JOINT DISTRICT 283 MET AT JULIAETTA NOVEMBER 19

The regular monthly meeting of Joint District No. 283 P. T. A. was held Monday evening, Nov. 19, at the Juliaetta Elementary School, with Dennis Raciocot, president, presiding. Following the singing of "America" the Invocation was delivered by the Rev. Gene Hansen.

Wayne Davis gave a report on the progress of the Playground Project at Kendrick — a joint operation of the Kendrick Grange and Joint District No. 283 P. T. A.

Ballots were passed out on the question of Federal Aid to Education. These straw ballots are being used in a survey to determine how Idaho voters feel on this very important issue.

Harry Newman, school trustee, spoke on the effect the building of the giant Bruce's Eddy Dam could and possibly would have on our area. He said it is possible our district could expect some 200 new students. Should this transpire the district would receive aid from the federal government to build the necessary classrooms.

Mrs. Dennis Raciocot, co-president, presented Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Manfull with past president's pins, for a job well done, they having served last year.

The Toy Tiger went to Mrs. Callison's third grade room — for having the most parents present.

Coach Dennis Raciocot announced the sale of Season Tickets for the coming season of basketball. He added that these would be punched at each game, and can be used by any member of the family until the card is used up.

Mrs. Douglas Christensen, program chairman, introduced panel members for a discussion on "Methods and Problems in Our Schools." Wayne Davis, Darrell Manfull, Mrs. George Merrick and Mrs. Norlia Callison led the discussion, which proved very interesting. Perhaps the grading system received the most attention of items under discussion.

Open House was held in the rooms of the school after the meeting — to see the accomplishments of the children.

The American Ridge ladies served delicious refreshments at the close of the evening.

PLAYGROUND JOB MAKES PROGRESS

Last week-end, despite rains which seriously interfered with the job — the Joint District No. 283 and the Kendrick Grange made a fine start on their joint-effort, the developing of a playground at the Kendrick High School.

Farmers with tractors equipped with scoops and dozer blades — and dump trucks leveled the big area, distributing the clay foundation evenly over the base rock.

Then began the hauling of black dirt for a grass bed — and 64 loads of this were put on the grounds. As yet it has not been spread — that operation having to await the arrival of better weather.

Roy Glenn, "work boss and book-keeper" for the project said that six trucks, two loaders and one dozer were going "full blast" at the height of operations; that 27 manhour days have been put in to date; nine have worked two days, and 14 have worked parts of three days moving large rocks and doing other preliminary work.

Roy Glenn said: "It's a big job, but from all indications, given the right amount of time and weather — a real playground is assured!"

LOGGERS HOLD MEETING WED.

Wednesday morning of this week loggers and mill operators held a meeting at the Neva Mill between Bovill and Elk River, and formulated a protest to the State Highway Department on the severe load limit restrictions between Bovill and Elk River.

It was the consensus of opinion that employment in Latah County would be gravely affected, not only in woods operations, but also in mill operations — and that the interests of all could best be served by lifting or at least raising the load limits of trucks. Several mills and many woods workers will be affected by the present regulations.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLEY SCHULTZ ARE HONORED ON GOLDEN WEDDING DAY

MR. AND MRS. CHARLEY SCHULTZ

An Open House honoring the Golden Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Schultz, pioneer residents of this area, was held on Sunday, November 11 from 2:00 to 4:00 p. m., in the Kendrick Fire Hall — and many called to wish them well on this memorable occasion — an occasion reached by but a very few.

Hostesses for the afternoon were their two daughters, Mrs. Gerald Schmidt and family of Leland, and Mrs. Wilma Steen and daughter Judy of San Carlos, Calif. The Schultz family had expressed a wish for "no presents" brought hosts of cards — and these, with the calls and visits made it a wonderful day for Mr. and Mrs. Schultz.

Charley Schultz was born in Bluseh County Minn., on Nov. 15, 1883. He came west with his parents at the age of three, settling in Palouse, Wash. From there the family moved to Winlock, Wash., and then to Cameron, Idaho, where he grew to young manhood. Hanna Gladden was born Sept. 1, 1890, at Kendrick, Idaho, and has resided in this area almost all her life.

