Reunion

After tossing bits of bread to the stork at the zoo, who bobbed his head at the girl for more, she asked her mother: "What kind of a bird is that mama?"

Her mother read the sign on the cage and replied: "That's a stork, dear."

"Oh, sure," said the girl. "No wonder he recognizes me!"

Terramycin Said Effective Against Pinworm Infection

Infection caused by the pinworm, the most common and widely distributed of all human parasites, can now be successfully treated with terramycin, according to a team of 6 American doctors conducting clinical trials in Haiti.

Treating 61 cases of pinworm infection, the physicians found terramycin effective in all but two patients. Clinical trials with the wide-range antibiotic drug were undertaken because, said the doctors, "the usual treatment with gentian violet often does not eradicate the infection, and not infrequently the drug must be discontinued due to toxic reactions." Several of the patients who had taken gentian violet previously said they found terramycin "considerably more tolerable."

Pinworm infection is found throughout the world and in all ages. Public health experts estimate it affects 35 per cent or more of the general population. In southern states 50 to 60 per cent of all children have had it. Caused by a small white worm, its most disturbing symptom is itching. Often scratching brings about a secondary infection. Pinworm may interfere with eating and result in loss of weight and anemia. The disease usually infects the entire family.

In their clinical report, appearing in the current issue of the medical journal, "Antibiotics and Chemotherapy," the doctors point out that successful therapy depends upon simultaneous treatment of the whole family. In this respect one of gentian violet's disadvantages, they say, is that young children often cannot swallow the enteric-coated tablets.

Whenever possible, the medical team in Haiti examined whole families and treated them simultaneously with terramycin. Full cooperation was not always obtainable, but "despite inadequate dosage in a large number of cases," says the report, "in only 2 instances did treatment definitely fail by the fourth week after therapy was begun."

North Carolina Attacks Highway Safety Problems

A sound program to promote safety on the highways has been set in motion by the state of North Carolina. The appalling number of deaths and injuries resulting from motoring accidents in recent years has provoked this state to take action of a new and decisive type.

Since the first of July, applicants for driver's licenses and renewals have been required to have their eyesight tested on a complex instrument which measures 12 visual skills, including muscular balance, acuity at near and far distances, and depth perception. The instrument makes it impossible for drivers with poor vision to slip by, by memorizing the letters that they must read — a trick sometimes played with conventional charts. Those who fail the tests are advised to consult an eyesight specialist, and many of them will undoubtedly be enabled to pass by professional eye-care.

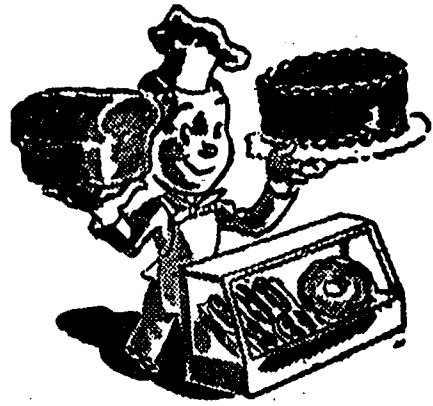

Good vision has long been recognized as a major factor in accident prevention, and thousands of hours have been spent in attempts to establish proper standards for motorists. But the results were always inconclusive, because too much of the element of personal opinion was involved. Under the new system, however, definite statistics on 1,300,000 drivers will be obtained by next July 1, and it will be possible to judge accurately which visual errors contribute most to accidents and which visual skills are most essential to highway safety.

A Comet's Weight

What is the weight of a comet? Weight is a measurement of the attraction of the Earth for a body on or near its surface, and as a comet moves far out in space, and is subjected to a varying attraction from the Earth and other planets, one should not speak of its "weight." Its mass, which is a measure of the amount of matter it contains, can only be determined roughly. It has been estimated that with Halley's comet the nucleus, which contains most of the material, has a mass of about a two-hundred-millionth of the Earth's mass. This would be about thirty million million tons. It has also been determined that the particles of which Halley's comet is made could not be held together by the gravitational attraction of a mass smaller than one twenty-fifth of the above figure. Most comets, however, are much smaller than Halley's, and have considerably smaller mass.

