VERLA MAE HEASLEY IS BRIDE OF ROBERT WARE

Miss Verla Mae Heasley of Clarkston and Robert C. Ware of Troy, Idaho, exchanged nuptial vows on Saturday afternoon, June 26, at 2:00, in the Lewiston First Christian Church.

The Rev. Paul Deane Hill, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony. The rostrum was decorated with large baskets of pink gladioli, blue delphinium and white majestic daisies, and with palms.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white lace over satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, with long lace sleeves and a full skirt. Her shoulder-length veil fell from a halo of tulle, decorated with lily-of-the-valley, and she carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid. The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, Floyd Goodall of Clarkston.

Mrs. Patrick O'Kelley of Clarkston, soloist, sang, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Pauline Brigham, who also played the wedding march and background music.

Politics Beginning To Boil

More and more political candidates are beginning to make their appearance on the local scene — and we might add that election time is about the only time we can expect to see them.

We have but one really local candidate of which we are aware — Frank V. Barton, who has filed for the Democratic nomination for Prosecuting Attorney in Nez Perce county, his residence and postoffice address being Lewiston. However, he maintains an office at Kendrick, which is used weekly, and he is a member of the Kendrick Lions Club and the Kendrick Commercial Club.

RUMORS ABOUT REGARDING PROPOSED SCHOOL BONDS

It would seem as though the forthcoming school bond election has primed the "rumor machine" and gotten it running full blast.

As has been said before, the School Board and the Administration knows what is needed to give our youngsters the educational start in life that they deserve, and now it is up to the people of the School District to make it possible to provide these educational necessities.

Southwick School

The architects have recommended that the Leland school building be moved to Southwick and remodeled into a very nice two-room school, with a Hot Lunch room and central heating plant. This would provide a building worth about $38,000 for approximately $14,000.00.

This is a reasonable sounding suggestion, and will undoubtedly be followed.

Julietta School Needs

Julietta needs some remodeling on its school building and more and better playground area that normal operating revenues cannot provide.

Any other who has had to wash the clothes that have been dirtied on the present playgrounds will agree that better facilities are needed.

High School Buildings, Etc.

The present Junior and Senior High School building at Kendrick is figuratively and literally bursting at the seams.

The Home Economics department is far from adequate and attracts very few students because of this inadequacy.

In an area that is mainly agricultural there is no provision for vocational Agriculture training, partly because there are no facilities available.

Classrooms are crowded to the point where educational values are suffering. The State Board of Education has recommended every year since 1933 that the building be replaced. That, however, is financially impossible. The next best, of course, is to repair and add to — and that is what is being proposed at this time.

The present heating plant is, as most of you know, very inefficient, and cannot do the job expected. It will, of course, be replaced.

The basketball fans need not be told of the necessity of repairs and additions to the gymnasium. Approximately 400 seats will be added and the floor increased to a full, regulation size.

BUT — The main bulk of the money is to go to provide more classroom space for the present and future Junior and Senior High School students. The proposed addition will all be taken up by the Junior and Senior High school students. Nobody has even contemplated trying to put any of the Elementary students in the Kendrick building. There would not be room for them in any case.

We Repeat:

Rumors abound, but Get The Facts and then vote your convictions.

Help Is Greatly Appreciated

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keeler, well known former Gold Hill residents, sincerely appreciate the help that old friends and neighbors have given them in and about their new home at Lewiston. In a note to the Gazette Mrs. Keeler says:

"I wish to report that Miss Eva Smith kindly donated her services to the Charles Keeler 'rock and vegetable garden' last evening, and at this time I can truthfully say it's a living example of what good 'home grown labor' and fertilizer will make grow — and does."

Anyhow, Eva and our daughter Helen, "aided and abetted" by yours truly, pulled a heap of weeds!

All we need now is some more "Gold Hillers" — and don't bother about lunch, we will, unless there might be some who prefer to "roll their own", furnish the eats and even the drinks, and when I say "coffee" I mean "coffeee."

"Just drop in. The weeds aren't a bit 'choosy!' — Sincerely, Mrs. Chas. Keeler."

