Bonds Go Down To Defeat!

The proposed school district bonds went down to overwhelming defeat last Thursday afternoon by a vote of 234 against 200 in favor -- and a two-thirds majority was required to carry.

In this district there were approximately 700 real property owners eligible to vote, and of this number only 434 voted. This failure to vote would seem to indicate an "I don't care" attitude, but does not give a really definite opinion from all the voters, but rather of those interested.

At this time there is available no official comment from Supt. Robt. Meserve, or any member of the board of trustees.

CECIL BABCOCK, BIG BEAR RIDGE PIONEER, PASSES ON

Cecil Babcock, Juliaetta, but formerly of Kendrick, passed away Friday July 23, at Moscow, following a heart attack. He had been under a doctor's care in that city.

Cecil Babcock was born on Big Bear ridge, April 9, 1909, and spent his life in and around that community. As a young man he followed logging and woods work, and in a woods accident lost a leg. Following this loss Mr. Babcock went to Palouse, Wash., where he learned shoe repair work, and later came to Kendrick where he established a shoe repair shop, operating it here for a number of years. Last spring he moved his shop to Juliaetta, continuing to operate it there.

Mr. Babcock suffered a heart attack some two years or more ago, and had been in poor health since that time. However, his sudden passing came as a shock to those who knew him.

Survivors are his wife, Fern, of Juliaetta; a brother, Glen, of Great Falls, Mont.; one sister, Ruth Pierce of Martinez, Calif., and a host of uncles, aunts and cousins.

Funeral services were held at the Wild Rose chapel, Big Bear ridge, Sunday afternoon, July 25, with the Rev. Wesley Nelson of the Moscow Assembly of God church officiating. Mrs. Agar Swan, soloist, sang "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Since Jesus Came Into My Heart," accompanied at the organ by Miss Arlene Nelson. Pallbearers were Archie Garner, Ward Helton, Martin Pierce, Roy Glenn, Herb Weber and Bob Clemenhagen, all old-time friends of the deceased.

The well-filled chapel and the host of beautiful floral offerings gave testimony to the high esteem in which Mr. Babcock was held. He was a man who had a friendly word and a smile for everyone.

Col. Blewett Awarded Bronze Star

U. of I., Moscow -- Lt. Col. Aaron E. Blewett, a graduate of the University of Idaho and later professor of military science and tactics here, has been awarded the Bronze Star medal for meritorious service in Korea, according to word received at Moscow last week. A native of the Culesac and Kendrick sections, Colonel Blewett was graduated from the University in 1939 with a bachelor of science degree in agriculture. He taught military science and tactics here prior to assuming command of the first battalion, 14th infantry regiment, at Seoul last September.

Blewett's citation read in part: "Throughout this period of exemplary service, Col. Blewett distinguished himself by his outstanding performance of duty in the position of battalion commander. Displaying a great devotion to duty, Col. Blewett unselfishly gave his time and energy toward insuring that the personnel and equipment within his battalion were utilized to the greatest possible degree."

"His tireless efforts were reflected in the high level of esprit de corps which he, through his example, was able to instill within his unit. His conscientious efforts were further rewarded through the development of an effective training program which qualified his unit for any mission. Col. Blewett spent much of his time in the field where through knowledge of field operations, tact and understanding, and his great personal interest in the welfare of his men won for him the deepest respect and admiration of all with whom he served."

Remodeling City Hall

Sun Hatches Eggs

Ed. Groseclose of Arrow recently had a hen which sat on her eggs for two weeks, then apparently grew tired of the job and abandoned nest and eggs. A few days later Mr. Groseclose was cleaning the nest and broke one of the eggs, to find a live baby chick. So he placed the remaining eggs under another hen, and a few days later there were seven more baby chicks. This goes to prove the late heat wave is good for something besides curing hay. We've heard of eggs being fried in the sun, but never before of being hatched by the sun.

Mr. Cyr, affectionately known as "Frenchy," had been employed at the Mead Lumber Products Co., Juliaetta, and later by Mead & Howard, for the past five years as a watchman, and was popular with all who knew him. Prior to his coming to this area he had lived and worked around Missoula, Mont.

