

NEW SCHOOL MAY BE ROOFED BY OCTOBER 25TH

Everett Hollibough, prime contractor for the new district junior-senior high school, at Kendrick, announced this week that barring difficulty on the shipment of laminated beams, the class room building would have a roof over it by the 25th of October. He also said that 50 percent of the concrete work is now complete.

"The brick layers should be on the job by the latter part of the week, or the first of next," Hollibough said.

This report was received with much enthusiasm at Monday night's meeting of the board of school directors. All agreed that the progress is much faster than they first expected.

The directors reviewed the auditor's report from Hayden and Roth of Moscow, and found that it matched to the penny with the clerk's report.

The directors also discussed the policy of students being absent from school for the purpose of hunting. The directors all agreed that the school was to be attended a certain number of days a year, and that attendance was the most important thing. Supt. Meserve said: "Students will now be expected to attend classes and not be hunting on school days."

LIONS HEAR TALK

Last Wednesday evening the Kendrick Community Lions Club met at the Fire Hall for their regular session.

Mr. Pederson, of the U. & I. Sugar Co., public relations head, was guest speaker. He took the club on an illustrated tour (pictures and sound) of sugar making, from beet seed to the finished product. The pictures were beautifully filmed, and the subject interesting to all. This is a picture recommended for all to see if given the opportunity.

NOW AT HOME

Roy Glenn returned home last Friday from a Spokane hospital where he underwent surgery for a broken leg on Monday. Mrs. Glenn and her brother, Paul Richardson, going up for him.

Mr. Glenn suffered a broken right leg some three weeks ago. It was set, but X-rays disclosed that the two small bones were not staying in place, so he was taken to Spokane where he underwent surgery for the insertion of a pin.

He is now up and about on crutches and says the injured "member" is feeling better day by day.

OPEN HOUSE SUN.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Wells will be honored Sunday, October 18th, at an Open House observance of their 25th or Silver Wedding anniversary, from 2:00 to 5:00 p. m.

Hostesses will be the Mesdames T. E. King, Orval Choate, Cliff Brown and Rollin Armitage.

KENDRICK DIKE IS 80% COMPLETE, DEADLINE OCT. 20

The Kendrick Dike job is now 80 percent complete, with a deadline date of October 20, the Corps of Army Engineers reported in a letter to the Kendrick Gazette late last week.

The letter also informed the Gazette that the excavation work has been slow, due to the excessive size of the river channel boulders.

The Canaday and Van Winkle Construction Co. also related the high waters have also hampered the levee work.

Rip-rap is now being produced from a quarry on Bear Creek, and from the rock point opposite the old Vollmer-Clearwater warehouse. The rock point is being re-shaped to allow flood waters a free course. Formerly this point diverted the water toward town.

The following list was submitted by the Army Engineers as the principal items of work: Foundation preparation, 2.6 acres; excavation, common, 35,000 cubic yards; excavation, rock, 6,100 cubic yards; embankment, 27,000 cubic yards, and rip-rap, 7,100 cubic yards.

The work is under the jurisdiction of Col. Paul H. Symbol, district engineer, U. S. Army Engineer District, Walla Walla. Peter Matz is the resident inspector.

Up until this week the contractors had been busy from dawn to dark, placing the rip-rap on the final phase of the dike from the upper Lewiston Grain Growers warehouse to the Big Bear Creek bridge. However, Sunday night the temporary bridge used by the firm's trucks and equipment to cross the Potlatch river for rip-rap rock from the bluff, washed out — and all work came to a standstill.

Resumption of operations is contingent upon the river waters receding.

SECOND EDITION OF BOOK LEAVES PRESSES SATURDAY

The second printing of John A. Platt's book, "Whispers from Old Genesee" and Echoes of the Salmon River" was completed and delivered to Mr. Platt by the Gazette last Saturday. The first edition, comprising 200 volumes, was completely sold out by Mr. Platt within a six-week period, and we understand that a considerable number of the second edition, also of 200 volumes, was spoken for before delivery to him.

