Julietta School Students Have Busy Schedules

Second Grade Happenings—

Second graders have been listening to their vocabulary words on the ear sets and tape recorder. Then they must pronounce them individually to the teacher.

Monday we colored a picture of Columbus' ship while the teacher read us poems about Columbus Day.

Third Grade Events—

This week the third grade is going to be studying Columbus. They are also going to be learning about Coral snakes, catfish, robins and so forth.

We are happy to report the following students received "A's" on their review spelling tests, Paula Means, Tracy Baxley, Glna Whitinger, Jeri Jordan, Larry Gillispie, Keith Ingie, Cindy Boe, Grady Shaver and Ronda Conway.

Fourth Grade Topics

In a recent Science test on "Observing the Weather", the following received perfect scores: Lori Court-right, Annette Laws and Scott Lohman. In the same test the following received "A's": Charl Christensen, Ferris Cuddy, Duane Howerton, Bonnie Lawrence and Brenda Taylor.

Mrs. Callison attended the Teacher's Instructional Conference in Coeur d'Alene on Thursday. The children reported having had an enjoyable two days vacation. The traditional Columbus Day, Oct. 12, is being observed Tuesday with stories and events of Columbus' life being told and discussed.

Fifth Grade Doings—

Reluctantly the fifth graders are getting back to work after a nice 4-day weekend. They all had fun, but some seem to have had more fun than others. David Heppner was given a new mini-bike, and Denise Wolff, Cindy Bennett and Helen Fey had a friendly (but messy) prunes fight.

Before school was dismissed for the vacation, several major tests were given. Students who did exceptionally well on the tests included Duane Arnett, Kevin Harris, Jeff Lohman and Douglas Parks for the science test and Bobby Bain, Lori Benjamin, Cindy Bennett, Mike Brooks, Mike Court-right, Barbara Czomowski, Esther Harris, Jill Hoogland, Glenda Lohman, Maureen Parker and Tony Snyder all did very well on the math test.

Sixth Grade Gleanings—

The sixth grade has been watching the World Series on television and has been rooting and cheering. Gary Brammer's leg is getting better from the accident which occurred the week before last playing soccer when he collided with Tim Eichner.

Just recently the sixth grade received a letter from Mrs. Griffith their last year teacher who moved to Africa for a few years. In the letter she told of living in a hotel where she didn't have to cook or do dishes.

Workers from Washington Water Power Co. have been trimming and pruning the trees in front of the school grounds.

The sixth grade made a good joint effort last week in art and constructed a castle out of discarded styrofoam. The castle is complete with balcony, drawbridge and alligators.

This week we will be working with dry corn husks and seeds. With imagination we should come up with some interesting pieces of sculpture.

In store for next week—making fudge candy. The hardest part of that project will be waiting for it to get hard enough to eat.

Kent Ankney Promoted

Great Lakes, III (FTTNC) — Navy Petty Officer Third Class Kent C. Ankney, husband of the former Mrs. Fern I. Stevens of Julietta, Idaho, was advanced to his present rank upon graduation from the Machinist Mate school at the Naval Training Center at Great Lakes, III.

Kindergarten Discussed For Genesee District

Genesee—The Genesee school board received notice that they have been allocated one slot for a kindergarten teacher, to be hired under the Emergency Employment Act. Also present at the meeting were four mothers, asking about kindergarten for this year.

The mothers said they surveyed the district and approximately 30 students would be available.

The remaining factor as to whether we start the program or not is finding available space for the classroom, as the district has none available this year. Arrangements will be made to contact the board of directors of the Parochial School and find out the cost of renting a classroom. As soon as this information is available the board will meet with interested parents to work out the details of the program.

The board also heard the audit report for the year ending June 30, 1971 from district auditor Glen Utzman.

Superintendent Diehl and Principal Davis reported to the board on formation of a new policy manual to be finished by the start of the 1972 school year. Chairman Tom Boyd appointed members Hobben and Hampton to work with the administration in revising and developing a more complete policy manual than the district has now.

The board gave approval for the Title I program for the district for the current school year. The Title I funds will be used to hire a teacher's aid for one half day to help in the elementary grades with the big enrollments.