Hanna Gladden and Charley Schultz were united in marriage at Moscow, Idaho, on Nov. 14, 1912. They made their home at Cameron, where they farmed for 34 years. In 1945 they retired, selling their farm and equipment, and moving to a home they purchased at Juliaetta, where they still reside. Both are active. They raise a large garden, keep chickens, and have a beautiful lawn, and flowers in profusion.

Mr. and Mrs. Schultz are the parents of two daughters: Mrs. Wilma Steen, San Carlos, Calif., and Mrs. Viola Schmidt, Kendrick. They have four granddaughters and two grandsons.

Those from a distance signing the guest register include Mrs. Wilma Steen and daughter Judy of San Carlos, Calif.; Mrs. Emma Hodges, Dutton, Mont.; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schultz, Lewiston, and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Gladden, also of Lewiston.

LICENSE PLATES TO GO ON SALE

Nov. 19 — Eugene Taylor, Latah county assessor, announced today that the 1963 vehicle license plates would go on sale Dec. 1, 1962, and that all vehicles must be licensed by January 17, 1963. He states that there would be strict enforcement, commencing January 18, for vehicles operating with expired license plates. The Commissioner of Law Enforcement has extended the registration time to January 17. This will allow expeditious handling of all applications at the state and county level, as well as providing at least one pay period after the holidays in order that all registrants may comply before the deadline.

Mr. Taylor advised that those persons who have purchased a new vehicle during the year and have not transferred the title, do so prior to registration, as all vehicles except small two-wheel trailers, must be titled prior to registration. Mr. Taylor warned all passenger vehicle owners to register in the county of their residence. Failure to do so in your home county is a violation of the Idaho Registration Act. Mr. Taylor also pointed out that license plates will be sold in Kendrick, at Burt's Cafe, on Saturday, Dec. 1, and Saturday Dec. 8. Be sure to bring your registration slip or title with you.

NEW SCOUTMASTER

In a recent survey of the need and possibilities of Scouting, conducted for the Kendrick Community Lions Club by George Brocke, Jr., and W. L. Rogers, it was found that there were 14 boys in the Kendrick School interested in this type of work, and wishing to belong to Scouting. These boys were asked their preference as to a Scoutmaster, and the group asked for Jim Travis. Mr. Travis consented to take this leadership job, and at the Lions Club meeting Wednesday evening, was unanimously approved. The Club, which sponsors the Scouts, voted to buy Mr. Travis a uniform in appreciation of his work.

COACH TO SPEAK

Dee Andros, Vandal football coach, will be the guest speaker at the next Lions Club meeting. This will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 28, at the High School cafeteria.

F. H. A. TURKEY SHOOT SUCCESS

The F. H. A. turkey shoot held last Saturday at the Douglas Christensen, Jr., farm on the Sperry grade was considered successful, despite the weather conditions, which included snow, wind and a damp chill that penetrated those participating. Approximately $60.00 was cleared by the F. H. A. Chapter. Those winning turkeys included: Frank Dammarell, Puyallup, Wash.; Wayne Davis, Darrell Manful, Doug Shepherd, Leonard Eckman, Ronald Lohman, Roger Nelson, Jody Fey, Jerry Pederson and Stanley Hepler. Gerald Schmidt and Skip Koepp each won two turkeys.

RE-DECORATING AND RE-BUILDING

Workmen have been busy the past ten days completely re-decorating the interior of Burt's Cafe, damaged severely by fire some three weeks ago. Before the interior could be worked on, everything had to be completely washed — walls, ceiling, etc., so that paint might adhere to the surfaces. Last week-end the old warehouse at the rear of the building was torn down, a new concrete floor and footings poured. Blocks have arrived for the building itself. Operations this week, however, have been hampered by weather, but the rebuilding will proceed as rapidly as possible.

The "running deer" was an new addition to local turkey shooting.

 Seeds that will burgeon, bloom, and nod and sway
 Of Thy great deathless love that must abide,
 When life, and death, and worlds have passed away.

WEATHER CHILL AND WET - NO FROST

The weather this past week can easily be described in just three words: "Chilly and wet." The air carrying a damp chill that seems to penetrate almost as deep as real cold.

Night mercury readings have been around 34 and 35 here in the valley, with daytime readings climbing to the low to mid-fifties most days. There has been some fog on the hills, and Saturday night a brief snowstorm arrived, leaving the surrounding hills white, while here in the valley it melted as fast as it hit the ground, later turning to rain.

