John Yost Takes Bride

Word has been received here by friends that Rev. John Yost, a former pastor of the Methodist Church here, was united in marriage to Miss Linda Beckett, at the Appleton Chapel, Harvard Memorial Church, Cambridge, Mass., on Saturday, February 4, at 3:00 p. m.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Pullman High School, and W. S. U., the bride having just received her degree. The groom is a student at Harvard Divinity School.

Mr. Yost and Mr. Emerson took turns in the pulpit here at the Methodist Church a few years ago, while both were attending college at Pullman.

Entertain At Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Gruell entertained at a bridge party Saturday evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. George Merrick and Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Tarry. The Merricks held high scores.

Delightful refreshments in the St. Patrick's Day decor were served at the close of the evening.

Coffee Hour

Mrs. Dennis Racicot entertained a group at a "Coffee Hour" in her home Friday morning, honoring Mrs. Keith Clear on her birthday anniversary.

Those present were Mrs. Douglas Christensen, Jr., and children, Mrs. Robert Hall and daughter, Mrs. Darrel Mantul and son, Mrs. Bob Merserve and daughter, Mrs. Bob Magnuson and daughter and the honor guest, Mrs. Keith Clear and daughter.

TV Association Mulls Problems

Some 35 members of the Juliaetta TV Association met last Tuesday evening in the gym of the local grade school. That so few TV owners attended was attributed to the short notice of the meeting given by Association directors. Another meeting is scheduled for next Monday night, March 19th. It is hoped that every TV owner in Juliaetta will attend.

The meeting Tuesday night was to attempt to decide what type of equipment should be used to construct the proposed new translator stations. It was decided that not enough people were present to make any decisions, so the Monday meeting date was set. A financial report was given showing a cash balance of $2,256.00. The Association also has pledges amounting to $985, giving a total of $3,241.00.

A number of translators now being manufactured were discussed at the meeting and it was noted that if the Association is to be able to purchase reliable equipment more money and pledges are needed.

There are 113 television set owners in Juliaetta. Everyone is watching the same signals. It is not fair that some pay and some do not. The Association is not trying to press anyone who does not have money available at this time, so honest pledges are equally acceptable. Anyone who pledges has until Oct. 1, 1961, to pay. That date could also be extended if a hardship factor should arise.

This is a community project, and everyone stands to profit. At present 45 people in the community have contributed or declared they would contribute. What are the 68 other television owners going to do? The Association would like to know. We cannot construct three stations as things now stand, in fact, it's a good bet that we might wake up some morning and there will be no "Three Stooges."

Remember: The Monday night meeting, March 19, 1961, Juliaetta School, at 7:00 o'clock. Be there!

We are making match-box covered wagons to correlate our study of the Oregon Trail, in Idaho History class. The grade school has received enough "Insta-Aid" cards for each family having children in school. These cards can be very helpful in giving instructions for the care of someone who is hurt — if one takes the time to read them. They are called first aid at a glance. The grade school purchased them with their own money that they have earned.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Millard had a dinner guests Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Luther Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brocke, Jr.

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN HOLD BIG PAINT UP, BIGGER PAINT DOWN

The Kendrick Volunteer Firemen do a thorough job, never let it be said that they don't! They do an excellent job on a fire mop-up — and last Wednesday evening they had to do a hurry-up job on a floor mop-up!

Following a delicious bean feed, prepared by Chief Chef E. M. (Wyatt) White, members of the Kendrick Volunteer Fire Department went to the task of interior decorating, (repainting the interior of the Fire Hall).

Many brushes and rollers were busy distributing several gallons of paint, with near negligible amounts being deposited on the floor. Part of the crew was busy on a seven-foot scaffold, while the remainder reached as high as they could, and others took care of the baseboard painting, next to the new hardwood floor.

With only a few feet remaining to be painted from the scaffold — a leg of the equipment collapsed, dropping its three non-union men to the floor! Not only did the painters fall, but several gallons of light green wall tone was applied to the floor, without a single stroke of brush or roller!

