Momemakers Meet

The Southwick Homemakers Club met on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Edna King, with Marie Kachlemier as co-hostess. An all-day session was held, and following a delicious dinner served at noon, a business meeting was held, with Viola Martin, vice president, presiding in the absence of the club president.

Plans were made for an entertainment for the public, in March, with the date to be announced later. A report on the "Bill of Rights" was given by Agatha Perkins, tracing the history of the first ten articles of the Constitution, and explaining their meaning.

The next meeting will be a Valentine one, at the home of Edith Wells, at which time "Heart Sisters" will be revealed and new ones drawn for the coming year.

Study of Far East Interesting Study of Far East Interesting
Sunday evening the study of India,
at the Community church, continued, with Mrs. Raleigh Albright leading a most interesting discussion of the different religions in the Far East. Of added interest were a collection of pictures, scrap books, etc., she had secured from Mrs. Ramalingham Kanthamanthie, an Indian, who is teaching in the Clarkston schools. A

A high-light in next Sunday's study will be a wire recording from Dorothy Meyer, who is serving as a missionary in India. Mrs. F. C. Schmidt will lead the discussion, "The Christian Church in India — Have We Made a Dent?" You are invited to attend these weekly sessions, each Sunday at 6:30 p. m. Attendance has been good, with increasing interest. Don't stay away because you have small children, there is a place for every age group

HELLO, FOLKS:

Well, here it is the first week in February, and although we have had "no winter" to date, the longrange prediction calls for plenty of cold and snow this month. So take a tip - phone us, 1251, Kendrick, and let us fill that fuel oil tank. Be prepared. You'll like our product and our service!

He: "How can you be so sure that a man can't go wrong by marrying a widow?"

Pal: "Well, it's plain that if a man marries a widow, he can't marry amiss."

Mud, ice, snow and water cut away lubrication on your car, pick-up or truck. Don't let it "skwak" and squeel. Bring it to us for a "lub job" with those long-lasting Union lubricants,

He (deeply infatuated): "Have you ever kissed a man before?" She (demurely): "Yes."
He: "Tell me his name so that I can whip him." She: "But - but - but - he might be too many for you."

There's no need to fight a car that's hard to start. Bring it in and let us install a new set of spark plug and fill the tank with Union 7600 Gasoline. You'll be sur-prised at the big difference it will

Joe: "What are those spots on your lapel — gravy?"
