Having had their relatives car to use they were able to travel some 5,000 miles, to take pictures and sight-see in Austria, Italy, Switzerland, France, Holland, Belgium and West Germany. Mr. and Mrs. Muscat received permits to visit East Germany but were not allowed to leave the tour bus while inside the Communist country.

When ready to return home they were able to obtain passage on a Canadian airline. It took them into New York, Toronto and Winnipeg, where they hired a car to come on to North Dakota, where they had left their own car.

The Muscats reported some 100,000 people from all over the world stranded because of the air lines strike, at Kennedy airport in New York, trying to get planes to their destinations. The travelers were lucky indeed to obtain connections on the Canadian airline for their return to the U.S.A. and home.
