IDEAL WINTER WEATHER HERE NOW

No one could ask for finer winter weather than this area has been enjoying the past several days. The days have been sunshiny, with a daytime temperature in the mid-40's, and at night the mercury drops to just below the freezing mark. The fields on the ridges are well covered with snow which protects the crops. Here in the valley the snow is leaving slowly but steadily. Streets and walks are bare, and some "early bird" residents have been seen out in yards doing a little raking, or just looking and making spring plans. There's no limit to the height a

The only totem pole we ever bought

Strange purchase? You'd be surprised at all that Standard buys...and where!

The totem pole, carved by Chilkat Indians for our new Alaskan Refinery - Alaska's first refinery depicts the story of oil in the 49th State.

While it's one of the most unusual purchases we ever made, it illustrates a Stándard Oil Company of California policy: To support local businesses and communities with local purchases. The Chilkat clan was one of the more than 18,000 suppliers who filled our exploration, producing, manufacturing, transportation, research and our marketing requirements last year.

Our annual shopping list is more than 50,000 items long, and it helps many a small, local business to prosper.

Yes, even the money Standard pays for this space in your newspaper is another example of local spending. By bringing dollars into your community, it also helps you.
