INTERESTING NEWS NOTES FROM THE SOUTHWICK AREA

Homemakers Club Meets

The Southwick Homemakers Club met Thursday at the home of Viola Martin, with eight members and three guests present to enjoy a delicious luncheon featuring fried chicken.

After dinner at the business session the coming Fair was the main item of interest, and it seems the plans are all made for a very attractive booth at the Fair in Lewiston in September.

Guests were Mrs. Irene Tarbet and children and Mrs. Mary Jane Bashaw of Detroit, and Mrs. Kenneth Bonser of Lewiston, Mich.

The next meeting will be with Agatha Perkins as hostess, and Alice Tarry, co-hostess, on September 3rd.

Missionary Here Visiting

Mrs. Carl Morris of Kankakee, Illinois, is here visiting with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Martin Sweeney. Mrs. Morris is a teacher in the college there, where Mr. Morris is attending the Nazarene College as a student.

During church here Sunday Mrs. Morris told the children stories of the Spanish speaking Indians in the southern part of the United States, and sang songs in both Spanish and English for the children's enjoyment.

Missionary Society To Meet

The Missionary Society of the Southwick Community church will meet on Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Alice Fry. A pot-luck dinner will be served, and all are asked to come. We know how busy everyone is at this time of the year, but the missionary work is very important and the few hours used in attending this meeting can easily be made up — so try and come.

4-H Club Meeting

The 4-H Club will meet this Wednesday at the home of their leader, Mrs. Rollin Armitage. Last week's meeting had to be postponed.

Entertain At Family Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall entertained with a family picnic at their home Sunday, honoring Gene Kuykendall, who has just returned home after serving with the Armed Forces in Korea, and their daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Bonser and sons, who are here visiting them from Detroit, Michigan.

Guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Pat Holliday and son, Mr. and Mrs. Don Kuykendall and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kuykendall, Mrs. Enoch Harrison, Mrs. Lyle Harrison and Mrs. William Clem, all of Lewiston; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kuykendall and family of Clarkston, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kuykendall of Kendrick; Gerald and Herman Kuykendall at home.

A delicious pot-luck dinner was served, topped off with home made ice cream — from the old hand freezer.

Later in the day Gene Kuykendall showed colored slides of Korea and Japan, taken during his service there. It was a day long to be remembered by the family and guests — and Mr. and Mrs. Kuykendall had all their children together for the first time in many, many months.

ELIZABETH JEAN MAYNARD BRIDE OF R. L. DONALDSON

Elizabeth Jean Maynard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Maynard, 350 Lapwai Road, became the bride of Robert L. Donaldson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Donaldson of Newell, S. D., at the Lewiston Orchards Community church in an evening ceremony last Thursday, August 13 at 8:00 o'clock. The Rev. George Skaret read the service in the presence of the immediate family and a few close friends.

The bride wore a white suit with navy accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Arlene Maynard was her sister's attendant and Del Fallers, brother-in-law of the bride, acted as best man. Miss Maynard wore a white eyelet summer dress with black accessories and a corsage of red carnations.

Bridge Damaged By Fire

Myrtle — Fire, apparently started by a discarded cigarette, partially destroyed the decking of the Cheerylanes Bridge across the Clearwater river early Saturday morning.

The blaze was discovered about 1:30 a. m. Saturday. Lyle and Darrell Kerby, ranchers, whose homes are near the bridge, turned their water-sprinkler irrigation system, which pumps out the Clearwater, on the blaze and brought it under control. Henry Jones of Kendrick, state fire warden for the Kendrick Forest Protective District, brought a pump fire truck to the scene to help douse the blaze.

Lloyd Craig of Leland, county road supervisor for the Leland area, pressed all available road workers, 16 men in all, into service to repair the damaged two and a half sections of the bridge.

The men worked 12 hours laying new planking and new stringers — 10,000 board feet of lumber, Craig estimated — to reopen the bridge Saturday afternoon.

This bridge is an important area link, and to be out of service right at harvest time would indeed be a catastrophe of no mean proportions.

KENDRICK DISTRICT SCHOOLS WILL OPEN SEPTEMBER 8TH

Opening Day And Registration

Schools at Juliaetta, Kendrick and Southwick will open their doors to the approximately 360 smiling, happy, "glad to be back to school" students, with a full day of school, Tuesday, September 8th, at the usual morning opening times.