We might add that Mrs. Keeler said nothing about Charles' illness, but presume he is improving, although still "laid up."

Kendrick Sizzles With 98 Degrees

Yes, truly, summer has arrived in this area, and Tuesday afternoon at about 3:30 o'clock the "official" thermometer recorded a high of 98 degrees, with some, in less carefully protected spots, recording as high as 100 degrees.

Sunday, under a cloudless sky, the mercury began its first real climb for the summer, reaching a high of 94 degrees.

Monday was a bit cooler, the reading being 92 degrees — but Tuesday was the real payoff with 98.

This heat is damaging berries of all kinds, for used to cooler, moister weather, they have been unable to take the heat in stride, with raspberries and strawberries "blistering" under the impact of the sun's rays.

Farmers say that to date no harm has been done beans, in fact, it has been beneficial to the fields, through the "stunting" in growth of wild oats, which thrive on the cool, damp weather we have had for the past several weeks.

Some have also made the remark that the heat would benefit pea fields through stopping the maturing of certain types of field pests, particularly aphid.

And one place that has seen a greatly increased trade with the arrival of the summer weather, is the Area Living War Memorial Swimming Pool — attendance literally "jumping".

Anyhow, to go back to that old saying, which was never truer than now: "Everybody talks about the weather — but nobody ever does anything about it."

Brothe-r-r-r, Is It Red!

Clarence Perryman is taking a great deal of good natured ribbing on the color of his new Jeep — remarks such as "all you need is a siren on it to be complete," and "brother, where did that fire wagon come from?" being the most popular.

Well, we must say it's the reddist red we've ever seen except on fire equipment.

Anyhow, there should be very little danger of anyone taking a shot at it for a deer or elk next fall!

Vaccine Field Test On

Boise — A total of 2,786 second graders have been inoculated in the second phase of a statewide vaccine field trial that includes Ada, Bannock, Bingham and Nez Perce counties. L. J. Peterson, director of the State Health department reported this week. Second graders receiving the second shot represent 99.6 percent of those children taking the first vaccination. A total of 2,910 second graders obtained parental release slips to participate in the vaccine field trials in the test areas. This number is 84.3 percent of the total enrollment in the second grade.

Dr. Harold Press, regional medical consultant for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, upon learning of these figures, stated: "The state of Idaho, as well as the counties having the field trials, should take pride in the fact that their local and state health departments have accomplished such an outstanding feat. Idaho will undoubtedly have one of the highest percentages in the nation in ratio to the number of students enrolled in the second grade and those participating in the vaccine field trials."

Dr. Press went on to say, "I attribute the smoothness of this program of inoculating hundreds of Idaho students to the efficiency of the local health personnel and chapter volunteers of the National Foundations in the test areas."

Dr. Press added: "It is absolutely imperative that the children receive all three injections if the vaccine is to be evaluated accurately. One injection is not enough. Two are not enough. Results of the pilot studies conducted by Dr. Jonas E. Salk in Pittsburgh, indicate that the body requires the full series of three injections for effective antibody production. It is hoped that the counties high percentage of children participating in the vaccine field trials. Idaho stands as an example of competent planning and organization relative to the proper manner of conducting the vaccine field trials."

Eggs will beat lighter and more quickly when at room temperature.

New Women's Dormitory

U. of I. — Plans for the construction of a new $130,000 women's dormitory at the University of Idaho were announced last week by President J. E. Buchanan, following approval by the board of regents. The building will be financed in part by a note issue to be paid off by income from room rentals from dormitory buildings.

Housing 60 women, the dormitory will be a frame structure, with certain areas of the exterior being in brick veneer and the rest of the exterior in transite veneer. One wing of the dormitory will be two stories, containing the women's living quarters. The kitchen, dining and living rooms are planned in another one-story wing. An automatic sprinkler system will be installed to eliminate hazard from fire, as was done in the Ethel Steel house.

The new dormitory will be located on Blake Ave. south of Ridenbaugh hall, out-dated women's dormitory now being used for music practice rooms. Site of the new building is now being developed by university buildings and grounds employees.