We believe that the following review by H. J. Swinney of the Idaho Historical Society, which appeared in this month's bulletin of that organization, tells the story in its entirety:

"I constantly tell audiences of Idahoans that history consists not only of the solid and scholarly volumes which I like to call 'the engineering calculations of history,' but also of the stories of people — the everyday people who built the world.

"By the latter definition, I think John Platt's little paper-bound book is legitimate history. There aren't very many columns of statistics in it (thank goodness!), but there are set down on its pages the warm memories of a lifetime spent in the growing country of central Idaho. This is not a book which will tell you the orderly story of the economic development of that country, but it is a book which will tell you a good deal about the kind of individual who developed it.

"I don't know whether it is true that one should always be able to sense the personality of a good story teller through his stories, but John Platt's stories are about as nearly inimitable as the printed word usually gets. He hasn't chosen to confine them within the framework of a pre-arranged order, but has simply told them, one by one, apparently as they came to him, and the reader has to take them in the same spirit. The first 67 pages concern his life near Genesee and the succeeding 46 deal with the days he spent in the Salmon River Country. Within those two sections, reminiscence and yarn follow one another thick and fast.

"A more professional editing job might have achieved a little more order, and would certainly have brought the spelling more nearly into line with conventional standards. But I am not sure this would have been a real improvement. If 'Pop' Platt (the frontpiece identifies him so, and I'll bet a lot of people call him that) chooses to spell it 'maltia' instead of militia and 'assalt' instead of assault, who cares? He knows what he means, and I think most readers will know what he means, and anyway, a great Danish linguist once pronounced as a truism that usage is the arbiter of language. John Platt uses the language that way, and people who don't like it don't have to read his book. I like it. — H. J. Swinney."

Copies of the book may be obtained by writing or calling Mr. Platt, or at the Gazette, P. O. Box G, Kendrick. Price $3.00.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Dahlberg of Moscow and Mr. and Mrs. Barney May, Sr., of Lewiston.

TIGERS SEEK THIRD FOOTBALL WIN AT GENESSEE FRIDAY

The Kendrick Tigers will be seeking their third football win of the season last Friday afternoon, when they meet the Bulldogs of Genesee at Genesee at 2:00 p. m.

Kendrick won its second game of the season last Friday evening when they rolled past Pierce 27 to 14.

The Tigers had possession of the football only four times, for a total of 16 plays Friday night, but the break-away running of Doug Shepherd enabled the Tigers to defeat their opponents by a 13-point margin.

Shepherd ran 55 yards for the initial touchdown; then Pierce came back to tie the score 7-7. A Pierce player ran for 10 yards, which capped a long drive for the Foresters.

Shepherd then dashed 70 yards for Kendrick, and Pierce led 14 to 13 at the half-time.

Pierce had the ball for most of the second half, and had one touchdown called back by a penalty. Kendrick shook Shepherd loose on a 50-yard scoring jaunt, and tallied again on a 20-yard pass, Duane Meske to Jerry Armitage.

Out of town callers in the Ed. Groseclose home this week-end included Mr. and Mrs. Garnett Wilson of Lewiston; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wilson and family of Ferdinand; Mrs. Manley McDonald and daughter of Lewiston; Mrs. Paul Baldwin of Orofino, and Laurence Wilson of Asotin.

A new kind of house-to-house party was introduced in the Gary Eggers

KENDRICK COUPLE'S ELECTROPLATING BUSINESS ONLY ONE IN NORTHWEST

Kendrick's newest and only metal industry swung into high gear this week offering its residents and people throughout the northwest the opportunity of preserving forever the memories of childhood.

Judd and Myra Lee of Kendrick decided to preserve their children's baby shoes as a memento of the years that are so cherished by all parents.

In seeking to find a place to have the little shoes metal plated for permanent keeping, Mr. Lee, Kendrick hardware employee, found that the closest place to get the work done was in California or New York. He and his wife sent their children's shoes off to have the job done.

When the shoes were returned in shining copper coating, Judd decided that the distance was too great, and the job was not just exactly what was wanted, so he decided to look into the procedure and sent for literature on the process.

