Sen. Jordan Retiring—

Dr. Glen Wegner To Seek U. S. Senate Seat In '72

Dr. Glen Wegner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wegner of Southwick, and a graduate of Kendrick schools, announced in Boise Monday that he will be a candidate on the Republican ticket for U. S. Senator from Idaho. He will be among four others who seek the seat held by Republican Senator Len Jordan, who said three months ago he would not run again when his term expires next year. Dr. Wegner, who holds degrees as a medical doctor and a lawyer, told a news conference in Boise he believes he can represent Idaho's "efforts to maintain the quality of life we now enjoy."

"I am concerned about Idaho's future," Wegner said in his statement. "All too frequently throughout this nation, I have seen the sad byproducts of such problems as overcrowded conditions, indiscriminate welfare policies and environmental ignorance."

"It would be tragic if problems like those were permitted to develop here. And they will develop—if we allow tomorrow to become reality without making plans for it today."

Wegner, 32, is a native son of the Kendrick-Southwick area. He attended and graduated from Kendrick high and was graduated from the College of Idaho, which he now serves as a member of the board of trustees.

He earned his medical degree from the University of Washington in Seattle and a law degree from American University in Washington, D. C.

In recent months he has served on the White House staff as an aide to Robert Finch, presidential counselor.

Wegners At Press Conference
Mr. and Mrs. Glen A. Wegner were weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Reg Wegner and family of Caldwell. While there, accompanied by Dr. Wegner's wife, Lynn, all attended the press conference at Boise where their son and brother, Dr. Glen Wegner, announced his candidacy for the U. S. Senate.

Tuesday evening Dr. and Mrs. Glen E. Wegner, Mr. and Mrs. Reg Wegner and Mr. and Mrs. Glen A. Wegner attended a dinner at the College of Idaho honoring retiring Senator and Mrs. Len Jordan.

This includes banks, post offices, and grocery stores. Schools will be dismissed shortly after 1:00 p. m. Wednesday afternoon of next week and the students will enjoy a long weekend until classes resume Monday, Nov. 29.

Some of the larger bills were: Zellerbach Paper Co., $740.00 for Juliaetta lunch trays; Nelson Sewing Center, $291.00 for budgeted sewing machines; $224.55 to cover purchase of high school library books; $150.00 expenses for Doyle Whittig to attend Pacific International Livestock Show Nov. 12 to 20; $1,238.04 for tires and batteries; $549.39 to cover District's share of Speech Therapists salary and travel; Ken's Stationery, $250.00 for Olympic Electric Typewriter which is being used for commercial classes. This is an N. D. E. A. purchase and the Federal Government pays half of this bill. Mr. Blakeley reported 22 students were attending kindergarten and all seemed enthused.

Dick Benjamin and Supt. Blakeley were authorized to attend a Trustee Workshop at Moscow, Nov. 12th dealing with needs assessments of the community.

Trustees indicated they would all attend the Region 2 Workshop at Moscow Wednesday, Nov. 17th that deals with school board policies. Supt. Blakeley will accompany them.

Basketball schedules for the season were examined and approved. The Supt. was given authority to price a commercial dryer and washer which will serve the athletic and all P. E. departments.

All members attended except Jack Parsley who was called to California by the serious illness of his brother.

Until December 1972—

George F. Brocke, Jr. Named To Idaho Legislature

George F. Brocke, Jr., has been named by Governor Cecil Andrus to fill the unexpired term of his father in the Idaho House of Representatives. Mr. Brocke was informed of his appointment by letter from the Governor's office Tuesday morning.

The legislative vacancy was created upon the death of George F. Brocke, Sr., who was the ranking Democrat in the House. His term expires at the end of next year.

Young Brocke was the unanimous choice of Legislative District 5 precinct chairmen to fill his father's term in the House. The meeting to recommend a replacement was called last Wednesday evening by Orville Snow, legislative district chairman. By law, three names had to be submitted to the governor, who would appoint one of the three. To meet this requirement, local Democrats added the names of Mrs. Donna Bray, chairman of the Latah County Democratic Central Committee, and Lester Clemm, a Troy farmer. Most Democrats had expressed confidence after the meeting that Gov. Andrus, himself a Democrat, would go along with the strong recommendation to appoint George, Jr.

The governor had to fill the vacancy within 15 days.

Brocke said later that he had agreed to assume the fill-in role before the precinct chairmen met. "But I have absolutely no intention of running for office in next year's election. I made that perfectly clear to the committee."

He also stated that, "I'll go to Boise to do my best for all the residents of Latah County. I'm not going down there just to fill a seat."

