SCHUPPERS TELL OF EUROPEAN TOUR

SEE WORLD FAIR; VISIT WITH FORMER LOCAL RESIDENTS

Touring much of Austria and parts of Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium and England highlighted the recent European tour for Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schupfer and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schupfer.

They also enjoyed visits with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Candler and three children at Kings Lynn, England, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moore (Louise Halliday, formerly of Juliaetta) and two children in Stuttgart, Germany.

The Schupfers arrived home from their trip on July 26. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schupfer left Kendrick by car on April 12, and boarded the S. S. Cristoforo Colombo on April 23. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schupfer left by train on May 4, and sailed aboard the S. S. Constitution on May 13.

The following is a narrative of their travels, with Herman Schupfer acting as spokesman for the group:

The Cristoforo Colombo ship was very nice, with good food. The ocean was rough for several days and over half the 1,100 passengers were sick during that time. We passed the Azores Islands and went close to an active volcano, which was erupting at the time, and forming a new island. The ship stopped at Gibraltar for a few hours.

At the dock in Naples, Italy, we were met by our daughter, Beverly Anne (Mrs. Robert Morris). She and her husband have been for about a year in Zurich, Switzerland, where he has been doing research in physics.

From Naples we took a sight-seeing bus trip to Pompeii and along the Amalfi Drive, which is on the shore between Salerno Bay and Sorrento. This country is very steep. Houses are built on bluffs on top of each other. Wherever there is a little soil, lemon trees grow. They are covered with brush to keep them from burning. The Amalfi highway is narrow and crooked, with more than 1000 turns in 50 miles! In places the bus had to back up in order to make the sharp turns.

The country around Naples is the poorest we saw on the entire trip. People beg on the streets and many can be seen going through garbage cans. Most farming is done by oxen or cows hitched to crude wooden plows. Oxen and cows are also used to pull wagons on the highways, and are often led by women. Everywhere in Europe we saw women working in the fields.

We went from Naples by train to Rome, where we spent two days touring and sightseeing. At St. Peter's Basilica in Vatican City, we happened to be there when Pope Pius came in, being carried in a chair. The Basilica is a beautiful, huge building with a capacity of about 100,000 people. It was quite a sight when all lighted for the Pope's entrance and speech. He spoke to the crowd in many languages, including English.

Next we went to Florence by bus through a fertile part of Italy. Cities are built on the scabby hills and the flat lands are farmed. Some ground has three different crops growing at the same time — fruit trees, then grape vines on wires strung between the trees, and beans, peas or other smaller plants under the grape vines. All types of equipment can be seen through this part of the country — large tractors, small tractors, cows and oxen. Women are seen along the streams in this part of Italy, doing their washing.

We went by train through Milan, over the Gotthard pass to Zurich. This is a most scenic trip, over and between the mountains. The train makes complete turns in tunnels and passes a certain place three different times at different levels.

After two weeks in Zurich, where we did some sight seeing and visited with Beverly Anne and Bob, we went to Genoa, Italy, to meet Otto and Josephine. After they got off the boat, the four of us looked around Genoa and saw the birthplace of Christopher Columbus.

Returning to Zurich, we made tours of the telephone office and power plants, where equipment is very modern. We also did more sight seeing in the city, which is one of the cleanest and most up-to-date cities we saw in Europe. Window displays are elaborate and there are many neon signs. Near Zurich we took a spectacular ride in an aerial tramway over the Swiss Alps. Each car on the tram carries 40 passengers.

By train we went from Zurich to the Steiermark country, home of our parents. Beverly Anne came with us as our guide. We traveled through the beautiful Innsbruck country, which has high mountains and fertile valleys. At Schlading, former home town of our mother, we stayed at the Pension Steiner, operated by a cousin. This is a resort country where people hike in the mountains during the summer and ski in the winter.

We walked from the Pension Steiner to the house where our mother was born. It was built in 1788 and very few changes have been made in it since that time. We also drove eight miles and then hiked about three to see the meadow where mother used to spend her summers caring for a small herd of cows and making cheese and butter.

Near Schlading we took a cable car ride over the Dachstein Mountains, a range which has in it the second highest mountain in Austria.

OILING OPERATIONS

Thursday of last week a state oiling crew made its appearance in Kendrick and began operations by the ripping up and then re-laying and re-oiling of the east end of Main Street from the Kendrick Garage to the Bear Creek bridge — quite an operation in itself. Three big patrols roared and bucked for most of one day in the ripping up process. They were busy for most of the remaining three days in leveling, turning and mixing the old surface material, as oil was sprayed on it.