High School registration will follow the usual procedure: Freshmen, Thursday morning, September 3; Sophomores, Thursday afternoon; Juniors, Friday morning; Seniors, Friday afternoon.

Hot Lunch Programs

All three Hot Lunch programs will operate the first day, preparing the delicious lunches for which they have become famous. By the looks of the amount of canning and freezing that has been going on for this program the past summer, we can expect many tempting treats this coming school year.

Teaching Staff

The teachers for the most part remain the same as last year, with but four changes:

Mrs. Harley Perryman, first grade. Mrs. Gil Erlewine, second grade. Mrs. Eugene Taylor, third grade. Mrs. Cecil Gruell, fourth grade. Mrs. Lester Nelson, fifth grade. Asa Calvert, sixth grade and Principal at Juliaetta.

Mrs. Darwin Tarry grades one, two and three at Southwick, and Mrs. Winifred Kluckholm grades four, five and six.

Mrs. Claude Jones, seventh grade at Kendrick, and Jordan Kanikkeberg, Jr. High principal and eighth grade.

High School Departments

In the High School instructors will be as follows:

Ben P. Cook, Principal and Mathematics. Mrs. Elsie Deobald, Commercial. Mrs. Louis Lindquist, Librarian and English. Ervin McGeachy, English. Dennis Racicot, Social Science and Coach. Kenneth Anderson, Science. George Poulos will take care of instrumental and vocal music in all schools.

Robert L. Meserve, Superintendent. Buildings Being Prepared

The custodians, C. G. Arnett and Lloyd Eckman are busy getting the buildings ready for the opening day. Windows are being washed, walls painted, floors polished.

At Southwick the classrooms have been painted from top to bottom and new floors laid.

At Kendrick new fluorescent lights, which have been badly needed for a long time, have been installed in the study hall.

At Juliaetta the gymnasium floor, kitchen floor and lower halls have been freshly painted.

Some Bridge News Now

Some news regarding the construction of the two new bridges in this area — one at Juliaetta, and the other at Kendrick, has finally been received.

We understand that Dammarell & McKeever, contractors, have received information on a call for bids for construction of the two bridges — with bids to close on September 1st.

As we understand it, the contractors have until July 1 of 1954 to install the two bridges, build new approaches, oil the latter, and then dismantle the old bridges.

If this news is correct, it looks like a winter job for someone.

We might add that never have we known such secrecy to surround any public construction job as has the one for these two structures — from the very time the old Bear Creek bridge collapsed right up to this minute!

Attendance Good At Pool

While we do not have a compilation of attendance figures at the Area Memorial Pool at Kendrick, it is believed they are the highest to date since the opening of the pool — and from the financial angle at least, highest of any year — for last Sunday saw the $900.00 total receipt mark passed.

Saturday afternoon and evening attendance was very good — and Sunday afternoon saw a fair crowd — but strangely enough, only one or two showed interest in a swim Sunday evening, and it was just as well, for a toilet in one of the dressing rooms became plugged, forcing the pool to close for the evening.

The obstruction was removed Monday — and kids are again having the time of their lives in the cooling waters.

Family Reunion

A family reunion honoring Pfc. and Mrs. John Deobald, who are visiting here from Salinas, Calif., was held in the E. A. Deobald home Sunday evening.

Those present were Pfc. and Mrs. John Deobald; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore L. Deobald and daughters of Richland, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Keene and family of Joseph, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Watts and daughters of Moscow; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Deobald and son, Mrs. Elsie Deobald; Mrs. Mary Deobald, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schupfer and daughter Maribel, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Deobald.

Only three votes were challenged locally.

Horse Throws Two Children

Larry and Violet Slead, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Slead, Juliaetta, were two lucky kids Wednesday morning of last week, to escape without serious injury, when thrown from a horse.

The animal on which they were riding apparently got stung by a bee or hornet, and started bucking. Violet was thrown to the ground. Larry tried to get control of the horse, but couldn't — so he had to jump.

Larry escaped without injury, but Violet wasn't so lucky. She ended up in the Gritman hospital, Moscow, with a slight concussion, but is now back home, and recovering nicely.

MRS. IDA B. WHYBARK PASSES AT JULIAETTA

Mrs. Ida Bell Whybark, 69, a resident of this area since 1912, died after an illness of nine months at her home in Juliaetta at 9:50 a. m., Saturday, August 15. Death was due to cancer.