Fog lay thick in some areas Wednesday night, slowing travel to a crawl, but no accidents were reported.

Monday night, or rather Tuesday morning about 3:00 o'clock a real windstorm arrived, blowing dead leaves about, and scattering small dead twigs everywhere. The wind brought with it rising temperatures, and at 3:15 the thermometer read 62 degrees here in the valley!

No really killing frost has arrived — some of the more hardy roses are still blooming in the valley — and on top the hills some farmers say they have had to dig their potatoes without benefit of a frost to kill the vines!

GOODLY CROWD AT DANCE REVUE

Approximately 100 people attended the Dance Revue Sunday evening in the high school gym. Some 30 students of Miss Shirley Wilson of Lewiston did ballet and tap dancing for the small but appreciative audience.

The names written on the paper for delivery is "Freeman." No initials or address.

FORMER RESIDENT ENJOYS HISTORICAL EDITION

From Earle G. Connick, 1802 Bayard Place, Jacksonville, 5, Florida, comes the following very interesting letter:

"Dear Sir: I thought you might like to know that the area covered by your newspaper is growing, extending for the moment at least, all the way to the Atlantic Ocean.

"Through the efforts of someone, a sister now living in Anderson, California, got a copy of the Gazette, dated Aug. 23, 1962, Vol. 72, No. 34. An annual historical edition featuring Cameron, Idaho.

"Mr. McCreary, I wonder if you can imagine what a jolt it was to open this paper and suddenly have the pages of time turned back over 55 years?

Almost the very first thing in column 1 — that old school house. That is where I spent my very first day in school. Further along is an article, 'Teachers of the Cameron School.' I won't dispute it, but I also cannot quite accept it, I do not remember (1903-1910) Mr. W. R. Smith but I do remember the 'Potlatch Star'.

"My first day stands out vividly because of an experience with my teacher (she was a lady, not a man). I didn't know English my first day in school, and at that time the 'Primers or Readers' or whatever they are now called, had pictures in them. She opened my book, pointed to an object and asked me what it was. I answered 'Tass.' She said, 'No, no, it is a cup.' It took her a little while to get the message across that we were not talking the same language.

"On page 2, the old church. Dad spent many a day working on it, first on the foundation and later on the building itself. He built, in its entirety, the original Altar. I wonder if it is still there? He worked on the Altar the better part of one whole winter. If my memory serves me correctly, many of the heart-shaped scroll-type ornaments were made out of cigar boxes, roughly cut on a jig saw and finally finished with a sharp pocket knife and sandpaper.

"On page 5, what memories that old store building brings. Dad did a lot of work on that building. We lived on the second floor about two years, I believe. I do remember that about every other time I went outside I stepped on a nail.

"I don't remember ever seeing the Threshing Rig, but I do know of it. I once knew all the people mentioned in the three scenes, but now I can no longer connect any of the names with the right people. Mr. Rucks, Mr. Sliflow, all of the Wegners, Mr. Emtman, Alec Larsen, I remember quite well, probably because I had more contact with them.

"I should have said at the start of this letter that my parents were Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Connick. My father died in Anderson, Calif., in 1957, and mother died the following year, 1958.

"The Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wegner mentioned in your paper are my grandparents. Mrs. Wm. Deobald, the teacher in the Kendrick High School, is my cousin.

"I could go on and on, but I have to stop somewhere, and I haven't as yet mentioned Mr. Blum and that old blacksmith shop that I also remember so well.

"Have you ever put out a Historical on Kendrick itself? If so, is there still a copy available somewhere? You see, we lived in Kendrick just about as long as we lived on Potlatch ridge.

 "My compliments to you, sir, on this splendid edition."

Our note: Sorry, Mr. Connick. No copies of the Kendrick Historical are now available. They are long-gone. Perhaps this letter and address will persuade someone to mail you one.

It happened 100 YEARS ago

The oldest incorporated trade association in the country, the United States Brewers Association, was organized in 1862 . . . the same year that

IN IDAHO Fort Lapwai, a permanent military post was established as a restraint to Nez Perce Indian unrest. Early settlers and Indian fighters in this period enjoyed beer brought in from breweries on the coast just as Idahoans today continue to find pleasure in beer.

For even then, beer was Idaho's traditional beverage of moderation. Beer still provides enjoyment for Idahoans, and a good living for many of them — not only the employees of the Brewing Industry itself, but also for farmers and other suppliers of the materials brewers use.