Title II funds were also approved by the board for library expenditures. The district will receive approximately $2000.00 in Title I funds and $300.00 in Title II funds.

Board members Hobben and Hampton will represent the board at the district II Trustees meeting in Twin Falls, Nov. 2, through the 6th.

Because of the state meeting in Twin Falls the regular meeting of the board for November will be the 15th instead of the 8th.

Fire Permits Still Needed Says Warden

Fire permits are still required until October 20th, reminds Fire Warden Richard Benjamin, and unless there is rain before that date, the fire season may have to be extended. Benjamin reported that his crews had made two runs this past week for fire that had been set and then burned out of control.

Before any fall burning is begun a fire permit must be obtained and extreme caution used. "It's drier out there than it looks," the warden said. "Please be careful."

Kendrick Kindergarten Opens October 18; Registration Is Oct. 14

Plans for the opening of the Kendrick - Julietta Kindergarten have progressed better than expected and Supt. Don Blakeley said this week that classes will commence Monday, October 18th at 8:35 a. m. and 12:45 p. m. depending upon whether the child registers for the morning or afternoon sessions.

Registration will be conducted at the Julietta Elementary School on Thursday, October 14th from 8:45 a. m. to 11:00 a. m. or from 1:00 p. m. to 3:30 p. m. Classes will be held in the Kendrick Methodist Church.

Parents should present a birth certificate and physical exam record by a medical doctor at the time of registration. All students must be five years of age on or before Oct. 15 in order to be eligible to attend kindergarten classes. Medical exam blanks are available at all doctor's offices or the Julietta elementary school.

Darrell Manfull will supervise all curriculum and Don Blakeley will have general overall supervision plus finance problems, records and organization.

Supt. Blakeley said parents who have questions relative to schedules, materials needed, insurance and other queries can have them all answered by the instructor Mrs. Benson at registration time.

The kindergarten operates independent of the 1971-72 school budget. The teacher's salary is $6,240 and is paid by the Federal government; however, administrators Manfull and Blakeley meet 10 percent of this total by their work on the program. This matching must be done where a district can not afford any aid.

Supplies, books, workbooks, equipment must be secured from parents whose children are in the kindergarten. The district feels that $25 per child is sufficient to get the job done for the entire year. A 9-month private kindergarten would cost up to $300 per year. Supt. Blakeley said that since the kindergarten needs this money to get started, it would greatly help if parents could pay all or part of the amount at registration time Thursday. If a parent absolutely can't pay, the child won't be turned away.

KHS Homecoming Activities Planned

This is homecoming weekend at Kendrick High School and students have been very busy planning many activities to celebrate the event.

Homecoming activities will begin Thursday night with a pep rally at the KHS ball field, preceded by a serpentine through the streets of Kendrick and Julietta. A large bonfire will be lighted at the rally and four finalists for Homecoming Queen will be announced at this time.

Homecoming night, Friday, Oct. 15, the Kendrick Tigers football team will play the Deary Mustangs. During half-time activities, the 1971 Homecoming Queen will be crowned. Following the game a dance will be held at the KHS gym. "Brother Love" from Spokane will provide the music for the occasion.

Pictures Delayed

Three photographs which were scheduled to return from the engravers in time for this week's issue failed to arrive, apparently because of the important Columbus Day observance decreed by the government.

As a result we are left short of type and very embarrassed toward the people we had promised the pictures. It was sometime over which we had no control and we are very sorry.

Genesee TV Cable Rebuilding Progresses

Genesee — Rebuilding of the Genesee T. V. cable system is almost complete. Some 4,000 feet of new aluminum-sheathed cable is yet to be hung and some small line-extender amplifiers must be added. After a period of adjustment and, perhaps, the addition of some regulating equipment at the antenna site, the new system will be complete. Channel 12 (University of Idaho TV) has been added and several FM audio stations will be included as soon as equipment can be adjusted to prevent interference with TV reception.

While, because of a complex antenna and filtering system, cable reception will be better than that of even the better-located antennas in town, customers should not expect perfect reception at all times; especially from the more distant stations. Weather conditions, cloud formations, and electrical and mechanical disturbances in the intervening space all contribute to interference. Occasional variation in picture, color or sound quality, due to local, station or network trouble, can be expected.