Mrs. Whybark was born Jan. 4, 1884, at Pratt Center, Kansas. She first came west to Oregon as a child in 1886, moving with her parents to different frontier communities in Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

She married Daniel W. Whybark at Kendrick, October 14, 1903. For a time they made their home in the Walla Walla section, returning to the Kendrick area in 1912, where they settled on a farm near the top of the Cedar Creek grade. They lived there until a few years ago when Mr. Whybark retired and they moved to Juliaetta to make their home.

Mrs. Whybark was a member of the United Brethren Church, which she had attended most of her life.

Five sons and two daughters who survive are: Raymond Whybark of Southwick; the Rev. Arlie Whybark of Dayton, Wash.; the Rev. Fred Land Whybark of Corvallis, Oregon; William Whybark of Kelso, Wash.; Quentin Whybark of Lewiston; Mrs. Earl Gaskill of Juliaetta, and Elsie Whybark of Dayton, A. sister, Mrs. Josie Jenkins of Roseburg, Oregon. Fifteen grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services were held at Juliaetta, in the Methodist Church, at 10:00 o'clock a. m. Tuesday, with the Rev. C. E. Lighty of Twin Falls as officiant. Burial was in Normal Hill cemetery, Lewiston.

Palbearers were her five sons and son-in-law, Earl Gaskill. Music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Burke Sower and Mrs. Betty Bowen, with Mrs. M. C. Halliday accompanying.

Mrs. Whybark was one of the best known of the pioneer residents of Cedar ridge, and counted as her friends all who knew her. She was always active in church and community work.

Harvest Rolling Merrily On

Harvesting operations in this area have been hitting a steady clip ever since they began in earnest about two weeks ago — and loaded grain trucks can be seen and heard on the streets of Kendrick from early morning until late at night — and this is as it should be — the horn of plenty again pouring out its contents to feed the hungry world.

Yields are again described as quite "spotty," some very high, some just "fair," but the quality again may well be described as "excellent."

Local warehousemen report that as of this week some spring grain and barley has begun to make its appearance — but here the quality is not all that is to be desired — for the kernels show definite signs of being "pinched," due to the extreme hot weather and drying winds. Barley is also given the same "label."

They also report that beans are suffering from the high heat, with pods tending to "pinch off" rather than to fill out properly.

All categories of local products, with the exception of fall grain, seems to have been damaged by the unusual heat and lack of moisture.

Service Men Honored At Picnic

A family picnic was held at the Kendrick park, Sunday, honoring Pvt. Bennie Cook and Pfc. and Mrs. John Deobald, who were home on furlough. All members of the Ben P. Cook family were together, as well as relatives from Lewiston, Culedas, Gifford, Orofino, Pullman, Asotin, Genesee and Sweetwater. Pfc. and Mrs. Deobald are visiting for two weeks in the Deobald and Cook homes. They will return to Salinas, Calif., on Sunday.

Pvt. Bennie Cook was taken to Spokane Sunday evening by Mrs. Con Anders of Gifford and Mrs. Walter Crawford, Kevin and Kathleen. There he took the N. P. for Seattle, going on to Fort Lewis, where he reports. Bennie graduated in July from his speed radio school at San Luis Obispo, and is reporting now for duty in the Far East.

Water A Bit Short

The extremely hot weather of the past two weeks has proven almost more of a water drain on the village system than the springs and pumps can supply—and users are asked to conserve a bit.

It is not necessary to allow your lawn or flowers to dry up—but you are being asked to please cut down on water use to a reasonable extent.

Three Rattlesnakes Killed

For the first time in many years we have received a report of rattlesnakes being killed within the village limits—three within the past week.

One is said to have been killed by workers on the new Union Oil station; one near the new garage close to that project, and another on the first turn up the Brady Gulch grade near the ball diamonds.

Be sure to take some fried rabbit on your week-end out. It's delicious. See your grocer. 1-adv

Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Forest attended the graveside services for baby Kari Renee Field, at Lewiston, Friday. The baby was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Field, Mr. Field is Mrs. Forest's nephew.

Mrs. James S. Nelson and daughter Miss Betty, visited at the Glen Stevens home in Deary, Friday of last week.