TODAY, in its centennial year, the United States Brewers Association still works constantly to assure maintenance of high standards of quality and propriety wherever beer and ale are served.

FISH SAVERS INSTALLED

The Idaho Fish and Game department program for screening ditches on the main Salmon River and tributaries, particularly in Lemhi county is in full swing, and the department now has installed the 160th fish-saving device.

Screens are designed to divert young salmon fingerlings from ditches and certain death in cultivated fields. Five-year program is geared to install about 250 screens of four basic types, but custom-made as to size.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

The amount of wool in world trade during the past year was a record 328 million pounds, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. U. S. imports were 336 million pounds, and increase of 9 percent over the preceding year.

Production of muskrums, once a luxury crop, has tripled in the last 30 years in the U. S. The 1962 crop is estimated at $40 million. About half of total production is grown in Pennsylvania.

This is the 20th year Ranger Alfalfa has been grown. The variety was developed in 1942 and has been a consistent producer in several states. Ranger is resistant to bacterial wilt.

HOOVER TALKS ON TEEN-AGE THUG PROBLEMS

Wash., D. C. — Maudering teen-age thugs are degrading many American communities with brutal sidewalk muggings and assaults on defenseless and elderly citizens. These young hoodlums lurk along the streets as preying vultures. They ambush and rob hapless individuals and then flee, leaving their victims, if not dead, badly battered and bleeding.

Merciful restraint is unknown to these beastly punks. To them it signifies the trait "chicken"—a universal taboo among their ilk. In fact, many of the fatal beatings and stabbings occur after the victim turns over his valuables. The crimes themselves are disturbing enough, but even more horrifying are the sadistic glee in which some are committed and the justifiable air assumed by the perpetrators when caught. For example, one tough member of a gang, charged with attacking and robbing an 80-year old man, snarled, "Old men who walk on the streets at night deserve to be robbed."

This sickening crime fad is becoming commonplace. It is a stigma on our society, and it is a heavy yoke on the overwhelming majority of American youth who are law-biding. Unfortunately, this problem is but one factor in the over-all youthful criminality picture. Last year, arrests group, person under 18 years of age rose 4 percent higher than 1960. As a group, persons under 18 represent 43 percent of all arrests for the more serious crimes of murder, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assaults, burglary, larceny and auto theft.

Most police agencies are meeting violent juvenile crime head on. Some departments have initiated "decoy" squads to patrol on foot in high crime incidence areas. The results have been gratifying. But, there is a limit to what undermanned and overburdened police agencies can do. The problem commences and extends far beyond detection and apprehension.

Quite obviously, scholarly theories and misguided sentiment are not getting the job done. The surging juvenile crime rate continues. Rules of society and constituted authority are held in callous contempt by teen-age criminals. Law and order are defied. Any institution or proposal which remotely suggests acceptable standards of behavior is scorned. To this hardened core of miscreants, unwarranted leniency and unrealistic punishment are all but public endorsement.

Most difficulty with youthful offenders stems from the home where a sound sense of values is diminishing. Parents need to stress discipline, guidance and morality, and to play down indulgence, pleasure, and money. Protective coddling by some courts of "tender-age" repeaters is an appeasement of justice. It infringes on the rights of the people. I say let the flagrant violators be exposed. Let the public know their identities so it may be alert to their law-breaking habits.

One Midwest editor, prevented by archaic restrictions from publicizing the names of teen-age hoodlums, recently made this editorial plea: "When a youngster is capable of murder, shooting during a burglary, beating someone to death with a chain or hammer, rape, kidnaping and other crimes which merit the electric chair or life imprisonment, we are no longer talking about his first mistake or about a child whose reputation is to be destroyed. These youngsters are no longer the sweet innocent things you bounce on your knee. In most cases, they'd cut your throat for suggesting mercy. These children we're talking about are deadly criminals; with a gun or a switchblade at their hip, they're nine feet tall."

Youthful criminality is more than a childhood disease. It is a chronic and infectious plague. It does not dry up when neglected; nor is it less violent when misnamed. By any other name, it is still vicious, unadulterated crime.

— J. Edgar Hoover

LITTLE IDEAS

About 20 percent of the milk sales in 1950 was separated cream. This year the sale of cream is expected to account for only about 6 percent of the milk business.

