INTERESTING NEWS NOTES FROM THE SOUTHWICK AREA

Attend Coeur d'Alene Convention

Mrs. Virginia Cantril, Mrs. Mary Lawrence, Mrs. Marie Kuykendall, Mrs. Joyce Marvin and Alma Betts attended the Home Demonstration Club convention at Coeur d'Alene last Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Cantril and Mrs. Marvin were hostesses at the luncheon served on Friday at Phil's restaurant, and Mrs. Kuykendall was secretary for the convention. They report a very successful and happy time.

Mrs. Mary Lawrence did not return home with the others, as her daughter, Joan, met her at Coeur d'Alene, and she returned to Spokane with her for a few days' visit.

Rally Day

A very successful and happy rally day was held at the Southwick Community church last Sunday. A delightful program was given by the children, which featured a violin and vocal duet by Mrs. Martin Swinney and Mrs. Rollin Armitage, accompanied by Mrs. Ervin Fry at the piano. We are glad our pastor's wife can play the violin, and hope to hear her again.

The morning program was followed with a sermon by Rev. Swinney, and the pot-luck dinner served at 1:00 o'clock was greatly enjoyed by all.

In the afternoon another meeting of song and sermon was held. There was only one link in the chain of church membership broken, and that due to illness — so it was a very good and enlightening meeting.

Homemakers Club

The Southwick Homemakers Club did very well with their booth Sales Day at Kendrick. They wish to thank Mr. Medalen and all who patronized them.

Our meeting this week will be held at the home of Viola Martin, and will honor "Holland."

News is scarce this week. Many are on hunting trips, many are busy in the fields — and many attended the Rally Day here Sunday — so were not away.

SALES DAY SUCCESSFUL; WEATHER AND CROWD GOOD

Kendrick's Annual Sales Day, sponsored this year by the Kendrick Community Lions Club, proved to be a most pleasant and profitable one — at least so far as "booth sales" were concerned.

At the public auction Roy Glenn says that the volume changing hands was below that of last year, but the quality of goods offered for sale a good deal higher, and bidding was brisk.

There were two rummage sales going on, several cooked food sales, several lunch serving projects, and other booths — and all of these report a very satisfactory trade.

Merchants report "a good day," but with volume below that of previous Sales Days — adding that shoppers seemed particularly interested in the savings made possible on "Sales Day" Specials.

Skies were cloudless and the temperature comfortably warm. As a result the sports program was very well attended — and the Kendrick Theater also saw a capacity crowd at their special Sales Day Matinee.

Owing to the lateness of the season flower and other exhibits were far below those of previous years, not only in number but in quality — but even so, they made a most attractive display.

Attendance was considerably below that of last year, due to many reasons, chief of which was farmers working in the fields and gone on hunting trips — and who would stay home from a hunting trip to attend Sales Day?

The day concluded with a public dance sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of the V. F. W. This latter saw an almost capacity crowd at the Kendrick gymnasium.

Sales Day prizes were won by the following:

Largest Bliss Triumph, Mrs. Wm. Bamberly, first, Gary Craig, second; Netted Gem: Mrs. Femrite, first; Mrs. Cecil Chamberlain, second.

Largest cucumber: John Darby, first; Mrs. Kuykendall, second.

Largest Beet: Reinhart Schroeder, first; Wm. Riley, second.

Largest turnip: Gary Craig, first; no second.

Largest squash: Douglas Johns, first; John Darby, second.

Largest rooster: Danny Westendahl, first; Freddie Foster, second.

Largest rabbit: Richard Rogers.

Fall Flowers: Mrs. Nora Callison first; Mrs. Alex Larson, second.

Roses: Mrs. W. L. McCreary, first; Margo Wilkes, second.

Asters: Mrs. Hugh Parks, first; Mrs. Nora Callison, second.

Glads: Mrs. Chas. Hoffman, first; Mrs. Alex Larson, second.

Dahlias: Mrs. Eula Johnson, first; Mrs. Chas. Hoffman, second.

There were quite a number of entries in classifications for which no prizes were offered — but these added to the number and spread of the displays, which increased the exhibits. The committee in charge for the Lions Club wishes to thank these exhibitors for their thoughtfulness and trouble.

Joint District P.-T. A.

Joint District No. 283 P.-T. A. will meet Monday evening, October 18, at Bear Ridge at 8:00 o'clock. Fall work is easing off and we would like to see a big attendance.