The Deryll Ingle family of Kellogg have been visiting at the Leon Ingle home.

Mrs. Ira Altig (nee Theresa Glad-en) a former ridge resident, is in the Deaconess hospital in Spokane, having undergone surgery.

Mrs. Ray McKay (nee Blanche McGraw) of California, was a recent visitor with relatives and friends at Deary and Texas ridge. The McKays formerly lived here.

Logging Operations Hindered

Logging operations in this section of the country are being somewhat hindered by the extreme dryness of the woods—which forces extra care to prevent fire.

We are told that all power saw operators are now required to carry a shovel, axe and bucket with them at all times on the chance that a backfire of the saw's engine may ignite the tinder-dry woods carpeting. Smoking is also absolutely forbidden except in regular camp or rest areas.

A number of sections of PTPA and CTPA woods areas have had gates put across the roads to keep out all fishermen, picnickers and huckleberry pickers—on the chance that they may cause a fire.

The "dry lightning storm" of last Saturday evening set a number of fires, but none in this section have reached or are likely to reach any sizeable proportions.

Saturday Really Torrid

Beyond a doubt Saturday was the warmest day of 1953, the thermometer registering a high of 101 degrees—and even Lewiston, which is very shy about admitting that it gets warm in the summer in their valley, admitted 104 degrees.

Thursday of last week a reading of 99 degrees was recorded here; Friday was almost as warm, and Saturday the sizzler—and the heat remained until about 11:00 p. m., when a brief rain cleared the air and cooled the still hot streets and homes about town.

Sunday was quite a bit cooler, a mere 90 degrees being recorded, and Monday just equalled Sunday—90 degrees again.

However, Tuesday Old Sol again "turned up the heat" with the mercury column indicating 100 degrees!

Postal Examination

The Federal Civil Service announces an examination for substitute clerk, $1.36½ an hour, to fill a vacancy in the post office at Kendrick, Idaho. Applicants must actually reside within the delivery of the Kendrick post office or be bona fide patrons of that office. Persons employed in the Kendrick post office will be considered bona fide patrons of the office.

Further information and application forms may be obtained from the postmaster or from the director of the Eleventh U. S. Civil Service Region, 302 Federal Office Building, Seattle 4, Wash.

Applications must be on file not later than Sept. 14.

Like California Location

In a brief note accompanying a subscription remittance, Mrs. Chas. Greenwood says in part: "We are fine, and Chas. is logging every day, and the heat is not bothering us this summer—the temperature doesn't get up over 80.

Can't say I enjoy the fog we have now, but they tell us we don't have that in the winter or fall—just through the summer months."

Parents Of Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Eichner have received word of the birth of a 7-pound daughter to Pfc. and Mrs. Bill White (nee Billie Herres) at Anchorage, Alaska, on Saturday, Aug. 15.

YOU HAVE THE POWER OF LIFE AND DEATH — IN A CAB

These are the days when a great amount of publicity is being given to the public urging the users of the highways to drive safely. Much of this publicity is being heeded and put into practice, but still far too much of it is being passed off as if it were meant for the other guy.

Our accident rates seem to be going up about as fast as prices, if that is possible, and it is my opinion that something definite should be done about both. But I am in no position to do anything about prices except to pay them. As for the accident rate, I feel that I can do something about it and you can, too, if you will just slow down and think.

There are signs and warning all through the state of Idaho, which are put up for the sole purpose of helping you prevent accidents. These signs and warnings designate speed, curves, stops, danger points and hazardous conditions as well as pointing out routes and destinations.

There seems to be some factor about speed on the highways that affects a driver's vision. I don't know what it is, but when a driver steps on the accelerator, a blind spot seems to develop in his vision that causes him to run right through warnings without even seeing them. It is a fact that there have been several drivers apprehended by our law enforcement department for violations for stop and speed signs, and these drivers would be willing to swear that there were no stop or speed signs posted until they were shown those very same signs by the arresting officers. The department of highways puts out warning signs when men are repairing the roads, but the drivers speed past the signs and the working crews as if there had not been a sign often causing the workers to jump for their very lives!

It seems that the traveling public have resigned themselves to their fate when they get into their cars and start down the road. It is sad but true that the cars on the highways are causing more deaths in the United States than the wars we have fought.

I am not a fatalist, or a saddist, nor do I believe that the world is going to the dogs. I just think it is time our American highway users got both eyes open, and their thinking caps on straight enough for them to see how needless this waste of life is.