Mr. Cyr, 75 years, was born July 1, 1877, at Mada Waska, Maine. The only known survivors are two sisters, Mrs. Elsie Lavesque, Lewistown, Maine, Mrs. Emphie Lavesque of Waterville, Maine, and a niece, Miss Madeleine Cyr, Lewistown, Maine.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, July 24, at the Juliaetta Methodist church, with Rev. F. C. Schmidt officiating.

Mrs. Dennis Racicot, soloist, sang "Sunrise," and "Beyond Earth's Sorrows," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. M. C. Halliday.

Harvest Has Begun!

It seems rather early, considering the late, damp spring, but harvest is already underway.

Arthur James brought in the first load of wheat to the Lewiston Grain Growers on Tuesday of this week. It is of excellent quality and the yield said to be good.

From the Kendrick Rochdale Co. W. A. Watts reports white winter barley is coming in from the Gordon Peters ranch, it is of superior quality with the yield heavy. Hugh Parks, who lives at Stony Point brought in the first load of wheat. This is a bit early as most wheat is not yet ready. Mr. Watts urges the farmers to wait until their grain is really ripe, as too much moisture brings a heavy dock.

Ben Westendahl says that ample storage is available. A few cars of grain yet remain to move, but by the time general hauling starts there will be lots of storage space. He urges the farmers to wait until the grain is ripe before cutting.

General harvesting of white barley should begin this week.

Swim Meet And Band Concert

Monday, August 2, promises to be a big day at the Living War Memorial Swimming Pool in the Kendrick park. At 2:15 in the afternoon a swimming meet starts off the activities. All youngsters are asked to register as soon as possible for the different events. This swimming meet, the first such event to take place in the local pool, climaxes the course of swimming lessons, and gives an opportunity for supervised competition among the youngsters.

Next on the program is a summer band concert, scheduled at 7:15 in the local park. Following this, an aquatic show will be presented at the pool.

The program for the band follows: "Mockingbird Hill," "Deep River Rhapsody," "Stormy Weather" and several marches.

George Poulos, life guard, has made all arrangements for this special entertainment and invites parents and friends to come out and see what the youngsters can do. Not only has Mr. Poulos had charge of the pool this summer but has initiated a weekly band practice for summer band — to keep up interest in the music program and also bring in former band members who have graduated from school. The band concert thus made possible will be a treat for all music lovers.

The pool will be closed on Tuesday, Aug. 3, instead of Monday, Aug. 2, since the activities of the swimming meet and show will be on the day it is regularly closed.

Foresee Billion Barrels Jet Fuel from Oil Shale

Jet engine fuel by the billions of barrels can be produced from the Green river oil shale formation in northwestern Colorado, Dr. J. D. Lankford, acting chief, of the United States bureau of mines oil-shale demonstration plant in Rifle, Colo., reports.

Low cost oil shale mining already has been found feasible, Dr. Lankford says, and he predicts that the present trickle of 100 to 300 barrels of gasoline and Diesel fuel from the formation will become a mighty torrent as techniques improve.

"It is estimated that 88 volume per cent of the crude shale oil could be converted into a hydrogenated product containing a premium Diesel oil and a high-quality jet fuel practically free of sulfur, oxygen and nitrogen compounds," Dr. Lankford stated. "If desired, the hydrogenated material could be converted easily to gasoline by standard petroleum refining processes."

"The United States bureau of mines oil-shale demonstration plant at Rifle, Colo., is engaged in an integrated research and experimental program to point the way toward the development of a tremendous natural resource, oil shale, for possible wartime emergency and for the ultimate peacetime production of liquid fuels by private industry."

"Billions of barrels of liquid fuels are potentially available from the oil shale of the Green river formation of northwestern Colorado. Research and development work will be necessary over an extended period of time to bring this great natural resource to the stage where utilization will be possible."

Pocket Radiation Indicator Developed for Average Man

An accurate pocket-size radiation indicator, so simple that the man on the street can learn to read it after a few minutes instruction, has been developed at the atomic energy project on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California.

The device was developed by Dr. George V. Taplin and Clayton Douglas of the U.C.L.A. medical school's atomic energy medical research staff.