"Because of the elder Brocke's seniority, he had held many important legislative positions. These will not be passed on to the son."

Brocke, 41, is a lifelong resident of Kendrick and a graduate of Kendrick High School. He is president of Brocke and Sons, Inc., Seedsmen, with main offices here in Kendrick.

As top senior dairy showman she will receive a $6 cash award, and as top over-all dairy showman she will receive another $5, both presented by the Lewiston-Clarkston Dairymen's Ass'n. A trophy for the outstanding dairy project also is hers.

The recognition program attended by some 20 members, leaders and their families also included presentation of a county medal to Karen Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cook, Lenore, for conservation. David Kerby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle C. Kerby, Cherrylanes, received a keepsake paperweight to replace the rotating trophy he kept for exhibiting the champion steer carcass after the 1970 county fair.

Weather Remains Moderate, But Wet

The winter season draws closer with each passing day but the weather is still staying on the moderate side with temperatures remaining in the thirties and forties with only an occasional drop down to the freezing point or below.

While cold weather is staying away, the rain has not and showers, drizzle and fog have all been part of the weather picture with only brief periods of sunshine to brighten the week.

No really hard rains have fallen for the past seven days, except in small, isolated areas. Most of the moisture has come in the form of intermittent drizzles that fall from the overcast skies. Heavy fog settled over the region Friday of last week and made driving at night especially difficult in the higher elevations. Fog continued to be present this week, but it was patchy. A few isolated snow showers fell in the Genesee area Sunday night or early Monday morning, but not enough to really notice.

The wet weather has been enough to be a definite hindrance to farmers and loggers who are anxious to get as much work in as possible before the weather becomes severe. Many homeowners are still waiting for dry weather to finish lawn and garden work.

The awards are sponsored by the leaders council and were won by Debra Czmowski and Jeff Czmowski of Southwick and Bobby Parks of Kendrick.

One of the three top junior livestock judges, 13 years and younger, included Barbara Czmowski, who will receive a scholarship from the council to attend 4-H camp at Heyburn State Park in July.

PLAN CHANGES FOR SWEEPSTAKES GAMES

According to Federal Trade Commission orders we can soon look for some changes regarding sweepstakes games across the country. There will be fewer mailings because the companies holding such sweepstakes will be required to have prior consent of persons before their names can be used for a promotional purpose. In addition, all prizes of the value and type included must be awarded and the exact prizes, their retail value, number's of each and the numerical odds for winning each prize must be given, says Mrs. Ruth Spidahl, state home economics leaders of the University of Idaho. Misrepresentation of facts, she says, has been a complaint with most sweepstakes games and ambiguous statements such as "participants had a reasonable opportunity to win a prize" when actually the chances were one in 980,000; suggested "recipients" tickets were "selected" to participate when ac-

1971 Mercury Residues in Fish

During 1971 an additional 936 fish, 3 samples of aquatic organisms, 60 water samples and 17 sediment samples were collected by the Fish and Game Department from 75 Idaho areas. This was in addition to analysis of 160 fish initially made in 1970 from 18 separate areas in Idaho. Mercury analysis was done by Atomic Absorption at the Idaho Department of Health, Laboratories Division, in Boise. Summerization of the 1970 and 1971 data for 26 species of fish shows a wide variance of mercury levels between species from the same body of water. Ten species of fish sampled in American Falls Reservoir ranged from an average of 0.16 parts per million (p. p. m.) mercury to a high of 1.6 p. p. m. Species have been predominately fish diets, such as squawfish, brown trout, Kamloops, Dolly Varden and large (5-10 lb) rainbow and cutthroat trout contained higher mercury levels than fish eating primarily plankton or insects. Reservoir fish species contained higher mercury levels than the same species inhabiting streams draining into the reservoir. Although one-third of the water samples failed to show measurable counts of mercury, residues were found in fish from all of the 93 areas sampled in 1970 and 1971. This is not surprising since mercury is a common element and widespread geologically in soil and rock throughout Idaho. Fish from an isolated mountain lake totally unaffected by any man made activity contained 0.065 p. p. m. mercury residue. Point sources of mercury contamination were not identified by the survey. Of the 1,096 fish analyzed in 1970-71, 59 fish or 5.3 per cent exceeded the 0.50 p. p. m. mercury residue level set by the U. S. Food and Drug Administration as safe for human consumption. Over half of these were non-game species with the highest mercury content measured 1.70 p. p. m. in a squawfish. Areas in which significant numbers of fish showed levels above the FDA guideline of 0.50 p. p. m. were: American Falls Reservoir—perch (average 0.88 p. p. m.), chubs, and suckers (average 0.57 p. p. m.); Lake Walcott—chubs (average 0.61 p. p. m.); suckers from Jordan Creek in Owyhee County averaged just slightly above the 0.50 guideline level. Rainbow trout in Jordan, however, weighed only 0.23 p. p. m.