Every driver is a potential killer if he does not get his thinking straightened out where speed and safety are concerned.

Every driver has a responsibility to himself, his passengers and the other users of the highways, and that is that he is responsible to drive with all the caution, consideration and courtesy that he expects the other fellow to use toward him. Very few of us want to commit suicide or murder, but unless we awaken to the facts we may be guilty of either one — or both.

There is a life to spare, Mr. Motorist. It may be a pedestrian, it may be some youngster on a bicycle, it may be someone in a car just around the curve from you, it may be a member of your family, yet, it may even be you. It's up to you to spare it. — Dwight Crofford.

License Sales Jump
A comparison of the number of fishing licenses sold from January 1, to July 31 of this year, with the same period in 1952, revealed a steady rise in three of the four major classes reported, according to Mrs. Fay Whitson, license clerk.

Mrs. Whitson reported resident combination fish and game licenses jumped from 94,412 to 97,559; non-resident season fish from 9,535 to 10,660, and tourist five-day fish from 14,586 to 15,609. Only resident fishing license sales dropped — from 30,174 to 30,122.

Most Life Policy Benefits Go to Widows, Children

Reflecting the basic use of life insurance in family financial planning, wives, children and other relatives appear to be the direct named beneficiaries in more than 80 percent of all life policy death claims, the Institute of Life Insurance says. This is indicated by an Institute analysis of one month's claims in the United States.

Applied to the year's probable total of death claims, the one month's distribution would indicate that this year, wives, children and relatives will be beneficiaries of some 1,200,000 life insurance policies, with total benefits about $1,400,000,000. Wives and children alone would account for $1,225,000,000. In addition, they will receive a considerable share of the 7 percent of claims and 14 percent of benefit payments which go to estates and other beneficiaries, excepting husbands.

Husbands were shown to be beneficiaries in 11 percent of the policies, although they received only 4 percent of aggregate benefits, reflecting the smaller average size of policies owned by women.

The month's claim analysis also revealed that, while the majority of death claims were paid on policies which had been in force a number of years, there was a large number in the early life of policies, even in the first year. Although great care is taken in selecting applicants, with those to whom policies are issued being in apparent relatively good health, nearly 5 percent of policies becoming death claims were found to be less than a year old. This would indicate that this year there will be some 70,000 death claims within a year of issuance of policies, with nearly $100,000,000 involved.

Nearly one-sixth of all claims were shown to be under policies less than five years old. Almost 40 percent of the claims and just over 40 percent of the amount of benefits paid were under policies in force 20 years or more.

Preventive Measures Urged As Safeguard Against Stroke

The best way to avoid a stroke, third among leading causes of death in this country, is to recognize its possibility and make physical readjustments that may help to stave it off.

In the absence of serious systemic diseases such as diabetes and syphilis, there is not much chance of the average person having a stroke before 45 years of age, according to Dr. William Bolton, associate editor of the magazine, Today's Health. But, virtually everyone past middle age is a possible candidate. The following precautions were recommended.

1. Obtain prompt, active treatment of systemic diseases.
2. Do not become or remain overweight.
3. Watch blood pressure that tends to become high.
4. Obtain regular physical check-ups.

"Strokes vary from widespread, devastating ones that bludgeon their victims into oblivion to tiny ones producing such vague, indefinite signs that they often escape immediate detection," he said. "The basic cause in both extremes is identical: escape of blood into the brain tissue. The amount of bleeding and its location near to or far from vital centers or important nerve pathways are the chief factors that determine severity in strokes.

"Not all strokes are the result of direct escape of fluid from blood vessels into brain tissue. Some physicians lean strongly to the belief that temporary spasm in a blood vessel may be a common cause.

"Another fairly common event is formation of a clot within one or more of the tiny arteries in the brain.

"There is increased possibility of stroke in certain diseases."

Tough Case

Recognizing the fact that portable movie projectors are often carried into all sorts of climates and that they must withstand the hard knocks incident to travel, the manufacturer of one such machine has devised a special carrying case that is able to "take it." Built of birch and basswood, high frequency radio waves are used to set the adhesive that binds the panels so they can never pull apart. The case is then dipped in a synthetic resin sealer that checks decay and minimizes moisture absorption. It is then primed, sanded, and painted with a spatter finish. Allowed to cure for three weeks, the finish is hard and durable. Even after years of intensive service, it does not become brittle or chip away from the wood.