The company should be notified promptly if (1) you are experiencing poor reception on one or more stations and your near neighbors are also having trouble; (2) you are having trouble on all stations, although your neighbors are not. (3) You are having periodic, but regular interference of the same type. (This may be caused by distant stations, not normally received, "doubling-up" with local stations; but may also be caused by cable equipment trouble).

Because service employees are part-time and are also responsible for some more-vital services, such as restoring power, heat or water to other homes, there may be times when there is delay in restoring TV cable service. Night repairs will not be attempted, due to the difficulties attempted in darkness.

Lapwai Storms To 63-6 Win Over GHS Bulldogs

Genesee — Showing why they are ranked third in the state in the Idaho small school grid polls, the powerful Lapwai Wildcats tore the Genesee Bulldogs apart 63 to 6 Friday night to administer the worst defeat a Bulldog football team has suffered in 12 years.

Lapwai was held to just eight points in the first quarter, as they sent Rick Taylor around end for thirty yards and the first of many touchdowns. Barney Smith passed to Dan Wilson for a two-point conversion.

Genesee came up with their first and only score in the second quarter as quarterback Jerry Myers connected with his receiver, Ray Morscheck, on a screen pass covering thirty yards. The extra point try failed and that was all the scoring for the home team. Lapwai ran up three more touchdowns in the second quarter to lead 30-6 at the half. The Wildcats scored two more touchdowns in the third period and then added three more in the final period to round out their scoring.

Election Rule Changes

Election law revision by the 1970 legislative sessions included many changes in the law and two of the important ones are noted here—

34-807, Idaho Code, allowing electors to register for their spouses has been rescinded. To become a qualified voter now, each elector must personally sign the registration card.

34-1107, Idaho Code, was amended to specify the manner of voting by providing that the elector shall, after marking his ballot, hand it to the election judge who shall record his name in the poll book and then deposit the ballot in the proper box. (Presently the elector deposits his ballot in the ballot box).

Eighteen year olds and those who will be 18 before November 2nd who can meet the residency requirements may register to vote in the upcoming municipal elections.

Michael Martinez, City Clerk

Dessert-Bridge In C. Scharnhorst Home

Genesee — Mrs. Carl L. Scharnhorst and Mrs. Marvin Moser entertained at a dessert-bridge September 28 in the former's home. Five tables played, with prizes won by Mrs. Fred Morscheck, Mrs. Dale Becker, Mrs. Les Diehl, Mrs. Jay Nelson and Mrs. Raphael Linehan. Mrs. John Stout received the traveling prize.

CONSOLIDATED FUND DRIVE

Genesee—An organizational meeting to make plans for the 1971 Consolidated Fund Drive in Genesee was held Tuesday evening in the City Room. Mrs. Wm. Phar is chairman of this year's drive.

New Voter Registration Forms Being Sent Out

Moscow — At the last Idaho legislature a complete revision of election laws was adopted.

In connection with the 1970 election and the conversion to punch card voting in Latah County, all voters were advised of the anticipated revision. Those who voted will remember that they signed their names and address on a card before being issued a ballot.

Regardless of whether you voted or not, and due to the new laws, everyone must fill out a new registration three-part card. These were mailed out recently by County Clerk Kelly Cline. If you have received yours you are asked to complete and return all three copies.

If you do not receive one you may register by completing yours at the Clerk's office in the courthouse.

These have nothing to do with the City Elections to be held in November. City registrations are done at the City Hall in the various cities.

Tigers Top Huskies 18-6 For Fifth Win

The high-flying Kendrick Tigers rolled to their fifth win of the current football season last Wednesday afternoon as they staged a come-from-behind effort to upset the Highland Huskies at Craigmont. The victory brought the Tigers' league record to 4-1 and 5-1 overall for the season.

Both teams were scoreless in the first quarter, and then the Huskies sent Kerry Kennedy off tackle for 25 yards and the first touchdown of the game. The Tiger defense would not give up the conversion, and the Huskies were ahead 6-0. Five minutes later Tiger Dale Taylor took a hand off from Eddie Osborn and crossed the goal line from 2 yards out to tie the score at 6-6, which stayed until halftime.