It measures radioactivity by a color change of chemical solutions in small vials. The chemicals are inexpensive, and it is estimated that the instrument could be produced on a large scale very cheaply.

The vials fit into a compact case about the size of a pack of paper matches, which could be worn around the neck like G.I. dog tags. They also could be adapted to a pencil-like container for the pocket.

The new radiation indicator was specifically designed to measure large doses of gamma and X-rays immediately after an atomic blast.

It also lends itself to the development of important peacetime applications, says Dr. Taplin. For example, it could be useful in the calibration of such radiation equipment as fluoroscopes and X-ray machines. It might be used to measure radiation from radio iodine absorbed by the thyroid gland in treatment of hyperthyroidism.

Origin of April's Fool

It was the habit of observing July as the beginning of the year that is said to have started the whole idea of All Fools' Day. From its reputed origin in France, it quickly spread to other countries. We have such varied terms as the English "noddies, gawbles and April gobs," the French "April Fish," and the Scottish "April Gowks." While there are other theories about April Fool's day, the calendar story located by research librarians with Childcraft seems that when King Charles XI of France adopted the reform calendar in 1564, many Frenchmen refused to go along with the new January 1 New Year's. When they continued to celebrate on July 1, they were made the butt of countless jokes—receiving mock party invitations, fake gifts, and pretended ceremonious visits of congratulation.

United Nation's Building

Along the banks of East river on the Island of Manhattan between 42nd and 48th streets the Secretariat building of the United Nations is towering to the sky as workmen are rushing it to completion so that it can be occupied before the end of the present year. The structure will be 39 stories high. It is one of four units that will complete the headquarters as a "workshop for world peace." Contracts for the other three units have not yet been let but it is believed they will be completed during 1951.

Suggestion for Farmers

The average farmer spends 50 per cent of his time around the farmstead. This can be materially reduced by piping water to the point of use rather than carrying it. For example, consider what carrying water to a flock of laying hens involves. If the water point is 60 yards from the hen house, as it is on many farms, the farmer will carry approximately 10 tons of water a distance of 25 miles per 100 hens per year in addition to walking another 25 miles to the water point.

Water Supply Vital In Farm Fire Control Annual Damage Amounts To Over $100 Million

Recently a New Jersey farmer's barn was set afire by lightning, and despite the efforts of three fire departments from nearby villages, the barn was a complete loss.

Two factors combined to defeat the firemen. There was a delay in notifying the fire department because the fire wasn't immediately noticed. There wasn't a good supply of water near the barn from which the pumpers could draw.

These conditions are common to most properties in rural or small town areas. If rural residents can find means to correct them, they will go a long way toward reducing the large number of "total losses" that occur on farm properties, causing damage amounting to $100,000,000 a year and taking the lives of 3,500 farm residents.

No water. There is not much these firemen could do to save the barn without an adequate water supply.

In spite of efforts on the part of county agents, farm groups, insurance men, and volunteer fire departments to encourage the building of farm ponds, there still are thousands of farms in all parts of the country with inadequate water supplies.

The easiest way to provide adequate water is to dam a brook, or deepen an existing marsh or water hole near the barn. Or a farmer may be able to bulldoze a suitable pond near his buildings. For proper drainage, the pond should be laid out with surveying instruments.

'Sound of Corn Growing' Recorded by Professor

Probably every farmer in the United States at one time or another has heard the old saw "it's so hot you can almost hear the corn growing." Now, seven men, including three University of Wisconsin experts, have joined the ranks of believers.

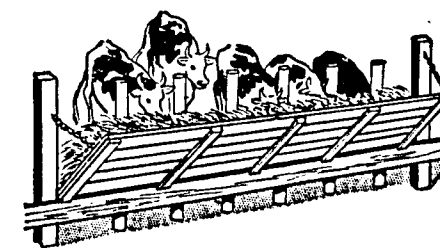

They have a tape recording of what they describe as corn growing. Herbert Jacobs, telegraph and farm news editor of the Madison Capital Times, thought up the idea. With the aid of Wisconsin U. experts the experiment was conducted in a 100-acre stand of university raised corn.