Pity the poor ants, now that the picnic season is over.

No person of moderate greatness pretends to be great.

The man who said you could live without money probably never tried it.

Boxers shake hand when they enter the ring; just like a smart salesman tackling a hard prospect.

No politician would accept money or favors if there were not crooked citizens hoping to gain thereby. ....

THE PAST HAS HELD MANY BLESSING...AND THE FUTURE PROMISES EVEN MORE

When the pilgrims gathered that first Thanksgiving Day, it was to offer thanks not only for the blessings of that past year . . . but to express their gratitude for the opportunity this new land offered. Opportunity that meant a bright future! And that opportunity, the chance to do as the individual desires, has provided the climate needed to develop the freedom and prosperity we now enjoy.

Today, we can give thanks that opportunity is ever-growing! The future of Idaho, her people, has, in fact, never looked brighter . . . more jobs, more income, more production, more savings, more research, more leisure, more luxuries, and a new space-world to conquer.

We do, indeed, have so very much to be thankful for!

STATE HIGHWAY DEPT. SHIFTS ENGINEERS

G. Bryce Bennett, State Highway Engineer, this week announced the following personal changes effective December 1, 1962. Mr. Bennett said, "These and other recent changes and transfers made in the Department will better acquaint our engineers with the various construction and maintenance problems in the six highway administrative districts. It provides our engineers with a varied experience that contributes to a better statewide understanding of the continuous highway improvement program."

Phil A. March, 44, District Engineer at Lewiston for the past six years, has been transferred to serve as district Engineer in Rigby, Idaho. He replaces Blaine Sessions who is being transferred to head the District Headquarters in Shoshone.

Mr. Bennett commended Mr. March for his leadership in the road developments over the past six years. Among the major projects undertaken in this area during his term as District Engineer are: The new Culdesac Canyon road, John Day - Slate Creek, and other Salmon River projects, the Lewis-Clark Highway, detailed studies of the Whitebird Hill project, many city improvement projects, and other construction work.

William W. Sacht, 38, Assistant District Engineer at Coeur d'Alene is being promoted to District Engineer at Lewiston, Idaho. He will replace Phil March who has been transferred to serve as District Engineer at Rigby, Idaho. Sacht, a Civil Engineer, graduate of the University of Idaho, started work with the Department in 1951. He has held positions as materials technician, district materials engineer, district maintenance engineer and senior resident engineer. He has been assistant district engineer for the past four years. Sacht is a U. S. Navy veteran of World War II. He has lived in Idaho all his life. He is married and has two children.

GOOD NEWS COMES FROM U. OF I.

U. of I., Moscow—Charles (Chuck) White, University of Idaho high-scoring basketball forward and hard-hitting baseball outfielder from Kirkland, Washington, will be playing for the Vandals this coming season in both sports, Director of Athletics J. Neil (Skip) Stahley said today.

The announcement, which will bring joy to all Idaho sport fans, reverses a decision of a week ago made on the basis that White had signed a contract to play professional baseball for the New York Yankees.

"Additional information was received by the university from the New York Yankees, and it has been conclusively established that White is eligible to finish out his senior

A CHRISTMAS CAKE FROM ENGLAND

Time flies! Christmas is just around the corner and with it comes all the fun, excitement and traditional food to which everyone looks forward. The Christmas Cake is part of this custom throughout the Western World although each country has a different way of presenting it. Shown here is a typical English fruit cake you will enjoy making. Try to make it 3 or 4 weeks in advance to give it a chance to mellow. It is a rich cake full of fruits and nuts, topped with almond paste and snowy white icing. Christmas is a family time and in England everyone helps to ice the cake on Christmas Eve amidst the chaos of last minute present wrapping and the filling of traditional Christmas stockings.

| 1 7 1/2-ounce package Dromedary chopped dates | 3 eggs   |
| 1 1-pound jar whole cherries, chopped         | 1/2 teaspoon baking soda                       |
| 1 8-ounce jar cubed pineapple                 | 1/4 cup molasses                               |
| 1 1-pound jar fruits and peels                | 1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour            |
| 1 8-ounce jar citron                          | 1 teaspoon cinnamon                            |
| 2 cups seedless raisins                       | 1/2 teaspoon mace                              |
| 2 1/2 cups chopped pecans                     | 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg                            |
| 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour                | 1/2 teaspoon ground cloves                     |
| 1/2 cup brandy (optional)                     | 1/3 cup apricot preserves (optional)           |
| 1/4 cup rum (optional)                        | 2 10-ounce cans almond paste (optional)        |
| 1/2 cup shortening                            | 5 cups your favorite white frosting (optional) |
| 6 tablespoons butter                          |  |