Mr. Buchanan said that it is tentatively planned to call for construction bids late this month if all other arrangements can be completed in time. Construction is scheduled to begin early this summer, with the dormitory ready for occupancy by the fall of 1955.

"The dormitory is part of the university's building program to assure living quarters for the steadily increasing number of Idaho young people who will seek education at the university," Mr. Buchanan said. He pointed out that the increased enrollment of students now in high schools, and the even larger wave of pupils now in elementary schools will soon be university students and will need proper housing.

"Therefore, there is an imperative and immediate need for a new women's dormitory at the University of Idaho," the president added.

Cows Have Real Records

Columbus, Ohio — Two registered Jersey cows owned by the University of Idaho, Moscow, have been rated as "Tested Dams" by the American Jersey Cattle club.

The "Tested Dam" rating indicates that a Jersey cow has three or more progeny that have qualified themselves on one of the programs of official testing of the Club, which has its headquarters in Columbus.

The cows in the herd that earned the distinction and the average production of their qualifying progeny are Idaho Wonderful Eva and Idaho Sybil Wanda.

Each of the above cows have been classified for breed type, and have received a rating of "Good Plus."

The Tested Dam plan is a valuable aid to dairymen in enabling them to select breeding stock from cows with proven inheritance. All tests made on the progeny of the cows winning the award are made under the supervision of the state agricultural college.

Giant Industry Arising From New Patent Fibers

Ever since Adam and Eve left the Garden of Eden with nothing to wear, mankind has been clothes conscious. The Bible story tells us that Eve fashioned her first garment from a fig leaf — maybe it was leaves.

We wear clothes from the time we are born. It would take books to tell the progress of the clothes story down through the ages. Long ago it was found that the clothing of the cotton seed was better than fig leaves for human garb. For centuries we have used the skins and wool of animals; as well as the covering of the cotton seed, for our own clothing. Still we were not satisfied. We took the cocoon of the little silkworm for its silk.

But we can thank that same little worm for our modern system of producing fibers for textiles that do not necessarily deprive any other living creature of its coat. We learned that the silkworm extruded a fluid from a spinnerette near its mouth. The fluid became a stout silken thread on reaching the air.

This observation led to a man-made fluid extruded through a mechanical spinnerette which produced our first rayon thread. The device was called a "mechanical silkworm." This invention came from France about 70 years ago. During the past 15 or 20 years American inventors, encouraged to find new processes and products through the protection and rewards provided by our patent system, have devised new machines and new fluids to make many new kinds of fabrics for human clothing.

Coal, oil, various gases, glass, brine, and many organic substances such as wood, cornstalks, peanuts, and feathers provide the substances from which we now have fabrics that resemble wool, silk, and cotton.

'Won't Hurt' Boast Not Idle Promise to Army Blood Donor

It takes courage to give blood that will save a soldier's life, but your fears of pain or ill effects now are unwarranted.

Army medical authorities recognize that thousands of Americans who are willing to die for their country if necessary have a horror of seeing blood flow from their veins. Just as many shudder when they think of a needle just under the surface of their skin.

But ask anyone who has ever donated a pint of blood to help replenish the nation's seriously depleted stocks and chances are he will tell you there's nothing to it—no pain, no ill effects. But you will have a deep satisfaction that you have helped a fellow American in a critical hour.

If you have ever pricked your finger with a pin, you already have experienced all the pain you will suffer when you give a pint of blood. It's that simple.

If you are not physically able to donate blood, you will not be permitted to do so. You are given a thorough examination before the blood is taken from your arm.

A single drop of blood from your fingertip is all that is required for the tests that will determine whether you are able to donate blood. If the results of these tests are satisfactory, the remainder of the procedure is entirely painless.

You lie down on a bed and an attendant puts a little procaine on your arm. As the blood is drawn, you feel nothing. In five minutes, the bottle is full and ready for processing and shipment to the battle zones of Korea.

Within a few minutes you feel like your old self again — probably better, for you realize what a precious contribution you have made.