The program was planned this year to accommodate the various vicinities of the district — so let's all go and meet and visit with our outlying neighbors. Let's try to make our P.-T. A. a bigger and better this year than it has ever been.

— Mrs. Russell Perkins, President

No Word Of John McDonald

Despite rumors and counter rumors those in the know — Rudy Nelson and Dick Cuddy, say that no word as to the whereabouts of John (Mac) McDonald, who disappeared from here some three weeks ago, has been received to date.

We understand that all law enforcement officers in the Northwest have been asked to help, but to date nothing has been learned.

There are many who believe that he will never be heard of again, as there is a very good possibility someone, in the mistaken belief that he carried considerable money, might have done away with him — the Clearwater river still holding many mysteries.

SHORT NEWS ITEMS FROM OUR LOCAL SCHOOLHOUSE

National Assemblies Program

Last Monday afternoon Richard Carradine and Joyce Kangas, a husband and wife team, sponsored by National School Assemblies presented scenes from "Romeo and Juliet" to the Junior and Senior High school students. So that all would understand, they would recite a line in the Shakespearean English and then explain what it meant in today's English. It was an educational and entertaining program and greatly appreciated by most of the students present.

This was the first of the series of National School Assembly programs scheduled to come to this area this year. The next program, "The Talking Mynah Birds" will be presented on October 25th.

Lockers Arrive

Fifteen new hall lockers for the Senior High school students arrived last week and have been put to good use. This makes a total of 30 of these lockers accommodating 60 students. The Student Body purchased the first 15 last year, and the School District bought the last 15. Their advantages are readily apparent — for since the first ones were put into use last year there has not been nearly so many lost lunches, lost books, lost coats, etc.

Students "Shot"

The Latah County Health Nurse has been giving Schick Tests and smallpox and diphtheria vaccinations in our schools the past week. This service is available free of charge to everyone and is part of the program that has practically stamped out these dread diseases.

No Bids

There were no bids submitted for the remodeling of the Southwick gym when the school board met last Wednesday night. It was then agreed to re-advertise for this work with no charge being made for the plans this time.

If no bids are received from this, and one more advertisement, then the School Board can apply to the State Board of Education for permission to hire this work done by the hour.

In the meantime the inside of the building is going to be sealed with Celotex in an attempt to keep out part of the cold and wind.

Kendrick Defeats Weippe

Kendrick boomed to a 19-6 lead after the opening quarter and went on to a 53-32 conquest of Weippe in the Second District Eight-Man League high school football Friday — with the game played under the lights on the local field.

Milo Teed's tally put Weippe ahead at the start, but Jim Armitage of Kendrick scored three straight times — on a 60-yard smash, to offset that advantage.

Roger Christensen scored twice for Kendrick, one a kick-off return. John Merrick also returned a Weippe kick-off, going 99 yards, and he tallied two other times. Jim Armitage ended the slaughter with another gallop across the Weippe goal line.

Clarence Cooper and Dale Cockell each scored twice for Weippe.

After a week of the most glorious fall weather anyone could wish, the warmth and sunshine came to an end Monday with a bang — when a chill wind and rain hit the region.

Wind gusts of up to 50 miles an hour were reported on top the hills, and here in the canyon many trees were literally stripped of their leaves by the "breeze."

Previous to the wind storm, color ran riot on the canyon sides, with bright red sumach, yellow cottonwood and poplar leaves and bright green conifers uniting to form a most gorgeous color panorama.

Bill Bamberg, local village custodian says that the old saying, "A woman's work is never done," should also apply to keeping Kendrick clean.

He cleaned the streets in town in preparation for Sales Day — and a very neat job it was, too. Then — along came the heavy frost and the wind of Monday — and now the streets and park are a mass of dead leaves — and Bill has another big job ahead of him!

Apply Seal Coating To Road
A state oiling crew, assisted by Clarence Perryman and Ed. Brown of the local state crew, seal coated and chipped the road east of town from the end of the new section at the Roy Glenn home to the "Deary-Oro-fino Y".

More was scheduled to be treated but will have to await the coming of warmer weather, as it is too chill for the oil to "bleed" properly.