Use a large mixing bowl to combine the Dromedary chopped dates, cherries, cubed pineapple, fruits and peels and citron with the raisins, pecans, flour, brandy and rum. Cream shortening and butter for three minutes. Add eggs and continue beating another three minutes. Add baking soda to the molasses. Add to egg mixture. Sift together the 1 1/2 cups flour with the 4 spices. Fold into the egg mixture. Add this mixture to the fruit mixture and mix carefully until well-blended. Put mixture into a greased 9-inch spring form pan. Bake in a slow oven (275°F.) for 4 hours or until done. Cool in pan. Makes a 6-pound cake.

ICING: Spread a thin layer of apricot preserves over surface. Roll almond paste into 9-inch round to fit top of cake. Cover entire cake with white frosting, reserving 1 cup for decorating with rosette tube. Decorate with rosettes around edges and add holly leaves.

year of amateur sports competition," said Stahley.

"The New York Yankees stated in a letter to university officials, that, although they did negotiate with White, no contract was executed between White and the New York Yankees. In view of this additional information, the university has revoked its ruling declaring White ineligible, and has restored him to full eligibility."

"This is the best news I've heard in a long time," said Basketball Coach Joe Cipriano. "I will have to juggle my plans again but it will be a pleasure."

Like Fine Scotch, Canadian, Rum & Brandy... KENTUCKY WHISKEY TASTES BEST AS A BLEND!

There's only one way to make a good Kentucky Whiskey taste better... blend it with other Kentucky Whiskeys and grain neutral spirits.

For years, the secret behind the famous smoothness of Scotch and Canadian whiskeys is the fact that they are actually blends of several different types of Scotch and Canadian whiskeys. Most Rums and Brandies are blends too, of several different types of these well-known liquors.

Now, Mr. Boston actually improves on the natural rich flavor of good Kentucky Whiskey by selecting several of the best and blending them together with choice grain neutral spirits. Result: smooth flavor balance and mildness that straight Kentucky just can't match. Try a bottle of Mr. Boston's Rocking Chair soon!

PARK PATTERN
 BY MRS. JERRY SMITH
 Nov. 19 — SNOW — The first "hominny snow" arrived Thursday morning, with the size of the flakes increasing about noon. By 2:00 p. m. a small blizzard howled through Park. Little of it remained, however, and by the next afternoon, most had melted. Friday evening it began snowing again, and by Saturday morning two inches of the white stuff blanketed the ground. The temperature stayed low, making it rather bad for anyone who had to stay outdoors, but the almost total absence of wind helped a little.
HUNTING FACTS — By Saturday morning the two inches of snow made tracking game a little easier, but the wily wild creatures, helped by the wet blanket that deadened sound, seemed still to be making more get-aways than meals. The snow proved the theory that there just isn't the usual amount of game in Park this year. Some hunters have been lucky — but all admit that it has been — pure luck!
OTHER ITEMS — Guests in the home of Mrs. Mickey Baumgartner, Thursday, for a products party were Mrs. Jerry Smith, co-hostess with Mrs. Baumgartner; Mrs. Anna Weber of Lenore; Mrs. Wilmie Thompson; Mrs. Wanda Enger, Mrs. Helen McKinney and Mrs. Stiner Hartsage, all of Park; Mrs. Kelly Hart and Mrs. Kay Brown of Bovill, and seven children.
 Luncheon guests at the Jerry Smith home Thursday were his stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Vester Daniels, and his sister, Mrs. Anna Weber and sons Tom and Don, all of Lenore.
 Kendrick has no parking meters!