In the second half, Taylor scored again for the Tigers in the third quarter, on a run of four yards, and then again in the final period of play on a run of five yards. Taylor picked up a total of 155 yards as he sparked the Tiger offense. Dave Hutcherson added 87 yards and Eddie Osborn contributed 88 more, which were added to Kendrick's 354 total yards gained as the Tigers ran 70 plays to Craigmont's 42 plays.

The Tiger defense was outstanding again with Taylor and Holt harassing the Huskies ball carriers and John Deobald making 12 unassisted tackles.

Burt Souders, Sr. Seriously Wounded In Hunting Accident

Burton Souders, Sr., 62, a retired restaurant owner, and a well-known and respected member of the Kendrick community was seriously injured Friday morning, October 8, when he was shot in the right shoulder while hunting elk. He was first taken to St. Maries Hospital, and then to St. Luke's Hospital in Spokane, Saturday. A report from their son, Burt, Jr., Tuesday morning, indicates that he is getting stronger and appears out of danger.

The incident occurred Friday morning at approximately 7:30 a. m. while he was hunting on Pinchot Ridge near Freezout Mt.

According to the story young Burt was able to piece together, his father was hunting on the ridge that morning with Stanley R. Steiner, 30, Spokane, when Steiner, who was apparently slightly behind and downhill from Burt, fired at something and the bullet from Steiner's .308 rifle hit Souders' right shoulder from the back, came out the front, and also tore into the right cheek. Young Burt said his father estimated the distance at less than 100 yards.

Steiner administered first aid and then left to find help. Souders was carried four miles through rough terrain and up a steep ridge to a place where an ambulance was waiting. It was almost 12 hours later when Souders was finally admitted to the St. Maries Hospital.

Young Burt said doctors are preparing to begin plastic surgery at the end of this week, and then will work on the shattered shoulder after that is finished. Burt is able to move the fingers on his injured arm, his son said, which is a good sign.

Burt is in Room 318 of St. Luke's Hospital, Spokane.

Traffic Delays Began Monday On U. S. 12

Lewiston — Resident Engineer Doug. McAtee of the Lewiston office of the Idaho Department of Highways said this week that motorists may encounter traffic delays on U. S. 12 highway between Lewiston and Orofino. The traffic hold-up will be approximately three miles east of Spalding at the site of the new Clearwater River bridge project at Arrow Junction.

The engineer said that every effort will be made to keep delays at a minimum. However, the traveling public may expect delays up to 30 minutes in length between 8:00 a. m. and 4:30 p. m., Monday through Friday, when the contractor's work crew is moving material from the steep cuts adjacent to the U. S. 12 highway onto the future roadway embankment. McAtee said that any emergency traffic will be moved through the work area immediately.

The new 1,248-foot bridge over the Clearwater River will link traffic moving from Lewiston toward Missoula via a portion of State 8, Highway 3 and U. S. 12. The $1,943,745 Federal Aid project was let to the Sletten Construction Co. of Great Falls, Mont., early in September.

Section 7: Said Sewer Revenue Bond Issue of not in excess of $150,000.00 shall consist of not more than One Hundred Fifty (150) coupon bonds of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, numbered from one (1) upward, consecutively, shall run for a period of thirty (30) years from their date of issue, which shall be the ultimate maturity of said bonds; the annual amortized principal maturities thereof, and the bond principal amounts which will be paid annually, shall be amortized and payable in accordance with the provisions of the Revenue Bond Act of the State of Idaho, whereby the first annual amortized bond principal payment thereof shall mature and be payable on the first annual installment date after date of issue, the annual installment date being January 1, and the various subsequent annual maturities shall, as nearly as practicable, be in such principal amounts as will, together with accruing interest on all outstanding bonds as such issue, be met and paid by approximate equal annual installments of combined principal and interest thereon during the thirty (30) year term for which said bonds shall bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding eight (8) percent per annum, which interest shall be payable annually on January 1, evidenced by interest coupons which shall be attached to each of said bonds, and said bonds, and interest coupons shall be payable at the place, or places, permitted by law and designated by this City Council prior to the issuance of said bonds.

