Brownies To Go Skating

The Brownie Troop will go on a roller skating party on Saturday, April 29, at Skateland in Lewiston. The girls made $14.40 on the Cookie Sale project and this will help to defray expenses for the party.

Birthday Party

Delta Heath celebrated her 11th birthday anniversary at a party in the home of her father, Eugene Heath at Cherrylanes, Saturday afternoon. The young people were taken to the farm home on a load of hay, which was a high-light of the afternoon. Those going besides the honoree, were Cindy Fey, Mike and Diane Dammarell, Ronnie Whittum, Louise Meyer, Sally Muscat, Jill Sherman, Bill Thomas, and Joe, Roberta and Jayne Heath.

Jack Browning says that the present equipment "just couldn't keep up with orders," so the expansion was necessary.

Two To Hospitals

Mrs. Floyd Miller was taken by the J.-K. Ambulance to the Gritman Hospital Monday evening, apparently after suffering a heart attack. Bruce Sherman and Ervin Mabbott answered the call. No word has been received as to her condition.

Wednesday evening of last week the J.-K. Ambulance took Mrs. Ed. Galloway to the Gritman Memorial Hospital at Moscow, suffering with a broken hip, following a fall. She is reported as doing nicely.

Festivities began with an Idaho Products dinner under the direction of Mrs. Roy Glenn, Home Ec. chairman.

The program was as follows:

Presentation of the flag by the local Girl Scout Troop, supervised by Mrs. Fred Arnett. Those taking part were Jill Sherman, Sally Muscat and Delta Heath, Juliaetta; Colleen Candler and Cindy Fey, Kendrick. Others attending were Evelyn Arnett, Barbara Brown, Linda Kimbley, Lisa McIntire, Judy Osborn and Karen Ingle, all of Kendrick, and Ruth Ann Hutcheson, Juliaetta.

The "Red Carpet" welcome given by Aileen Johnson, Grange Master, especially honoring the members of the Hill & Valley Garden Club who, with their husbands, were invited guests.

Also presented was a "Centennial Candle lighting" ceremony, which in-cluded a tribute to youth and a tribute to the 25-year members. Twenty-five Year Certificates were awarded to: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benscoter, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Blewett, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Corkill, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Deobald, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Kent and Mrs. Herman Johnson.

Quarterly Conference

Sunday, April 23, following coffee and sandwiches, the members of the Methodist Churches of Leland, Kendrick and Juliaetta combined and met at the Juliaetta Church for a report of the nominating committee to elect officers, Lay leaders and commission members and Pastoral Relations. Rev. Ritchey was present to conduct the meeting.

Take Part In Race

Darrell Manfull and Kenny Gruell, the latter of Lewiston, participated in the raft race down the Potlatch River, Sunday. They won fifth place and Darrell said he heard many people say they hoped it would be an annual affair.

CLUB NOTES - The Boulder Creek Club met Thursday with Mrs. Helen McKinney, Seven members and two children were present. After a pot-luck luncheon a report was heard from Mrs. Hattie Hamilton and Mrs. Jody Smith on the North Idaho District Extension Homemakers Council Meeting at Moscow. The next meet-ing will be with Mrs. Smith, with members working on two lap robes to be given to the County Agent for presentation to an area nursing home.

The Busy Beavers 4-H Club met with the Thompsons, Saturday, with all members present. A program for the coming year was discussed and members watched the First Aid and Safety program presented on TV for 4-H Club members. The series will be re-broadcast Saturday afternoon on channel 2. WEATHER — Area residents awoke Friday morning to 7 inches of new snow. It was wet and warm, however, and the wind helped to clear most of it away by Saturday evening. MUMPS AGAIN — Two people are still on the mumps list. Mrs. Mickey Baumgartner has been unable to return to work, and expects to be down several more days. Jerry Smith was ill most of last week and Friday morning got up with "gopher cheeks." Since almost everyone in Park has now had them, the epidemic should end soon