Early this summer Judd and Myra decided that they had enough room on their property to set up a small workshop and get the necessary equipment to do electroplating on their own.

"The process is lengthy," Lee says. "It takes nearly five days to completely finish a pair of shoes."

The time involved in the process, from start to finish would necessarily

TRICK OR TREAT FOR UNICEF

Young people of the Assembly of God Church are uniting with the youth of the Kendrick Community Church in a new Halloween venture.

Over a period of years the idea of using Halloween as an occasion to "Trick or Treat" for the world's children has grown enormously. Children in thousands of communities learn about the United Nations' Children's Fund (UNICEF). Then they visit from home to home with an identifying arm band and a can in which those who wish to do so may contribute to the program of the Children's Fund.

This program has grown so in popularity that the young people of the two local churches are going to use Halloween as an opportunity to help others, rather than collecting sweets for themselves.

STUDENT BODY

A K. H. S. Student Body meeting was held on Friday, Oct. 9, with Richard Nelson, president, presiding. A discussion on whether or not to publish an annual this year was held, and it was decided to publish one.

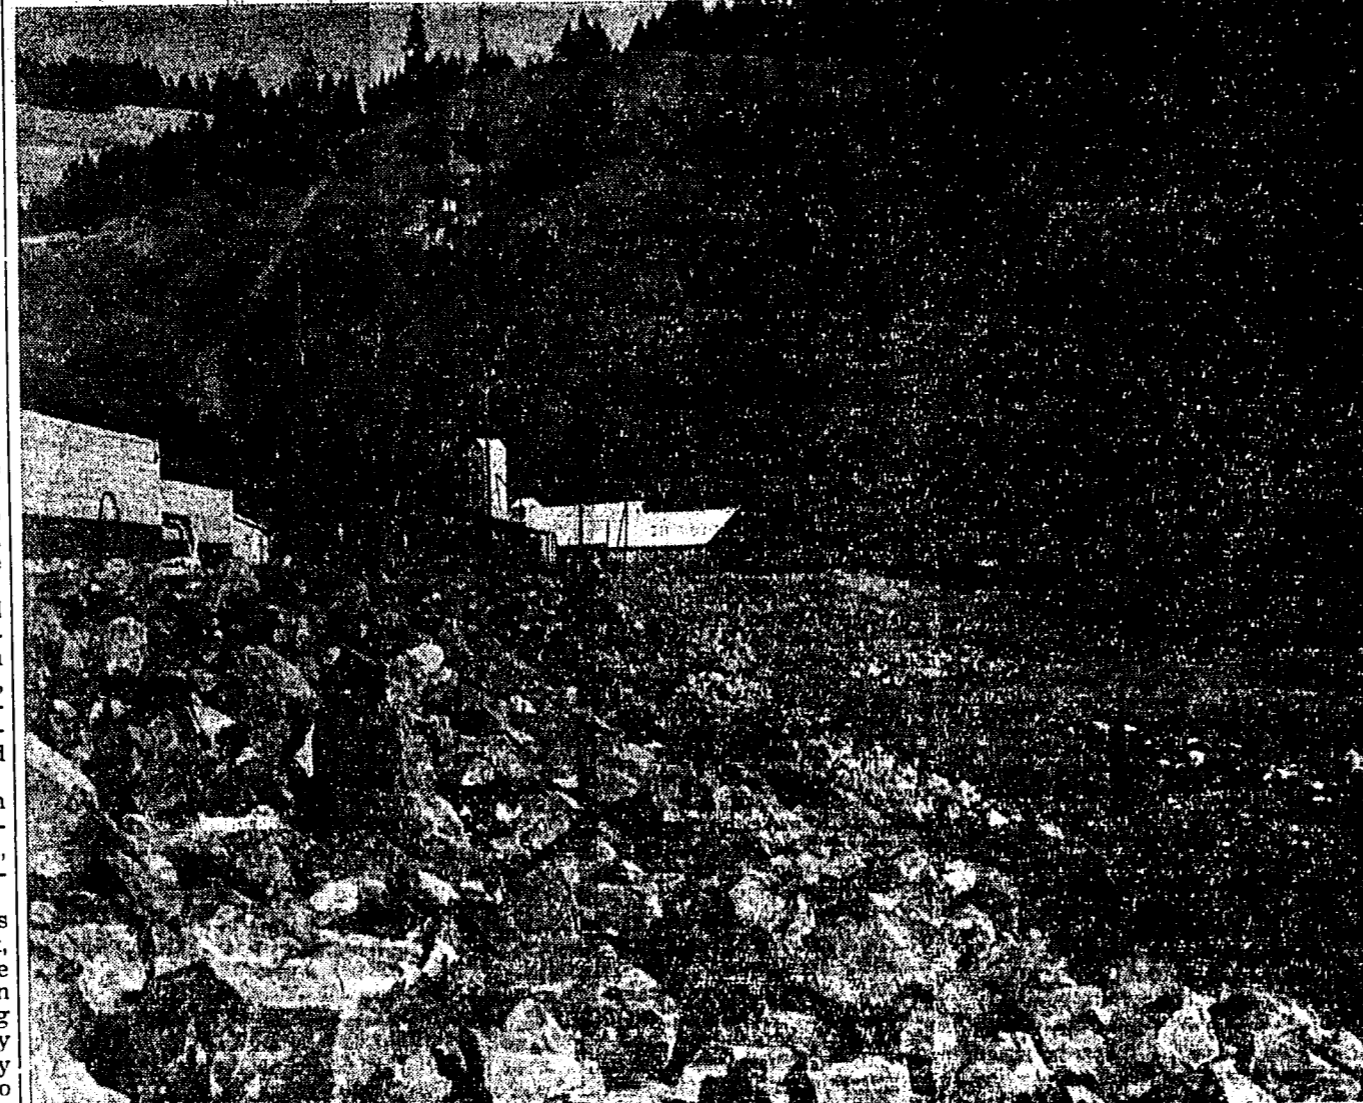

The matter of a carnival was discussed, and it was voted to hold the annual event. However, it was decided that each class take the proceeds from their concession, instead of the money going into the Student Body treasury.

The group voted to buy another steel goal post to go with the one already up at Armitage Field, and to paint both of them.

The assembly also voted to buy lighted batons for the four majorettes.

GREAT-GRANDSON

A call from Salmon, Idaho, Thursday evening, informed Mr. and Mrs. John Platt of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. John Gilson. Mr. Gilson is the Platt's grandson.