We understand that the re-layed section is to be seal-coated after it has been packed harder by travel for a few days.

The state has long rows of gravel at the side of the road between Kendrick and Juliaetta, which, we understand is to form a two-inch thick "half-sole" on the present road. This is also to be seal coated later.

Kendrick's Main Street is to have a seal coating. All this adds up to much better roads for this section, as some of it was in pretty bad shape, particularly that between Kendrick and Juliaetta.

The oiling operations have been something of a hindrance to grain haulers, as they frequently had to wait for clearance past the operation. However, appreciating the improvement, we have yet to hear anyone "beefing" about the delays.

EH, OH! WEATHER

Kendrick has indeed had a weird and varied assortment of weather during the past week — at least for this time of the year.

Wednesday of last week Old Sol came through with a 96 degree temperature; Thursday was again 96; Friday it climbed to a "mere" 98, which it duplicated on Saturday.

Sunday was a bit milder with a 92 degree reading, accompanied during the afternoon by a terrific wind and dust storm. At times the dust was so thick one could hardly see across the canyon — and of course housewives loved it!

The wind was strong enough to tear small limbs and leaves from trees and scatter trash about on lawns and streets.

Monday the temperature was down a bit, hitting a mild 88 degrees. On Monday night it dropped to a cool 48 degrees. Tuesday it was up to 90 again!

SCHOOL LUNCH CANNING

On July 31 6 quarts of red raspberries and 25 pounds of rhubarb were donated and processed for freezing by Mrs. Cecil Gruell.

July 31 Cucumbers were donated by Mrs. Ben Westendahl and processed by Mrs. E. M. White, yield, 18 quarts of Sandwich Pickles.

August 2, Strawberries donated by Mr. Vanderpool and Mrs. C. J. Spence were picked by Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Meserve and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. White, and Mrs. Keith Thornton and family, the latter of Peck. They were processed for freezing by Mrs. Keith Thornton, Mrs. W. M. Huff and Mrs. E. M. White — yield, 31 quarts.

SERVICE ADDRESSES

Mr. and Mrs. Reinhard Wilken have received word from their nephew, Reinhardt Schroeder, that he is now stationed at Aberdeen, Maryland. For the benefit of friends who might care to write, here is his complete address: Pvt. Reinhardt Schroeder, U. S. 56-241-908; 4th E. T. C. Box 217; Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Aberdeen, Maryland.

In last week's issue we had Jim Lohman's APO number wrong. His complete and correct address is: Pvt. James Lohman, US 56-241-906; 128th M. D., Hosp. Evac., SMOL; APO 154, c/o P. M., New York, New York.

LETTER HAD "NEW LOOK"

The big K. H. S. letters and numeral on the hillside overlooking Kendrick from the east took on a new look for a time last week — with a "T" standing out boldly in place of the time-honored K.

Whether our neighbors "over the hill" or other pranksters "did the dirty work" is not known — but there it was.

However, local fans corrected the "error" and the old familiar look has returned.

FAMILY PICNIC AT SPALDING

Members of the Mattoon family gathered at Spalding Park Sunday for the annual reunion picnic.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Burt Ferguson, Clarkston; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barton, Mesa, Ariz.; Mr. and Mrs. Perry Mattoon, Helen and Kathy, Troy; Mr. and Mrs. Bud Fey and sons and Carl Mattoon and granddaughter Karen Moors, Kendrick.

GRASS FIRE THURSDAY

Thursday afternoon the local Forestry Department Fire Fighters were called to extinguish a blaze near the Albright farm near Arrow.

Mr. Lewis said there seemed little doubt but that the blaze had been set by a hot box on the noon passenger train.

They were assisted by Nez Perce county law enforcement officers. But little damage was done.

TO ENTER SERVICE

Albert Clemenhagen, who took his physical examination May 16, has received official notice from "Uncle Sam" to report for duty Aug. 11.

Leonard Gustafson and Jack Parsley took their physical examinations in June — and are on the "waiting list."

HOME FROM SERVICE

Bud Holt arrived home Sunday from Fort Ord, Calif. — and is once more a civilian — his army service behind him and his discharge papers in his pocket! We did not learn his immediate plans for the future.

Uncle Sam says "there must be a paper every week," and so the news will be "Twenty Years Ago."

The office will be open as usual to receive news items, subscriptions and job work — but no job work will be done during that week. If in need of printing during that time — let us know now!

Kendrick Visitor
John Johanson, Lewiston, was a business and pleasure visitor in Kendrick last Thursday afternoon.

Water Show — 7:00 P. M.