Said bonds and interest coupons, if authorized at said special election, shall be issued against said revenues and said special fund or funds, to be created by subsequent ordinance and shall be a valid claim of the holder thereof only as against said revenue, and said special fund or funds (after first deducting the costs of operation and maintenance of said sewer system) and the money required to be paid therein, shall not constitute an indebtedness of the City of Juliaetta within the meaning of the constitution and laws of the State of Idaho.

Section 8: The earnings and revenues out of and from said sewer system shall be paid into a special fund, or funds, (hereinafter created by subsequent ordinance) until full payment of all said bonds, both principal and interest, after deducting the costs of operation and maintenance of said sewer system.

Section 9: In the event the bonds referred to herein are legally authorized to be issued, it is further covenanted and ordained as follows: That the City of Juliaetta, Idaho, shall not sell, lease, or in any manner dispose of said sewer system, or any substantial part or unit thereof, until the bonds with interest thereon shall be paid in full; that said City (until all of said Sewer Revenue Bonds and the interest thereon shall have been fully paid) shall not reduce the rates required by it for sewer service to consumers, so that the gross revenues of said sewer system shall be insufficient to pay for the retirement of the principal and interest of said bonds; that if at any time the gross revenues of said sewer system, or as hereafter bettered, extended, or improved, shall not be sufficient to pay the costs of operation and maintenance, and the charge thereon created in favor of the bonds referred to in this Ordinance, it, the City shall increase its said rates to such rates and amounts as will be sufficient to provide for the payment of all such costs of operation and maintenance of said sewer system, and of the sewer revenue bonds, referred to herein and interest thereon and other incidental costs and expenses permitted by statute; that, in order to preserve the priority of said special fund, or funds, the said City shall not create, or permit to be created, so long as any of said bonds shall be outstanding and unpaid, any indebtedness or charge whatsoever which shall be a charge against the revenues of said sewer system superior to the charges required for the retirement of these bonds and interest; and that any future charge which may be created by said City, or authorized by the qualified electors and made payable out of the revenues of said sewer system, shall constitute a charge and lien subject to the charge and lien thereon and to the duty of the City of Juliaetta with respect to said revenues.

Section 10: This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after the date of its passage, approval, and publication in one issue of the Kendrick Gazette, a newspaper printed and published in the City of Kendrick, Idaho, and of general circulation within the City of Juliaetta, Idaho, and being the official newspaper of said City. Bears — Their Management, Feeding

By Jack McNeel
 Regional Conservation Educator

The bear has probably had as much written about him as any other wild animal. These writings range from children's nursery rhymes to outdoor magazines to college research studies. The bear is characterized as a clown, as a friend, to all, as dangerous, and even as evil.

At times the bear will probably fit any characterization he might be given for certainly he is unpredictable. While normally he will run at the sight or smell of man, there are times when he won't and this very unpredictability has made bear stories famous around the campfire. When bears become familiar with man, such as the case of bears frequenting garbage dumps, they might even become disdainful to man. Yellowstone Park is a prime example of this type of bear problem, and experienced outdoorsmen who think nothing of rolling out a sleeping bag in a wilderness area might shudder at the thought of sleeping in a Yellowstone campground.

Several species of bears frequent N. America but only one is common south of the Canadian border. This is the black bear known to scientists as Ursus americanus. His larger cousin, the grizzly, Ursus horribilis, is also found south of Canada, but only in very restricted numbers. Grizzlies are seldom seen in Idaho and are given complete protection due to their rarity.

Black bears are found generally throughout Idaho. They come in various colors and this gives rise to the common belief that several different species exist. Actually, the cinnamon bear, blue bear, blond bear, and brown bear are all color phases of the black bear. The true brown bear is another cousin that is found only in the coastal areas of Alaska and northern British Columbia and is much larger than the brown-colored black bear of this region.

The black bear is a highly prized trophy in most portions of the United States. In Idaho he is slowly gaining this stature after many years of living with predator status for his occasional forays into a band of sheep or herd of cattle. The panhandle region supports the highest density of bears in Idaho and has had a portion of the year closed for hunting bears for many years. The southern counties of the state have traditionally had year-round seasons, but in recent years more hunting units have been closed to bear hunting during the summer months. This is evidence that the bear is gaining the game animal status that he deserves.

