JULIAETTA DOINGS IN PAST WEEK

MRS. WM. LUBLOW
Phone 276-3506

Evening Circle To Meet

The Evening Circle of the Juliaetta Methodist Church will meet on Tuesday evening, September 19 at 7:30, at the home of Mrs. Darrell Manfull. A Bible study will be led by Mrs. Earl Loomis, chairman.

Mary Etta Ottosen Honored

The second monthly Potluck of the Womens Society of the Methodist Church was held Monday evening, September 11. The program, "This Is Your Life," depicted the life of Mary Etta Ottosen, whose 89th birthday fell at this time. She was honored as her son presented a beautiful Orchid Corsage and the members of her family related incidents from her life which were taped and recorded for her. The little stories and events were interesting and humorous, and were enjoyed by the 75 guests present.

The choir sang several selections as Mrs. Ottosen requested them. Mrs. Raleigh Albright was in charge of the program and did a fine job keeping events moving.

The family of Mrs. Ottosen served ice cream and angel food cake after the program.

A Birthday Anniversary

Thursday the Nazarene World Missionary Society was held at Gertrude Pederson's home. There were eight ladies present.

After the business meeting a card and handkerchief shower was held for Mrs. Verlin Benjamin. Cake and punch were served and everyone helped Marilyn celebrate her birthday anniversary. Mrs. Lude Groseclose made and decorated the cake.

In Hospital

Vada McAlister was taken to the Gritman Hospital in Moscow Tuesday night, September 5, following a stroke.

BANKER RETIRES

Lester D. Crocker, for many years assistant cashier at the Farmers Bank and for the past three years assistant manager of the First Security Bank of Kendrick, retired from his position on September 1st, his 68th birthday anniversary. Mr. Crocker was born in Kendrick and has lived here most of his life. He began his career in banking soon after graduating from high school and business university, but gave it up for several years to work at other professions. He carried mail on a rural route out of Kendrick for several years before 1926 when he went to Wallace, Idaho to work in the Wallace Bank and Trust Company. He returned to Kendrick and went to work for the Kendrick State Bank in 1934. When it was purchased by the Farmers Bank in 1939, he transferred also and had been with them since that time.

Mr. Crocker is looking forward to enjoying his many hobbies - fishing, hunting and camping besides having more time to devote to "gun-smithing", which hobby he inherited from his late father, Frank D. Crocker.

A "retirement dinner" was given in his honor on Wednesday evening, August 30th at the home of Bank Manager James Hoogland Jr. and Mrs. Hoogland when the bank staff gathered on the Hoogland's lawn to wish Lester a "happy retirement". Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Crocker and granddaughters, Pat and Debbie Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Kanikkeberg, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Eldridge, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mielke, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Flores, Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Dammarell of Moscow, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. James Hoogland and children Sheven and Jill. Mr. Crocker was presented with a gift by the bank employees.

25 YEAR AWARD

Mrs. Lester Crocker was also given recognition at the "retirement dinner" honoring her husband. In this recognition she became the 98th active member of the First Security Twenty-five Year Service Club in a letter from the company we quote: "We are grateful for the strength that you have added to our performance and on this anniversary of your employment express our sincere thanks for your years of faithful service."

She was presented an anniversary check in appreciation.

ANNUAL HORSE SHOW TO BE HELD

The Latah County Second Annual Horse Show and Gymkhana will be held this year at the Latah County Fair. Prizes will be awarded at the parade for the best commercial entry, most impressive entry, novelty and horseback prizes for the best mounted group, best matched pair and best individual rider.

Entries are invited. Participants are to be in line at 9 a. m. after contacting the parade official and giving needed information. The Gymkhana will begin at 10:30 a. m. Betty Nagle is parade chairman. Call her at Moscow at 882-2211 during day hours or evenings at Potlatch, TR5-4833.

BIRTHDAY PARTY HELD FOR LOCALS

Dick Blewett and Lester Wallace were given a surprise birthday party at the Wallace home on Saturday evening. Those present besides the honorees and their wives were Mr. and Mrs. Randy Wallace and children of Lewiston, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Fey, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Cor-kill, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wright and Margaret, Mrs. Bill Riley, Mrs. Bill Manwaring, and Everett Weeks. Cards were played.

Refreshments were served by the "surprisers."

NEW ARRIVALS

BROWNING
Mr. and Mrs. Gary Browning (nee Sally Glenn) Juliaetta, are re-joining over a baby daughter, Glynna Gayle, born to them at Tri-State Hospital, Clarkston, on Thursday, September 7. The little miss weighs in at 6 lbs. 13 ozs. and joins a brother.

PALOMA PETERS BECOMES BRIDE OF REX WICKS IN CHURCH CEREMONY AUGUST 12

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Marshall Wicks honeymooned at Wallowa Lake Lodge and since have been at home at 1109 1/2 12th avenue, Lewiston.

The bride, Paloma Louise Peters, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Peters of Juliaetta. Mr. Wicks is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Wicks of Kooskia.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. E. Richard Boyd, August 12th at the Lewiston First Methodist Church, in a setting of lighted tapers and baskets of lavender and white gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an "A" Line gown. It was designed with fitted lace bodice and sleeves, and a chiffon over satin skirt, with a detachable lace over satin train. The gown was made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Roy Heimgartner. Her shoulder length veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls.

She carried a bouquet of stephanotis, celtic, a gift from her parents.

Her Matron of honor, Mrs. Paul Huston of Caldwell, wore a floor length gown of lavender chiffon over satin, with matching bow head piece of tulle. In matching gowns and color were bridesmaids Leslie Greenlaw of San Antonio, Texas and Janet Nakamura of Payette. They all carried long stemmed lavender gladioli.

Dwight Wicks of Kooskia was best man for his brother. Ushers were Robert Wilson of Bremerton Washington, the bridegroom's cousin, and Howard Judd of Clarkston.

Also in the wedding party were candlelighters Lee Heimgartner and Dale Heimgartner of Juliaetta, the bride's cousins, flower girl, Susan Booth and ring bearer Gary Booth, both of Clarkston, niece and nephew of the bridegroom.

Miss Jane Tackler of Clarkston, the bride's cousin, sang "Our Love Affair" and "Because". Miss Patsy McDowell of Lewiston was organist.

Assisting at the church reception were Mrs. Roy Heimgartner of Juliaetta, the bride's aunt; Mrs. William Booth of Clarkston, Mrs. Gary Olson of Ontario, Oregon and Mrs. Loren Agee of Cheney, all sisters of the bridegroom, Mrs. John Wicks of Lewiston and Mrs. Gale Wicks of Kamiah, his sisters-in-law; the Misses Barbara Symmes of Reubens, Christy Magnuson of Kamiah and Mary Forsman of Lapwai.

The bridegroom attended Clearwater Valley High School and graduated from Lewis-Clark Normal School. He is now teaching at Orofino. The bride attended Kendrick High School, and attended the University of Idaho last year. She will be a senior at the Lewis-Clark Normal School in Lewiston.

The rehearsal dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Booth of Clarkston, for the families of the bride and groom and those of the wedding party.