Mr. White desires swimmers of all categories for the following events and groups:

1. A group for the "Hoky Poky."
2. Clowns
3. Animals
4. Trick rides.
5. An announcer.
6. Floating animals and fish.
7. Costumes.
8. Records for your skit.

He says: Each group or individual will make up his own skit and costume, and bring the music for it. You may pick any of the five categories listed above, or any other appropriate one you may desire. The first practice will be held on Tuesday, Aug. 12, at 1:30. The second practice will be Thursday, Aug. 14, at 9:00 a. m., and final practice (if needed) will be on Friday, Aug. 15, at 9:00 a. m.

An example of a skit or act is: Six children in a group. One is the trainer, the others are seals. The trainer tosses a beach ball to each seal in its turn and he tries to balance the ball on his nose or head without using his hands. This can be done to any "Calliope" record or circus music.

Mr. White says: "I am sure each of you can think of a better plan than this, but this may be a guide."

The contest, conceived by the V. F. W. as a project for the children included two groups — 6 to 10 years old in one category, and 11 through 16 years in the other.

JULIAETTA DOINGS IN PAST WEEK

EARLY DAY DISPLAY; VISITING; DINNERS ARE RECORDED

Early Day Display

A group of early day harvest scenes dating back to 1900 are on display in the Juliaetta Cash Store window — bringing back fond memories to old timers who once pitched bundles and sewed sacks.

The oldest picture shows Al Whitted's crew with a horse-power machine operating on Fix ridge about 1900. Another photograph taken about 1904 shows a wagon train with 27 loaded wagons coming down the Fix ridge grade.

Along with the harvest pictures is one of the Dave Wood's sawmill near Troy, in 1891. The crew used oxen to haul in the logs.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Merrick returned to their home here Sunday from Bellvue, Idaho, where they have been since school was out. Their son John, who attended summer school at E. W. C. E., Cheney, is also home and has started work at the Mead & Howard Lumber Co. His friend and school mate, Bob Short, Spokane, joined him here Monday and will also work at the mill until school starts. He will stay at the Merrick home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Merrick drove to Pullman Tuesday evening to visit with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Merrick. Harry has been attending summer school there.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Deobald and children of Moscow spent part of Sunday here in the home of his mother, Mrs. Elsie Deobald.

Mrs. Bernice Smith of Grants Pass, Oregon, and Mrs. Florence Turner of Bonanza, Ore., were visiting old friends, places and relatives here on Monday. They have been gone from Idaho 38 years. Among the relatives visited were Mrs. Henry Jones, Mrs. Jessie Bateman and the Arthur Foster family.

SCHUPFER TOUR

That day we saw a chamois goat.

One day in Schlading, we missed getting a good picture with our cameras. A woman, was walking and leading a cow, which was pulling a load of hay, while a man, probably her husband, and a boy sat on top the load. The man occasionally prodded the cow with a stick.

Halstaadt is an interesting village we visited near Schlading. Streets are so narrow that traffic is allowed to go in one direction for 15 minutes, and then in the other direction for 15 minutes. The town dates back to the 1400's. The cemetery is small so bodies are removed from graves after 10 or 12 years. The bones are cleaned and bleached and names are marked across the forehead. Some 5,000 skulls are stacked on a table in a building behind a church and other bones are piled, like cord wood, under the table.

At Grobming, our father's former home town, we stayed three days. One night we had rooms in a 35-room pension, recently built by a cousin and her husband. Other Schupfer cousins operate a sawmill, farms and dairies at Grobming.

On tickets that cost less than $10 each we circled Austria, covering about 1,000 miles by train and bus. This tour took us 18 days. Train service is excellent in Austria, as well as in other European countries. The trains are clean, always on schedule, and crowded.

In Vienna we toured museums, the opera house, Schonbrun Palace, the summer home of former Emperor Franz Josef, and rode on the Prater, highest and largest ferris wheel in the world.

Egon Schuyfer, another cousin, showed us around Graz, second largest city in Austria. Here we saw an armory, dating back to the 15th century, with equipment for 26,000 men, and the Schlossburg Hill, which is in the center of the city and site of an ancient fort. We stayed at the Erzherzog Johann Hotel, where each room was 20x36 feet in size and had 19 pieces of heavy furniture. The hotel is located where Napoleon's horse barn once stood.

From Graz we went by train through Klagenfurt to Lienz, where we boarded a bus to go over the Grossglockner Highway, a winding road three times the length of the Lewiston Hill. This side trip we recommend to anyone going to Europe.