Several regulations have been established in recent years to help the bear, but more are needed to place the bear in the same category with elk and deer. The law states the limit is one bear per year, but the fact that a tag is not required makes this a regulation that is very difficult to enforce. Present law does not even require that hunters remove the animal from the woods after killing it. This must also be changed if the bear is to be accepted into "game animal society."

People frequently have an aversion to eating bear meat simply because it doesn't sound good. Virtually the entire carcass can be utilized and if handled properly is quite delectable. The hams from a young bear, for instance, are difficult to distinguish from pork ham when cured and smoked as pork would be. It has the same color, texture and flavor as pork and is just as good.

Some families will even go to the trouble of rendering out the lard for use in baking, feeling it is comparable to anything available at the supermarket. A surprisingly uniform white lard is easily obtained, to which the label bear grease seems entirely inappropriate.

The hunting of bear can take several forms. During the early spring portion of the hunt many hunters will use binoculars to glass the hillsides in search of a bear that's recently emerged from hibernation. They can often be seen tearing apart an old log in search of insects. The hairs are often long in the spring and can make a beautiful trophy if the bear has not yet rubbed too badly. The meat is not so good, however, as one taken in the fall that is fat from feeding on berries and ready to go into hibernation.

Other hunters use dogs to run a bear and after it is cornered or treed they move in for the kill. This is the most effective way of taking a bear if a person has good dogs. There are many avid devotees of this type of hunting while others feel it isn't keeping with the regulations for other big game animals.

In the fall bears will often migrate uphill as the huckleberries ripen in the high country and fall off in the lower country. Glassing these high basins with binoculars can often be an effective way of locating Mr. Blackie. Many bears are killed by hunters in search of deer or elk who happen to stumble across a bear in the woods. Idaho's harvest of bears is calculated at about 3,000 yearly.

Springtime can be a trying time for conservation officers when the phone starts ringing with complaints of bears causing trouble. Many of these complaints center around bears tipping over garbage cans in search of food. Better and more frequent disposal of garbage would usually correct this problem. Sometimes the complaint is simply that a bear is "here" and the caller is frightened. Occasionally it is more serious when sheep or cattle are being frightened or killed. The officer will attend to the complaint as he thinks best. It may require nothing more than frightening the bear away with firecrackers; it may involve live trapping the bear and moving him back in to the hills away from the temptation, or it may require disposing of the bear.

Culvert type live traps are frequently used in the state. Six of them are in the panhandle region alone. In the northern counties the number of complaints and the amount of time spent servicing these complaints can be quite staggering. In 1968 some 87 complaints were received that required about 600 manhours to service. Usually the complaints come to an end by early July as berries begin to ripen and the bears move back into the woods. This year has been a bad one and complaints were still being received in mid-September, probably the result of a poor berry crop in the mountains.

The black bear, then, can be many things to many people. He may be a fairy-tale creature to a child, a source of work to a conservation officer, a threat to a sheepman, but above all he is a trophy animal—a game animal—to growing numbers of Idaho hunters, and deservedly so.

 Fishing seasons and regulations for the calendar year 1972 are being established today in Boise at the regular quarterly meeting of the Idaho Fish and Game Commission.

The new fishing regulations will not become effective until January 1, 1972. Meanwhile, the 1971 Idaho fishing regulations will remain in effect through December 31, 1971. General statewide trout season ends most places November 30, 1971, but many waters remain open in all regions. Check 1971 fishing regulations for details.

An army officer daily passed the quarters where the carrier pigeons were quartered. Each day he would notice the cheerful attitude of the attendant as he cleaned the cages. This young private was always whistling as he worked and the officer was so impressed that he stopped by one day and said, "Private, why are you so happy while cleaning the bird cages?" The young soldier replied, "It's a much lighter job, sir. I was transferred here from the horse cavalry!"

Notice: Unusual Attic Sale To Be Held at Ford Garage Oct. 30. Don't Miss It!!!

