WHAT JULIAETTA FRIENDS ARE DOING THESE DAYS

New Postmaster Takes Over Saturday morning, June 30th, our new postmaster, Floyd Heimgarter, took over his new job. He succeeds the late Mrs. Myrtle Cochran, who resigned, due to ill health, in 1956. He will be assisted by Mrs. Mae Walsh, who has been acting postmistress since Mrs. Cochran's retire-

Many Make Use Of X-ray

More than 120 Juliaetta and area residents availed themselves of the opportunity to have a free chest xray when the mobile unit was here Friday of last week. It is to be hoped that the films do not turn up any cases of the dread TB.

Says Mrs. Ray Taylor, chairman: "I wish to thank Mrs. Beulah Peters, Delores Gaskill, Beverly Bowen and Sharon Strohm for their faithful work in helping me make this visit of the Mobile X-ray unit a success here in Juliaetta. The number availing themthe donated labor was not in vain."

Special Services Sunday Next Sunday Dr. J. Wesley Farr of the First Methodist Church in San Jose, Calif., will speak at the Methodist Church here. Besides preaching, he will join his daughter, Mrs. John Emerson, in a vocal duet.

The services will be at 9:15 and all are urged to be present for this occasion.