Shortly after we left Lienz, a group of children got on our bus. They made themselves comfortable and then we were surprised to hear them sing in English "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean." Fellingbitz, near the foot of the Grossglockner Mountain is a pretty village, where we stopped to see a beautiful church, built in the 15th century.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

The Gazette received last week from E. G. (Ned) Harlan, Boise, a clipping from a Portland Oregonian telling of the death in a freeway accident Saturday morning, July 19, of a former Kendrick resident, Robert E. Sinclair. The clipping says in part: "Robert E. Sinclair and his wife Bernice were dead on arrival at Providence Hospital following the accident on the freeway about one-half mile east of Bridal Veil."

"Mr. Sinclair was assistant to the general manager of the Pacific Power & Light Co., in Portland. He was a rate engineer.

"He was born March 21, 1907, in Kendrick, Idaho, and was educated at Barge Grade School and high school in Yakima. He was graduated from Cornell University in 1929."

After considerable inquiry, information was obtained from Frank Crocker, Ernest Davis and E. A. Deobald by which we learned that Mr.

Sinclair's father was associated with Ramsey Walker in the operation of the old Lincoln Hardware here in the 1890's and early 1900's. The family lived in the home now occupied by Mrs. Harry Baker. Mrs. Sinclair was Lucy Fisher before her marriage, and she taught school here.

The family moved to Yakima in 1909.

BATTLE FOR WATER RIGHTS

Wash., D. C. — Sen. Henry Dworshak warned Idahoans today that "the gauntlet has been thrown down in the battle to take away state water rights" by the Northwest Public Power Association.

Dworshak said Gus Norwood, executive secretary of the group, in a recent speech said, "Our biggest immediate job is to promote the regional power corporation. We hope Congress will approve a regional corporation by 1960." The Idaho senator said the power group has "taken its wraps, has abandoned all pretense of being interested in fish resources, in flood control or comprehensive development and has embarked on a bold scheme to seize control of all the waters of the Northwest."

Dworshak said the recent "educational" hearings held in Washington, D. C., indicated clearly to him that once this "regional corporation," which is another name for Columbia Valley Authority, was set up, irrigation water rights, private power, fishery protection and state direction over water would be "erased by a self-perpetuating, avaricious board of directors responsible to no one, with dictatorial powers over all future resource development."

Dworshak said Idaho people should gird themselves for battle on this issue or "wake up some day to find Idaho a poor water relative of Oregon and Washington." He said these states are not content to control the Columbia river water that flows through them, but are now after the headwaters.

1930	25 TON MILES PER GALLON
1958	43 TON MILES PER GALLON

Can you think of any liquid that costs less than gasoline . . . except water?

Today's gasoline has far more value. An accurate way to measure this value is by "ton-miles" . . . the number of miles a gallon of gasoline will move a ton of car. Average performance in 1930 was 25 ton-miles per gallon. Today it's 43 — or 70% more work per gallon.

Quart for quart, gallon for gallon, almost any liquid you buy costs more than gasoline . . . and gasoline performance today costs less than it did in 1930.

Fuel cost per ton-mile is down 18% since 1930. To move a ton of car a mile took 2¢ worth of fuel. Modern gasolines move today's heavier cars a ton-mile for about 1/2¢. When you remember you are buying performance, gasoline costs less today than in 1930.

In spite of higher operating costs in the oil industry, gasoline prices have been held down through research and intense competition. Since 1930 the price of gasoline (excluding taxes) rose only 23%. During the same period the general cost of living went up 70%.

The taxes on a tankful of gasoline would buy between four and five extra "tax-free" gallons. Combined state and federal taxes, which help pay for better roads, add about 9¢ to the price of every gallon . . . nearly 30% of your gasoline dollar buys no gasoline at all.

ONE VOTE CARRIES BONDS

Lapwai school patrons Tuesday approved, by an unofficial one-vote margin, a $325,000 bond issue for the construction of new school rooms and buildings. They include an eight-room addition to the high school, a vocational agriculture building, a bus building and a new elementary school at Lenore.

The count was 166 "yes" and 81 "no" votes. A two-thirds majority of the votes cast was required for the issue to pass. For the 247 ballots cast that would mean 165 favorable votes. The votes will be officially canvassed at a meeting of the Lapwai School Board Monday night. — Lewiston Tribune.

WRITES FROM IOWA

In making their annual subscription renewal Rev. Gustav Meyer accompanied it with a friendly letter that says in part:

"As I renew my subscription to the Gazette, which is always a most welcome weekly visitor in our home, I shall include a few lines which may be appreciated by your readers, our relatives and friends.

