JULIAETTA DOINGS IN PAST WEEK

MRS. ERVIN MABBOTT Phone 8-2254

Truck Stolen Friday

A '52 Ford truck belonging to Mr. and Mrs. George Johnston, living five miles south of Juliaetta, was stolen from in front of their home Friday ward Juliaetta, but in some way it reached Lapwai, throwing Deputy Sheriff Bill Eiler's of Lewiston off the trail.

First Time For Everything

Otto Schupfer knows now that there is a first time for everything! He has worked for this telephone company for 55 years — and Sunday evening was the first time a telephone was ever blown away with no trace! — And it hasn't been found yet. The phone was in the office of the Albright hanger building that was wrecked by wind Sunday evening.

Trees Blown Down

Mrs. Hobart Reese reports that two trees in front of their home (on the Albright property) were uprooted during the big wind storm of Sunday afternoon.

Mother Gravely Ill Mrs. Jack Mead was called to Coeur d'Alene last week by the ill-ness of her mother, who is in the hospital on the critical list. Mrs. Mead returned home this week, but is anxiously awaiting news.

Drinks Turpentine

Gregory Mabbott, 18-month-old Lewiston, spent part of Easter Sunday in the St. Joseph's Hospital, after having his stomach pumped, following the drinking of turpentine.

He was returned to his home on Monday, and as yet seems to have suffered no ill effects.

New Baby Son

Word was received Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Whitted WRECKED SUNDAY that a baby son had been born to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gray (nee Rosalie Whitted) in Georgia. He arrived on ated on for a ruptured appendix at the St. Joseph's Hospital, Lewiston, Tuesday morning. He is getting along as well as can be expected, re-ports his physician, Dr. D. A. Christensen.

Gem Magnuson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Magnuson received Inter found in Lapwai. The vehicle was loaded with 29 sacks of oats, and when found, it was carrying 25 — or four sacks short. They traced the tracks to-ward Juliaetta, but in some way it

By late evening the overcast turned to rain - then sleet. Monday morning it started snowing and blowing, and by 10:00 o'clock there was an inch or more of wet snow on the ground. Bewildered robins and blackbirds found it hard to find even small bare spots to sit in the Fraternal Temple. All memon. They gathered by dozens in the bers are urged to be present. 393.42 trees in the comparative shelter to

What kind of weather do you like? - Well, it really doesn't matter, for it was available here in Kendrick during the past week — particularly Easter Sunday and Monday. Last Thursday, Friday and Saturday were on the cool side, with in-terludes of rain and sunshine. However, on Easter Sunday clearing set is fun for you isn't always fun for daughter Karen of Stevenson, Wash., in, and by mid-afternoon of that others" are some of the truths that were week-end and Easter guests of day the thermometer recorded 83 degrees - some reaching a high of 84 and 85!

Later Sunday afternoon clouds began to form and shortly after 5:00 o'clock a driving wind-storm arrived, tearing dead branches from trees, scattering seed pods and loose dirt across everything. This was follow-ed by a rain which stopped the dust. The wind also tore the roof off of SEATTLE VISITORS - Mrs. Os- Don Bateman's workshop and gar-
