Home From Service

Cpl. and Mrs. Douglas Christensen, accompanied by his brother, Roger Christensen, arrived here Thursday last week following a three-week tour which took them through Florida. Cpl. and Mrs. Christensen have been living at Chicago, where he was stationed with the Armed Forces, for the past year. After receiving his discharge papers in June, they were joined by Roger, who accompanied them on the eastern tour.

About This Week's Paper

Yes, for the first time in a long time the Kendrick Gazette is a day late — but it is due to causes beyond our control.

You see, the Fourth of July coming on Monday, we were unable to obtain ad. copy in its entirety, due to business houses being closed — and we simply could not ask our faithful correspondents to write their news on the Fourth of July.

So, when we were able to assemble ad. and news copy, we put out the paper — one day late.

Of course, "Mr. Robinson's improved mail service" didn't do a thing to help — as no mail moved on either Sunday or Monday.

MAVIS AUSTIN BECOMES BRIDE OF NEAL CRAIG

The American Lutheran Church at Baker, Mont., was the scene of a quiet but lovely wedding on June 30, when Mavis Austin became the bride of Neal Craig.

The Rev. Jones read the beautiful double-ring service before a small group of relatives and friends.

The bride was attired in a street length dress of light blue nylon which was complimented with an American Beauty rose bud corsage and white accessories. She carried out the old tradition for brides by wearing something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue — also a penny in her shoe for good luck.

Mrs. Roy Anderson of Marmouth, N. D., acted as matron of honor and was dressed in a blue suit dress. Her corsage was yellow roses.

Roy Anderson was best man. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schaubman of Marmouth, N. D., and attended school there.

Neal Craig is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Oral Craig of Kendrick, and is a graduate of the Kendrick High school. For the past year he has been employed by the G. W. Culp Construction Co. of Glendive, Mont.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Schaubman chose a navy blue dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Mrs. Craig also wore a navy blue dress, but her accessories were white. Her corsage was pale pink carnations. Those attending from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Shaffer and son Michael of Great Falls, Mont.; Mr. Arnold Wallace of Ephrata, Wash.; and Mr. and Mrs. Oral Craig and Mrs. Billy Weyen of Kendrick.

After a short honeymoon trip through Yellowstone National Park the young couple will be at home to their friends at 600 Pearson Ave., Glendive, Montana.

Meyer Reunion

A family reunion of the Meyer families was held Sunday in the beautiful home and yard of Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Wegner, at Pullman.

Some of the relatives had not seen each other for 25 years, and it was the first time that they had ever been together at one time. A picnic dinner was held at noon. The reunion was also in honor of Miss Dorothy Meyer, a missionary in India. There were 68 present in all.

Guests present included Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meyer, Dorothy, Ted, Leoita and Hermina, the latter of Spokane; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Silflow and family of Cameron; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Widmer and family, Mrs. Paul Kenyon and son and Richard Widmer, all of Kellogg; Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Meyer of Lewiston; Mr. and Mrs. Dawn Brink and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meyer and son of Spokane; Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Bush of Spokane, and their daughter, Mrs. Tillie Musterman and children of Orofino; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brammer of Juliaetta and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Havens and son and Mr. and Mrs. Werner Brammer and daughters of Kendrick, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brammer of Southwick.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Wegner and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Hoffman and daughters of Spangle; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wegner and three children of Ontario, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hansen and two children of Pullman; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Abitz of Portland, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Abitz of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Peasley of Cashmere, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hunton of Coifax.

The afternoon was spent in visiting and picture taking. It was indeed a joyous reunion.

Poise is the ability to talk fluently while the other fellow is paying the check.

No Clues To Date

According to all information available to us, the sheriff's office has not yet come up with any definite clues to the murder of Wm. Darr of Deary, here two weeks ago, nor to the burglaries of the five Kendrick business houses on Monday last week.

The investigations, however, did turn up a late model car believed to be stolen, and which was impounded awaiting further investigation. The car is stored at the Kendrick Garage.

It is only reasonable to say that there is a great deal of criticism of the Latah County Sheriff's office on its handling of these cases, whether or not it is justified remains to be seen.