That Parallel

The 38th parallel in Greece ferries the legendary River Styx and passes close to Corinth and Athens. Dodging Aegean Islands, it borders the Maeander River south of Smyrna on the Turkish shore. It crosses the Turkish headwaters of the Tigris and Euphrates en route to Tabriz, metropolis of Iranian Azerbaijan. Across the Caspian Sea, it finds itself on both sides of the critical frontier between Russia on the north and Iran and Afghanistan on the south. At the Russia-China border, the parallel climbs to its greatest height on the shoulders of Stalina and Kungur, both 25,000-foot peaks. Touring China, it runs near the ancient Silk Route past Yarkand and the Takla Makan (desert). China's Great Wall crosses the 38th frequently near the cities of Yulin, Ningsia, and Wuwei.

Abe Lincoln

When Abe Lincoln was 21 he crossed the Wabash and encountered the first level land he had ever seen—the fertile prairies of Illinois. At two sites there he helped his father build log cabins. Then he struck out for himself, settling in the village of New Salem, 20 miles northwest of Springfield, Illinois. Lincoln received his first popular notice in New Salem. He was elected captain of a volunteer company in the Black Hawk War, and later was sent to the state legislature. Afterward he moved to Springfield, the state capital, and New Salem literally disappeared. Many of its log buildings were dismantled and carried to Petersburg, two miles north.

Diabetics Can Live Long, Active and Normal Lives

The control of diabetes so that a person suffering from the disease may lead a long, normal and active life has become a reality.

In a study of 760 diabetic patients suffering from the disease 25 years or more, Dr. Elliott P. Joslin, of Boston, found approximately 80 per cent active and a few in perfect health.

"The patients in perfect condition are those whose treatment was initiated (with hardly an exception) with strenuous control of diabetes in their early years," Dr. Joslin stated, "this control being maintained for 10 years, more or less, to more than the usual extent and even then continued."

"In this series the evidence is overwhelming that strict treatment of diabetes pays and, moreover, that control of the disease is possible."

Of the total group studied, 23 patients had had diabetes for more than 25 years and yet had a sound body with urine free from albumin, eyes without diabetic complications such as hemorrhages and cataracts, and had arteries free from calcification.

Of these 23 patients, all of whom lived in unusually favorable homes and under comfortable social circumstances according to the survey, 13 inherited the disease, the age of onset ranging from 1 4/5 to 32 years. All take insulin. Seventeen married, resulting in 28 living children, all of whom are healthy. "Corroborative testimony that diabetics are living long and—most of them—useful lives is afforded by 40 of our patients with diabetes of 30 to 35 years' duration whose onset was in childhood," Dr. Joslin stated.

Mosquitoes Eat Dog (Food) In Unique Clinic Studies

Three million radioactive labeled mosquitoes raised on tap water and finely ground dog food containing radiophosphorus or a phosphate derived from it, were recently used in experiments conducted by the Chemical Corps Medical Laboratories of the Army in order to determine insect flight ranges.

With the constantly increasing human activity in northern regions, the study of arctic and subarctic species of biting insects has assumed great importance. Control of the enormous numbers of mosquitoes that occur in most arctic and subarctic areas is difficult even with large scale spraying. Even after such spraying, it has been established that reinfection from the surrounding territory may occur rapidly. Accurate knowledge of the flight range and dispersal patterns of the important types of biting flies is needed in order to increase the effectiveness of control measures.

In this particular research project the region near Churchill, Manitoba, was selected. This region is on the timberline, and has enormous mosquito populations which include both tundra and conifer forest species. Radioisotopes were used as tracers. Adult mosquitoes were also made radioactive by feeding them on radioactivated rats and rabbits, raisins, flowers, and sugar solutions.

Insomnia

Insomnia is a demon that has plagued people all through the centuries. Now there are so many individual remedies that if a person tried them all, he'd never have time to sleep. There are many ex-insomniacs, though, who swear by their own particular remedy, and if sleep really is elusive every night, then the person suffering from insomnia has nothing to lose by trying one or two which appeal most to him.

