REFRESHING RING

Smart cooks will discover the flavor secret of this shimmering ring of fruit; the juicy mandarin orange sections in the topping and plump banana slices in the gelatin match the delicate orange-banana flavor of the gelatin. Crunchy chopped pecans and a spicing of slivered ginger add to the distinctive taste. Try this molded dessert for a refreshing ending to your next roast beef or chicken dinner.

MOLDED FRUIT CAROUSEL

2 packages (3 oz. each) Jell-O Orange-Banana Gelatin 2 cups boiling water 1 can (11 oz.) mandarin orange sections

1/2 cup coarsely chopped pecans 2 bananas,ced 1 cup heavy cream 2 tablespoons slivered candied

ginger (optional) 11/3 cups (about) cold water

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Drain orange sections, measuring syrup. Add water to syrup to make 2 cups; add to gelatin. Chill gelatin until thickened. Then fold in nuts and banamas. Pour into 11/2-quart mold. Chill until firm-at least 3 hours. Chop the orange sections, setting aside several sections to use as garnish. Whip cream; fold in chopped oranges and ginger. Chill. To serve, unmold ring. Place whipped cream mixture in center and garnish with reserved orange sections. Makes 8 servings.