BEVERLY ANNE SCHUPFER BRIDE OF ROBERT MORRIS

Miss Beverly Anne Schupfer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Schupfer of Kendrick, was united in marriage Sunday, July 3, to Mr. Robert Gemmill Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris of Des Moines, Iowa.

The simple double ring ceremony took place at 8:00 a. m. in the Kendrick Community church, with the Rev. F. C. Schmidt officiating and in the presence of members of the family. Mrs. Oscar Slind played appropriate wedding selections before and during the ceremony.

The bride wore a pale yellow dressmaker suit with matching hat, and carried a bouquet of talisman roses and yellow daisies.

Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Eichner, brother-in-law and sister of the bride. Mrs. Eichner wore a lavender suit with white accessories and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and blue daisies. The bride's mother was dressed in a light blue suit with pink accessories.

Following the ceremony a breakfast was served in the church basement.

Mrs. Morris, a 1951 graduate of the University of Idaho, recently was awarded the master's degree from the University of California at Los Angeles. The bridegroom was graduated from Iowa State College in 1951, earned his master's degree from the California Institute of Technology in 1954, and is now doing further graduate study at Iowa State College.

The couple met when both were Fulbright scholars studying in Graz, Austria. After a wedding trip to Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Morris will make their home in Ames, Iowa.

Swim Lessons Begin July 12

After completing an intensive 10-day course at the Red Cross National aquatic school, held at Twin Echo, Mrs. Wm. Johnson of Kendrick, qualified to conduct classes in water safety skills in the community this summer.

Mrs. Johnson was sent to the aquatic school by the Latah County Red Cross chapter, which has scheduled a program of four classes during a two-week program under Mrs. Johnson's supervision. Her first classes will begin July 12 at the Memorial Pool in Kendrick.

The national aquatic school from which Mrs. Johnson and Miss Pat Long have just returned is one of 29 being conducted throughout the nation this summer by the American Red Cross to train young men and women in all phases of water skill and first aid. Students attend the Red Cross schools at their own expense or as delegates of organizations such as Red Cross Chapters, civic clubs and other groups which are interested in teaching safety. Students receive instructions in swimming, diving, canoeing, boating, life-saving, and standard and advanced first aid from expert Red Cross trained teachers. They also learn techniques which will help them pass their safety knowledge on to others.

This year marks the 34th season of Red Cross operated national aquatic schools to provide the nation's communities with qualified instructors and directors for water activities in the campaign to reduce drownings. An estimated 3,000 students are expected to complete the courses qualifying them for aquatic leadership in local communities this spring and summer.

Mrs. Johnson, who is to be the swimming instructor and life guard at the local pool this summer, says: "Would all children and young people wishing to take swimming lessons either as Beginners, Intermediates, Swimmers or Life Savers, please contact me at the Memorial Pool in Kendrick between now and the 12th of July. We will run a ten-day course, ending July 25th. Lessons will begin at 9:00 a. m., weather permitting. Miss Pat Long will assist in giving lessons, as she, too, received her Instructors Training Card in Water Safety."

Weather Remains Cool, Damp

The weather this past week has remained in the same category as that of the past two weeks — cool and damp. There have been intermittent rain squalls, a little wind — and the temperature cool.

Farmers say that they would appreciate a "darn good rain" and then warm weather and sunshine. The past damp weather has helped, but the moisture does not go deep into the ground — and some crops need sunshine.

Those present were Mrs. Ida Wolff and son Warren of Lewiston; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wolff and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. McCall and family and Mr. and Mrs. Dick McCall and family, all of Lewiston; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hartung and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hartung and family of Clarkston; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bockel and family of LaCrosse, Wn.; Walter Hartung and daughters of Moscow; Dianne Cantril of Lewiston and Mrs. Mae McCall of Lexington, Oregon.

Monday dinner guests in the Walter McCall home included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cantril of Southwick; Dianne Cantril and Mr. and Mrs. Dick McCall and daughters of Lewiston.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Foster, Freddy and Janet spent the 4th fishing at Long Meadow.

Idaho Beauty Spot in New Scenic Views

Beautiful Upper Mesa Falls, Henrys Fork, Idaho, is pictured above in a reproduction of one of the new all-color Scenic Views being given away at Standard Oil Company of California outlets this summer. Fifteen scenes, suitable for framing, are being distributed by the company in a program to encourage travel to the beauty spots of the West. Each scene is described in text on the reverse. The view above was taken by landscape photographer Hubert A. Lowman. Text was written by Wallace Stegner, Stanford University author and instructor in writing.