A word of warning, though! Don't be too upset or disappointed if a "guaranteed-to-stop-insomnia" cure doesn't work. Before he settles down to the long list of suggestions that friends are more than willing to thrust on him, the insomniac should make a thorough check of his bed.

First, he should see that his mattress is level, resilient and in good conditions—that is, no sags, lumps, humps or bumps. Then he should check his bedspring—if it is in good condition, it will have no broken coils or sags. Next comes his pillow. To provide adequate support it should be fluffy, buoyant, resilient and fill the gap between his shoulders and neck. If his bedding passes this test, then he is free to try some of the 1001 sleep inducers—and with the best wishes of all ex-insomniacs.

Another suggestion, perhaps more to the liking of the teetotalers, is to drink a glass of warm milk every night.

Lightning Bugs

The full details of how a lightning bug produces its light are not fully understood, although it is known to utilize a chemical reaction involving water, oxygen, a rather simple compound called "luciferin" and a more complex one, belonging to the class known as enzymes, called "luciferase." Probably the luciferin, after it has become properly activated, actually produces the light. The insect may exercise some sort of nervous control over the organs that produce light, perhaps in the same way that a nervous impulse controls the contraction of a muscle, and several scientists are engaged in research to find how this happens.

Farm Scrap Harvest Reported a Success

Farmers Can Sell All Scrap Iron and Steel

The national farm scrap harvest conducted between October 15 and November 15 has been termed a success by the steel industry, producing millions of tons of scrap iron and steel badly needed for making new steel.

Although the drive is over, farmers should continue to collect the scrapped machinery about their farms and sell it to dealers. It is a good way to keep the farm premises harvest and sell your SCRAP to help produce the things you need are cleaned up and, although scrap does not sell for big prices, the financial return does mean something.

The steel industry continues to need the broken tractor parts, rusted and worn out implements, plow points, outdated horse drawn equipment, old cultivators, broken shovels and similar equipment that can be found on almost every American farm. There are about 25 tons of iron and steel on the average farm.

Farm scrap can be a major source of the 36,000,000 tons of scrap that are needed by the steel mills this year. It takes that much scrap to produce 110,000,000 tons of steel that mills in our country have as their goal for 1951.

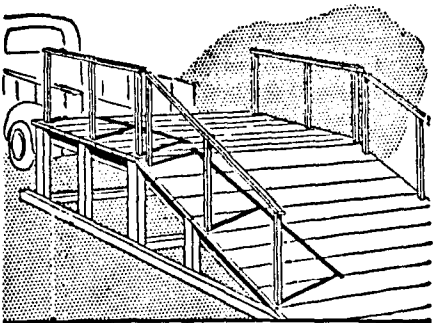

Cheaper Way to Fatten Beef Cattle Outlined

G. A. Branaman, Michigan State College animal husbandry authority, reports that full feeding grain is the quickest way to get a steer to market, but it isn't necessarily the cheapest or the most profitable.

Plain cattle, for instance should be fed longer and more cheaply than well-bred steers of good type. "Corn silage full-fed along with protein supplement may replace all the grain for plain steers when fed a longer time," he comments. "Yearling steers usually are fed from 4 to 7 months, depending on their grade and quality, and the amount of grain fed. Calves require a longer time to fatten and 2-year-olds a shorter time."

Wintering calves on roughage, then pasturing for part or all of the summer without grain results in cheap gains. Under present cattle and feed prices it is possible to pasture cattle for two summers, feeding roughage in winter. These animals may be grain fed for a short time or sold as grass-fat cattle.

Loading Platform

The above sketch of a loading platform is one a farmer handy with tools can build. The main idea is to build it on skids so it can be moved about the farm as desired. The railing can be made detachable to make it easier for loading farm machinery. The uprights would require 4x4 lumber and the platform 2" planks.

Shearing Lamb Faces Will Increase Gains

Shearing the faces of heavily-wooled feeder lambs will increase gains, according to Graydon Blank, extension animal husbandry specialist at Michigan State College. Blank explained that lambs can see better without a heavy crop of wool around their eyes. After shearing they'll find the feed trough more quickly, will eat better and will gain much more rapidly, specialists report.