Pre-War Army

Six months before World War II began, the Army contained 29 infantry and cavalry divisions at nearly full strength, totaling more than 450,000 officers and men, plus an armored force of four divisions with a total strength of 40,000 troops. The Army history, "Washington Command Post: The Operations Division," credits mobilization of the National Guard and induction under the Selective Service Act for this rapid expansion of strength.

FINDING IDAHO CAPITOL PROVES DIFFICULT TASK

This is for a seventh grader at Nampa, Idaho, who wrote to the Lewiston city council and asked about the original capitol of Idaho.

George Fuhrman had already learned that the Idaho territorial capitol once stood on the corner of Third and C streets in Lewiston.

You see, it wasn't a capitol very long and so no one thought too much of it. People in those days were more interested in gold.

Lewiston was more or less stolen from the Indians when Seth S. Slater settled at the confluence of the Snake and Clearwater rivers in May, 1861.

The discovery of gold to the eastward was the real reason for founding a town there. The miners and traders who pitched their tents on the present site of Lewiston were violating the Nez Perces' reservation and defying the laws of the United States.

But they built a town, laying out the townsite in October, 1861.

Residents of the "banana belt" may dispute history, but the winter of 1861-62 was so severe that great suffering resulted for the local populace. Then in the spring the rivers rose and inundated the town.

Idaho territory was organized by an act of Congress March 3, 1863, but it wasn't until Sept. 22, that Gov. William H. Wallace formally organiz-

Wallace became Idaho territory's delegate to congress and W. B. Daniels, an Oregon man, became the acting governor, but before Wallace left office he convened the first territorial legislature in Lewiston on December 7, 1863.

It may be significant that, aside from the routine business of organizing the territory, the session spent much of its time attempting to move the capitol to Boise City.

They failed then, but in the second session in November, 1864, they passed an act an Governor Caleb Lyon signed it.

A suit was brought on the part of the people of the United States to enjoin the removal. Papers were served on Lyon and S. D. Cochran, secretary of the territory. It was claimed that Lyon had not taken his oath and could not legally sign the Jill. Lyon and Cochran filed what purported to be an answer and Lyon then fled in a small boat down the Snake river. He never returned to northern Idaho.

But it was a later secretary, C. DeWitt Smith, who actually accomplished the removal. He took the seal, laws and archives of the territory to Boise City.

When the hearing was held on the injunction against Lyon and Cochran the court made the injunction permanent.

So you see, the capitol of Idaho is really Lewiston, and not Boise at all. Now, if only the people of Lewiston could only find the capitol. — Spokane Daily Chronicle.