Charles Easterbrook, Charles Taylor and Dave Clayton were at Elk Creek fishing over the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Jud Lee and son Ralph left Monday for Seattle, and will visit in the home of her cousin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Cecil. Mrs. A. O. Kanikkeberg accompanied them and will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Erickson. Mrs. Kanikkeberg is expected back Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Armitage and sons Jerry and Max drove to Coeur d'Alene and lake Pend Oreille to spend the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gregory left here June 30th on a vacation tour through Vancouver and down the Oregon coast to Crescent City, Calif., returning through the Redwoods and back up to Victoria, B. C. They crossed Oregon twice, taking in all the scenic points in Washington as well, and report a wonderful trip — but glad to be home again. They were gone eight days.

GOLDEN RULE

Village Park Surveyed

Following "something of hassle" regarding the village of Kendrick park which lies on the hillside south of town, in Nez Perce county, the Village Trustees called for a survey, and have received the following letter from Frank S. Junk, registered professional engineer, which says:

"As per your instructions, I have located the section corner common to Sections 24, 19, 25 and 30. After locating the corner I established the location of the North 1/4 corner to Section 25, and then ran a line through the center of Section 25, and placed a large spike in the center of Main Street, an iron pipe close to the curb on the south side of Main Street and another iron pipe along the north side of the railroad on line. A stake was placed near the creek and another on the mountain-side on the south side of the creek."

"If there should be any questions about the survey, you may contact me at the above address."

Youngsters Enjoying Pool

It's the same story this year as for quite a number before — in fact — since the Area Living War Memorial Pool was built at Kendrick — the youngsters have been taking fullest advantage of it — weather permitting.

This year the weather has been so cool since its opening that attendance is far below that of previous seasons — but whenever the weather is warm enough, a string of small fry may be seen waiting at the gates for the pool to open.

During the absence of Mrs. Wm. Johnson, registered lifeguard, Janice Christensen took her place — so that the kids might have their fun.

Beautiful Water Lilies

H. F. Thompson was about town Tuesday distributing beautiful bouquets of water lilies to friends, leaving beauties at the Farmers Bank and at the Gazette office.

Mr. Thompson says that the cool weather has brought on an unusually large lily.

They are of pale pink with bright yellow stamen, and against the background of their green waxy leaves present an exquisite appearance.

Picks Ripe Tomatoes

Ed. Deobald is quite proud of his garden, and perhaps rightly so, for on June 30th it produced one ripe tomato, another on the 4th of July, and another is now turning.

That is really something, considering the "artic weather" this area has had for some weeks.

Tractors Can Be Dangerous

The tractor is mightier than the horse — and more dangerous.

More than two-thirds of the deaths caused by farm machinery involve tractors. More than half of the tractor fatalities happen when tractors upset.

These facts were brought out this week by Elbert McProud, county agent, as a reminder of farm safety.

The most frequent cause of tractors turning over, the national report shows, is the loss of control because of too much speed. Doubling tractor speed increases the danger of tipping over four times. The operator of a tractor going at a safe speed has greater chances to straighten out if it hits a rock or drops into a ditch. When driving down a steep grade, safety people advise you to leave the tractor in the proper gear to check forward momentum.

A big cause of backward tipping is hitching a load too high on the tractor. The drawbar is the only safe place to attach a heavy load.

When a tractor starts to tip the driver usually has less than half a second to stop it or jump. That may be all right if you are mighty quick — but it's better to lose a few seconds or even minutes, and be safe — not to mention the damage that may ensue to the tractor or other equipment.

New N. P. Boxcars Scheduled

The Northern Pacific railway has begun construction of a fleet of 500 all-steel box cars at the company's Brainerd, Minn., car shops, it is announced by C. H. Burgess, vice president of the operating department. The cost of the cars will be approximately $4,000,000.

Featuring extra large, 15-foot wide double doors, the new cars will be used principally to carry plywood, wallboard and similar bulky commodities which are loaded with mechanical fork lift trucks.