Scout Gifts To Korea

Boy Scouts of the Lewis-Clark Council, with headquarters at Lewiston, have accepted an invitation from the American-Korean Foundation to cooperate with it by undertaking a very special project known as "Operation Korea" within the next 30 days.

John P. Nagle, president of the Lewis-Clark Council, said that its members will develop a "Boy Scout Friendship Package" for the Boy Scouts of South Korea, in response to a request from Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America.

Usable, clean Boy Scout and Cub Scout uniforms, specified camping equipment and first aid kits will be packed in a wooden case and loaded on one of the "Help Korea" trains that will soon move across the country. These trains will also receive other items contributed by American business, industry and national organizations for the people of South Korea.

Each district chairman in the various districts of the Council is being asked to provide one Scout uniform, one Cub uniform, a Scout knife, canteen and a pack or haversack. Various Scout troops and Cub packs in the district will be asked to assemble this material. The above equipment need not be new, but should be clean and serviceable.

Here's one place where today's dollar goes further

In the fondly-remembered time of the nickel trolley and the 25¢ T-bone, gasoline for dad's 1925 model cost about 18¢ a gallon (excluding taxes). Sounds like a bargain—yet it really cost more than today's gasoline. The reason is clear when you keep this fact in mind: You fill your car's tank with gasoline, but what you're actually buying is mileage. Naturally, you'd rather pay $1 a gallon for gas that gave you 100 miles a gallon than buy 10¢ gas that delivered only 5 miles to the gallon. And that's why today's gasoline costs less than motor fuel of 1925 . . . it gives you more miles to the dollar. Research by companies such as Standard Oil Company of California has improved gasoline spectacularly over the years. This better motor fuel made more efficient auto engines possible, and together they give you up to 50% better mileage than motorists got in the '20's. On top of that, competition between oil companies has helped to hold down gasoline prices. Since 1925, they've risen only 20% (excluding taxes) while food has gone up 70%, clothing 63%, and the cost of living 53%. Compared to practically anything else you buy, gasoline is a bargain. Your money goes further when it goes for today's finer gasoline that delivers more miles to the dollar.

Very Quiet Over Fourth

This past long holiday week-end, which included July 4th and 5th, was one of the quietest that has been seen here in many years — everyone apparently having gone fishing or to other areas to visit.

The morning of the 4th was so quiet one could almost "hear a pin drop" anywhere about town — there not even being the sound of an exploding firecracker to announce the arrival of our national Independence Day.

A goodly number took advantage of the cool greenness of the local park to hold an afternoon or evening
 picnic, and of course the youngsters
 made the most of the swimming pool.

Monday there was a bit more life,
 with a few more cars and even a couple of logging trucks being seen.

Locally, however, it was indeed a "safe and sane Fourth."

Life Insurance Funds Going To Nation's Defense Plants

Life insurance funds are moving to the aid of the defense activities of the country in increasing volume, and loans made by the life insurance companies in support of the defense program may reach $3,500,000,000 for 1951, according to the Institute of Life Insurance.

"In keeping with the usual policy of directing new funds into channels where they may be most useful for the national economy,
 the current trend in life insurance investments is towards meeting the capital needs of the preparedness program," Holgar J. Johnson, institute president, commented. "This is in line with the voluntary credit restraint program under which defense needs have precedence over all other elements in the economy.
 Defense financing now accounts for the greater part of the life insurance company placement of policy-holder funds in business and industry."

More than $1,000,000,000 has been loaned by the life insurance companies so far this year to defense plants and indications are that a like amount may be loaned in the remaining months of the year.

In addition, some $800,000,000 has this year been invested in loans to utility companies and railroads,
 which are basically involved in all defense activities. This amount may be nearly doubled by the end of the year. Thus, the total of financing made available during the entire year for defense industries or defense-supporting activities may come to $3,500,000,000.