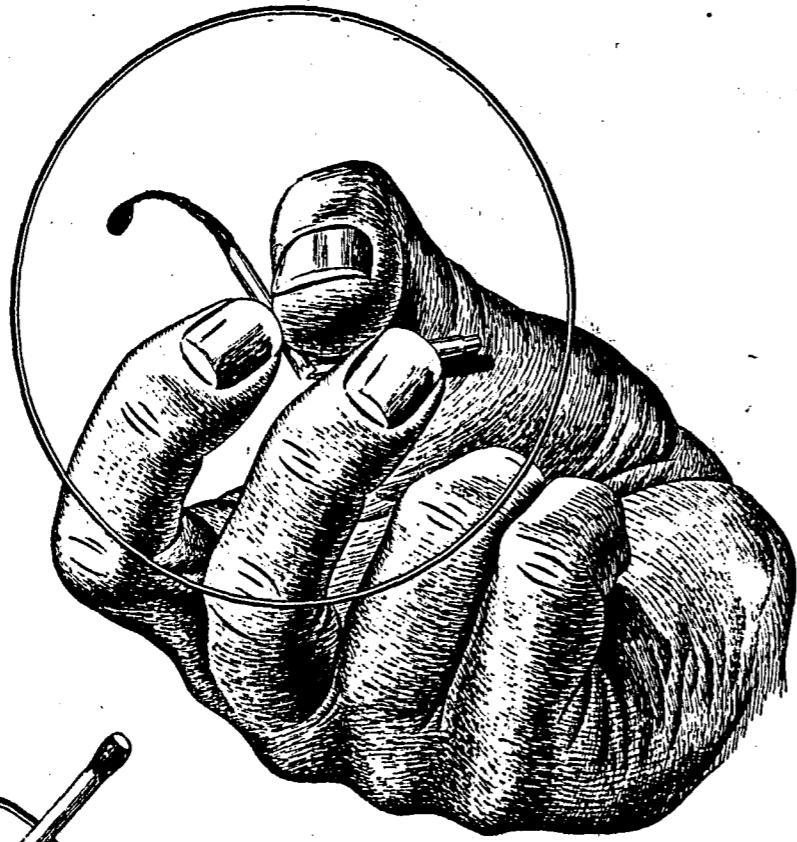

Much Food Goes To Korea More than 50,000 pounds of food have been subscribed by residents of Idaho and sent through CARE to Korea in the three years since the outbreak of the Korean War, it was reported this week by Richard Trudeau, regional director for the organization. The report estimated that 3,000 Koreans were fed for more than a month by these CARE food parcels. Of the total, more than 20,000 pounds of food have been sent during the past year, with about 6,000 pounds subscribed during the past two months. The food is in addition to thousands of pounds of underwear and stockings, blankets and cotton material that have also been subscribed by generous residents of Idaho.

The CARE report, issued just after the truce was signed, also emphasized the continuing need of the South Koreans for help in putting their war-shattered farms and homes back into operation.

Meet a man with 15 mouths to feed

Frank S. Corda farms 240 acres in California's Salinas Valley. We know Mr. Corda well because Standard Oil Company of California fuels the power that tills his land. By replacing muscles with machines, as Mr. Corda has done, the average U. S. farmer produces enough food for 15 people. One hundred years ago a good farmer produced enough to feed only five people. Mechanized farming, powered by oil, has made the difference.

Insect "bomber" demonstrates one of the ways petroleum helps make farms more productive and profitable. Airborne insecticides made by Standard's subsidiary, California Spray-Chemical Corporation, are so effective that they save western farmers millions of dollars a year in crop losses. Other petroleum products save time and labor... for example, a tractor can work 10 acres in the time a team of horses takes to plow two. We also had a hand in that, because Standard developed the first compounded lubricating oil that made high-speed diesels for tractors practical. Fuels and lubricants for farm machines, yield-boosting weed killers, roof coatings for barns, stock dips, detergents to keep milk equipment spotless, bottled gas for refrigeration, cooking and heating—they're all on the long list of items supplied to western farms by Standard. And you, too, benefit from each new way Standard scientists increase the yield of farms... because you may be one of the 15 people Mr. Corda feeds. Questions or comments about our Company are always welcome. Write: Standard Oil Company of California, P. O. Box 3495-C, San Francisco, California.

Hoping To Gain Title
 Spokane, Aug. 15 — The world's professional football title to celebrate their 35th year of competition is the aim of the Green Bay Packers this season. Coach Gene Rozzani feels the team has been improved to such a degree that forecasters may be right in picking his club to take its seventh world title.

The 1953 Packer club, now training at Grand Rapids, Mich., looks to a host of new prospects and a year's training for outstanding rookies of 1952 to provide the championship punch.

The club's main offensive weapon will again be passing, with magician "Babe" Barilli and power-pitcher Tobin Rote as quarterbacks and the swift, break-away ends, Bill Howton and Bob Mann. Howton broke a Don Hutson record pass receiving record as a rookie in '52 and could develop into pro football's best pass catcher this season.

A lively demand for tickets leads pro football officials to predict a "sell-out" crowd for the Packer-Cardinal game at Spokane on the night of Aug. 29. Ticket Manager D. McHenry urged fans to place their orders early to avoid disappointment at the last moment. The tickets are for sale "Pro Football," Dessert Hotel, Spokane.

Poultry Paying Out Well

Mr. and Mrs. "Average Consumer" appear to be doing right well by the poultry industry, according to Ralph Millar of Preston, a former president of the Idaho Poultry Improvement association and the state's delegate to the industry's national conventions this year.

In his report to the 18th convention of the Idaho association, held at the University of Idaho recently, Millar gave some encouraging figures on consumption trends. He reported that per capita egg consumption in the United States in 1952 was up nearly 40 percent over the average for 1935-39.