Oct. 12 — Mrs. Leslie Heimgartner was hostess to the Friendship Club last Thursday. A quilt was about half quilted for the hostess. In the business session new officers were elected as follows: Mrs. Roy Heimgartner, president; Mrs. Marion Stevens, vice president; Mrs. Cletis Hoisington, treasurer, and Mrs. Darrel Kerby, secretary. The club also decided to withdraw from their association with the County Home Demonstration work.

Ernest, Kenneth and Billy Steibers returned from their annual elk hunt early this week, with an elk apiece — the only successful hunters from our community that I've heard of. Most of the men who usually go chose to stay home this year in an attempt to finish fall work, which has been delayed because of the inclement weather.

were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stevens and family.

Monday afternoon a group of Friendship Club members met at the home of Mrs. Leslie Heimgartner to help her finish quilting the quilt begun Thursday. The next regular meeting will be October 22nd at the Eldon Heimgartner home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zimmerman and family of Spokane were week-end guests, October 3rd and 4th, of Mr. and Mrs. Cletis Hoisington and family.

FREEMEN and VIGILANTES

Before formal "book-style" law came to Idaho territory, "miners' justice" or a vote of those present in the "gulch" decided most legal questions. As news of the fabulous strikes in Idaho mining camps spread eastward, road agents, drifters and confidence men arrived in force to earn their fortunes the easy way.

Against their organized terror arose the famed Vigilantes who closed the gap between "miners' justice" and formal law in the west, to protect and insure the precious rights of the individual. The in-born love of liberty and freedom which brought the pioneers to develop this boundless new western land, survives today as a part of life in Idaho.

