75th Anniversary Happy One
 Sunday was a happy day in Cameron, when the 75th Anniversary of the church was observed.

The church was filled for morning services conducted by Pastor Cray of Seattle. Friends came from Pullman, Moscow, Lewiston, Gifford, Juliaetta and Kendrick. A pot-luck dinner followed the services, served in the Social Room. Pictures were taken by Vern Choate of the morning congregation.

In the afternoon Pastor Sherwin Schmidt conducted the services. Special music was furnished by the choir; Mrs. Jack Lohman sang two solos, and an organ solo was played by Mrs. Oscar Slind. After the afternoon program refreshments were served in the social room. The picture display from years back to the present time was quite an attraction for everyone. Mrs. James Whittinger had charge of the arrangements. It was truly a happy day for all.