VANDALEERS PLAN HOLIDAY TOUR
 U. of I., Moscow — Christmas Candlelight concerts by the famed University of Idaho Vandaleers Concert Choir will be sung in four northern Idaho towns during a two-day road trip, December 12 and 13.
 The 65-voice choir, directed by Prof. Glen R. Lockery, will present the concert at Grangeville and Orofino on December 12, and in Coeur d'Alene and Lewiston on Dec. 13.
 On Sunday evening, Dec. 16, the Vandaleers will give their final performance of the Yuletide presentation in the Memorial gymnasium.
 The Vandaleers will be accompanied by two music faculty soloists and several selected student instrumentalists who will serve as assisting artists in number on the program.
 The Christmas Candlelight Concert was originated on the University of Idaho campus about 1937. It was presented in the Administration building auditorium, which soon proved too small to accommodate the many listeners. It was then presented on two successive evenings to give more a chance to hear the music. When it was discovered that many hundreds of music lovers were being turned away, even with two performances, the event was moved to the Memorial gymnasium. For the last decade the program has drawn from 4,000 to 5,000 listeners.
 The candle-lighting ceremony will again be part of the concert, said Lockery. It will also be part of the program "on the road."
 Dennis Abrams, Kendrick, is a member of this famed organization.

IDAHO MINING HISTORY SAVED
 U. of I., Moscow — A segment of Idaho mining history has been saved through the generosity of a 15-year-old California girl.
 Florence Ellen Lloyd, Coachella, Calif., owner of the Empire Copper Mine operation near Mackay, presented the University of Idaho archives with complete records of her company and its predecessor, the White Knob Mining Company, dating from 1890 to 1927.
 Siegfried Rolland, associate professor of social science and history, and chairman of the archives committee, said the ton and a half of material now housed in the Library will be of great value to a mining historian.
 "The gift contains thousands of letters, business records, complete volumes of correspondence, cancelled checks, and volumes of Justice Court dockets," said Rolland.
 The records were first noticed by George Williams, associate professor of geological engineering, at the university's summer mining camp at Mackay. They were housed in the mine office building.
 "Within a few years, the records would have been lost through deterioration and rodents and the like," said Williams. "Because of the gift of Miss Lloyd, they will be preserved in our library."

4-H CLUB WORK TO USE HUGE SUM
 U. of I., Moscow — One million dollars obtained from private enterprises interested in 4-H Club work, will be spent in behalf of 4-H programs by the National Foundation in 1963. This is the second year this large sum will be available for operating education program in the United States, as well as around the world, according to the Foundations headquarters in Washington, D. C.
 In commenting on the announcement, Dan E. Warren, Idaho State 4-H Club leader, said, "Idaho 4-H boys and girls derive many benefits, both direct and indirect, from work done by the National 4-H Club foundation. Our IFYE delegates from Idaho are sent overseas by the foundation; many Idaho 4-H youths attend foundation sponsored citizenship short courses, and Idaho adult leaders learn additional skills through special 4-H leader forums and the National Workshop in Human Development and Human Relations Training."
 The state 4-H Club leader emphasized that citizenship and leadership are the two most important phases of 4-H Club work in Idaho, in terms of the long-range overall program.

NEWS VERY SCARCE
 This week is one of those in which it seems as if there just is no news. — call after call producing one reply — "We haven't been anywhere or done anything. I just don't have any news."
 Last week, with a full day lost from our working week (Veteran's Day) it seemed as if we would never reach the bottom of the copy stack — and we never did — time did not permit us to get everything into type!
 Oh, well, that's newspapering!

HELLO, THERE, FOLKS:

These damp, chilly days make it almost as hard to heat a home as when the temperature is really down — and that's where Union's new Blonde Heating Oil comes to the front. It's hot, clean burning! Phone us at 4251 and we'll be there in a flash. We deliver!

Scientists have revealed that the biggest single cause of insomnia is the fear of being unable to sleep. We don't know about that but it occurs to us that it would be darned hard to fall asleep if you had some guy continually asking you what was keeping you awake!

Better come in and let us check that anti-freeze in your car, pick-up or truck. Better be safe than sorry!

"Yes," said the prospective employer to the job applicant, "what we're after is a man of vision; a man with drive, determination, fire; a man who can inspire others and a man who can pull our bowling team out of last place!"

Want fast starts, smooth warm up and pur-r-r in your motor? If so, come in for a tankful of Union's Royal 76 or 7600 Gasolines. You'll love 'em!

Mrs. Smith: "I'm so miserable! My husband has been out all night and I don't know where he is!"

Friend: "Cheer up. You'd probably feel twice as bad if you knew."

There are no better products than Union. Try them.