Schedule Is Wise

A regular painting schedule actually simplifies property protection. One wise farmer does a fourth of his buildings each year. In that way, each gets its necessary coat of protection every four years without fail, and each year's painting project can be fitted in as other outdoor work permits. While city dwellers do not have as many structures to safeguard, they are wise to look on painting as property-value insurance and to follow a regular schedule.

TRASH TOSSERS

The state of Idaho is a beautiful and rugged state, with much unusual scenery for the public to enjoy, but there is one thing that is a mar on the beauty of the scenery. That mar is the trash which is tossed out the windows of cars as they travel down the roads.

Beer bottles and cans, whiskey bottles, garbage, form almost a solid barrier along the borrow pits of most of our roads, sickening the public and presenting a hazard to their safety. It is also an expense to the state of Idaho Department of Highways to try to keep these messes cleaned up, for it is an endless job. It is also an unsanitary practice, for these messes attract flies and bugs which makes any stop along the road most unpleasant to the traveler.

Do you throw the cans a bottles and garbage out of your back door in your yard? Of course you don't. The highway right-of-way is the public's yard when they are traveling, and they appreciate a clean, rubbish-free right-of-way.

From the safety angle, these cans and bottles are a hazard, for they can ruin tires and cause accidents as well as carelessness does. You have no doubt seen the bottles laying along the edge of the road and have had to dodge to miss them, and if there was another car coming toward you, you would have to run over them, ruining a good tire in the process. Then there is the matter of getting off the road if there is trouble with the car, or if the driver wishes to stop for a rest.

It is almost impossible to pull off the road in many parts of the state because of the carelessness of other travelers in throwing things along the roadway. This is a definite hazard to the public and should be stopped. Is it asking too much to request that you continue on home with your trash and throw it in the garbage can? You can also find trash containers along the highways in many vicinities which are meant for you to use.

If you would help out the Department of Highways by keeping trash off the roads, we would have thousands more dollars to put into wider and smoother roads. — Dwight Crawford.

Fashion Hint

For the past two years or more, the woolly-bears have cried "Wolf!" sundry beasties have grown thick winter coats and even the humble oyster, in waxing fat, has deceived us... the winters remaining as open as the face of a pumpkin pie. Hence this writer will offer no predictions as to the severity of the season to come... other than to remark that it's about time.

We are prepared, however, for a ring-tailed peeler. We have equipped ourselves with some of that new anti-freeze underwear — both the old-fashioned, long-handled type for musing when all trapped-off model for ordinary, mine-run blizzards. And when we call it "anti-freeze" underwear, that's what we mean, because it's made out of Dynel, mixed with cotton, and Dynel is made out of the same stuff as the Prestone you put in your radiator to keep it from freezing! Perhaps we should mention that it's not only anti-freeze but non-itch too!

Equally remarkable is the fact that this weather-proof lingerie was originally developed, not for warmth, but to protect workers in the dangerous areas of the Oak Ridge atomic energy plant from radio-active emanations, and to provide a material that may be easily decontaminated. The discovery that this stuff keeps out Jack Frost too, will, we suspect, be a lot more important to a lot more people.

And, of course, if you should be prospecting for Uranium in the far north, you now can be triply protected — against goose-pimples, radiation and the winter-longies itch. Little by little, science is getting around to most everything!

Watch Your Driving!

"Time isn't made of elastic minutes, so don't try to s-t-r-e-t-c-h your vacation time too far!"

The Traffic Safety division made this suggestion today to eager vacation motorists who try to cover too much territory in a limited vacation period.

The purpose of a vacation is to relax, and you can't relax if you're in a perpetual hurry. In fact that's about the best way to bring on a case of frazzled nerves or, much more dangerous, to invite an automobile accident.

Many vacation accidents could be avoided if motorists would be less mileage conscious and more safety conscious.

Wise motorists plan their trips carefully in advance. They check road routes, decide how far they can travel comfortably each day, and then stay within that limit. They know that driving when fatigued is flirting with disaster.

Here are a few tips for drivers to follow each day:

Get an early start. In this way you get your full quota of driving before sundown.

Whenever you get sleepy or tired while driving, stop for a rest, a cup of coffee, a nap.

If you want to admire the scenery or other local attractions, stop.

Always — take it easy!