Bedlam ensued. Many uncensored words were used to describe the terrible accident. For the next hour and a half, firemen, speckled with paint, could be seen scurrying from one place to other as the mop-up procedure took place.

Alack, but not alas, the final report is a good one. The floor is cleanly mopped, and the walls display a fresh, clean coat of pale green paint.

As a result of this incident, the "grape vine" carries the news that Don Millard was given strict orders to reduce — as the scaffold went down under him!

ANCIENT PIPE

John DeHaven brought to the Gazette office Monday morning something really old in pipes — it is a "four man model," designed for use by four men simultaneously. The huge bowl sits on a table, and there are places for four stems!

Mr. DeHaven said the ancient pipe was hand-carved during the Civil War from "Tennessee Pipe Stone," in the vicinity of Lookout Mountain. A brother of Mr. DeHaven's grandmother was the man who made it. It is truly an antique.

DUMP GROUND POSES PROBLEM

One of the "smelliest problems" facing the Kendrick "village fathers" is what to do about the Kendrick village dump grounds — since Bear Creek changed its channel with the high water of some three to four weeks ago.

There seems to be three possible solutions:

1. When the spring freshets pass get a bulldozer to put Bear Creek back in its channel again, and use the present channel as a dump and land fill operation.

2. Move back to the old dump grounds, which would need considerable cleaning and shaping before they could be put into use, or

3. Find a new dump ground location, where the use and land fill system could be employed.

Any one of these three moves will cost considerably — but something has to be done. If anyone has any suggestions, the "Village Fathers" will be most happy to receive them.

Our note: Adding to the "smelly problem" is the fact that someone dumped a dead skunk at the edge of the grounds and edge of the road last week. Brothe-r-r-r!

P.-T. A. TO MEET

An executive Board meeting will precede the regular session, at 7:30.

TV CABLE "BACK ON JOB" IN JUST HOURS

Brocke & Sons, Inc., owners and operators of the Kendrick TV cable system, and who suffered the loss Wednesday morning by theft, of their relay pickup, translators, etc., had the cable system back in operation by mid-afternoon of the same day.

They used the "cabled up equipment" in use following the theft of their first system, 25 days previously.

George Brocke, Sr., said: "We are doing the best we can until new equipment can be obtained to replace the latest theft — and we value our loss at somewhere between $400 and $450.00. We ask our patrons indulgence until proper repairs and replacements can be made."

Everyone on the system feels that Brocke's are to be highly complimented on the quick restoration of service — and no one is doing any complaining!

No clues of any import have been discovered as yet!

NEWS NOTES FROM K. H. S. THIS WEEK

Junior Class Play

Let's take another glance into the musty old suburban mansion that creates the perfect atmosphere for "Terror In The Suburbs."

Mr. Harrington, a fussy, fidgety fellow, played by Jack Sherman, and Mrs. Harrington, his unreasonably jealous wife, played by Judy Bencoter, who are the owners of a nearby sanitarium, find themselves busily climbing in and out of the often occupied window seat in the living room of the old mansion.

Horace Mason, played by Larry Helton, who comes to this suburban home merely to call on his girl friends, finds himself being mistaken for an F. B. I. man, and then chloroformed!

LITTLE THINGS THAT COUNT

Children are the reason for the existence of schools. Whatever contributes, therefore, to happy experiences for children and opens the way to real life growth should be the prime concern to the school.

We all admit that educationally the home is the most powerful of all social institutions and perhaps the oldest. Even so, when children enter school they need help in making adjustments. As no two children are alike, we, the teachers, through experience, observation and study, learn the attitudes, wants and abilities of each child.

By working closely with parents we employ methods to help each individual. We give the children our love and gain their confidence, respect and friendship. The children are guided along the paths of living together through fairness in work and play, kindness and courtesy to each other, loyalty, leadership and co-operation. All these tend to build character and good citizens.