Rejects Public Power
The people of Union County rejected a proposal for the purchase by their public utility, district of the California-Pacific Utilities Company power facilities there by a vote of 2,601 to 2,209 at the May primary, after a vigorous campaign by both sides. The public power people claimed their opponents had misrepresented the issues and petitioned for a second election. After another vigorous campaign the people voted again Friday of last week and the public power proposal lost by a larger majority than before in a heavier vote than before, 2,833 to 2,226. Leaders of the PUD, who were quoted by the La Grande newspaper the following day accepted the result as final. One said: "We've been beaten. It was very decisive and as far as I am concerned that's all there is." The district attorney was quoted as saying: "My suggestion to the directors will be to terminate the affairs of the district as soon as possible."

The district was created by vote of the people a good many years ago. At that time the majority were evidently in favor of public power. Considerable money has been spent in operating outlays and planning in the years since, which is now lost because a majority is now against the purchase of the privately owned power facilities. Now the Union County PUD has decided to give up the ghost by placing the question of dissolution of the district on the November ballot.

Union County was one of the most favorable areas to public power in the state and the vote there strongly suggests that not in very many localities would a proposal for locally owned public power carry at the present time. — Salem (Ore) Capital Journal.

Still Likes Rice
U. of I. — A woman who had a steady diet of rice for three years is still "crazy about it" today. "I still like rice, even better than potatoes," said Patsy Lou Robinson, University of Idaho student from Triumph Mines, who was interned with her family for three years in a Japanese internment camp during World War II. "Our diet consisted mainly of rice, bean sprouts and an occasional small piece of meat," said the freshman coed, who was 6 to 8 while in prison.

Patsy's father, L. M. Robinson, manager of the Triumph Mines near Sun Valley, held a similar position with the Itoigen mine near Baguio in the Philippines when the Japanese invaded the islands. He hid his family at a sawmill until the Japanese forced them out and into captivity. Patsy likes rice for more reasons than one. Her mother used soft rice as glue in making paper doll house furniture for Patsy's Christmas presents. The Idaho coed explained that their captors allowed homemade Christmas presents, Christmas pageants, wedding parties and weekly talent shows in the camp.

A post-war impression of Patsy's early life in the states was listening to American people complain about rationing and other limitations of the war. "It was difficult to listen to the people at home describe their 'hardships,'" she said.

The internment camp where Patsy lived for three years was a family camp. "Almost everyone in the camp was a college graduate," she said, "mostly mining executives, missionaries, doctors and dentists." She added that her early education didn't suffer because she attended school in camp — taught by these university-trained people.

A graduate of Hailley high school, Patsy is majoring in music education at the University of Idaho, specializing in piano and voice. She has already earned a birth with the Vandaleers, well-known university choral group.

Farm Wives Can Help

The census bureau takes stock in the saying: "Never underestimate the power of a woman."

Farm wives are relied upon to make the census this fall accurate and as rapid as possible, according to word received this week by the county agent's office from division census directors.

Women are invited to put down the answers to some of the questions and to assist their husbands in looking up the answers to a lot more.

Sections of the questionnaire that has been mailed to all farmers this month (October) are of special interest to women. They deal with such things as telephones, water supply, electricity, television, and household appliances. Another division deals with labor hired and work members of the family may have done to help the head of the household. Sometimes the information the women have is more accurate than that of the men.

Competition . . . leads to the world's best service

The world's first service station was opened by Standard Oil Company of California in Seattle, Washington, in 1907, two years after cars came to the Pacific Coast. Pioneer motorists, tired of wrestling 5-gallon cans to fill their tanks, flocked to this convenient gasoline station. Other suppliers saw the point . . . service stations soon sprang up all over and the competition to serve you better began.

Look how it is today! Here are just a few of the services you now find at Independent Chevron Stations and Standard Stations. We originated many of them in competing with hundreds of other companies for your business. This competition that has brought you more convenient motoring has grown with the West. Since 1907, we've seen the total number of Western gas stations grow from our lone Seattle pioneer to 26,000 today. For us it has meant working harder to merit your business . . . investing $275 million in 1954 alone to find new oil and improve our refinery output . . . spending more than $35 million in the last 5 years for research and technical services to bring better products to motorists, industry and farms. Since this is Oil Progress Week, we'd like to remind you that this competition which sparks oil progress brings you more miles-per-gallon of gas, lubricants that lengthen your car's life—and the world's best service.

Reddy Kilowatt salutes Thomas A. Edison

on the DIAMOND JUBILEE of ELECTRIC LIGHT

75 years ago Edison invented the first practical electric light bulb. Only 10 years later a group of intrepid pioneers formed the Washington Water Power Co. to bring the wonders of electricity to the Inland Empire.