The right of an individual to make his free choice whether it be to cultivate or mine his land is a traditional western heritage. The same philosophy prevails upon the right of westerners to choose a glass of beer for refreshment. It's a part of life in Idaho.

Today in Idaho the United States Brewers Foundation works constantly throughout the beer business to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions.

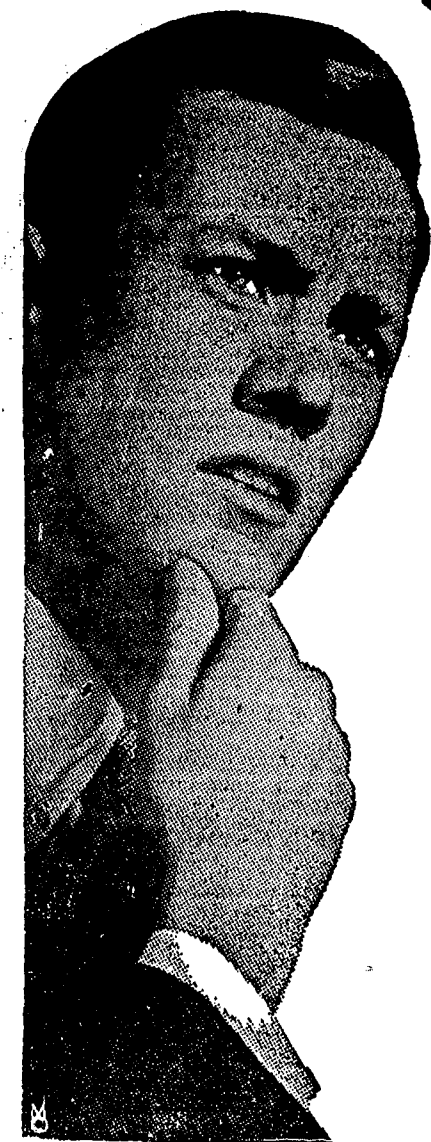

Beer belongs in the free west. Enjoy it.

That 12,490 Americans now own shares in public corporations. That is nearly double the 1952 number of shareholders. When the Washington Water Power recently asked for a small rate increase (only one other general increase in the past 70 years) it had in mind its obligation to 21,000 stockholders, expansion and the upkeep of properties, not to mention $6 millions paid annually in taxes, which never seems quite enough.

Why do people eat candy? Because it tastes good? Not on your life, say motivation researchers. When we were little, a piece of candy was given as a reward for something. Now, as adults, we eat candy to reward ourselves for something which we can't even remember, or don't care to think of.

Defense spending has gone down 1.1 billion since 1954, while non-defense spending of government has gone up ten times—10.3 billions. Federal, state and local governments spend about 30% of the national income, with the federal government claiming 20% of the total. Remember, when you ask the government to spend money—for a battleship or a power plant—it must come out of your earnings.

TVA claims to have low-cost electric power. And I know why. The State of Ohio, for example, paid $338,800,000 in taxes to help build and operate the TVA. Every state contributes something. Often a state's payment from taxes to help support the TVA is greater than all education funds asked for, and more than it would take to balance state budgets.

THE THIRTEENTH MINUTE AND YOU

The number thirteen has always held a mystical enchantment for mankind. His fascination with numerical superstition dates back into the dimmest recesses of recorded history and has always had its devotees among the genus homo sapiens. Perhaps his fascination with the number thirteen goes back to the days of the Druids, when the occult flourished in the low countries of Olde England, and was the guiding force behind every major, if somewhat primitive, decision.

At any rate, the fear and fascination associated with this mystical number still persists even in the midst of this super-charged, jet-propelled rocket launching century. Otherwise intelligent people will delay an act of great import, laughingly (but with fingers crossed) if it falls on Friday the 13th. And witness the ribald and hilarious brand of humor that is bound to greet a fellow sufferer who just happened to receive a minor, if sometimes painful injury, on the 13th of the month.

