In the District Court of the Second Judicial District of the State of Idaho in and for the County of Latah.

In the matter of the application of William Anthony Antonelli for change in name.

A petition by William Anthony Antonelli, born June 24, 1932, at Brooklyn, County of Kings, State of New York and now residing at 113 East 8th Street, Moscow, County of Latah, State of Idaho, proposing a change in name to William Anthony Dawson has been filed in the above entitled Court, the reason for the change in name being: (1) That the name of William Anthony Antonelli is not considered by most people to be petitioner's real name and such fact is a constant source of embarrassment and frustration to Mr. Antonelli, your petitioner. (2) That 3,754,30 petitioner's mother, pursuant to a decree of absolute divorce rendered in 1948, obtained and received custody of your petitioner, and your petitioner has used the name of Dawson, which is the said mother's name, as a result of the divorce hereinbefore mentioned, and ever since 1948, and that the said legal name of Willian Anthony Antonelli is foreign to your petitioner as well as his associates, and that your petitioner's present name of William Anthony Antonelli is a constant threat to smooth and amicable relationships with his present associates and prospective future employers; the name of petitioner's father is Anthony Antonelli, 1628
71st Street, Brooklyn, County of Kings, State of New York.
Such petition will be heard at such time as the Court may appoint, and objections may be filed by any person who can, in such objection, show to the Court a good reason against such change of name. WITNESS my hand and the seal of said District Court this 11th day

II,028 independent businessmen like these serve you better with Standard's help

Wholesale distributor Bob Evans, Mesa, Arizona, uses a plant provided and maintained by Standard. We help Bob develop new business and back him with engineering assistance on his customers' lubrication problems.

John H. "Curly" Fader, Boise, Idaho, operates his own service station. We supply him with business forms, maps, lube guides and major equipment. "Curly" makes good use of Standard's training programs to improve his service to you.

Standard's special Aviation Divison helps airport dealers like Frank Kelsey. Salt Lake City, Utah, with wind direction indicators, flight guides and credit card service . . . all welcome conveniences to his customers.

Standard credit cards make it possible for independent marine dealers like Joe Faires, Port Angeles, Washington, to honor charge accounts. When fuel and lubrication problems arise, his customers can rely on help from Standard's engineers.

Liquefied Petroleum Gas dealers like Louis Marx, Atascadero, California, find our operations manual helpful in almost every phase of his business . . . especially when it comes to saving customers time and trouble on deliveries.

Keith L. Tweedie, Salem, Oregon, is a heating oil distributor. Our complete program shows him how to set up an accounting system, handle credit, cut operating expenses and give you the cleanest, most convenient service possible.

"Big Business" creates opportunities for "small business." With each doing the job for which it is best qualified, both are able to operate more efficiently . . . give you better service. In our particular case, here's how it works.

Standard research and manufacturing skill assure quality products. In turn 11,028 distributors of Standard products — represented by the six Western independent businessmen above — help bring you these products in the U.S., Alaska, Hawaii, British Columbia and many other parts of the Western Hemisphere.

Because these independent businessmen perform an important service for us, we assist their efforts with technical help, suggested operations procedures, advertising and merchandising support. Thus by helping them to help themselves, we are both able to serve you even better.

HELLO, FOLKS:

We've hammered at you for so many weeks about Union Oil Co. products, including fuel oils, lubricants, not to mention our "stuff" here at the station that we've decided to devote the rest of this space to humor — and we hope you enjoy it — but remember the Union Products.

A salesman gave up his job and joined the police force. "How do you like it?" a friend asked him a few months later.

"Oh, I like it fine," he replied, "the pay and the hours are good, but what I like best is that the customer is always wrong.