The ideal one-phone home.

It's got just one room. So, naturally it needs just one phone. Is that how you live? The answer is probably no and yes. No. You don't live in one room. Yes. You probably live with one phone. That means you're running to answer a lot of calls. And missing many. And also missing the privacy a bedroom or den extension gives (there's little private conversation possible in the one-phone home). Why put up with these inconveniences any longer?

Consider how much more you get with an extension. Twice the convenience. But not twice the cost. (Only a little more than the cost of your first phone.) And you can have your extension in a choice of colors and decorator styles to match any of the rooms in your house. Assuming of course, you have the rooms.

GENERAL TELEPHONE
SPECIAL OFFER. Before December 31 we'll install a residence extension phone without the normal installation charge. This does not apply to the modest, one-time premium charge on some special instruments.

It shall be the duty of every occupant of a mobile home park to give the owner thereof or his agent or employee access to any part of such mobile home park or its premises at reasonable times for the purpose of making repairs or alterations as are necessary to effect compliance with this Ordinance, or with any lawful regulations adopted thereunder, or with any lawful order issued pursuant to the provisions of this Ordinance.

SECTION 4. NOTICES, HEARINGS, AND ORDERS.

Whenever the Administrative Authority determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that there has been a violation of any provision of this Ordinance, or of any regulation adopted pursuant thereto, the City Clerk shall give notice of such alleged violation to the person to whom the permit was issued, as hereinafter provided:

- (1) Be in writing;
  - (2) Include a statement of the reasons for its issuance;
  - (3) Allow a reasonable time for the performance of any act it requires;
  - (4) Be served upon the owner or his agent as the case may require;
- Provided: That such notice or order shall be deemed to have been properly served upon such owner or agent when a copy thereof has been sent by registered mail to his last known address; or, when he has been served with such notice by any other method authorized or required by the laws of this State;

(5) Contain an outline or remedial action, which, if taken, will effect compliance with the provisions of this Ordinance and with regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

Any person affected by any notice which has been issued in connection with the enforcement of any provisions of this Ordinance, or of any regulation adopted pursuant thereto, may request and shall be granted a hearing on the matter before the Administrative Authority, provided, that such person shall file in the office of the City Clerk a written petition requesting such hearing and setting forth a brief statement of the grounds therefor within ten (10) days after the day the notice was served. The filing of the request for a hearing shall operate as a stay of the notice and of the suspension except in the case of an order issued under Section 4. Upon request of such petitioner, the Administrative Authority shall set a time and place for such hearing and shall give the petitioner written notice thereof. At such hearing, the petitioner shall be given an opportunity to be heard, and to show why such notice should be modified or withdrawn. The hearing shall be commenced not later than fifteen days after the day on which the petition was filed; provided: that upon application of the petitioner, the Administrative Authority may postpone the date of the hearing for a reasonable time beyond such fifteen day period when in his judgment the petitioner has submitted good and sufficient reasons for such postponement.

After such hearing, the Administrative Authority shall make findings as to compliance with the provisions of this Ordinance and regulations issued thereunder and shall issue an order in writing sustaining, modifying or withdrawing the notice which shall be served as provided in Section 4. Upon a failure to comply with any order sustaining or modifying a notice, the permit of the mobile home park affected by the order shall be revoked.

The proceedings at such a hearing, including the findings and decision of the Administrative Authority, and together with a copy of every notice and order related thereto shall be entered as a matter of public record in the office of the Administrative Authority, but the transcript of the proceedings need not be transcribed unless judicial review of the decision is sought as provided by this section. the Administrative Authority and without notice or hearing, issue an order requiring the existence of such an emergency and requiring that such action be taken as he may deem necessary to meet the emergency including the suspension of the permit. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Ordinance, such order shall be effective immediately, but upon petition to the Administrative Authority, shall be afforded a hearing as soon as possible. The provisions of Section 4 shall be applicable to such hearing and the order issued there after.

Independent mobile home spaces in existence on the effective date of this Ordinance which have a width or area less than the minimum prescribed above may continue to operate for a period not to exceed three (3) years from the effective date of this Ordinance provided that the Administrative Authority finds:

Upon such a finding the Administration Authority may order the City Clerk to issue a temporary permit pending such corrective action. Such temporary permit shall be in force only so long as the owner is undertaking action reasonably calculated to comply with such requirements.