One day when Adam and Eve lived in The Garden, Adam became bored and told Eve he thought he would go down to a stream to fish. He worked developing a fishing outfit and when completed he told Eve not to worry and departed.

Time went by and Adam did not return. It became dark—no Adam. His supper was cooked—no Adam. Finally very late at night he arrived home. Eve reprimanded her husband as sometimes wives do when husbands come home late from fishing. Adam said very little back to Eve. He just ate his cold supper and went to bed. After he was sound asleep a very suspicious Eve crawled over beside Adam and counted his ribs.

"One-to-One."
A New Kind of Person-to-Person Service
that's just between the two of us.

Your telephone conversations are a very important part of your personal life. And, your telephone company provides a very personal service.

When you pick up your phone, your telephone company's function is to perform efficiently and in a manner satisfactory to you. Delays and other inconveniences result in a very personal kind of irritation. Failures are both human and mechanical. Some are avoidable, some are not. However, when they occur we become very sensitive to them and try to take the necessary steps to avoid their recurrence.

Ours is fundamentally a people-to-people business and our operating philosophy is designed to produce that kind of customer-company relationship. To emphasize this, we are introducing a "One-to-One" program. This program represents an attitude and determination to make our service to you more personal and more satisfactory.

We have an office at our district headquarters where you can write directly to me about any situation which you feel warrants my special attention; or request any information as to what we are doing to improve service to you. The "One-to-One" symbol reflects, above all, the implementation of quick response and positive action from our company to you.

I hope to receive your comments and reactions to these thoughts. And, when you see "One-to-One" in the future, it will remind you of the care and concern which we have at General Telephone. This care and concern is shared by everyone from the craftsman to the company president.

Sincerely,

Paul Brindley

Conservation Officers Use Road Checks

Lewiston — The Conservation officers of the Clearwater region are in a busy season with the opening of fall hunting seasons for big game, upland birds and steelhead season. The opening of the pheasant and waterfowl season only added to the species being under legal open season.

The Conservation officer is primarily responsible for enforcement of the fish and game rules and regulations under Idaho code, statutes and Commission orders.

The main efforts of enforcement are in field checking people while they are in pursuit of or returning from hunting and or fishing. Another method of checking is to set up a temporary check station and survey the results from a given area. When these stations are in operation, the officer is not only seeking to enforce the law, but to collect management data such as hunter success, number of people involved and the area where the participation took place. He will also record the number of residents and non-residents checked. These temporary stations operate until the traffic flow has been reduced or is non-existent.

In September of 1971, several of these stations were operated. A total of 21 vehicles were stopped; 29 people were checked for licenses, and nine forest grouse were checked. A total of 9 hours was spent on these temporary stations.

The management division also operates permanent check stations at a fixed point, such as Hollywood, Welpe, Kooskia and Lolo Summit. The stations operated by the conservation officers could be in operation on and along any roadway.

Job Placements Fall Off In Latah County

Moscow — Near completion of fall farm work resulted in fewer job placements being made by the Moscow office of the Idaho Department of Employment during the past week. Frank J. Hartstein of the Moscow office indicated that his office found employment for 14 workers during the week, compared with a total of 25 persons given job finding help during the previous week. A year ago this week, the office located employment for 16 workers. At the end of the week there were only 19 jobs still open, fewer than the 23 that were available a week ago.

Hartstein said that jobs were located for construction workers, farm tractor operators, cooks, waitresses, domestic workers and a warehouseman. He said that his office has job openings for a general office clerk, cooks, a printer, waitresses, and a carpenter helper. Fewer full time workers are available now than during the past several weeks. There are numerous students, both college and high school, who are available for part time jobs, and he urges employers with part time opportunities to contact his office.

The total number of workers seeking jobless pay continues to decline, as more workers return to work than those becoming idle. A total of 17 workers filed new claims for benefits during the past week, while 25 workers returned to employment, reducing the total number of persons receiving unemployment insurance from 151 to 143. A year ago there were only 101 persons throughout Latah county receiving such benefits. In the immediate Moscow area the number of persons currently receiving unemployment insurance is 86. A week ago the total was 90, and a year ago, 57.