So, along with the many "R's" of education, the little things also count. — Alice M. Tarry.

GRANGERS MEET

At the last Grange meeting, March 7, the 4-H Program proved most entertaining. It was noted that more than 70 boys and girls in this area are enrolled in 4-H work.

The announcement was made that on March 21 the Mt. Deary Grange will visit here. All are asked to come out and get acquainted.

On April 21 the local Grange holds a visitation meeting at Mt. Home.

Seventy years ago the 8th of March, Clarence Dougharty's grandfather, Tillman Jennings, drove from his home near the Warney May farm on this ridge to Moscow in a sled; with horses. After returning home he heard about twins arriving at his daughter's home, so he drove on to the George Dougharty farm to see them.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Mattoon of Troy were Wednesday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Nelson.

Saturday, Mrs. Bob Nelson and son Todd were luncheon guests of the R. J. Nelsons at Lenville. After a call from Bob telling them they had better hurry home as the house was full of company - they arrived in time for dinner which was prepared by the following self invited guests:

Mr. and Mrs. Henry DeHaven of Richland, Mrs. Ethel DeHaven of Moscow, Patty Nelson, and Larry Thompson from the U. of I.

SAWLOG MARKET REMAINS POOR,
MOST PRICES DOWN

According to the February issue of Farm Forestry and Market tips published by Rus Slade, Extension Farm Forester, the market for sawlogs continues to be poor. Out of 25 sawmills contributing to this report, eleven indicated largely a poor to fair demand with reduced prices for most species of sawlogs.

This condition reflects a lumber market which has remained mostly depressed since last fall. In early January there was a small increase in value for lumber. However, this development was only temporary with prices slipping back to where they were in December, by this February first.

Mixed sawlogs are wanted with fair to poor demands at all of the following buying points: Benewah Creek, Tensed, Potlatch, Moscow, Troy, Kendrick, Couer d'Alene, Rathdrum and Cataldo. Prices vary from $25 to $33/M. A limited amount of Ponderosa Pine is wanted with emphasis on the higher quality logs at all points except Rathdrum. Prices vary from $28 to $40/M. White pine is also wanted at the same points. Prices vary from $28 to $60/M and demands are largely poor. Cedar sawlogs are wanted only at Benewah Creek, Troy, Kendrick and Cataldo with a poor demand and prices varying from $26 to $35/M. Cedar poles have a good to very good demand at Plummer and Bovill. Prices vary from $1.35 to $60.00 for 20 to 75 foot poles. This excellent market is encouraging to any tree farmer with a good stocking of cedar.

The peeler market has been reduced to one point in Coeur d'Alene with yellow pine the only species wanted.

Stud logs are still wanted in Coeur d'Alene and St. Maries. Demand is poor and prices vary from $28 to $30/M.

With the exception of the pole market conditions suggested that this is a poor period to market wood products. Most woodland owners are postponing logging their own woods or selling stumpage. However, with active pulpwood markets outside the four county area, some owners have been able to move their inferior trees.

CORRECT TEMP. IN BROODER NECESSARY

Correct temperature in brooders saves the lives of a lot of chicks, says Robert Black, poultry specialist of the University of Idaho extension service.

Proper warmth is particularly effective, he advises, in avoiding air sac disease, also known as chronic respiratory disease.

The cause of the disease is transmitted in the egg and is present in most broiler flocks. Unlike pullover, which can be eliminated from breeding stock, C.R.D. has not been stopped. "We simply have to learn to live with the disease at the present time," Black said.

The respiratory infection by itself is mild. However, it paves the way to serious consequences under stress factors. The most important are outbreaks of Newcastle disease, the stress of vaccines, and the stress of temperature change.

Black recommends floor space of one foot per chick and not more than 750 chicks for a hover with 1000 capacity.