The 50-foot cars will be equipped with nailable steel flooring and welded underframe construction. A protective coating, topped by a coat of aluminum paint, will be applied to the under part of the roof to protect against any drippings caused by condensation.

Cubic capacity of each car is 4,903, largest of any car built by the Northern Pacific. Nominal capacity is 50 tons.

Fertilizing Important In Balanced Farm Plan
Lime, Fertilizer Pays
Off in High Hay Yield

Farmers in every part of the nation are realizing more and more the importance of well-balanced fertilizing programs to build production and soil structure.

Ben Vossen, who farms near Watkins, Minn., believes his investments in lime and fertilizer have done more for his farm than anything in his career.

The results of one of his investments are shown in the above picture. At the right is a run-down field of bluegrass overgrown with buck grass. At the left is a field of oats after the buck grass was sprayed to kill it, grubbed and plowed under.

Farmer Vossen inspects his field of oats. At the right is the field of bluegrass overgrown with buck grass. Fertilizing has turned the oat field into a high producer.

Vossen limed and fertilized the oat field with plant food carrying nitrogen, phosphate and potash before he seeded it. He keeps the field in oats two years, then seeds down to an alfalfa crop. He takes hay and pasture off as long as the stand is productive. He helps lengthen its life by top-dressing regularly with manure.

The use of lime and fertilizer pays off in much bigger hay yields. Vossen reports. He harvested eight tons of hay on two acres that used to produce about one-half ton of timothy.

Total Feed Supply Will Be Higher Than Last Year

With the approach of the 1951-52 feeding season, livestock feeders will be interested to know that the expected total supply of feed grains and concentrates will be greater than last year, according to the bureau of agricultural economics.

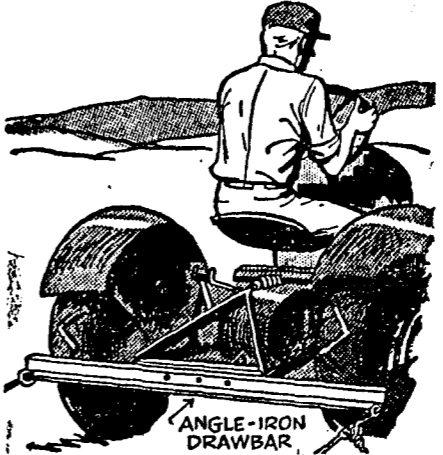

The available supply of feed will permit livestock to be fed at about the same rate per unit as last season. The number of animals to be fed, however, is also expected to be greater. An estimated 174 million animals will be on hand as compared with last year's 168-million.

A large acreage and a fair carry-over is expected to provide a larger corn supply. About 4 billion bushels is expected to be available for the 1951-52 season.

The total supply of corn, oats, grain sorghums, and barley for the coming season is estimated to be 127.1 million tons. This compares with last season's total of 125 million tons of grain.

The department reported total crop production may be the second highest in history in 1951.

Tractor Drawbar

A heavy piece of angle iron bolted to the rear of a tractor and extending well beyond the wheels makes harrowing easier. Fastening the harrow with a long chain hitch, especially when making turns at ends of the field. Bolted to the drawbar it can be removed when not in use.

Iowa Tests Show Value Of Alfalfa for Swine

Everyone knows that alfalfa pasture is good for hogs. But just how good? The Iowa experiment station thought that one way to find out would be to feed one batch of hogs on dry lot; and another on alfalfa.

They found that the biggest value in alfalfa comes from a saving in high-cost protein and mineral supplement. Hogs gained faster on alfalfa.

Terramycin Said Effective Against Pinworm Infection

Infection caused by the pinworm, the most common and widely distributed of all human parasites, can now be successfully treated with terramycin, according to a team of 6 American doctors conducting clinical trials in Haiti.

Treating 61 cases of pinworm infection, the physicians found terramycin effective in all but two patients. Clinical trials with the wide-range antibiotic drug were undertaken because, said the doctors, "the usual treatment with gentian violet often does not eradicate the infection, and not infrequently the drug must be discontinued due to toxic reactions." Several of the patients who had taken gentian violet previously said they found terramycin "considerably more tolerable."