"Last year I related about the rain makers here, because of the lack of moisture. But this year I can state that no rain makers are around, for we are granted much rainfall for all the fruits of the earth, grain and corn, and just at the right time.

"It is true that we are having a very cool summer, just right for the grain crop, which is bringing very good yields. But the corn could not look any better, as we surveyed the countryside the other day.

"Without doubt you have read in the papers about the tornadoes out in the middle west here, and the devastation they wrought. But we have thus far been spared by them, although one, a severe one, came to within 30 miles of Sioux City.

"It is true, and we are glad, that we have an alarm system to alert us when the destructive elements come along, that we may seek shelter.

"We were most glad when last September Mr. and Mrs. August F.

Wegner and Wayne called on us as they were driving through. "Greetings to all from Sioux City, the city where Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota meet. — Sincerely, Rev. Gustav Meyer."

SOMETHING FOR NOTHING

(The following letter was received by the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture.)
The farmer who lives next door to me received $1,000 from the U. S. D. A. for not raising 50 hogs. This idea intrigued me. I should like to be able to get $2,000 for not raising 100 hogs. I would like to know what kind of land is the best not to raise hogs on, and also what is the best kind of hogs not to raise. I would rather not raise razorbacks — but if this breed is not the best one not to raise, I will not raise Hampshires and Yorkshires.
Start me off with 4000 hogs which I will not raise, and I also understand that my neighbor gets paid for corn which he does not raise. The hogs which I will not raise, will not eat 100,000 bushels of corn which I will not raise, and if you do not need a farm not to raise hogs — I figure you will owe me about $80,000.00.
Please send me a check as soon as possible, as things are very slow, and this is the best time of the year not to raise hogs. — Contributed by a subscriber.

ASSAULT ON HEALTH PROBLEMS PLANNED THIS YEAR

New York — A program that will permit a scientific assault on major health problems of the nation, with arthritis and birth defects as the initial new targets, was announced this week by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Basil O'Connor, president of the organization that made possible the Salk Polio Vaccine, outlined its broad new program of future attack on disease and disability at a press conference in New York last week.

While carrying on the winning fight against polio, the National Foundation, as it now will be known, will continue its history-making virus research program and investigations of disorders of the central nervous system, and will add research and patient aid in arthritis and birth defects (congenital malformations), Mr. O'Connor said.

The expanded program will be financed through the traditional March of Dimes conducted each January by volunteers in 3,100 county chapters across the country.

Mr. O'Connor said: "This is our concept for the future. The development of an organized voluntary force in the fields of medical research, patient care and professional education, flexible enough to meet new health problems as they arise, with specific goals.

"The heart of the new program is research. It will be expanded from where it is now, without the restriction of being confined to a single disease."

Freedom to follow research clues wherever they lead will be combined with necessary limitations on patient care. The limitations result from the enormity of the patient care problem. At least 11,000,000 persons have arthritis and rheumatism; 250,000 children are born with significant birth defects each year, and an estimated 150,000 persons who have had paralytic polio still will require some assistance in the years ahead.

It is planned to offer patient aid at first only to arthritis patients through 18 years of age and to children suffering from malformations of the central nervous system also through 18 years of age, he said. Some 16,000 children arthritis sufferers can be expected to seek treatment each year and about 8,000 patients annually have birth defects of the central nervous system.

NEWS VERY SCARCE

This is one of those weeks when everyone is too busy to go anywhere — do any entertaining — or otherwise "make news."

Our correspondents have phoned or written to say "I'm too busy to get the news together — if there was any" or "nothing worth reporting is going on out here," or similar words.

Kendrick seems to be in the same condition. Everyone too busy to make news worth reporting in any quantity.

Of course the politicians have been busy, or fairly so. We have had a number call at the shop — but far below the usual "parade."

HELLO, FOLKS:

A retired farmer, bored, one winter day, decided to take apart his old grandfather clock to see what made it work. Late the same day he had it back together and it seemed to work as well as ever. In the early hours of the morning, however, the thing went haywire, striking 117 times before it finally stopped. His wife woke with a start.

"Jasper," she shouted, "you'd better get up. Darned if it isn't later than I ever knew it to be before!"

before!"

How dry weather bring on lubrication problems — and that's the place we "rise and shine." There's a Union Lubricant for every need. Call us at 1251.

A man owes it to himself to become successful. After that he owes it to the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Tires quite a problem? Don't let them be. Come in and talk it over with us. You will be surprised at how cheaply you can own a new set!

Little Johnny, an avid TV fan, was visiting with his mother in the north and saw snow for the first time. "Look, Ma," he shouted, "See what DUZ is doing now!"