Recording equipment was carried 500 feet into the field. Microphones were carried deep into the corn rows. There was no wind or other noises to complicate the recording, the experimenter reported.

When the experiment was over and the recording played, Verner E. Suomi, associate professor of meteorology at the school, said, "When background noises subsided, you could hear that corn growing."

Farm experts report corn makes 80 per cent of its growth during night-time and will grow as much as two to five inches in one night.

Hinged Fence

Here is an idea a number of midwest farmers might use in their feed lots. Hinged at the bottom and held in position by chains, a section of fence is lowered to form a manger. It can be raised when not in use to become again part of the fence. Posts should be set along the length of the manger as illustrated.

Farm Land Prices Up Sharply in Nebraska

Farm land dollar values in Nebraska have increased 124 per cent since 1939, according to figures of the bureau of agricultural economics. In the west north central region of the country, of which Nebraska is a part, prices have increased 3 per cent during the four months ending in July. This despite the usual seasonal reduction in farm real estate activity and a downturn in farm products.

Squirrel Provides Big Part Of Nation's Yearly Game Bag

Although it is generally recognized as a prolific game species of extensive range, comparatively few people realize the truly important part the squirrel plays in the nation's game bag.

Several years ago the Remington Arms Company, Inc., conducted a survey of national wildlife resources and sportsmen's hunting preferences. The survey revealed that the squirrel ranked second only to the rabbit as the most sought-after game species in the country.

A recent analysis of "Hunters' Scorecards" returned to the office of the Mississippi Game and Fish commission placed the squirrel in an outstanding position in the hunting activities of the sportsmen of the Magnolia state. The analysis brings to light the fact that 79 per cent or 150,000 of the licensed hunters in Mississippi sought squirrel during the 1950-51 hunting season. The cotton-tail rabbit and the Bob White quail practically tied for second high rank, with the rabbit nosing out the quail by the slight margin of 47.15% to 47.12%. Next in line was the lowly 'possum with the somewhat surprising score of 23.06%, topping the dove's rating of 21.58%.

A breakdown of the analysis in hunting activity percentage and estimated total statewide kill follows: deer 6%, 1,370; wild turkeys 1.35%, 249; quail 47.12%, 2,119,532; squirrel 79.83%, 2,418,574; rabbit 47.15%, 900,360; coon 16.2%, 208,712; 'possum 23.06%, 386,145; dove 21.58%, 522,876; ducks 8.97%, 182,217.

Patients On Salt-Free Diet Given Hope for Meal Variety

Patients on a monotonous salt-free diet were given the hope of adding more variety to their meals in two reports on further experiments in the recently developed exchange resin therapy. Exchange resin compounds have been administered to patients having congestive heart failure, cirrhosis of the liver, or kidney ailments which cause excessive fluids to collect in the system. The resin compounds eliminate the sodium which locks in the fluids. Because of this action, it becomes possible for the patient to take more sodium in his diet than would otherwise be possible.

In a report on resin therapy presented by Drs. Carl Voyles, Jr. and Edward S. Orgain, Duke University School of Medicine, Durham, N. C., it was concluded that, "Resin therapy is a useful adjunct to conventional therapy in the management of chronic congestive heart failure, and it can be used safely in conjunction with strict sodium restriction in patients who are followed closely. Resin therapy also makes possible the addition of sodium chloride in amounts sufficient to render the diet more palatable," the report added, and it facilitates the action of mercurial compounds that help in fluid elimination.

The second report on exchange resin therapy reviewed studies by Drs. B. L. Martz, K. G. Kohlstadt, and O. M. Helmer, at the Lilly Clinic for Cardiovascular Research, Indianapolis.

Sleep Anywhere

One of the most energetic causes of sleep is fatigue. It is said that prisoners upon the rack have slept through sheer exhaustion while undergoing the horrors of torture. In a like manner, if one is tired enough he will be able to sleep on the floor or on any manner of uncomfortable bed, although he will not thoroughly relax. To the person who has known the luxury of sleeping on a good quality bed, though, sleeping on a worn out, sagging mattress and spring is almost as much torture as going to sleep on a prisoner's rack.

