WE'VE READ ABOUT WINTER

In every issue of the big daily newspapers, and on TV weather reports, one hears of the terrific winter storms that have been plaguing middle east and eastern states, while here in the Northwest, we continue to "bask" in sunshine." That latter is of course, not literally true, but we have indeed been enjoying a mild winter season.

Patsy Cuddy, a senior at the Kendrick High school, was honored Monday evening by thirty classmates and friends at a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. W. H. Weyen, at Kendrick.

Friday afternoon from a three-week vacation trip in Arizona and California, not to mention other adjoining states. They were in Old Mexico twice, once in San Louis and once in Mexacali. The weather, on the whole, was a perfect "summertime," but they got into much rain and wind from Portland on home. The route was inland going down, by way of Death Valley, Las Vegas, Hoover Dam to Yuma, Ariz., and home via Mexacali, through the Imperial Valley Brance Secrements up the Oreley, Fresno, Sacramento, up the Oregon coast through the Redwoods and Portland. It was a very interesting trip of 3,600 miles, with many places of beauty visited.