Development of electric service was gradual—first to the cities—next to towns and farms. In these days few paved roads and not one electric appliance. But progress was sure.

Tomorrow holds still greater promise of new miracles through Reddy Kilowatt's low-cost electricity.

THE WASHINGTON WATER POWER CO.

HOW WWP MADE HISTORY WITH EDISON'S LIGHT

- 1889 The Washington Water Power was formed and erected the first power plant at Spokane Falls. This was only 10 years after Edison's invention of LIGHT.
- 1902 The largest and most powerful electric line in the world (60,000 volts to Burke mining district) was built by WWP Co.
- 1906 Power lines began serving farms near Medical Lake.
- 1925 Company joined National Electric Light Assoc. to study power for farming—an undeveloped field.
- 1926 WWP Co. reduced rates to 2 1/2 cents per KWH, compared to national average of 7 cents.
- 1929 WWP Co. helped electrify 51.6% of great farms—second best in nation. (This was 6 years before REA—7 before PUD.)
- 1939 WWP Co. won Charles A. Coffin award for low rates, excellent service, and contribution to electric industry.
- 1941 Company reduced rates by $858,851, making total reduction of $1,063,891 in 4 years.
- 1952 200,000 KW Cabinet Gorge power plant began producing on Clark Fork.

CHILD SAFETY

Boise, Idaho (Special) — The problem of how to stop this unnecessary loss of life is one that is plaguing everyone engaged in traffic safety work and everyone who has an interest in child safety.

Since thousands of Idaho children are now back in school, this problem is brought all the more clearly into focus. From now on until June, large numbers of children will be exposed to traffic hazards as they travel to and from school and as they engage in play in their free hours. It is therefore imperative that motorists, parents, educators, and the children themselves be alerted to traffic dangers. Only by cooperative action by all these interested groups can any progress be made in the field of child safety, maintains the Traffic Safety Division of the Department of Law Enforcement.

There is no simple remedy for the problem of traffic accidents involving children. The only way an effective attack can be made is through the combined efforts of everyone concerned — parents, motorists, truckers, the schools and the children themselves. And the word "combined" cannot be stressed too strongly. In no phase of traffic safety work is cooperation more essential.

It is the advice of the traffic safety director, Harold Davis, that you keep the following slogan in mind at all times when driving, "Drive Slow — Children Move Fast." And another very important one applies to school buses: "When the Flag says 'Stop' you Stop!"

New Beans Developed

U. of I. — First high quality, bush-type snap beans resistant both to curly top and common bean mosaic, the most troublesome diseases affecting this crop in the Intermountain region, have been developed and introduced by the University of Idaho agricultural experiment station. They are: "Idaho Bountiful," a flat green bean, and "Golden Gem," a round wax — and should be available to gardeners this coming spring.

These new beans promise double dividends to Idaho, according to Dr. Leslie Dean, assistant plant pathologist stationed at Twin Falls, center of Idaho's bean research. Dr. Dean is leader of the bean improvement project.

Idaho Bountiful is similar to the old-time garden favorite, "Bountiful," except that it is a darker green. "Golden Gem" is a white-seeded, round, wax bean of exceptionally high quality.

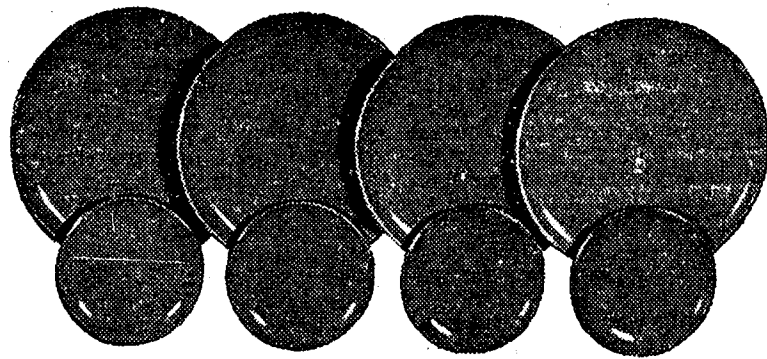

Being disease resistant, the new varieties will be valuable to home gardeners and commercial processors in a region where curly top and common mosaic are constant threats. Idaho Bountiful has been found especially suitable for shoe-string bean processing. Golden Gem has proved excellent for whole-pod pack.

Most important contribution of the new varieties, however, is expected to be in adding security to Idaho's position of leadership in seed bean production.