War and Peace

Development of the flame thrower, which first became a military weapon during World War II and has been used extensively by the Army in Korea, led to the peacetime perfection of a highly proficient weed killer. Tests at the Army Chemical Corps Center, at Edgewood, Maryland, proved that a thin jet of burning, jellied gasoline would kill weeds between rows of plants without harming the plants themselves.

Deciding Issue

If it had not been for the magic of the name "George Washington" the fabulous Phineas T. Barnum may have lived out his life in obscurity as a poor country storekeeper. One day, the man who was to become known as "the greatest showman on earth" heard an interesting story of a remarkable Negro woman, Joice Heth, who claimed to be 161 years old. When he went to see her, purely out of curiosity, she asserted that she had been the nurse of George Washington. Barnum became so excited upon discovery of documentary evidence to back up her claims, he decided to sell his store and exhibit the strange old woman in the east. The tour proved so successful, and stirred up so much interest, he was inspired to engage in other similar ventures. Finally, he formed the partnership with James A. Bailey, out of which grew the most famous circus in America.

A Matter of Taste

WHOLE WHEAT flour, stone-ground at a century old New England gristmill in the way of a forgotten age, is prime ingredient in an old-fashioned bread-making recipe used by bakeries of Pepperidge Farm. Process is streamlined version of Grandma's methods.

OLD WHEEL that turns by water power is characteristic of mill where burrstones turn slowly and crush grain. Flour retains the live wheat germ.

BECAUSE ever-increasing numbers have developed liking for the bread made as it was in bygone days, plants bake 3,000 loaves hourly. It is sped to food markets by a fleet of International trucks.

A man is usually known by "the company he keeps away from." Shop at Blewett's Grocery Market, Kendrick, for all kinds of fresh and fresh-frozen fruits and vegetables, fish and fowl. Serve yourself and save. 1-adv

Step-Ramp Loading Chutes Are Safest
Many Livestock Yards
Are Remodeling Ramps

Livestock markets across the nation are continuing in their program of modernization and the installation of step-ramp chutes to replace old wooden chutes that cause great damage to animals.

Cattle prefer steps to the old-style cleats. Many animals are injured and much meat lost from bruising due to the constant prodding necessary to get the animals up and down the old ramps, cattlemen have reported.

The Chicago stock yards recently opened 12 of the modern step-ramp chutes. Of concrete and steel construction, the new chutes are designed to ease the task of unloading stock, and insure safe and efficient operations. Galvanized steel fencing and grates add to the safety features of the dock area.

Waffle-grid concrete floorings provide safe footing for animals during the penning process.

The first truck to unload over the ramps brought 24 head of Hereford and Angus steers shipped by Carroll Snola of Onslow, Ia.

Cracked Corn Found Best Feed for Suckling Lambs

Tests made at the University of Kentucky experiment station indicate cracked yellow shelled corn is the cheapest and best ration for the creep-feeding of suckling lambs.

Experiments carried on over a period of nine years compared cracked yellow corn with mixtures of feeds. These included cracked corn, crushed oats and pea-sized linseed oilmeal; cracked corn and commercial milk substitute, and a third ration composed of "sweet feed" made of corn, oats, bran, linseed oilmeal, molasses and salt.

The experiment was conducted under the most controlled conditions possible, Kentucky educators reported.

The conclusion of the experiment-ers: "None of the three more costly mixtures showed any consistent or significant superiority to corn alone in rate of gain, efficiency of gain or market finish of the lambs."

The experiments were not designed to answer the question of whether creep-feeding pays, but rather to determine what rations are best for creep-feeding under Kentucky conditions.

Baler

This automatic baler is a good example of how machinery is saving manhours on the farm. The baler can package a ton of hay in less than half the time needed by hand methods. With only the tractor driver in the field, this machine automatically picks up hay, slices it, presses it into compact packages and then ties the bale with two strands of twine. Further information is available at local machinery dealers or in the local hardware stores.

Rice Is Most Important Food in the World Today

Although most Americans believe the statement exaggerated, rice is the most important food crop in the world today. It is the basic food of more than half of the world's population. In recent years the cultivation of rice has increased in this country, but in Asia it is the important crop because it is virtually the only food millions of people have—their means of sustaining

PLAN "A" This is the tremendously popular Hospital, Surgical and Nursing Plan. It now protects thousands and thousands of individuals and families. If you and your family are not protected under this Plan you may now learn how it may be available to you if you qualify.

