs. Don Christensen and children are spending most of the week with her mother, Mrs. Alma Betts. They all visited at the W. L. Babb home Tuesday evening.

The Oscar Lawrence family are busy preparing to put in a water system and install a bathroom.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilken and daughters Marlene and Margaret were luncheon guests at the Alma Betts home Thursday, and also called at the George Finke home. Miss Margaret is home on a two-week vacation from Hermosa Beach, Calif., where she is employed.

The Soutnwick Homemakers Club will meet at the Alma Betts home Thursday, June 25, with a pot-luck dinner to be served. Alice Tarry was unable to be the hostess as scheduled, due to the illness of her mother, Mrs. Wm. Kauder.

Mrs. Elmer Souders spent a couple of days the past week with her sister, Mrs. George Finke, sewing and painting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Layes and family of Lapwai spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Oscar Lawrence and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Tarbert and children of Lewiston spent Saturday night and Sunday at the Roy Martin home.

Little Jerry McAllister is staying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin, while his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey McAllister, are in the process of moving from Spokane to Lewiston.

Weather Stays Cloudy, Cool
 Despite what might be termed a warm flash or two the past week, weather here has on the whole, remained cloudy and cool, with one or two brief rain squalls.

Grain, particularly late fall sown or spring, is badly in need of sunshine, as it has a yellowish tinge that bespeaks an unhealthy condition.

It is most unusual at this time of the year to be able to go down the street and see smoke issuing from the chimneys of residences — but it has been just too chilly mornings and evenings to go without warmth in the home.

Many farmers are busy planting beans, but as one remarked Tuesday: "Unless we get some warm weather this bean planting has been a waste of time."

Improvements At Thurber Home

Walter Sparber and Ernest Heimgartner have been busy the past few days installing new concrete steps into the basement at the L. S. Thurber home on the school house hill. New steps have also been laid into the back yard from the alley, and a new concrete walk and porch supports completed as well.

SEED SLANTS

Now is the ideal time to kill dandelions in the lawn. The plant is now at a point of maturity, and with a little treatment of 2-4D you will have no trouble in ridding your lawn of these pesky weeds. Use a "Killer Kane" to get them. One loading of a "Killer Kane" will treat 1,000 plants.

Now is the season of the year to look for earwigs. For a treatment to do away with these pests were recommended "Chlordane." This is a new product that is very effective in the treatment of insect pests. It comes in a dry dust form or in a liquid emulsified form. The liquid form can be applied with an ordinary hand sprayer. "Chlordane" is very good to use for a garden spray to control insects that work on your garden.

Another new product to control insect pests in your garden is "Lindane." This is an insecticide that is used for the control of wireworms and other under-the-ground insects. It is very effective.

For an insecticide to control insects on roses and evergreens use fields "Aramite-15W."

Now is the time to check your clover fields for weevil. The warmer weather the past few days will bring out these insects, and as soon as they show up on your check, it's time to start dusting or spraying.

For a good garden hose we recommend "Garden King Plastic Hose." This hose is very light in weight, which makes it easy to handle when sprinkling your lawn or garden. We also have the "New Garden King" soil soakers. This is a new type plastic soil soaker that can be used either as a soaker or a lawn sprinkler. We also have rubber hose in stock.

We have a few lawn mowers left in stock that we are closing out at BARGAIN PRICES. This mower is of the light metal type, and retails regularly at $29.95. While the supply lasts we will sell them at $19.90.

HELLO, THERE, FOLKS —

Well, seems as if the weather man just won't let it warm up in this area — but even so, with the moisture we have had pastures are doing wonderfully well — and your cows should be producing liberally. Cows don't quit when it rains — so why not cash in on them to the limit by selling us your cream. We offer payment right now. No waiting for your can to be returned or the check to come. And we return a steam-sterilized, ready-to-use can! Try our service and our money. You'll like both.

The beautiful blonde was trying to impress an acquaintance. "There I was, poor me, locked in a room with 11 men and each one trying to break down my resistance. But I defied them all, individually and collectively.

"Heavens, dear!" exclaimed her listener. "Were you kidnapped?"

"Don't be silly," said the blonde. "I was doing jury duty!"

Canning season is at hand. Are you going to spend it slaving over a hot stove, or are you going to put up your fruit the modern way — by freezing? In the latter case come in and see us about a locker box. We have them in all sizes and prices. One to fit every purse and need. Make your selection today — now!

"John," said the nervous woman, nudging her husband, "did you hear anything?"

"Yes, dear, it must be burglars." As he spoke he began to get out of bed.

"Oh, John, do be careful. What are you going to do?"

"Lock the bedroom door," was the firm reply.

Fur coats are what keep women warm — and quiet!

Big Egg Contest Over

The Gazette's big egg contest ended on June 15th — a tie between John Vincent and Arley Allen — both of whom have a Southwick address. It seems that women in this area must have given up the raising of poultry — or else do not understand proper feeding to produce big eggs — for the men were the winners! A six-month subscription goes to John and Arley!
