Those present were Jerry Heitstumann, Colton; Miss Carol Weyen of Moscow; Mr. and Mrs. Pat Monahan of Spokane; Howard Bruegeman and Marvin Moser, Moscow; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Weyen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Weyen and Debbie, and W. H. Weyen.

Friday evening was the only one in which a capacity crowd was not present to witness the contests — and that was due in its entirety to the storm — one which kept snow-plows running almost all night.

Saturday night almost every seat was taken, and a few stood along the edges, but could have been seated.

James Muscat, manager of the District 2, Class A Basketball Tournament played at Kendrick last week said Tuesday morning that preliminary attendance figures showed:

Paid attendance4,533
Total attendance5,253

He said that, considering the unseasonable storm of Friday evening, which cut numbers present about in half, that the whole must be considered very satisfactory — and he extended his sincere thanks to all who helped in any way.

In the total attendance figures are the basketball teams, seven of them, coaches, officials, pep bands, etc.

THE Bull itin

Published Weekly by the Union Oil Service at Kendrick
W. L. "Bill" Rogers, Editor

HELLO, THERE, FOLKS:

Well, now that the basketball tournament has come to an end — and we hope you all saw at least one game — let's talk supplies for spring work. Call us for Union Gasolines, Diesel Fuels, lubricants, motor oils, greases. Our number is 4251.

The women's club was meeting, and as usual the girls were discussing their husbands. One wife summed things up pretty well: "My husband would never chase around with another woman. He's too fine . . . too decent . . . too old!"

Going to need tires pretty soon? Come in and see the new Union Minuteman — the only tire fine enough to bear our name — yet it is moderately priced — fully guaranteed. Sure, we'll trade!

Cowboy: "His grandfather died of throat trouble."
Pal: "Yeah?"
"Yep — caused by ten feet of rope thrown over a limb."

Come in and let us drain out that thin, winter worn oil — and refill the crankcase with Royal Triton — the finest! You'll like it.

Heard at womans' club: "She says he's not a man, but only a mouse."

Listener: "Yeah, but she took an awful lot of trouble catching him!"

Woman: "No, I'm afraid you can't interest me in a vacuum cleaner. Try the lady next door — I use hers, and it's absolutely terrible!"

JUVENILE GRANGE

The Juvenile Grange Planning Committee met last Tuesday evening at the F. C. Cuddy home.

It was decided that all children between the ages of 5 and 14, who are interested in becoming Charter Members of the local Juvenile Grange be asked to meet with the Grange Master, Wayne Davis; Mrs. F. C. Cuddy, Juvenile Grange Matron and her assistant, Mrs. Everett Fey, for organizational meeting. This meeting will be held Wednesday evening, March 7, after school, at the City Hall.

There is no obligation for anyone interested — so come, and learn about the organization.

We feature Carnation Ice Cream — all flavors and packs. Lay-in a supply today. Blewett's, Kendrick. 1-ad-