PLAN "B" This is the Plan that pays towards Doctor Bills in the home, at the doctor's office, in a clinic, in a hospital — in fact anywhere. It covers sickness, accident and delivery charge for childbirth. The benefits for doctor bills, operations and nursing will give added protection to the National Benefit Hospital, Surgical and Nursing Plan or to any other plan of protection.

County-Wide Program

We Are Pledged to Interview All County Residents. The National Benefit Plans of Protection Will be Explained to Individuals and Families . . .

During the time necessary to contact all county residents, representatives will be interviewing individuals and families. The National Benefit Plans of Protection will be explained by fully qualified, specially trained representatives. They are pledged to contact all residents and to make the plans available to all who qualify.

A FEW MINUTES TIME IS ALL THAT IS NEEDED

Just a few minutes of your time is need for you to receive a full explanation of the Plans. The representative who calls on you will arrange a time that is convenient for you to receive full information.

INCOME PROTECTION: Ask the representative who calls on you about the National Benefit Income Protector Plans that give you a monthly pay check when you are sick or injured.

HERE ARE A FEW REASONS WHY IT IS IMPORTANT FOR YOU TO HEAR A FULL EXPLANATION OF THE NATIONAL BENEFIT PLANS:

- * They Are a Safeguard Against Government Control of Hospitals and Doctors:
Socialized medicine is unnecessary for you when you and your family are protected under National Benefit Plans.
- * Hospital and Medical Care Has Become Tremendously Expensive:
If you or a member of your family has been recently hospitalized and has had expensive medical or surgical care you know the importance of a National Benefit Plan to prepay the cost of this necessary but expensive care.
- * One Person Out of Every Two Families Will Be a Hospital Patient This Year:
The advanced medical techniques and the ultra modern Hospital facilities are being used now more than ever to safeguard health and prolong life. If you or a member of your family takes sick or meets with an accident you, too, may become a hospital patient. And 6 of every 10 hospital patients require expensive surgical operations
- * You May Prepay Expensive Hospital, Surgical, Medical and Nursing Care at Low Cost:
National Benefit Plans of Protection are low in cost. You will be surprised at the small monthly deposits to keep them in force to protect you and your family.

IF YOU ALREADY HAVE A PLAN, HAVE YOU ENOUGH PROTECTION?

You possibly now have a National Benefit Hospital and Surgical Plan, or you may have some other Plan, or be protected through your employment in a Group Plan of some kind. GET A MEDICAL PLAN, TOO!

REMEMBER: National Benefit pays benefits direct to you, or to the hospital or doctor as you direct. Benefits are NEVER prorated or reduced on account of any other protection you may have or any payments you receive from any other source. A low cost National Benefit Plan will give you the protection you need.

THE Bull itin

Published Weekly by the Union Oil Service at Kendrick
W. L. "Bill" Rogers, Editor

HELLO, FOLKS:

Well, here it is the "good old summer time" again, and harvest drawing ever nearer. Are you ready? Does your car, truck, pickup, or combine have good tires and is it ready to go? Are your diesel and gasoline tanks filled? Have you an ample supply of lubricants of all kinds and motor oils on hand? — If not, call or come in and talk it over. We deliver!

A fellow was pretty sick and the doctor ordered him to take a long vacation in Arizona. He went there and at the end of two months he died. They brought the corps back to "smoggy" Los Angeles, and his wife and brother were viewing the remains. She said: "Oh, Joe, doesn't he look nice?"
Replied Joe: "He sure does. Two months in Arizona did him a world of good."

Going on a vacation? Let us grease, wash and polish your car before you go. We completely vacuum the inside, too, at no extra cost.

He: "Darling, haven't I always given you my pay check the first of every month?"
She: "Yes, but you never told me you got paid twice a month — you low-down, unprincipled embezzler!"

Have you seen the new U. S. "Royal 8" Tires — an entirely new tire — built to take it!

Heard in local store: "I can't understand it, a 98c item and she's so particular. Look what she selected for a husband!"