An accessible, adequate, safe and potable supply of water shall be provided in each mobile home park. Where a public supply of water of satisfactory quantity, quality, and pressure is available, connection shall be made thereto and its supply used exclusively. CHEESE IS A BARGAIN

If you're looking for a bargain package of food say "cheese," advises Joanne Anderson, Latah Co. extension home economist of the U. of I. extension service.

Cheese is full of protein, vitamins and minerals. It has appealing taste, can be used in dozens of ways and ounce for ounce, is as economical as almost anything you can find in the market. Cheese is on a par with meat, poultry and fish in helping children grow and keeping adults fit. Convenience is right down its alley.

By itself, cheese is a gold mine of flavor, the agent said. It is also a flavor builder for scores of other dishes. You can add it successfully to many foods.

There is hardly any waste. You can eat every bite of most types. Half a pound served in a main dish such as spaghetti, fondue, or souffle provides enough protein for four people. Furthermore, if a chunk of cheese does get hard in the refrigerator it can be grated for tasty use in casseroles, open-faced sandwiches, or flavor for other baked products.

Perhaps you don't like one variety. Try another. There are hundreds of kinds—strong, mild, old, young, soft, hard, smelly and unsmelly. All are rich in food value.

$3.01 an acre buys you more wheat.

You spend a lot of time and money to work the soil, plant and fertilize the wheat, and maintain your equipment. You get a good year with near perfect weather for good growth. In fact, everything is right.

Except your herbicide.

So your fields end up looking like our picture: filled with too many weeds and not enough wheat. When all along you could be using a more effective, more selective, more profitable herbicide.

Like Buctril.

Buctril is more effective because it kills a broader range of broadleaf weeds. Including the six specific weeds that are the biggest problem for wheat farmers here in the Northwest. Which means you kill Tarweed and Gromwell and Henbit and Dogfennel and Crowfoot. What's more, you don't leave Purple Mustard or any of the mustard family around to rob your wheat of moisture and nutrients like one leading herbicide does.

Buctril is more selective because it doesn't get rid of the wheat while it's getting rid of the weeds. It won't damage the crops or carry over in the soil like another leading herbicide.

Which is what makes Buctril more profitable. Because it brings you a higher yield. A better grade. And more money. It's as simple as that.

All you do is apply Buctril post-emergence. The earlier the better after your crop has reached the 3-leaf stage. Then sit back and watch the wheat grow. Nice and healthy. Weed free.

What it adds up to is this: You only pay $3.01 an acre for Buctril. To get rid of all the broadleaf weeds. To be kind to all the wheat. To bring in a better grade. And to get up to 12 to 20 bushels more per acre. Which is a pretty good investment for the right herbicide.

Just as our Bronate is the perfect herbicide for winter and spring, Buctril is the perfect one for fall. Because there is no herbicide for fall use that is so effective and selective yet so inexpensive.

Buctril.

Upper Fishhook Natural Area Established

A 320-acre Research Natural area has been established in the St. Joe National Forest on Fishhook Creek, approximately 40 miles east of St. Maries, Idaho, according to Forest Supervisor Kenneth P. Norman.

"The Upper Fishhook Research Natural Area is an area of old-growth cedar," Norman explained, "in an area managed primarily for timber production and harvest. The Natural Area will be maintained in its natural condition as an ecological base, free from man's manipulations. In this age of environmental concern, we need such areas to aid our future land management.

Research Natural Areas are provided for research and observation on plant and animal communities that requirements of species, insect and disease impact, man's activities on soil and watershed and related phenomena.

Upper Fishhook Natural Area is about one-half mile north of Roundtop Work Center in the upper basin of the East Fork of Fishhook Creek. The only access into the area is by foot travel. No trails are maintained in the area.

"The Natural Area is not suitable for recreational developments and should not be because of its research value," Norman pointed out. "It is not accessible by developed roads. For those who wish to enjoy a similar plant community, the St. Joe National Forest set aside the Hobo Cedar Grove Botanical Area in February of 1969.

Pheasant Season Ends

Pheasant hunting ended November 14 in Idaho's Panhandle and Clearwater regions. In the Salmon and Upper Snake regions of eastern Idaho, the season closes November 23. From November 20 through the 23 the bag limits in Bingham, Blaine, and Pocatello counties will be four pheasants, one of which may be a hen. In the Western and Magic Valley regions, pheasant season ends December 5. The bag limit is four cocks except from November 27 through December 5 when the bag limit shall be four pheasants, one of which may be a hen.