Everyone, however, does not subscribe to the theory that the number 13 is entirely unlucky. At any rate some, in open defiance of the mystic forces that guide this number, emblazon it on articles of clothing, automobiles, boats, airplanes.

The fact that someone dies in an automobile accident somewhere in these United States every 13 minutes of the day will not influence you in your personal feelings about this fateful number.

Indeed, the further fact that someone is seriously injured in a highway mishap every 13 seconds of every minute will have no bearing on your intelligent approach to these old country superstitions. But, nevertheless, these facts are true.

However, when you're driving the automobile, and especially if you have the radio on, you might remember that between station breaks (which occur every 13 to 15 minutes) someone has died as the result of recklessness, speed, lack of attention — or?

BIG SQUASH

John DeHaven came into the Gazette office Monday morning carrying a huge banana squash. The big vegetable tipped the scales at 40 pounds, and measured 36 inches in length. John says he only regrets that he lived in Nez Perce County and couldn't enter it in the Latah County Fair — as it was head and shoulders above any like variety on display.

He also adds that his wife says he picked it a bit green — and should have waited until it reached its full growth! And who is he to argue with a woman!

FLEX-O-GLASS

Over Your Doors Windows
A Few Dollars Is All It Takes

"Flex-O-Glass has made our porch a year 'round, livable room. The children love it!"

"Here's an inside view of our large screened porch. If you couldn't see the snow outside, you'd think it was taken in summer. What doesn't show is the crystal-clear Flex-O-Glass summer. What doesn't show is the invisible barrier between our home and winter. This is the second year we have used the same and winter. We expect it to last at least two years more. That Flex-O-Glass. We expect it to last at least two years more. That means it will cost us only about $15 a year to protect the rest of the house against drafts. We can leave our furniture on the porch the entire year and provide a warm, protected play area for the children. If you would like to use this letter to tell other home owners how much they're missing by not using your wonderful Flex-O-Glass to protect their homes against winter weather, you have my enthusiastic approval."

"Flex-O-Glass is the cheapest investment in winter comfort we've ever made," says L. O. Higbie.
"The few yards of Warp's clear Flex-O-Glass we tacked over the screens of our breezeway kept out cold, wind, rain and snow and gave us a warm extra room. I tell my friends that if their breezeway is a winter 'blitzkrieg' to get up Flex-O-Glass and keep winter cold outside where it belongs."
"Our living room was warmer than any other room we had been in, such a relief, not to have any more cold drafts on the floor," says Mrs. K. Klump (from wife).
"Our home is on a hill and gets the full blast of winter wind. Last winter we covered the front door and the windows with Flex-O-Glass. It made the house much easier to heat. We're so glad we got Flex-O-Glass that we're going to cover our entire front porch with it this winter. It was just a week earlier last year. With Flex-O-Glass tacked on, it will give us an extra room and double the protection for the rest of the house." (To receive this extra porch will require only 18 yards of flexible Flex-O-Glass, costing only $12.42.)

HELLO, FOLKS:

Not a man on the crowded bus rose to give the bundle-laden woman a seat. One young fellow, however, was more thoughtful than the others.

He tugged at her skirt and whispered: "Be on your toes at Maple Street, lady. That's where I get off."

Fooled you, didn't we? You thought we'd begin by telling you how completely satisfactory those Union Oil Co. products are!

"By the way, honey, did you put my cooking outfit in the bag? We'll want to fry some of the fish we catch."

"Yes, dear, and you will also find a can of sardines there, too, and some crackers and cheese."

In a hurry to get that long-delayed fall work done? Call us at 4251 for Union gasoline — diesel fuel — motor oils — lubricants — greases. They give you the push you need!

The older generation thought nothing of getting up at 5 o'clock in the morning — and the younger generation doesn't think so much of it either!

Anti-freeze? You bet we have it. Stop at the station and let us drain and flush that radiator and install the proper anti-freeze

Next door neighbor: "I can hear your hi-fi as though it were in my room."

Jenkins: "Swell. Then, would you care to help me pay off some of the installments?"