Pinworm infection is found throughout the world and in all ages. Public health experts estimate it affects 35 per cent or more of the general population. In southern states 50 to 60 per cent of all children have had it. Caused by a small white worm, its most disturbing symptom is itching. Often, scratching brings about a secondary infection. Pinworm may interfere with eating and result in loss of weight and anemia. The disease usually infects the entire family.

In their clinical report, appearing in the current issue of the medical journal, "Antibiotics and Chemotherapy," the doctors point out that successful therapy depends upon simultaneous treatment of the whole family. In this respect one of gentian violet's disadvantages, they say, is that young children often cannot swallow the enteric-coated tablets.

Whenever possible, the medical team in Haiti examined whole families and treated them simultaneously with terramycin. Full cooperation was not always obtainable, but "despite inadequate dosage in a large number of cases," says the report, "in only 2 instances did treatment definitely fail by the fourth week after therapy was begun."

North Carolina Attacks
Highway Safety Problems

A sound program to promote safety on the highways has been set in motion by the state of North Carolina. The appalling number of deaths and injuries resulting from motoring accidents in recent years has provoked this state to take action of a new and decisive type.

Since the first of July, applicants for driver's licenses and renewals have been required to have their eyesight tested on a complex instrument which measures 12 visual skills, including muscular balance, acuity at near and far distances, and depth perception. The instrument makes it impossible for drivers with poor vision to slip by, by memorizing the letters that they must read — a trick sometimes played with conventional charts. Those who fail the tests are advised to consult an eye-sight specialist, and many of them will undoubtedly be enabled to pass by professional eye-care.

Good vision has long been recognized as a major factor in accident prevention, and thousands of hours have been spent in attempts to establish proper standards for motorists. But the results were always inconclusive, because too much of the element of personal opinion was involved. Under the new system, however, definite statistics on 1,300,000 drivers will be obtained by next July 1, and it will be possible to judge accurately which visual errors contribute most to accidents and which visual skills are most essential to highway safety.

A Comet's Weight

What is the weight of a comet? Weight is a measurement of the attraction of the Earth for a body on or near its surface, and as a comet moves far out in space, and is subjected to a varying attraction from the Earth and other planets, one should not speak of its "weight." Its mass, which is a measure of the amount of matter it contains, can only be determined roughly. It has been estimated that with Halley's comet the nucleus, which contains most of the material, has a mass of about a two-hundred-millionth of the Earth's mass. This would be about thirty million million tons. It has also been determined that the particles of which Halley's comet is made could not be held together by the gravitational attraction of a mass smaller than one twenty-fifth of the above figure. Most comets, however, are much smaller than Halley's, and have considerably smaller mass.

Schedule Is Wise

A regular painting schedule actually simplifies property protection. One wise farmer does a fourth of his buildings each year. In that way, each gets its necessary coat of protection every four years without fail, and each year's painting project can be fitted in as other outdoor work permits. While city dwellers do not have as many structures to safeguard, they are wise to look on painting as property-value insurance and to follow a regular schedule.

Park To Be Dedicated
 All residents of this section of Idaho are cordially invited to attend the formal dedication of Idaho's Mary Minerva McCrosky State Park, Sunday, July 10th. Road signs will direct you from US Highway 95, ten miles north of the Potlatch Y, or on US Highway 195 out of Farmington.
 Mary Minerva McCrosky State Park, consisting of 4,400 acres of forested mountains with a scenic 30-mile-long Skyline Drive, picnic grounds and ski-run sites already established, is the gift presented Idaho, in memoriam to the pioneer women of the Northwest, by Virgil T. McCrosky of Oakesdale, Wash. On request of pioneers of the Palouse country, the park bears the name of the donor's mother, the late Mary Minerva McCrosky, who came to the area in 1879.
 The dedicatory program will be presented under the sponsorship of The Latah County Pioneer Association, in conjunction with that organization's fourth annual out-of-doors picnic in the park. Dr. D. R. Theophilis, President of the University of Idaho, and Robert S. Gibb, head of the university's athletic department, will be the featured speakers of the day.
 All are invited to bring the family, friends, and picnic lunches—and to come early.
 The afternoon's program, following the noon picnic lunch, will be held at the park's fireplace picnic site on Skyline Drive, near the ski area, beginning at 2:00 o'clock.