Temperature at the edge of the hover should be 90 to 95 degrees when brooding starts. Reduce it gradually at the rate of five degrees per week until it gets to about 60 degrees. Use heat as long as it is needed. In cold weather this means the entire growing period.

Fresh fish arrives every week-end at Blewett's Market, Kendrick. adv

GIRLS CAN WIN A TWO-YEAR SCHOLARSHIP

Just how good Inland Empire high school girls are at baking cakes will help determine whether they'll be eligible to compete for a two-year college scholarship in home economics being offered by the Washington Water Power Company.

John Murray, Palouse Division manager, said this week that the company's scholarship competition is open to all senior high school girls who are currently enrolled in an accredited Home Economics course or who have satisfactorily completed a credit in Home Economics. The contestant must be attending a public or parochial school located within the W. W. P. service area.

Interested students must submit a written application to the Washington Water Power company no later than April 4, 1961. The application must include the applicant's qualifications for scholarship and an outline of a five-minute cake baking demonstration. To insure uniformity all contestants will be required to use packaged cake mixes. The contestant may mix and tell about baking; show frosting and decorating, give variations of cakes using mixes, or give various ways to use cake mixes. The scholarship contest will be divided into five districts, which correspond approximately with W. W. P.'s divisional operations. A panel of three judges will select the district winner. First place winners in each district will receive a portable radio, and will automatically become eligible for the finals, to be held in Spokane on May 3.

Mr. Murray said that the Palouse division contest will be held at the W. W. P. office in Pullman on April 19th.

The prize of the grand final will be a two-year home economics scholarship to attend either the University of Idaho, if the winner is a resident of that state, or to Washington State University, if a Washington resident. The scholarship includes tuition, registration and miscellaneous fees up to a total of $430.00, Murray said.

ELEPHANT BRAND FERTILIZER PAID FOR THIS CAR

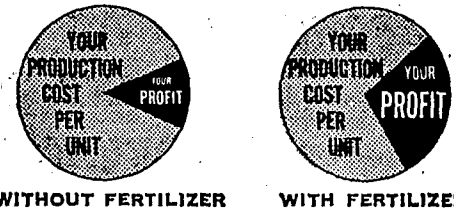

This is not an exaggeration. By the proper and effective use of Elephant Brand fertilizer thousands of farmers have been able to make the money for something they wanted, such as a new car or new farm machinery.

your better-grade crops bring higher prices; second, your bigger yields give you more to sell and third, you get a greater profit on each crop unit of whatever you grow.

With Elephant Brand fertilizer you grow bigger crops. Your cost of growing the crop is spread over more crop units (more bushels, bales, tons or pounds) so you grow each unit for less. Lower production cost per unit means you increase the difference between cost price and selling price — that difference is your profit.

GET A BIGGER PROFIT "SLICE"

Think of this "pie" as the money you get for every crop unit you grow. The darkened portion is your profit. Fertilizer helps you get a bigger profit "slice".

Using Elephant Brand will mean more money for you in three ways: first,

- ELEPHANT BRAND PLUS VALUES
- A wide range of plant food ratios
 - Uniform-sized — free flowing — pelletized products
 - All fertilizers highly water soluble
 - Strong, weather-resistant, non-slip bags

Why do you trust this man to feed your family?

HAVE you ever realized that the most precious thing you buy every day is food? Probably not. Yet your own family's health and well-being depend largely on the quality of food you buy. Your food store dealer never forgets this fact. That's why he's as careful of the food he offers you as he is with the food he takes home to his own family.

While experience has taught you to rely on him for the best—most wholesome—foods, you likely take for granted his constant check for quality...his investment in new and better foods...and that he brings all of this to you at a price you know is right.

And how rewarding for you if your favorite food store gives you S&H Green Stamps.

You know, of course, that half the families in America save them today.

Your S&H Green Stamps make it possible for you to choose from over 1,500 top-quality, famous brand-name items at your S&H Green Stamp Redemption Store.

