HALLOWE'EN QUIET

Hallowe'en in Kendrick was one of the quietest in many years, due in part, no doubt, to the UNICEF collections and church parties.

Some garbage cans were tipped over, used tires scattered, etc., but on the whole no damage was done. Many windows were soaped and waxed — but most of them needed washing, anyway! Trick-or-Treat'ers were out in droves - apparently in carload lots, and also apparently supervised by