In the Troy-Deary-Bovill area the figures are almost static, with 30 now; 28 a week ago, and 27 claimants a year ago. Eighteen checks are going into the Potlatch area compared with 21 last week and only 11 a year ago.

Hartstein predicted that the num-

Home Cookin' . .

Our recipes this week were handed in by Mrs. Janet Nail. Sugar cookies are always delicious and with fresh cranberries on the market, her cranberry recipes should be well received.

SUGAR COOKIES

(Large Batch)
2 cups sugar
1 cup shortening
3 eggs
4 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
7 cups flour
1 cup milk
1 tsp. vanilla
Cream sugar, shortening. Add eggs, vanilla, salt and baking powder. Stir well. Add flour, and milk alternately. Roll thin for crisp cookies, thick for soft cookies.
Bake 350 degrees, 5-10 minutes.

SALMON CAKES

1 can salmon
1/3 cup catsup
1/4 cup flour
1 egg
dash salt
1/8 teaspoon chili powder
Mix well. Form into little cakes like sausage. Cook over medium heat until done. Use plenty of bacon drippings to cook these in if possible.

BASIC CRANBERRY RELISH

Fresh cranberries are already on sale at the local food stores, so these recipes are not only timely, but will break the monotony of the same desserts we've been serving for the past few months.
4 medium oranges, seedless
2 lbs. cranberries
4 medium apples, peeled, cored
4 cups sugar
Peel yellow rind from oranges, discard white part. Put oranges, pulp and yellow rind, cranberries and apples thru food grinder. Add sugar and mix well. Cover and refrigerate or pour into glass jars, leaving 1/2-inch head space. Seal and freeze. Makes 4 pints.

CRANBERRY COFFEE CAKE

3 T butter
1/3 cup honey
3/4 cup basic cranberry relish
2 pkg. refrigerator biscuits.
Melt butter in tube pan. Add honey, relish. Mix well. Arrange biscuits on end around outer edge of pan. Bake at 425 degrees for 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 400 degrees and bake about 20-25 minutes until brown on top and inner edge. Let cake set for 5 minutes before turning out on plate. 8-10 servings.

ber of persons seeking jobless pay would continue to decline slightly for another few weeks, and then rise as weather conditions force curtailment of some employment.

THE FOG SEASON LIES AHEAD FOR DRIVERS

Spokane — Knowing the potential hazards of driving in fog — and how to avoid them — can be just as vital to a long and healthy life as remembering to fasten your seat belts, says the American Automobile Ass'n.

As the fog season approaches the primary rule is "Stay off the road unless the trip is absolutely necessary." But if the trip is an emergency and the fog not too thick, here are the recommendations:

When driving in daytime fog, which varies markedly in brightness, first test your headlights to see if they improve your ability to see. If the high beams cause glare, lower your beams.

When driving at night, always use your low beams. Any dark object on the road ahead is visible at the same distance as when high beams are used, and high beams may illuminate the fog and obscure objects.

Always move with the flow of traffic. If you feel the speed is too great, pull off the road for a snack or rest especially if conditions seem to be improving.

If the worst should happen and you have an accident, pull off the road as soon as possible. Set up warning flares several hundred feet

EYESIGHT AND HEARING PROBLEMS OF CHILDREN

Boise — Defective eyesight plagues one out of every five children in this country and one child in every 25 has hearing trouble. Either of these difficulties can seriously hamper a child's education or his social adjustment.

Defective vision can be easy to spot. The child may blink frequently, rub his eyes, squint, frown, or balk at doing work.

Hearing trouble also shows up in habits. The child may cock his head to one side, misunderstand or ignore instructions, speak too softly or too loudly, or act inattentive and restless — all because he or she cannot understand the sounds about them.

If there is reason to be concerned about a child's vision or hearing, the family physician should be consulted. After examination, the child may be referred to a physician who specializes in vision or hearing problems.

Wildlife continues to struggle for life on a man-polluted earth, according to the National Wildlife Federation. Habitat loss is reported to be the number one threat, followed by the chemical pollution of air, water and land. It really is a sobering thought to realize that last year another one million acres of wildlife habitat was eliminated and another million will be bulldozed in 1971.