Great minds discuss ideas, average minds discuss events, small minds discuss people.—Ohio State

"The Upper Fishhook Research Natural Area near Avery, Idaho, is the 94th Research Natural Area established by the Forest Service. They contain a total of 105,895 acres," Norman said.

Latah County Farms Now Number 768 Says U. S. Census Bureau

Latah County showed a total of 768 farms in the 1969 Census of Agriculture according to figures released by the U. S. Department of Commerce's Bureau of the Census.

In the last previous Census of Agriculture (1964) the number of farms reported in the county was 914. Of the county's total farms in 1969, 553 are reported as selling $2,500 or more of agricultural products in the year as compared with 553 in 1964.

The report also shows average farm size in the county was 509.0 acres and average value of these farms (land and buildings) was $131,542.

Other figures from the report are:
1. Value of all farm products sold in 1969 was $11,613,079; in 1964, $11,618,500.
2. Value of all crops sold in 1969, $9,199,690; in 1964, $9,850,030.
3. Value of all livestock, poultry, and their products sold in 1969, $2,245,419; in 1964, $1,706,943.

Reported for the first time is an agricultural census in information on the extent to which the corporate structure is being used by operators of farms from which agricultural products totaling $2,500 and over were sold. Including family farms using this type of business structure, 7 of the county's $2,500-and-over farms are incorporated.

Apple Tips

Here are some tips on buying and using apples from Esther Wilson, U. of Idaho extension nutrition specialist.

Choose firm, crisp, well-colored apples. Flavor depends on the stage of maturity when picked; immature apples lack color and are usually ill-flavored. Shriveling appearing apples may have been stored too long. Avoid cut or bruised or soft, mealy fleshed apples. Scald (irregularly shaped, brownish areas) doesn't affect eating quality.

All-purpose apples are Stayman, Jonathan and Winesap. Delicious, McIntosh and Golden Delicious are best eaten as fresh fruit. Tart or slightly acid varieties are used mostly for pies and applesauce; for example, Redflower, Gravenstein, Grimes Golden, Newtown or Winter Banana. Summer fleshed apples such as Rome Beauty are best for baking. Store only perfect apples. Use those with bruises or skin blemishes fairly soon. Ripen slightly under-ripe apples by storing at 60 to 70 degrees for not more than 2 weeks. Ripe apples will refrigerate about a week in the humidifier compartment or a moisture-resistant container or bag. Storage bags should have half-inch holes for ventilation.

Some Ducks Needs Special Preparation
Unwanted birds of several different species are called "neighbor ducks" by hunters—or their wives—who lack the culinary skills to prepare them properly for their own tables.

The Idaho Fish and Game Department lists the lonely coot, snipe, merganser and spoonbill as "neighbor ducks." Separate bag and possession limits have been established for coots, snipes and merganser (check regulations available at any license vendor).

Most objections to these species of waterfowl come from the belief that the flesh is strong and objectionable to human taste. A department spokesman said that these birds should be skinned, soaked in soda, and parboiled to remove grease. When rolled in flour, seasoned to taste and fried in deep fat, the result is a treat for gourmets. A little extra preparation pays off, and besides, it is unlawful to waste game

Job Opportunities Down In Latah County

Job opportunities and placements declined decidedly during the past week in the Moscow, Idaho area. Frank J. Hartstein, manager of the Moscow Office of the Idaho Department of Employment reported today that his office received only nine new job listings during the week compared with 14 during previous week, and 18 during the same period a year ago. Only five workers were placed on jobs during the week through his office, Hartstein continued. He said this compared with 10 placements made during the previous week. Twelve persons were given job finding help during the same week in 1970. At the end of the week, there were 16 jobs still open, the same as for the corresponding week end last year.

Hartstein reported that the number of persons seeking unemployment insurance benefits jumped from 163 last week to a current figure of 185. A year ago the total was 195. The same week a year ago brought 80 new claimants into the Moscow Employment office, and raised the total to 195 from 127 during that week. Thirty-eight persons filed new claims during the week, compared with 29 last week.

Padlock Reservoir Road

Sportsmen gained eight miles of public access road up the little Willow Creek drainage to Padlock Reservoir recently in a cooperative project with Washington and Payette counties, the Bureau of Land Management and the Department of Fish and Game all participating.

According to Vernon Rich, state federal aid coordinator for the Fish and Game Department, each cooperator paid one-fourth of actual fuel costs and the two counties furnished culverts and bridges and the department of Fish and Game and B. L. M. provided cattle-guards and fencing materials. The 2 counties will grade and maintain the road as needed. The Washington Co. Wildlife Club will sponsor and install through the County Waterways funds all ramps, docks, and sanitary facilities.