The loans for defense or defense-supporting purposes represent two-thirds of all loans made in the first six months by the life companies to business and industrial concerns,
 and the ratio has been increasing since mid-year.

Contrary To Superstition, Oysters Edible Year-Round

Contrary to superstition, oysters are edible in all 12 months. Hot-weather shipping problems helped to build the R-month legend. The taboo remains appropriate even with modern refrigerated transportation, however, since May to August is the natural spawning season. The adult female oyster's feat of discharging as many as a half-billion eggs in this season leaves her a bit too thinned down for prime succulence.

Shad were surpassed only by cod
 and salmon among U.S. commercial fisheries before the turn of the century. Overfishing, industrial pollution, and high dams barring the way to upstream spawning grounds have forced shad far down on the list now. Although the Chesapeake Bay still accounts for one fish out of three, the total catch is less than one-fifth that of 19th century peak seasons.

Crabs, alewives, rockfish, croak-ers, sea trout, and menhaden all figure importantly in Chesapeake Bay commerce. Like oysters and shad, they are studied for rehabilitation purposes by such organizations as the Chesapeake Biological Laboratory at Solomons, Maryland,
 and the Chesapeake Bay Institute, Baltimore.

Pearls and Pipelines

Iranian nationalists have laid verbal claim to Bahrein, oil-rich island across the Persian Gulf
 where Arabian dhows put in bearing huge milky pearls from the sea floor. Persia has been claiming Bahrein without avail since 1783, however. An independent sheikdom under British protection, Bahrein is the site of an American oil field and refinery. Saudi Arabia's oil wells were joined with the Mediterranean coast in 1950 by the competition of Tapline, a 1,068-mile, 30-inch pipeline across the burning Arabian desert. American and British engineers proposed to build next an even bigger "Middle East Inch" (34-36 inches in diameter)
 from Abadan to the Mediterranean.
 Iran's oil would thus be linked by a tunnel of steel with the Western world—if the hot desert wind from Tehran does not blow the project away.

Turbans

In a survey of "fashions down through the ages," made by The Book House For Children the turban was found to be a favorite head covering of many ancient peoples,
 among them, the Armenians, Babylonians, and Phoenicians. Today's favorites include variations of the cloche, beret, and "beanie," a small disc of felt or straw that is anchored to the head, usually with hatpin or veiling.

Color Blindness

Most common in color blindness
 is the confusion of red and green, which may affect as many as 80
 men and 5 women per thousand population. One person out of several thousand has trouble with yellows and blues. Very rare is complete color-blindness, in which everything is seen as black, gray and white. Not more than a hundred such cases have been reported in the scientific literature. Even a partially color-blind person usually learns to name colors properly a great deal of the time. For example, one with red-green deficiency may learn by experience that what he sees as dull dark yellow is really red, while a light yellowish-gray is what other people call green.

HELLO, FOLKS:

Now that the 4th of July and accompanying holiday headaches have subsided, let's talk about the items your car, truck, tractor and other farming equipment is going to need to keep it in tip-top condition.

Did you know that there is a Union Oil lubricant for every need — from Royal Triton Motor Oil to track lubricant? Well, there is, and we have it. Phone 1251, tell us what you need, and we'll deliver it. And don't forget Union 76 or 7600 Gasoline — the finest!

O'Leary's wife woke in the middle of the night to hear her husband prowling about the kitchen. "What might ye be lookin' for, darlin'?" she called out. "Nothin'," called back O'Leary. "Oh," said his wife cheerfully,

"then ye'll find it in the bottle where the whiskey used to be!"

Don't wait until harvest hauling days are here to prepare. Come in and talk over your truck tire problems with us. We'll make you a wonderful deal on those husky, long-wearing U. S. tires.

Hem: "I hear you advertised for a wife. Any replies?"
Haw: "Hundreds of them!"
Hem: "What did they say?"
Haw: "Most of them said: 'You can have mine!'"

Remember: When you come in here for service you get it — including a windshield wash and tire check! Try us, won't you?

Phone 1251 for Union Diesel fuel or Stove Oil. It's tops!