Football Prospects Good

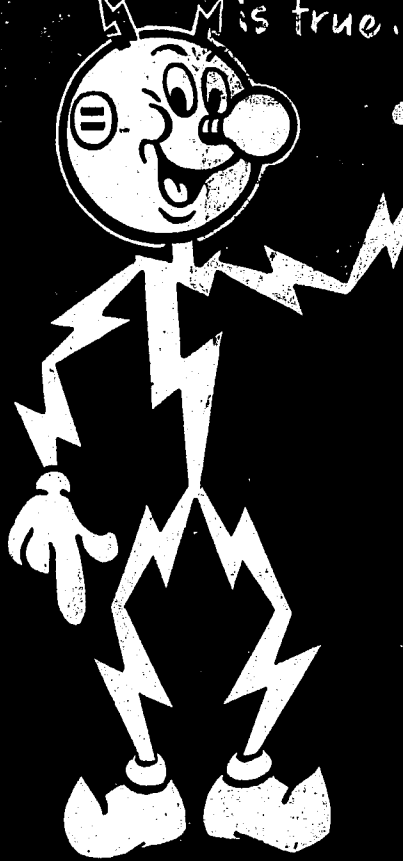

J. of I. Moscow — Coach Babe Curfman is not singing the blues as he considers Idaho's football prospects for the 1953 season as the first week of practice winds up. The Vandals are preparing for their opening game against San Jose State there on the night of September 18. "As I see it now," said the big Texan, Curfman, "we have a starting team that any school in the conference would be proud of. Our only real question is the replacements for the first stringers. It is true that in most spots we are at least two deep. Whether or not that will be enough remains to be seen. Injuries can riddle what promises to be one of Idaho's best teams in years."

As practice got under way Curfman was pleased to note five Junior College transfers reporting on the first day.

Curfman said he would work the squad twice a day until about Sept. 12, when he would begin tapering off for San Jose State. The squad will fly there Thursday and work once under the lights before the game.

Potlatch Chief Sez

Published by the Kendrick Creamery

HELLO, THERE, FOLKS:

Well, here it is getting along toward the last of October, and pastures are greening up with the fall rains. So better take the full advantage of this situation by cashing in on your cows and chickens to the limit. Just take good care of them — bring the cream and eggs to us — and get your check. You'll be surprised how this income can count up. And remember: We return a steam sterilized, ready-to-use can to you. Saves a lot of washing at home!

The green member came panting up to an experienced member of a hunting party: "I just met a great big bear in the woods," he said breathlessly.

"Good," said the other. "Did you give him both barrels?" The greenie wiped his perspiring brow. "Both barrels?" he returned. "I gave him the whole gun!"

There still remains many days of big game hunting season, and lots of game in the woods. If you are going, come in and stock up on "Potlatch Chief" butter before you go, and pick out the locker box you'll want while here.

Wife: "I'll have you know I went to cooking school before we were married."

Hubby: "Yeah, and what did you do there, play bridge?"

"It is true," said the famed specialist, "that exercise kills germs. However, up to the present time we have been unable to discover any way to make them exercise."

Remember: Always ask for "Potlatch Chief" Dairy Products by name. It is your assurance of quality.

GOLDEN RULE

Oct. 20 — About 34 friends and relatives gathered at the Alma Betts home last Tuesday afternoon with a surprise bridal shower for Mrs. Eugene Betts. Mrs. Marie Kuykendall and Mrs. Odetta Skaggs, assisted. The room was decorated with a white umbrella and balloons, which contained questions for the bride to answer. The table which held the many beautiful gifts also had tall white tapers and a huge basket of glads, snapdragons and dahlias. Cenered were three cakes decorated by Mrs. Skaggs. One represented a school slate, which read "Eugene Loves Rose," one had an umbrella layer of cake over a garden of flowers, and the third represented the church altar, with a carpet leading away — and the bride and groom leaving the altar. After a couple of appropriate games had been played and prizes given, the bride opened and displayed her many beautiful gifts — then the hostesses served the cakes with coffee, tea and ice cream. The latter having a pink wedding ball center in each slice. Several out-of-town guests were among those present: Mrs. Neil Allen of Asotin; Mrs. John Westgate, Clarkston; Mrs. H. M. Pond of Lewiston; Mrs. Lyle Goffinet of Orofino, and several friends and relatives from Kendrick.

Albert Lawrence had the misfortune of falling asleep while enroute home from work at Ahsahka last Thursday night and was involved in a collision with Jim Reece's car, which was parked in front of his home in Cavendish.