At the same time the per capita consumption of poultry meats was up 70 percent. Biggest increase, however, has been in turkey meat, which showed a rise of 212 percent for 1952 over the 1935-39 average.

Millar also brought back to the Idahoans the latest information he had secured on egg washing practices. He reported that washing the eggs 1 to 3 minutes in water not cooler than 110 degrees or warmer than 120 degrees, and containing a recommended detergent was the current practice in the nation's poultry industry. He also reported that the hot wash appeared to increase egg hatchability.

Television At U. of I.

The advent of television to campus housing may greet University of Idaho students when they return to the campus.

A television master antenna has been erected on top of the university's "T" tank. By means of amplifiers and coaxial cable, television signals will be carried from the master antenna to living rooms in dormitories, the Student Union building and university housing. Arrangements will also be made to extend the system to fraternities and sororities which may request television.

Engineer Gagon cautioned that completion of the project before fall would depend on delivery of cable, an item in great demand at the present time. The television system will be financed by student facility and housing funds.

Don't fuss and fume over out-of-season items. Visit Blewett's Grocery's Frozen Foods Case. 1-adv

Potlatch Chief Sez

Published by the Kendrick Creamery

HELLO, THERE, FOLKS —

Yes, you bet — it's wonderful harvest weather — and everyone is making the most of it. Now field work is not easy, but it can be made easier and more comfortable if you have plenty of cold drinking water. Let us suggest bringing that picnic and camping ice chest in and let us fill it with pure ice. Not only will you have ice water to drink but it can be used to keep other beverages cold! The cost is low — the comfort high!

Lady Customer: "I see this medicine is advertised as good for man and beast."

Druggist: "Yes, ma'am."

Lady Customer: "Give me a bottle. I believe it's the right combination to help my husband."

Beat the heat and the busy harvest days by serving "Potlatch Chief" Ice Cream as dessert — and as a snack when those unexpected guests drop in. And if you want something that's really the tops — get a Juliaetta cante-loupe and fill the heart with Potlatch Chief Vanilla Ice Cream.

Two college "rah-rah" boys drove their hot-rod up to the village store and yelled to an old villager leaning against the store front: "Hey, Pop! How long's this town been dead?"

"Don't rightly know," said the old-timer. "Can't be long, though. You're the fust buzzards I've seen!"

Like real cream in your coffee? If you're an "average citizen" you do. Don't forget we have it for sale — it's pasteurized, too!

Girl, answering the telephone: "Marie isn't in just now. This is 110-pound, five-foot-two, blue-eyed blonde sister."

Fair Interest On Increase

Increased county-wide participation in the Latah County Fair is being planned for by the Fair Board. Gerald Ingle, Kendrick, board president, has announced that individuals in communities throughout the county will be requested to take part in the fair program and give special recognition to their home areas. Community leaders are being contacted by a Fair Board committee to work out the details of this program.

Present opening night plans, Sept. 17, calls for the community talent shows and the county-wide 4-H Club style revue. No pet show will be held.

The annual Junior Fat Livestock Sale for members of county 4-H Clubs and vocational agriculture departments will be held Friday evening, Sept. 18, in the fair armory building.

Other attractions during the fair week-end will be a large, locally sponsored carnival and a Junior rodeo.

With the fair only a month away all its supporters point out that now is the time to start planning for and preparing exhibits. The fair premium list is being mailed to a county-wide list at this time. Anyone not receiving a copy or wishing to make space reservations, should contact the County Agent's office in Moscow.

Vote Bonds For Highways
Owyhee county has just passed a $500,000 bond issue. The vote was 1,207 for — with 32 against.

They are proposing to complete a 100-mile stretch of road between Homedale and Idian Cove, near Hammett. The $500,000 of bonds will be matched with federal aid to give them a project around $1,200,000. This is a farm-to-market secondary project.

I am wondering if the significance of this isn't worth discussing. If the people of Owyhee county feel the importance of such a road and are willing to pay for it — I am wondering how the people of Idaho generally would feel if they were given the opportunity to increase highway revenues to build and pay for some of the roads that they so definitely need in many parts of the state.

Our present state highway revenues will never satisfy the road requirements of all the state, and maybe Owyhee county's action will be reflected to other areas in which such projects are so definitely needed.

A positive approach to a problem will always produce positive action — where a negative attitude produces nothing. — E. V. Miller, state highway engineer.