U. I. JOURNALISM DEPT. SETS CONFAB DATES - MARCH 24, 25

Investigative reporting, feature writing, and industrial journalism will be analyzed by top newspaper men and women March 24 and 25 at the 15th annual University of Idaho journalism conference.

Guests scheduled by journalism chairman Dr. Granville Price include Betty Penson of the Boise Statesman who will describe her search for news and features in Africa and the nature of women's reporting.

Sam H. Day will emphasize the importance and methods of investigative reporting. His reporting in the Lewiston Tribune has brought statewide attention to vital issues of public concern.

The supervisor of Boeing Aircraft Company's newspapers and publications, Robert E. Giblin, will add insight into careers in business communications.

Interspersed in the two-day program at the university will be clinics and working sessions, including discussions of yearbook photographs and copywriting, advertising, column writing and radio-TV news.

Rafe S. Gibbs, university director of information and noted freelance writer; Tom Cooper, instructor of journalism and former advertising man, and Dr. Gladys Bellinger, head of the home economics department, will be among the resident faculty assisting Dr. Price with special tips for the visiting student writers.

An organizational meeting for Future Journalists of America will be held Friday, March 24, to discuss the starting of chapters in Idaho high schools. Editors Bill Johnston of the Lewiston Tribune and Laurin E. Pietsch of the Sandpoint News Bulletin will guide the session.

SMYLIE EXPLAINS STAMP BILL VETO

Boise, March 10 - The governor of Idaho this week vetoed a measure aimed at trading stamps because "it intrudes without warrant on the conduct of retail business."

In rejecting the bill, Gov. Robert E. Smylie said; "I cannot bring myself to believe that trading stamps are evil and that the public, must, therefore, be protected."

Governor Smylie said that the government should pass laws restraining competitive activity only under the clearest and most compelling necessity.

"The object of a free economy is to serve the ultimate consumer," said the Governor. "It was not by passing laws that the American business community achieved an economy that furnishes more goods to more people for less money than any other in the history of the world. The economy of the U. S. has prospered because it has been ruggedly competitive and because it has been geared to accommodate the ultimate consumer. Departures from that essential economic freedom should be taken only under the gravest of circumstances and then with absolute certainty of both purpose and direction."

The Chief Executive added that Idaho now has parking lots, advertising through every media available, young men to carry groceries to the car, music in the supermarket, and all manner of giveaway merchandise. These were all unknown to the Idaho consumer only a short time ago, he said.

"These exist because the consumer demands these services, and is apparently willing to pay for them," the Governor added.

Scientists endeavoring to reach absolute zero might examine some political speeches. - Atlanta Constitution.

Eventually we may discover that the embalmers' lobby kept railroad grade crossings on the map. - The Louisville Times.

THE Bull itin

Published Weekly by the Union Oil Service at Kendrick
W. L. "Bill" Rogers, Editor

HELLO, FOLKS:

It isn't often that we get the chance to say "I told you so," but that was the case on this past week's weather! We hope you don't forget to call us at 4251 for that famous Union Heating Oil — before another week rolls around!

At a party, two men who had not been introduced, struck up a conversation.

"Gosh, I'm all in," said one after a while. "I think I'll flirt with some good-looking dame so my wife will take me home!"

Are you ready for spring work? Have you checked your supplies of gasoline, diesel fuel, motor oils and greases? Do it today, then call us at 4251 — for Union Products.

"What does this mean?" howled the customer in the greasy spoon cafe. "There's an insect at the bottom of my cup!"

"Listen, Bud," said the frowzy waitress, "if you want your fortune told, go see a Gypsy!"

Let us drain out that winter worn, thin motor oil, and replace it with Royal Triton — and then change the filter cartridge. Let your car enjoy being driven, too!

A baby rabbit had been pestering its mother all day. Finally the exasperated parent replied: "You were pulled out of a magician's hat — now stop asking me questions!"

There are no better products than "Union." If you don't believe us — try them for yourself!
