Garbage Rules Adopted

It was decided at the last Council meeting that all garbage must be wrapped for future pick-up, and the container must not be any larger than the standard garbage can. Gar-bage will not be picked up if these rules are not obeyed.

Answer Fire Alarm

The Juliaetta Fire Department was called to the home of Mrs. Rosalea Gray last Friday morning at about 10:45. Terry Skaggs noticed smoke coming out of the roof and reported it. The blaze was between the walls in an upstairs room.

Phil Johns was nearby and contained the blaze by pouring water on it with a bucket until the fire truck arrived.

W. C. T. U. Holds Meet Here

Friday morning, Aug. 6, the local W. C. T. U. met in the social room of the Church of the Nazarene.

Mrs. H. E. Hagedorn, Lewiston, state treasurer, and Mrs. Marie Adams, Lewiston, district vice president, met with the group to present work plans and discuss yearly projects.

Officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Willard Bowen, Julia-etta, president, Mrs. E. C. Cuddul * * etta, president; Mrs. F. C. Cuddy, Kendrick, vice president; Mrs. Rollin Armitage, Southwick, promotional and recording secretary; Mrs. Wm. Lublow, Juliaetta, treasurer.

The major project of the local unit is to support Mr. Haag's work with the Idaho Narcotics and Alcohol Education Foundation.

Nazarene Church Activities

The Nazarene World Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Pederson on Thursday for a work day. Mrs. Pederson and Mrs Lester Rhodes were hostesses.

Attending the Junior High Camp at Pinelow camp grounds this week is Steven Pea. Rev. Perry Winkle is serving as a group leader.
