of last week, the daily temperatures have been steadily mounting, with Sunday afternoon the warmest day of the year - a reading of 90 being recorded about 3:00 o'clock.

Monday was just a bit warmer, with 91 being shown on the mercury column, also about 3:00 p.m but Tuesday was "still more so" with a reading of 94 degrees being recorded! Farmers have been taking fullest advantage of the situation and fine drying weather to cut, rake, chop and bale hay - a long over-due operation in many areas.