Scout Camp Being Conditioned
 "Camp Grizzly, the Lewis-Clark Council Boy Scout summer camp, is being put into shape rapidly this year," according to Ernie Hatch, the Lewis-Clark Council camping and activity chairman. Jim Lyons, Post 186, Lewiston, and Bob Sule, Troop 264, Clarkston, are at the camp helping in the preparation for the first week's Campers, who will register about July 10th.
 The water supply at the camp was installed a couple of weeks ago, and work parties have been there at various times since completing other arrangements in preparation for the camp's opening. Included in these work parties was the Moscow Lions Club, headed by Clarence Seely of that city, who held a family picnic in connection with their work party.
 The camp is scheduled to operate from July 10th through August 6th. Scouts must register in advance to attend the camp.

Invest Wisely On Limited Capital Fertilizers Might Surpass Machines

Farmers with limited capital can often get greater returns by investing in fertilizer than in purchasing equipment, says A. Gordon Ball, Iowa State College farm economist.

This may mean that some of the field work must be done by custom operators, but it can release funds for income-boosting improvement work.

Says Ball: "A farmer with limited capital has to budget his expenditures carefully. He may have to give priority to investments that will immediately bring him the best return for the dollar he spends.

"If his day-to-day operating funds are tied up in the purchase of expensive equipment he may not have sufficient amounts left to invest in higher returning fertilizer that can yield as much as $1 to $3 for every dollar spent."

Ball points out that plows, planters, etc., are essential in any farming operation, and represent only average investments. Full use can be made of these implements, so that their total cost is spread over a large area.

"But larger investments should be closely scanned by farmers with limited capital. Such investments may not be advisable if they mean skimping on the use of lime and fertilizer."

Reporting on 1955 fertilizer prospects, T. L. Jackson, Oregon State college soils specialist, says slightly larger supplies are in sight with prices expected to be about the same or possibly lower than in 1954.

The estimated supply of nitrogen, phosphate and potash on the national scene is expected to exceed the 1953-54 supply by about five per cent.

Dehorn Dairy Calves Before Three Months

Dehorning dairy calves is safe, simple and easy if you do it before they are three months old or before the horns get larger than a quarter-dollar at the base.

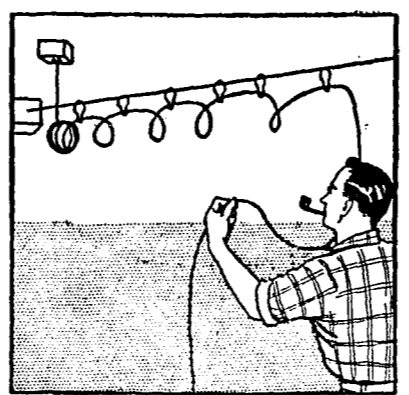

You can burn the horn tissue to stop further growth or cut away the horn-producing tissue.

An electric dehorner, or hot iron is probably safest for calves less than three months old, says J. D. Burke, extension dairy specialist at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture. The dehorner looks like a soldering iron except that the heating unit is designed to fit around the horn. Apply like a branding iron, and burn a quarter-inch circle around the base of the horn to a cherry-red color.

The electric dehorner destroys the skin tissue from which the horn develops. This method avoids problems of infection and bleeding that result from the use of other methods. Calves feel little or no shock and return to the feed box as if nothing had happened.

You can get similar results with horn paints or caustic potash, but they must be applied before the calf is three weeks old.

Handy Extension

Convenient extension cord for milking machine runs through shower curtain hooks hung on an overhead wire. At equally spaced intervals, cord is pressed into the narrow part of the hooks where it is gripped and held securely. When not in use, cord is easily pushed to one end of the line.

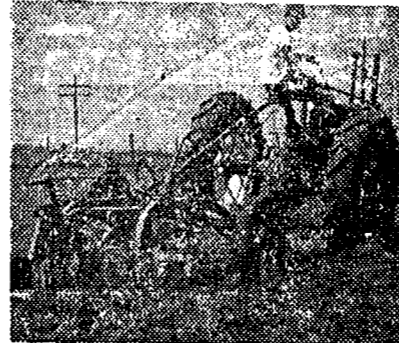

Farmland Acreage Steadily Shrinking Existing Crop Lands Must Produce More

Farm economists report that America's farm land acreage is steadily shrinking.