"In spite of the limitation of curly top, the bean growing area of southern Idaho has become the most important area of the United States in the production of high quality seed beans," say Dean and Dr. C. W. Hungerford, head of plant pathology, in announcing the new varieties.

Prior to their introduction, which marked the culmination of a dozen years of breeding, selecting and field testing, the new beans were grown in experiment station trial grounds in all the eastern, mid-western and western bean states.

Lewiston — On the Ahsahka-Kendrick project road grading and re-conditioning roadway and placing surfacing material in the Southwick section is underway. The project is approximately 30 percent complete. The contractors are operating on a two-shift basis.

Oil Business is Local Business

Just like the corner grocery or the neighborhood barber shop, the oil business in Kendrick is a local business employing local people to serve the needs of local people.

Here in the Kendrick area, for example, our General Petroleum distributor office and two independently operated Mobilgas stations provide employment for eight residents of the area.

These people earn their livelihood here, pay taxes here, take part in community activities, shop at locally-owned stores, and raise their families here. Like you and your neighbor next door, this is their town — they take pride in its accomplishments and have a stake in its future.

They are the local citizens who help comprise the oil industry of Kendrick.

Valuation Now Leveling Off
 Idaho's assessed valuation is beginning to level off after eight years of continued increase, according to Max Yost, secretary of the Associated Taxpayers of Idaho.

Yost said Idaho's assessed valuation increased only two percent over 1952, and that 1954 figures, when completed, would show even less of an increase over 1953. He said the total increase of 1953 over 1952 was $10,693,397, but that 21 counties showed a decrease for the period.

"Shoshone, Valley and Custer counties suffered the largest decreases in assessed valuation, which can be attributed to the reduction in mining activity and lower livestock assessments," he said. Other classes of property which show a decrease are business property, state land equities, railroads and telegraph properties.

"Caution should be used in making individual comparisons," he continued, "since reclassification of property may have caused an apparent decrease while in reality the particular parcel of property may be assessed at a higher rate. For example, acreages inside cities show a 133 percent decrease in assessed value, whereas the reclassification to residential and business lots may have increased the assessed value materially."

He said the financial condition of the counties as a whole continued to improve in 1953, as indicated by the actual cash and investments on hand reported by the counties as of January 9, 1954. Cash and investments amounted to $34,244,389 in 1953, as compared to $30,677,543 in 1952, and $22,603,955 in 1947.

Total county expenditures in 1953 increased $1,500,000 or 13 percent over 1952. However, the expenditures have remained nearly static since 1950. Thirteen counties had less expenditure during 1953, than in 1952.

Yost said that of the $34,244,389 of cash and investments on hand at the end of 1953, there was about $24,003,955 which will be distributed to the other units of government that levy property taxes and some funds that are held in trust by the county for individuals or others.

"Bonded debt of the local units of government continues to increase at a rapid rate. Yet, according to the annual county financial reports, the total debt of all units of 24 counties decreased compared with the total in 1952.

"Fifteen of Idaho's 44 counties reported county bonded debt," Yost said, pointing out that counties have unlimited bonding capacity, while cities may bond to 15 percent of their assessed valuation.

He said the bonded debt of cities and villages in the county reports did not increase materially over 1952. However, city debt has increased 124 percent since 1947.

HELLO, FOLKS:

Well, another Sales Day has come and gone and no where in this wide land of our could a more perfect day have been found. It was just right — and the crowds were happy with it too! In fact, one customer, to whom we were showing those famous U. S. Royal Tires said: "If it would just stay like this I wouldn't need your mud and snow tires! No, we got no help from the weather on that sale!"

Customer: "Could I try on that suit in the window?"
Clerk: "Well, er-r, yes, I guess it'd be alright, but we'd rather you'd use the dressing room."

This past windy, chilly Monday reminded us that winter and "fire time is at hand." If you want to have a cozy, comfortable home, just call us — 1251 — and say: "Fill my tank with Union Stove Oil." It burns hot and clean. Gives the steady warmth you want.

Student: "I see you have a room for rent. How much do you want for it, including the use of your piano?"

Shrewd Landlady: "I won't be able to tell you until after I hear you play."

How about letting us fill that radiator with Prestone? Or some other good anti-freeze if you prefer? You know winter is at hand and a frozen radiator can be a very costly thing.

Let us wash, grease and generally prepare your car or pickup, or truck for service and looks.