These specialists say this is due to the increasing use of big acreages for the construction of super highways and toll roads, for defense and industrial plants, airports, military reservations, flood control and game conservation projects.

Noting this trend, H. C. M. Case, head of University of Illinois' agricultural economics department, recently said, "It's about time we took a long look at our future needs for land."

With available farm acreage shrinking each year, economists warn we must make better use of existing land. Present farm acres can be made more productive by plowing under legume-grass crops for "green manure."

He points out that every time a two-lane highway parallels a railroad, a strip of land 412 feet wide is frequently taken for the combined use. This means 50 acres used for every mile. One strip the entire length of Illinois would represent 120 farms of 160 acres each.

Corn Belt agronomists point out that most of the nation's profitable farm land is already under crop. This means, they say, that every acre of existing crop land must do a bigger production job to feed the steadily growing U. S. population which is expected to reach 200 million by 1975.

This bigger crop producing job can be done, they say, by: 1—Building the soil's crop feeding power with balanced supplies of nutrients provided by commercial fertilizer; 2—Improving soil tilth, drainage and aeration by regular additions of organic matter by plowing under legume grass crops and by adding fertilizer to corn stalks and other crop residues that are turned under.

New Angle of Attack For Cattle Grubs

Veterinary scientists, searching for better ways to control cattle grubs, have come up with another new angle of attack.

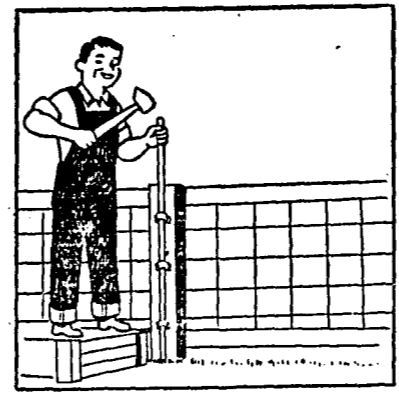

Research veterinarians of the U. S. Department of Agriculture have reported encouraging results with daily intake of phenothiazine during the months when heel flies deposit eggs on the legs of cattle. The drugs are absorbed into the animal's blood stream so they can attack grubs before extensive damage is done.

Treated cattle averaged some 80 per cent fewer grubs than untreated animals, and some were completely free of infestation.

Grubs are the larvae of the heel fly and burrow into the animal from eggs deposited on the hide by the adult fly. After living within cattle several months, they puncture their way out again, usually through the back, and in so doing cost the livestock industry millions of dollars every year in damaged hides and prime meat cuts.

Some success in cattle grub control also has been reported with drug injections which accomplish much the same results as the feeding program.

Reinforcing Posts

Wooden fence posts that have rotted below ground but are still in good condition above ground may be inexpensively reinforced with lengths of discarded water pipe. Fasten the pipe loosely to the post with pipe straps and then drive pipe at least three feet into the ground before tightening straps.

Published Weekly by the Union Oil Service at Kendrick
W. L. "Bill" Rogers, Editor

HELLO, FOLKS:

Well, now that the Fourth of July, with its attendant headaches (in more ways than one) is over, and you're safe home again — how about letting us service your car? Let us lubricate it from "stem to stern" with Union Lubricants, fill the crankcase with that famous Union Royal Triton Motor Oil — and wash and polish it. Really give it a "treat and a treatment" all at the same time. You'll be surprised at how little it will cost, and how long the "treatment will last!"

Father: "Junior, run outdoors and play. I can't stand all this infernal noise."
Junior: "I will not — I don't want to go outdoors!"
Father: "Well, then, stay in. I tell you I insist on obedience!"

How's the supply of stove oil holding out? Got enough for the rest of this "summer's winter"? If not, call us, 1251, Kendrick. We will bring you some — and while we're at it, how about letting us fill that diesel fuel tank. Union has a really superior product. Try it!

Doctor: "Your husband is a sick man. He must have absolute quiet. Here is a sleeping powder."
Wife: "When do I give it to him?"

Doctor: "You don't. You take it yourself!"

How about the tires on your car? Are they ready for the hot summer roads? (providing we have a summer) or are they thin and dangerous? Come in and let us show you the famous U. S. Royals. The tire without a peer!
